The King of Portugal has arrived in Paris and was met and welcomed by M. Loubet and his Ministers. The Port of Zanzibar is declared free of plague.

NOVEMBER 24TH.—There is considerable interest at the present moment among political circles in England owing to the strong hint given by both the Times and the Daily Telegraph to Mr. Balfour that he should in view of Mr. Chamberlain's attitude take an early opportunity of resigning thus forcing the Liberals to form a Government and dissolve after a brief meeting of Parliament.

The Hon'ble Sir Arthur Lawley Lieut.-Governor of Transvaal has been appointed Governor of Madras.

A Cabinet Meeting will be held to-day, and is rumoured that its result will be the first step towards resignation. The question of resignation is the absorbing topic among all the Liberal Newspapers they declare that Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman will refuse to form a Cabinet under the present circumstances and insist on a dissolution.

NOVEMBER 25TH.—Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman speaking at Stirling openly declared in favour of "Home Rule" for Ireland and said that his conviction in this direction was stronger than ever.

Yesterday's Cabinet lasted two hours and there are persistent reports that Lord Londonderry has already resigned.

It is understood that the Cabinet have decided not to resign.

It is stated that Government's decision not to resign is largely influenced by the knowledge that the Liberals will not accept office prior to a dissolution therefore while Parliament is not sitting they again defer the question of resignation or dissolution for a few weeks thus avoiding the necessity for an election at Christmas or a short lived interim Government.

Lord Londonderry denies the rumour with regard to his resignation.

Colonel Hayes Sadler Commissioner of Uganda has been appointed Commissioner for the East Africa Protectorate.

NOVEMBER 27TH.—Lord Rosebery speaking at Trura alluded indirectly but candidly to the divergences of opinion amongst the Liberal with regard to Home Rule but exhorted this to unite on all points where agreement is possible

There is a general consensus of opinion that the dissolution will take place early in January, but it is uncertain whether Government will resign in the meantime.

Reports from the Russian Provinces continue serious, risings amongst peasants occur in many country disturbances and strikes in the various towns.

At Dublin the New Zealanders beat Ireland by 15 points to nothing.

At Sevastopol a Regiment of troops mutinied and shot and seriously wounded Real Admiral Pesarevaki while he was addressing them and threatening to have mutineers shot. The mutineers have ordered the Chief Admiral to leave the port within 3 days, the Dockers have joined mutineers and there is serious rioting.

The International Fleet has sailed from the Piraeus with sealed orders.

M. Bourgeois does not intend to become a candidate for the Presidency of France, the chances therefore of the election of M. Tallieres are increased.

The King of Portugal has met with the most enthusiastic reception during the whole of his stay in Paris.

The Imperial Yacht Club of Kiel of which the Kaiser is President has challenged the Yacht Club of France for the Coupe de France. The challenged has been accepted.

Lord Rosebery speaking at Badmin on Saturday night stated that Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman in hoisting once more the "Home Rule" flag had impaired the unity of the Free Trade Party thus endangering victory at the elections. He added that he must declare once for all most emphatically and explicitly that he could not serve under that banner.

The most serious feature in the Sevastopol mutiny is the wholesale defection amongst the troops who apparently made common cause with the Mutineers. Only one regiment remains loyal, so far no excesses have been committed.

NOVEMBER 28TH.—The latest accounts from Sevastopol vary in details but seem to indicate that the mutiny there has subsided.

The International Fleet have arrived at Miteilne.

Thousands of Russian prisoners from Japan are arriving at Vladivostok. A mutinous crowd of them attacked the Officers Club yesterday killing and wounding four Officers. Cossacks had to be called in before order was restored.

The Hottentot Leader Isaac Witboi, 17 Chiefs and many followers have surrendered to the Germans.

The situation at Sevastopol is not at all clear, but the mutiny appears to be of a revolutionary character.

NOVEMBER 29TH.—The International Fleet have landed detachments of sailors and marines and seized the Custom House at Mitylene.

Mr. Austin Chamberlain speaking at Redditch said that as far as his experience went there had been no Government crisis neither there was any crisis in the party.

The Kaiser's speech on Monday at the opening of the Reichstag contained the following significant passage:—"My relations with all Powers are correct and with most good and friendly."

The Unionist Press is Jubilant over the differences between Lord Rosebery and Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman. The Liberal papers however maintain that "Home Rule" will not be the paramount issue and that Liberals will deal with Ireland on the lines of Sir Anthony Macdonnell's policy.

The attitude of the Army is now the most serious feature in the Russian situation. It is admitted in St. Petersburg that the spirit of revolt prevades the whole Army from Vladivostok to St. Petersburg and that the condition of the Manchurian forces is one of almost open rebellion.

NOVEMBER 30TH.—Mr. Asquith speaking at Wisbech on Wednesday denied that there were any substantial differences amongst the Liberals regarding "Home Rule" and that he did not believe that the introduction of a Home Rule Bill would form a part of the policy of the next Government.

Yesterday there was a panic on the St. Petersburg Bourse resulting on a heavy fall of prices all round.

Communication by telegraph with Moscow has been interrupted owing to a strike amongst the telegraph staff.
