4. Post title and No.—AGRICULTURAL MARKETING ECONOMIST. Rehabilitation of Agricultural Marketing (Chief Technical Adviser) (UGA/80/013).

Vacancy No.—AGO/AGS/936.
Duty station.—Kampala, Uganda.
Duration.—12 months extendible.

Background.—The primary economic task facing the Government is the rehabilitation of the economy of Uganda. Uganda's economy is essentially an agrarian one with more than 90 per cent of the population living in rural areas. Virtually all of Uganda's exports originate in the agricultural sector, as do substantial proportions of the inputs, food and tax revenues required for an overall economic and social development. The task of rehabilitating the economy is therefore substantially a matter of rehabilitating the agricultural sector. While plans are already underway for considerable investments and efforts into increasing agricultural production, the benefits of increased production can only be realized by simultaneous rehabilitation of agricultural marketing.

Immediate objectives.—The immediate objectives of this project is to provide assistance and direct support to the Ministry of Co-operative and Marketing in its task of rehabilitating agricultural marketing in Uganda. Operating from within the Ministry of Co-operative and Marketing, the project is to provide direct support and assistance in the formulation of marketing strategies and policies, beneficial to the rehabilitation and development of agriculture. This will include specifically the following:

(a) Formulating recommendations on the level of prices to be paid to farmers for selected commodities brought from them.
(b) Assisting the Ministry of Co-operatives in improving and maintaining the operations of marketing boards and co-operatives while fully utilizing available resources and infrastructure.
(c) Re-establishing and assisting in the operation of a decentralized market information system to provide data necessary for short-term national production plans, and long-term policies.
(d) Provide technical assistance and advice on agricultural marketing matters as may be required by other institutions and ministries.
(e) As one of the foremost objectives, continued training of officers of the Ministry of Co-operative and Marketing to ensure that there are sufficiently trained staff available to gradually take over the project's activities. To fully utilize project resources and institutions, training may also be provided for saff of other ministries and co-operatives engaged in agricultural marketing.

Duties.—The expert will be entrusted with the overall co-ordination of the project and will be particularly responsible to the UNDP/FAO for the implementation of the project's objectives. The expert will be on agro-economist with long experience in agricultural co-operative marketing, with good practical knowledge of empirical demand and marketing analyses. The incumbent should have worked in developing countries where he would have gathered experience in organizing co-operative marketing and marketing boards. In particular the incumbent will:

(a) Advise and assist in the development of national marketing boards and organization of agricultural marketing co-operatives for specific crops and particularly give attention to cash crops for export or for import substitution, specifically coffee, cotton, tea, tobacco and maize.
(b) Advise and assist in formulating price policies for selected commodities re-establishing and assisting in the operation of a decentralized market information system for co-operatives.
(c) Assist in formulation of short and long-term national plans and policies concerning agricultural co-operatives and marketing boards.
(d) Render assistance in the introduction of improved marketing practices in agricultural marketing co-operatives and marketing boards, such as quality control, standardization and grading.
(e) Provide training of officers of the Ministry of Co-operatives and Marketing, marketing boards and co-operatives and, with the help of local institution train also staff of other ministries engaged in agricultural marketing.
(f) Provide technical assistance and advice on agricultural marketing matters as may be required by other institutions and ministries.
(g) Assist in carrying out evaluation of the on-going programmes in the field of agricultural marketing co-operatives and marketing boards.

Qualifications.—University degree in agricultural economics.

Experience.—Minimum of seven years' experience in the development of marketting boards and marketing co-operatives—with experience in developing countries, especially Africa.

Languages.—Full working knowledge of English.

Emoluments.—Salaries and benefits are liberal, commensurate with the responsibilities of the post and in line with the depth and breadth of training and experience.

Candidates may be requested to provide satisfactory evidence of the educational qualifications shown in their application. Appointments to vacant positions may depend upon the candidate selected providing such evidence for inclusion in his/her official personnel file.

Applications (quoting Vacancy No.) to Manpower Placement Unit, AGOX, FAO, Via delle Terme di Caracalla, 00100 Rome, Italy.

Closing date.—15th October, 1981.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3006

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 32 OF 1981

Parties:

Kenya Engineering Workers' Union

and Bahati Construction & Steel Fabricators Ltd.

Issues in dispute:

1. General wage increase.
2. Minimum wages.
3. Effective date and duration.

1. The Kenya Engineering Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Bahati Construction & Steel Fabricators Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 20th August, 1981 and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 13th December, 1980 duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 25th May, 1981 together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The Respondents were incorporated in 1967 and are engaged in steel fabrication and in the manufacture of wheelbarrows. They are currently employing a workforce of 23 people, 15 being unionisable employees.

