GOVERNMENT NOTICE No 149

COMPETITIVE ENTRANCE EXAMINATION

ASIAN LOCAL CIVIL SERVICE

1 An examination on a competitive basis to select candidates for entrance to the Asian Local Civil Service will be held twice yearly on the last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of March and September unless otherwise notified in the Official Gazette

2 The examination will be held at Nairobi, Mombasa and such other centres as may be deemed advisable. Applications will be called for by means of a public notice in the Official Gazette

3 The examination will be restricted to candidates born and/or educated in the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya. Candidates must be not less than fifteen and not more than twenty-one years of age on the 1st of January of the year in which they sit for the examination

4 Candidates must furnish the following particulars which must reach the Director of Education at least a month before the examination for which they wish to sit —

- (a) Name in full (in block letters)
- (b) Nationality
- (c) Place and date of birth (original birth certificate to be furnished which will be returned after verification. If no birth certificate is available the candidates must produce an extract from the register of the school which he has attended, such extract to be endorsed by the Principal as proof of age)
- (d) Address (local)
- (e) Class of appointment desired
- (f) Schools in order, giving dates of entry and leaving
- (g) Standard of education attained at the time of leaving (original school Leaving Certificates to be furnished, which will be returned after inspection)

5 Candidates generally will be required to have passed the Cambridge Junior or equivalent examination. Candidates not holding the Junior Cambridge or equivalent examination may be allowed to sit when specially recommended by the school Principal and approved by the Director of Education

6 The general standard of the examination will approximate that of the Cambridge Junior Local Examination and the subjects for examination and marks to be allocated will be as follows —

	Marks
English (including Handwriting, Spelling Composition and Precise), 2 hours	200
Arithmetic (A syllabus in more detail will be compiled), 2 hours	100
General Knowledge, 1 hour	50
Oral Swahili	50
Typewriting (Speed, 25 words per minute), $\frac{1}{2}$ hour	50
Shorthand (Speed 60 words per minute), $\frac{1}{2}$ hour	50
	<hr/> 500

7 Candidates may take every subject listed. If one or more subjects are omitted the whole of the marks will, of course, be lost

8 A list of candidates at each examination will be issued by the Director of Education in order of merit. This list will show the marks gained in each subject. Heads of Departments will be supplied with lists (in which the candidates' addresses should be inserted) and will select therefrom candidates for any vacancies which may exist in their Departments

9 A candidate not appointed to Government service may enter for a subsequent competitive examination provided that his standard of work in the previous examination warrants the acceptance of his entry

POSTER COMPETITION

In order to obtain suitable designs of pictorial posters for overseas advertising purposes, the Administration, in collaboration with the Kenya Arts and Crafts Society, has decided to promote a poster competition open to any person resident in Kenya, Uganda, Tanganyika or Zanzibar

The subject of designs should be typical of Kenya and/or Uganda and may consist of scenic views or studies of the native or animal life of the two territories

No entrance fee is payable and competitors may submit as many designs of subjects relating to each territory, or to both, as they desire

Designs should provide for a poster 40" × 25", be of full size and contain at least four, but not more than seven, colours

Letterpress to be limited to a title to the picture and to the words "Kenya and Uganda Railways and Harbours" at either the head or foot of the poster

A prize of £20 will be awarded in respect of each of the two designs selected. Should designs not be of a standard justifying the selection of any for use as posters, the two prizes of £20 each will not be awarded. In such circumstances or in the case of one design only being selected a consolation prize of £5 will be offered in respect of the design considered by the judges to be the best or the next best as the case may be. Judging will be undertaken by a committee consisting of representatives of the Kenya Arts and Crafts Society and representatives of the Administration

Designs, in sealed covers marked "Poster Competition" and bearing the name and address of the artist on the back of each design, should be submitted to the General Manager, Kenya and Uganda Railways and Harbours, P O Box 121, Nairobi, to reach him not later than the 30th April, 1938
