GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1313

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 14 OF 1976

Parties:—

Amalgamated Union of Kenya Metal Workers
and
Nairobi Tyre Retreaders Group

Issues in dispute:—

1. Wages.
2. Effective date and duration.

1. The Amalgamated Union of Kenya Metal Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Nairobi Tyre Retreaders Group shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 14th day of April, 1976, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 12th August, 1975, was received by the Court on 2nd February, 1976, along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner dated 27th January, 1976.

The parties entered into and signed a collective agreement on 10th February, 1975. Under this agreement job grades with minimum consolidated rates for each one of them were specified and in addition there is the following clause on wage increase:—

- "(i) Any employee in the service of an employer as at 1st December, 1974, shall be granted an increase of Sh. 35 with effect from the said 1st December, 1974.
- (ii) Any employee in the service of an employer as at 1st December, 1975, shall be granted an increase of Sh. 30 on 1st December, 1975."

The effective date of the said agreement is 1st December, 1974, and it is to remain in force for a period of 24 months. The Claimants forwarded the following wage demand to the Respondents' Chairman following the Presidential directive on 1st May, 1975:—

- "(a) A minimum of Sh. 400 p.m.
- (b) A 20 per cent flat increase to all unionizable employees who are earning more than the minimum of Sh. 400 p.m.
- (c) Effective date: 1st January, 1975, with a duration of 12 months."

The Claimants' demand did not elicit any favourable response from the Respondents and the Claimants reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour on 19th June, 1975. Conciliation proceedings were not fruitful either and although the Notification of Dispute Form "A" bears the date 12th August, 1975, the form was not received by the Court until 2nd February, 1976. The Claimants were very bitter about this delay. The Court has gone through the relevant file and has satisfied itself that there was no delay at the Ministry of Labour but the delay occurred because the Respondents' Chairman was out of the country and the form could not be signed by them until his return.

The Claimants have based their demand on the high cost of living but the Respondents have very strenuously resisted any variation to a current collective agreement between them. They stated that they were engaged in a competitive industry and although they were saddled with very high costs of raw materials used by them they had not increased their charges for their products. They produced all the relevant details in support of their contention on this point.

The Respondents strongly denied the Claimants' allegation that there had been no growth in employment in their firms because they had mechanized their businesses.

The Court notes that the Respondents' members are family businesses and are small manufacturing units using relatively labour intensive techniques and had in February, 1976, about 112 employees working for them.

The Court is satisfied that although the collective agreement was signed on 10th February, 1975, the negotiations had been concluded in December, 1974. This agreement therefore falls within those which were agreed to be revised at a tripartite meeting in April, 1975, between the Government, Central Organization of Trade Unions (K) and the Federation of Kenya Employers. Further in view of the fact that the parties had recorded a deadlock during conciliation as far back as 12th August, 1975, this dispute is to be considered in the light of the Guidelines prevailing at that time and not the ones which have been issued by the Minister for Finance in February this year.

In any case the Court is satisfied that in view of the developments that have taken place since the signing of the collective agreement between the parties particularly the new statutory minimum of Sh. 300 the rising cost of living and because the wages paid by the Respondents' members on average appear to be slightly on the lower side as compared to other firms in the motor trades industry the Court has decided to award the workers some increase in order to alleviate the hardship they are suffering due to the erosion of their wages.

Since the date when the collective agreement was signed on 10th February, 1975, effective from 1st December, 1974, the wage earners cost of living index has gone up by 27.7 per cent (excluding the effect of indirect taxes) up to March, 1976. The wage increases which have been paid under this agreement amount to 20 per cent for the two-year period in agreement. The workers are worse off by 7.7 per cent.

The Court has also been considerably influenced by the difficulties which have been put forward on behalf of the Respondents particularly the increase in the cost of the raw materials used by them. The Court is further satisfied that there has been no undue mechanization in the Respondents' undertakings other than which was absolutely essential for their efficient operations.

After a careful consideration of all the submissions the Court awards that the workers should be granted an additional wage increase of 5 per cent with effect from 1st May, 1976, on their wages as at 30th April, 1976. This increase shall be read into the current collective agreement which is due to expire on 30th November, 1976.

Given in Nairobi this 27th day of April, 1976.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1314

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 83 OF 1975

Parties:—

Kenya Game Hunting & Safari Workers' Union
and
Terry Irwin Professional Hunter

Issue in dispute:—

Wages for 48 days, transport from Sudan to Nairobi and meal allowance for 3 days in respect of Stephen Martin Chuma, Joseph A. Chillel and Kipkoech Kogo.

1. The Kenya Game Hunting & Safari Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Terry Irwin Professional Hunter shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 13th February and 29th March, 1976, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The Respondents also called T. E. Irwin as a witness.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 17th November, 1975, was received by the Court on 30th December along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The Claimants have brought this dispute on behalf of their aforesaid three members and are claiming wages to be paid to them for some 48 days during which they were in police custody in a town in Sudan from where they were subsequently released without having been tried in a court of law.

The Claimants maintain that these three employees should be deemed to have been working for the Respondents during these 48 days when they were in custody because they were arrested by the police in Sudan on a report made by an assistant hunter who had come from Zambia and was with the Respondents' safari. They maintain that the report was completely unfounded and malicious.