The Respondents recognized the Claimants either on 19th January, 1978 or 1979. The Claimants in their written submission stated that the recognition agreement was signed on 19th January, 1978 while the Respondents stated that it was signed on 19th January, 1979. The fact, however, remains that the Claimants forwarded their proposals on a collective agreement covering the Respondents' unionisable employees to the Respondents on 12th June, 1979. The Court cannot understand the reasons for this initial delay on the part of the Claimants but after that it is apparent from the background to the dispute that the Respondents were to be blamed more for the delays that followed before the matter reached the Industrial Court.

This is the first ever collective agreement that is being negotiated between the parties and the Court has to make an award on the issues in dispute keeping this one important fact in mind and then to relate it to the wages Guidelines that have been issued to the Court by the Vice-President and Minister for Finance.

During the hearing mention was made of a comparison of the Respondents with the firms that constitute the Minor Engineering Group. For the purposes of easy comparison the following figures emerge from the Claimants' demand and the Respondents' offer:

	Claimants' demand	Minor Eng. Group	Respondents' offer
	1-1-79	1-8-80	1-8-79
	Sh.	Sh.	Sh.
General labourer, Cleaners, Office messenger ..	550	467	500
Semi skilled worker ..	600	598	525
Machine operator ..	700	598	600
Ungraded artisan ..	750	598	600
Grade artisan TT G. 3 ..	900	739	740
Driver (car and light van)	900	598	600

At the outset the Court finds it illogical for the Claimants to demand the effective date to be 1st January, 1979 when they themselves forwarded their proposals on 12th June, 1979. If their proposals had been dealt with expeditiously since 12th June, 1979 the matter should have been resolved within three months if not two. The Court accordingly finds that in the circumstances of this dispute the effective date should be 1st August, 1979. On the question of duration although the Guidelines stipulate that the wages should not be revised earlier than two years and the Court has consistently awarded a duration period of two years in this dispute the circumstances are different because from the effective date awarded by the Court the two year period is already over. The Court accordingly awards the duration period of the collective agreement to be three years with effect from 1st August, 1979.

General wage increase

The Claimants' demand is for a 21 per cent wage increase each year with the Respondents' offer of 7½ per cent each year. The Claimants maintained that the Respondents did better business than the firms in the Minor Engineering Group and that the workers had had no compensation since 1978.

The Court asked the Respondents to submit the actual wages and salaries which they paid to their workers showing the wage progression of each one of them. This they have done. The Court had also the benefit of the DMPD report before it which the parties accepted to have given a reasonable analysis on the issues in dispute.

(i) After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court awards that the Respondents' unionisable employees should be awarded a wage increase of 10 per cent on their wages as at 31st July, 1979 with effect from 1st August, 1979.

(ii) The Court further awards that the Respondents should give another 10 per cent wage increase to their employees with effect from 1st August, 1980 on their wages as at 31st July, 1980.

(iii) Finally the Court awards that the Respondents should give another wage increase of 7.5 per cent to their employees with effect from 1st August, 1981 on their wages as at 31st July, 1981.

Minimum wages

The Court awards the following minimum wages for the various grades with effect from 1st August, 1981:

	Sh.
General labourer	500
Cleaners	500
Office messanger	500
Semi skilled worker	550
Machine operator	615
Ungraded artisan	615
Graded artisan TT G. 3	750
Driver (car and light van)	615

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 33 OF 1981

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food & Allied Workers

and Gailey & Roberts Ltd.

Issues in dispute:

1. Salaries and wages.

2. Leave travelling allowance.
3. Safari allowance.
4. Housing and house allowance.
5. Disturbance allowance.
6. Dismissal subsection VI and VIII.

1. The Kenya Union of Commercial Food & Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to the Claimants and Gailey & Roberts Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. When the parties appeared for hearing before the Court on 18th August, 1981 the Claimants' Secretary General informed the Court that as a result of talks he had had with the Respondents' chairman, Mr. Kamau, he got the impression that the matter could be settled by the parties at their own level. The Court accordingly adjourned the hearing to 19th August when it was expected that the Respondents would have consulted Mr. Kamau on Mr. Muhanji's statement. On 19th August after hearing Mr. Kamau and Mr. Muhanji the Court allowed them up to 3rd September to look into the dispute with a view to settling it at their own level.

On 3rd September the parties informed the Court that although they had not settled the dispute they had established their respective positions on the various issues with the result that the difference now was very narrow. The Court advised the parties at this stage to enlist the assistance of the Division of Manpower Planning and Development who had earlier on been asked by the Court to prepare an analysis of the parties' written submissions.

In the afternoon of the same day the parties informed the Court that they had now settled the dispute and requested the Court to make an award by consent.

