GAZETTE NOTICE No. 1826

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 5 OF 1976

Parties:—

Kenya Local Government Workers Union
and
Thika Municipal Council

Issue in dispute:—

Wrongful dismissal of Joseph Kiburu (Clerk Grade I).

1 The Kenya Local Government Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Thika Municipal Council shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 20th February, 21st, 22nd, 23rd and 26th April, 1976. In addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions they also called the following witnesses:—

Claimants.—Stanley Ng'ang'a Gichau and D. Muraya Mwangi.

Respondents.—Geoffrey Karanja Munyua.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 26th November, 1975, duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 16th January, 1976, along with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

Joseph Kiburu started working for the Respondents in November, 1964, as a messenger and over the years through gradual promotion reached the classification of Clerk Grade I in the Town Treasurer's Department.

On 19th July, 1975, he was summarily dismissed by the Respondents and in the letter of termination it is alleged that on the evening of 13th January, 1975, he used Respondents typewriter, duplicating machine and papers without lawful permission. It was also stated in the letter of termination that an ad hoc committee was satisfied that he was the author of the defamatory circular titled: "A Tale of Ngoliba Town Council". In the same letter relevant resolutions of the finance, staff and general purposes committee were cited. Mr. Kiburu was alleged to have committed a gross misconduct for the aforesaid reasons.

The Court was told that his salary at the time of his summary dismissal was Sh. 1,620 per month.

The Claimants took up the matter on Mr. Kiburu's behalf and the dispute was reported to the Minister for Labour. The dispute was accepted and an investigator was appointed. The investigator stated that the dismissal of Mr. Kiburu was the result of the publication and distribution of the pamphlet entitled "A Tale of Ngoliba Town Council" and that a committee formed by the Respondents to look into the matter and determine the author of the pamphlet connected it with Mr. Kiburu. The investigator found that from all available evidence the Respondents would appear not to have proved beyond any reasonable doubt that Mr. Kiburu was the author of the article; therefore his dismissal was wrongful. He recommended that Mr. Kiburu be reinstated without any loss of salary or service benefits.

The Claimants accepted the above recommendation but the Respondents rejected it and the dispute is now before the Court.

The facts leading up to this dispute are that on 30th December, 1974, the Respondents at their full council meeting resolved that council officers should be granted all accumulated leave to take effect immediately. This decision was not very popular and certain officers resisted it.

Quite naturally Mr. Kiburu who is not only the Claimants branch secretary at Thika but is also their Central Province Chairman, was actively involved in this "leave" affair on behalf of the Claimants members.

At this stage the Court would like to say that the council's decision to involve itself in the matter of leave by its officers is most unusual as it is not a policy matter but purely an administrative affair. The Claimants criticized the Respondents for this and submitted that this step was prompted by politics in the area and that the Respondents were looking for means of getting rid of these officers when they were on leave.

No evidence was produced by the Claimants to support their above allegation and the Court does not therefore take it seriously. The Court, however, does find that for the councillors to involve themselves in purely administrative matters is strange indeed and there must have been some reason or motive behind such a move which however did not come to light during the hearing.

The next important step in this dispute is the appearance of a circular titled: "A Tale of Ngoliba Town Council". This document was seen in the morning of 14th January, 1975. It is a satire written in a humorous vein but anyone living in Thika would know immediately that it was an attack against the councillors on the question of sending certain officers on leave. In any case this appears to be the main content of this document.

The Court accepts the Respondents submission that this document was contemptuous and disrespectful particularly in the context of circumstances prevailing at the time in the Respondents undertaking.

This matter of the circular was reported to the police and the Court was told that thorough investigations were carried out by the police but no charge was brought against anyone. Then some two months after the circular appeared on 19th March, 1975, the finance, staff and general purposes committee (finance committee) considered the contents of the aforesaid document and decided to appoint an ad hoc committee to investigate who was/were the publishers of the pamphlet entitled: "A Tale of Ngoliba Town Council—Part I".

This ad hoc committee met on 4th April, 1975, and heard 15 witnesses including Mr. Kiburu and on 11th April made the following recommendation:—

"1. That Joseph Kiburu, Clerk Grade I, in the Town Treasurer's Department utilized council's typewriter and duplicating machine without permission or approval of the council or the Town Clerk or his head of department.

From the information given by Mr. Kiburu it is the ad hoc committee's conviction that Mr. Kiburu is the person who typed, duplicated and distributed the "Tale of Ngoliba Town Council—Part I" which was found circulated in council offices, Town Hall, on 14th January, 1975, the day following the night when Mr. Kiburu admitted having been left in the office after office hours and typed and duplicated Union documents.