The Claimants further demand travelling charges in respect of each one of them from Sudan to Nairobi which they assessed at Sh. 500.

The rates of wages for the three employees concerned were as follows:—

Joseph Chilel, Cook, earning Sh. 16 per day.

Martin Chuma, Mess, Sh. 15 per day.

Kipkoech Kogo, Skinner, Sh. 16 per day.

The Respondents have strongly denied these claims and stated that during an earlier safari their clients had reported to them that they had lost some of the money with which they were travelling; again on a second safari with the same crew the clients again complained that their money was being stolen. These safaris were between 18th January, 1975 and 5th May, 1975, and although originating in Kenya, were mainly in Sudan.

The Respondents decided to wait till they finished the second safari before calling the police and searching the camp. One employee by the name of Chuma told T. E. Irwin who was the main hunter in charge of the safari that he was tired and that he wanted to return to Kenya. Just before Chuma boarded the plane his bag was searched and foreign currency was found rolled up in his sock. There was also a travellers cheque which had not been signed but which was the property of one of the previous clients. Chuma was taken to the police and was taken in custody for a day. Surprisingly he was then allowed to leave Sudan and he flew back to Kenya.

Subsequently the Respondents' camp was searched after the second safari and the police found in the possession of the three employees concerned the following amounts:—

"Stephen Chuma 1,000 Espana money

Joseph Chilel 250 Dollars

Kipkoech Kogo 300 Dollars."

They were detained for preliminary investigation on 6th April, 1975, and the police decided to forward their case to Juba on 26th April, 1975, for any further action. It should be noted that they were arrested at the Respondents' camp at Yambio which is some 300 miles away from Juba.

Irwin gave evidence on oath during the hearing and confirmed the Respondents' submissions and stated that he was very much worried about the three persons who were part of his crew recruited from Kenya and made several approaches to the Sudanese authorities to bring them to trial at an early date. As his representations had no effect he decided to report the matter to higher authorities after which he left for Kenya on urgent work. Before leaving for Kenya, however, he made arrangements by leaving a truck and a driver at the Juba Camp with sufficient food rations with instructions that when the three persons were released they were to come back to Kenya in that truck. He even informed the police authorities of these arrangements. The camp where he had left the truck was only a mile away from the police station.

Irwin further said that he had to refund all the stolen money to his clients which money was still lying with the Sudanese police and before leaving Sudan he had visited the three persons in jail and had told them about all the arrangements about their returning to Kenya. However, the three employees had decided to find their own way back to Kenya with the result that the truck which he had left at the Juba camp arrived in Kenya two weeks after their arrival.

Irwin also explained that in Nairobi he had a meeting for two days with the Claimants' general secretary and the three employees involved and on 22nd May, 1975, after a lengthy discussion in which he agreed to forego all the advances which he had made to these three employees prior to and during the safari he settled everything with the general secretary and the three employees. He stated that the following individual agreements in respect of these three employees had been worked out as a result of this meeting—

"Kipkoech Kogo	Sh.
93 days at Sh. 16 per day	1,488
less pre-safari advance Sh. 200
less advance on 20th May, 1975, Sh. 200 ...	400
	<hr/> 1,088

At your request for compromise the amount of Sh. 400 in other advances which he disputes has not been deducted.

Martin Chuma	Sh.
93 days at Sh. 15 per day	1,395
less pre-safari advance Sh. 200
less mid-safari advance Sh. 300
less advance on 20th May, 1975, Sh. 100 ...	600
	<hr/> 795

At your request for compromise the amount of Sh. 400 which he disputes has not been deducted.

Joseph Chilel	Sh.
93 days at Sh. 16 per day	1,488
less pre-safari advance Sh. 200
less mid-safari advance Sh. 100
less advance on 20th May, 1975, Sh. 200 ...	500
	<hr/> 988

Once again advances amounting to Sh. 400 which he disputes have not been deducted at your request."

Irwin also produced a report which he had received from the Sudanese authorities in respect of the arrest of these three employees.

The Court would like to record that after the first hearing on 13th February, 1976, both the parties were given an opportunity of calling their witnesses to give evidence on oath and while the Respondents called T. E. Irwin to give evidence the Claimants, while admitting that one of the persons involved was in Nairobi, did not call any witness. This has resulted in a situation where Irwin's evidence on oath stands uncontradicted and unchallenged because in cross examination which was very brief he was told that he was telling lies which he promptly denied. There was absolutely no cross examination on other relevant points.

The Court has carefully gone through the report of the police authorities in Sudan and is satisfied that these three persons spent some 48 days in police custody on substantial grounds of having committed theft. The fact that they were not brought to trial is a different matter and as they were engaged at daily rates and proper transport arrangements had been made by Irwin to bring them back to Kenya from Juba the Court finds that since these three employees did not do any work for the Respondents during the period in respect of which the claim is made they are not entitled to any payments in respect thereof.

The Court also cannot rule out the possibility that at all intents and purposes the matter was settled between the Claimants' general secretary, the three employees concerned and Irwin on 22nd May, 1975.

After careful consideration of all the submissions and the documents produced by the parties which included petty cash vouchers which had been signed by the three employees concerned the Court rejects the Claimants' demands.

Given in Nairobi this 23rd day of April, 1976.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 1315

THE TRADE MARKS ACT (Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
