GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3956

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 2 OF 1981

Parties:

Kenya Bakers and Confectioners Workers' Union and

Aurora Baking Co. (1975) Ltd.

Interpretation Application Ruling

THE Court announced its award on the issue of wages and housing allowance along with other items on 26th June, 1981 and awarded the following wage increases and house allowance:

"Wages:

The Court awards that all the Respondents' employees affected by this dispute should get a wage increase of Sh. 35 p.m. with effect from 1st July, 1979.

The Court further awards that with effect from 1st July, 1980, the workers should get another wage increase of Sh. 40.

House allowance:

The Court awards that the workers should be paid housing allowance of Sh. 55 p.m. with effect from 1st July, 1979 and that this housing allowance should be increased to Sh. 75 p.m. with effect from 1st July, 1980."

The parties have had considerable discussions on how to implement the Court award but were not able to agree with each party sticking to its own figures.

The parties are, however, agreed that the wages before the award were Sh. 350 p.m. with the Respondents claiming that they were consolidated. The fact, however, remains that the Respondents have conceded that with effect from 1st July, 1979, the basic wage was Sh. 350 and they have accepted to add the wage increase awarded by the Court, i.e. Sh. 35 on the consolidated wage Sh. 350 and have also agreed to give the house allowance of Sh. 55 p.m. as awarded by the Court making a monthly wage with house allowance of Sh. 440.

Then there is one month of June 1980, which has been affected by the new statutory minimums which came into effect that month. Here again the parties are in agreement that the total monthly wage is Sh. 510. This gives a basic wage of Sh. 455 and a house allowance of Sh. 55.

The parties however are not able to agree on the wage and house allowance with effect from 1st July, 1980. The Claimants demand that they are entitled to Sh. 510 plus Sh. 40 wage increase plus Sh. 75 house allowance making a total of Sh. 625 p.m. The Respondents maintained that the basic wage of Sh. 455 goes up by Sh. 40 making it Sh. 495 to which is to be added Sh. 75 house allowance awarded by the Court making a total of Sh. 570.

The Court has carefully considered the parties' submissions on this particular difference and finds that the Respondents' interpretation of the Court award is correct as what the Claimants are asking is that Sh. 75 house allowance should be added to Sh. 55 house allowance awarded by the Court for the previous year. The Court award on house allowance clearly reads that with effect from 1st July, 1980, house allowance should be increased to Sh. 75 and not that the workers should get additional Sh. 75 to the Sh. 55 awarded for the previous year.

The Court having ruled that the employers' interpretation is correct would also like to clarify that the Court award applies to all those workers who were in employment at the time the Court award was announced and who may have been dismissed subsequently. Regarding one employee whose services were terminated during the hearing of this dispute the Claimants have accepted that at this stage the Court award need not apply to him. It would of course depend on the outcome of the trade dispute that they have reported on his behalf.

Dated the 17th December, 1981.
