THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 32 OF 1976

Parties:—

Kenya Engineering Workers' Union
and Nyali Limited

Issues in dispute:—

1. Wage increase.
2. Job classification.
3. Housing allowance.
4. Leave travelling allowance.

1. The Kenya Engineering Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Nyali Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Mombasa on the 19th day of August, 1976, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 21st January, 1976, was received by the Court on 28th May, 1976, along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The collective agreement which is in the process of revision was signed and took effect from 1st January, 1973, for a duration period of 24 months; the parties, however, during the life of this agreement entered into a supplementary agreement under which workers were granted a wage increase of Sh. 25 per month with effect from 1st July, 1974.

In March 1975 the Claimants forwarded their proposals for revising the above agreement. While the parties were exchanging correspondence H. E. the President announced wage increases on 1st May, 1975 and the Claimants promptly asked the Respondents for a general wage increase of 35 per cent for all employees in all categories.

The Claimants and the Respondents through the Federation of Kenya Employers exchanged further letters and held meetings in order to resolve the Claimants' demands and on 7th October, 1975 the Claimants reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour over the question of new terms and conditions of service. On further clarification it was established that the issues in dispute were as stated hereinabove. Conciliation proceedings failed and the matter is now before the Court.

An unusual feature of this dispute is that the parties have agreed on the effective date to be 1st January, 1975 and the Court was told that the duration period agreed is two years from that date.

During the course of the hearing the Respondents put forward a plea that the Court should make an award for three years but the Court would like to reject this demand at the outset as neither the effective date nor the duration is an issue in dispute. The Court would be exceeding its jurisdiction were it to entertain and make an award on an issue which is not specified in the Notification of Dispute Form "A".

The Claimants did not make any submissions on the issues of job classification as they rightly felt that that was a matter which could be reviewed outside the Court. So this leaves only three issues in dispute before the Court.

Up till now the Respondents' employees have been paid a consolidated monthly wage which includes an element for housing allowance and leave travelling allowance also.

The Claimants have demanded a wage increase of 20 per cent for the first 12 months effective from 1st January, 1975 and further 20 per cent for the second year on the ground that their members have not been compensated for the escalating cost of living since 1973. They also demanded that the workers should be paid a house allowance of Sh. 150 per month in addition to their wages and expressed a desire that they wanted to break up the consolidated wage.

In the same vein they have put forward a demand that the workers should be awarded a leave travelling allowance of Sh. 150 when they proceed on leave. This was because of the high cost of travel these days.

The Respondents have strongly resisted the Claimants' demands mainly on the ground that the future of the Nyali Bridge was uncertain following the Government decision to build a toll-free bridge very near to the Nyali Bridge. They expected that the new bridge would be ready within three years although despite all their efforts to get a clear indication from the Government as to their plans for the new bridge and, as to the future of the Nyali Bridge they had received no firm information. They expected that they would have to close down within three years. This would necessitate all their workers being declared redundant and they would be forced to pay redundancy benefits to them which they estimate to be within a region of Sh. 800,000 to one million.

The Respondents also drew the Court's attention to the fact that they could be forced if too high a wage award was made to retire their long service employees under the terms of the current collective agreement. If they were compelled to do that some of these employees may lose up to half of their benefits under the retirement option which the Respondents wished to avoid.

The Court does not accept the Claimants' plea that for the purposes of establishing an increase in the cost of living the starting date should be 1st January, 1973 because the workers received an increase of Sh. 25 per month effective from 1st January, 1974, and the Guidelines quite clearly state that for such purposes the relevant date is the date when the wages were last revised.

From 1st July, 1974 up to July 1976 the wage earners cost of living has gone up by 36.8 per cent and if the Court were to apply Guideline (iv) the overall wage increase should average about two thirds of the cost of living which in this case would be 24.5 per cent.

The Court, however, feels that after taking all the circumstances of the dispute into account the workers at least for the first year should get slightly more than stipulated in the latest Guidelines which came into force on 3rd March this year.

In view of the uncertainty regarding the future of the Nyali Bridge and the other reasons put forward by the Respondents in their written and verbal submissions the Court is not inclined to depart from the principle of a consolidated wage in this dispute. The whole enterprise is bound to wind up in the next few years.

The workers, however, are entitled to a wage increase. The Respondents have offered a 12½ per cent wage increase for the first year followed by a similar increase for the second year and a 10 per cent increase for the third year. As stated above the Court rules out their demands for a three year period award.

The parties currently have established four groups for ticket and control staff and four groups for general employees and have established a relative position of these groups.

After the Court had concluded the hearing the Respondents submitted to the Court supplementary submission on the dispute to which the Claimants objected. In view of the Claimant objection the Court has made its award on the submissions as made to the Court during the hearing of the dispute and has not been influenced by the Respondents' supplementary memorandum on which the Claimants had no opportunity to comment.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court awards that the workers should get a wage increase of 16 per cent with effect from 1st January, 1975 as agreed between the parties for the first year. The Court further awards that the workers should get an increase of 13 per cent for the second year.

Given in Nairobi this 23rd day of September, 1976.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 2956

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