AWARD

3. By the consent of the parties the Court awards as follows on the issues in dispute:

1. Salaries and wages

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3008

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT No. 110/81

RCA. 112/81

Parities:

Kenya Petroleum Oil Workers' Union

and

Joint Industrial Council of the Oil Industry (K)

(Member Oil Companies)

On 29th May, 1981 the Minister for Labour forwarded a collective bargaining agreement dated 30th April, 1980 between the above parties to the Industrial Court for the purpose of registration as required under sections 10 to 13 of the Trade Disputes Act. The Minister stated that on the basis of the analysis carried out on his behalf he found that the wage and other labour cost increases granted are largely within the specifications of the Guidelines. The Court received the Minister's letter on 19th June, 1981 along with the collective agreement.

However, prior to the above submission of the collective agreement by the Minister to the Industrial Court the chairman of the Refinery Workers' Representatives Committee had written to the Industrial Court "that they insisted the signing of the said agreement should still be withheld pending the outcome of the labour officials (Mombasa) on the grievances which were enlisted in the enclosed documents".

On 5th June, 1981 the Permanent Secretary for Labour wrote another letter to the Court on this matter in which he stated as follows:

"I also made further consultations with the Labour Commissioner who is in agreement with me that the registration of this agreement should proceed as normal since it was freely negotiated and agreed upon by the duly authorized representatives of the parties as provided for under their constitution and within the Trade Disputes (Amendment) Act 1971 relating to the registration of collective agreements. The objections raised against the registration of this agreement by some workers of the E.A. Oil Refineries Ltd. are actually geared towards the establishment of separate union within the oil industry which in our view would be tantamount to creation and promotion of craft unions contrary to the Government policy as contained in the provisions of the existing Industrial Relations Charter aimed at discouraging such unions. If this kind of petitions are encouraged we fear that it will create a dangerous precedent which will have leapfrogging effect on other industries thereby creating economic instability which the country can ill afford under the current economic depression.

Furthermore I feel that we should not let the majority of workers suffer cost of living hardships just because of a small group of employees who are bent on causing industrial instability in the country. I am informed that the issue appears to be somewhat political and in this respect we cannot allow politics to encroach on our collective agreements registration process. Hence as far as the Ministry is concerned the agreement should be considered for registration in accordance with the Minister's recommendations as contained in his letter ML/EPD/VCA/3/6(7) of 29th May, 1981 forwarding the agreement for your further necessary action."

The Court summoned the parties to appear on 19th June, 1981 for consideration of this matter. At this appearance Mr. J. Ochino, the Assistant General Secretary of the Union stated that only 15 out 280 unionisable employees of the Refineries were their members as due to political intervention they had all resigned from the union membership. He said that the Refineries workers were insisting on a separate trade union to cater for their interests but the Petroleum Union had offered them to either set up a Refineries branch or a Changamwe branch as they stated that the binding arrangement as it stood at present included the Refineries as part of the JIC of the oil industry of Kenya.

The oil industry spokesman submitted that the objections were purely an internal matter of the union. He pointed out that on 1st April, 1981 the Petroleum Union's General Secretary, Hon. Juma Boy MP, had written to the representatives of the Refineries employees inviting them to attend the JIC meeting which was scheduled for 6th April, 1981 in Nairobi. Mr. Boy told them that the meeting would discuss among other things their own proposals they had submitted to be considered and made contractual obligation between the Union and their employer. He added:

"Since it is you who understand better the nature of your company's structure and since you know very well the employees' desire on those proposals I appeal to you to co-operate and join hands with me during the negotiations as aforementioned so that both of us may turn the workers' dream into reality."

Mr. Sangale, the oil industry spokesman further stated that the Refineries' employees were about 17 per cent of the oil industry. He pleaded with the Court to register the agreement in full and that they would try to find out the root cause of this trouble.

Mr. Ochino then intimated to the Court that he would be prepared to accept the registration of the collective bargaining agreement provided that the clauses which affected the Refineries' employees should be kept pending for about a month. The Court then made the following order:

"The Court has decided to register the collective bargaining agreement only as far as it concerns the marketing companies of the oil industry. The provisions of the collective bargaining agreement as far as they relate to the Refinery employees are not registered and are deferred for six weeks in order to enable the Kenya Petroleum Oil Workers' Union to finalize the proposals they have made of either setting up a Refinery branch or a Changamwe branch of their union.

The Court would like to emphasize that this exercise should be carried out strictly within the existing industrial relations system as the Court will not allow any part or a group of workers to disturb the system which we have built so painstakingly in the country over the last sixteen years.

The Court owuld like to add that it has decided to take this step because it is the Court's duty to create conditions which would lead to harmonious relations between employers and workers without disrupting the production processes which are so very vital for the economic well being of the country.

The parties to report back on 24th July 1981."

On 24th July, 1981 the parties again appeared before the Court when Mr. Ochino explained that since the Court's ruling certain discussions had taken place and they had agreed on certain matters including that the Refineries employees should have their own branch but the difficulties arose when the workers insisted that the Refineries should get out of the JIC of the oil industry. Mr. Sangale strongly submitted that the agreement should be registered in toto and that the side issues could be tackled later.