The ad hoc committee was not convinced that he (Mr. Kiburu) did anything concerning the Union for the following reason:—

The document he claimed to have typed and duplicated on 13th January, 1975, after office hours was supposed to have been discussed at a meeting of the Union held at Nyahururu, on 28th December, 1974.

2. The ad hoc committee observed that the watchman on duty on 13th January, 1975, did not report on duty in time, a practice which should cease immediately."

The finance committee met on 15th July, 1975, and took the decision (which was later confirmed by the council) to cause a summary dismissal of Mr. Kiburu.

It is not denied that after the ad hoc committee had made its recommendations Mr. Kiburu was not called upon or given a chance to defend himself before a decision was taken to summarily dismiss him. The Respondents pleaded that the ad hoc committee gave him all the opportunity to defend himself but the Court feels that the ad hoc committee was not set up to determine the conduct of Mr. Kiburu, the committee was set up as stated above to find out the publisher of the "Tale of Ngoliba Town Council". So there was no question of Mr. Kiburu defending himself. In fact Mr. Kiburu was one of the 15 witnesses interviewed by the committee. Mr. Kiburu did not know at that time that he was required to defend himself on certain allegations.

The Court has no hesitation in finding under the circumstances that principles of natural justice were violated by the Respondents in that once the ad hoc committee had found that Mr. Kiburu was the publisher of the pamphlet and had used council materials for publishing it, he should have been invited to answer the charges preferred against him as a result of the recommendation of the ad hoc committee and given an opportunity to defend himself.

The Respondents having erred in violating the principles of natural justice were wrong in terminating Mr. Kiburu's services precipitately in the manner aforesaid.

Furthermore the Respondents action of dismissing Mr. Kiburu summarily was inconsistent with clause 25 (e) of the relevant terms and conditions of employment which reads as follows:—

"Where an officer admits to the Commission of an act of gross negligence, gross misconduct or insubordination or any act of omission that would justify summary dismissal without notice under the law relating to master and servant he may be summarily dismissed by the Town Clerk without notice."

The Court notes that at no time since this unfortunate affair started did Mr. Kiburu admit having anything to do with the pamphlet "A Tale of Ngoliba Town Council".

The Respondents have therefore committed a further irregularity in that their action was not in consonance with the terms and conditions of employment applicable to Mr. Kiburu.

After having heard the parties submissions supported by various documents and the evidence of their respective witnesses the Court is left in a great doubt as to who the author of "A Tale of Ngoliba Town Council" was and whether Mr. Kiburu published and distributed it. There is no direct evidence to connect Mr. Kiburu with this document although there is circumstantial evidence which casts great suspicion on Mr. Kiburu. The Court is not prepared to make a finding on mere suspicion.

The Respondents' witness G. Karanja Munyu did not impress the Court because on his own admission in evidence he accepted that he knew he did something wrong in giving the keys of the duplicating machine room to Mr. Kiburu. If he knew he was doing something wrong then why did he give the keys? Moreover he was not called or interviewed by the ad hoc committee.

The Claimants witnesses were not of any help to the Court either. The Court cannot accept the evidence of any of these three witnesses to be completely truthful and on which the Court can rely.

The Court has no doubt that if the author of the document "A Tale of Ngoliba Town Council" could be established with certainty and he was an employee of the Respondents and further that he had used the Respondents typewriter, stationery, duplicating machine and had circulated the same, he would indeed have committed a gross misconduct. But then again the Respondents would have to strictly comply with the terms and conditions of employment and principles of natural justice before taking any action against such a person.

In this case the Court does not find that Mr. Kiburu was the author of the said pamphlet "A Tale of Ngoliba Town Council" or that he published it on and with the Respondents materials or that he circulated it.

In any case the Respondents having violated the principles of natural justice and having acted contrary to clause 25 (e) of the terms and conditions of employment applicable to Mr. Kiburu, the Court finds after a careful consideration of all the submissions that Mr. Kiburu was wrongfully dismissed.

The Court is however, satisfied that Mr. Kiburu has not been victimized for any trade union activities, the sole reason for his termination was that the Respondents thought that he was the author, publisher and distributor of "A Tale of Ngoliba Town Council".

The Court has very carefully considered the question of reinstating Mr. Kiburu but has decided against it. The Court finds that an award of compensation for wrongful dismissal would be fair and just in this case.

The Court accordingly awards that Mr. Kiburu should be paid five months salary by way of compensation for having been wrongfully dismissed by the Respondents. He should also be paid his service benefits if any.

Given in Nairobi this 14th day of June, 1976.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 1829

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.