In the meantime as a result of a high powered meeting held at Mombasa between the Refineries workers, Refineries Management and the Ministry of Labour representatives the following points were agreed upon. This meeting was attended among others by the Labour Commissioner himself:

"1. That the workers will individually sign check-off system forms with the view to rejoining the union.

2. Noting that the union constitution has been changed to provide for the establishment of a separate branch of Kenya Petroleum Oil Workers' Union at the E.A. Oil Refineries Ltd. it was agreed that the Ministry of Labour will pursue with both the national union officials and the Registrar of Trade Unions the establishment of the branch.

3. Once the branch has been registered the union and the Labour Ministry shall ensure that branch elections are held at the earliest opportunity.

4. The management noted the workers' statement to the effect that they (workers) will abide by the decision of the Industrial Court relating to the registration of collective agreement as it applies to the employees of E.A. Oil Refineries Mombasa."

The Court's powers are clearly laid down in section 12 (1) of the Trade Disputes Act which reads:

"12 (1) The Industrial Court shall not accept a collective agreement for registration unless the Court is satisfied that the agreement complies with all relevant directives and guidelines issued pursuant to section 14 (10).

(2) Subject to subsection (1) the Industrial Court may—

(a) accept a collective agreement for registration; or

(b) with the consent of all parties thereto, accept a collective agreement for registration with such amendments or modifications as the Court may consider necessary or desirable; or

(c) refuse to accept a collective agreement for registration and refer the agreement back to the parties thereto for further negotiation.

(3) In every case where the Minister objects to the registration of a collective agreement the Industrial Court shall, and in any other case the Court may, summon all the parties to the agreement to appear before the Court and hear every party so summoned or his representative."

The Minister for Labour has not objected to the registration of any part of this collective bargaining agreement and has on the contrary pressed for its registration in order to uphold the present system of industrial relations in the country.

The Court has gone out of its way while considering the registration of this collective agreement to give an opportunity to the Refineries workers for accommodating them despite the fact that the employees' representatives as such have no status either in law or in the field of industrial relations. The only recognized representatives of the workers are the registered officials of a trade union which is allowed to look after the interest of the workers in the various industries. In this case the proper union to look after the interest of the Refineries employees is the Kenya Petroleum Oil Workers' Union which union has entered into a collective agreement on their behalf although it is quite apparent that the bulk of the Refineries workers were not represented during the negotiations. In fact the 15 members of the Petroleum Union from the Refineries at the time of the negotiations sent only one representative.

In these circumstances the Refineries employees knowing fully well that they had little chance if any of establishing their own trade union are themselves to be blamed for resigning from the only legitimate trade union which has been registered and recognized to look after their interests. They did this mainly on political and personal grounds. This is most unfortunate. The proper course for them was to fight for their rights and press forward their grievances through and from within the Petroleum Union. As it is, now everybody has agreed that the Petroleum Union shall set up a branch at the E.A. Oil Refineries Ltd. This is a healthy step and will go a long way in future in enabling the Refineries employees to put forward their point of view on matters concerning their wages and salaries and other terms and conditions of employment. It may also involve in the future in reviewing and amending the set up of the JIC of the oil industry if that is necessary.

For the time being as the Court is satisfied that the workers have been granted increases which are within the wages Guidelines and in order to uphold the existing industrial relations system in the country the Court has no choice other than to register the aforesaid collective bargaining agreement in full. The Court accordingly registers the said agreement in full. It is up to the parties now to seek solutions which would satisfy the aspirations of the Refineries employees as the Court has been informed that a substantial number of the Refineries employees have rejoined the Petroleum Union and that the elections for the Refineries branch of the union are due to be conducted shortly by the Labour Office, Mombasa. In accordance with the agreement which the parties arrived at in the presence of the Labour Commissioner the Court has no doubt that the parties will be able to once again streamline and eradicate the problems that led to a serious rift between the Refineries employees and the JIC of the oil industry of Kenya. The Court must emphasize that it is up to the Petroleum Union to find ways and means of settling Refineries employees' various grievances.

Dated the 18th September, 1981.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3009

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Offices, Nairobi.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIB TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplements, etc.:

(1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are therefore submitted to the Government Printer directly.

(2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the Office of the Attorney-General.

(3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction into the National Assembly.

(4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of a foolscap sheet no matter how small the notice or Act, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain a minimum of alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

(i) Signatures must be clarified by means of rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signer in capital letters.

(ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.

(iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—

Kenya Gazette

"D.14. (1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 12 noon, on Tuesday of the week that publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

"(2) It will facilitate work at the Press if Permanent Secretaries will forward Gazette notices to the Government Printer when ready."

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
