THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No 9 OF 1973

Parties —

Kenya Local Government Workers' Union
and Kiambu County Council

Issue in dispute —

Payment of salary in lieu of 167 days' accumulated leave of Frederick Mariuki Mugwe

1 The Kenya Local Government Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Kiambu County Council shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 5th day of April, 1973, and relied on their written and verbal submissions

AWARD

3 Frederick Mugwe was engaged on 1st May, 1960, by the Respondents and on 13th October, 1969, he was suspended from duty for gross misconduct and the matter of an alleged loss of Sh 3,600 was handed to the Police. He was finally dismissed on 4th December, 1970

It is not disputed that no criminal charge was brought against Mr Mugwe and in fact he was a witness for the prosecution in a theft case against two other employees in connexion with the same allegation

The Claimants took up the matter on his behalf and reported the matter to the Ministry of Labour as a trade dispute and an investigator was appointed to look into it. The Claimants made representation to the investigator on 10th March, 1971

The investigator completed his work and the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Labour, forwarded his recommendations to the parties on 21st April, 1971, to the effect that Mr Mugwe should be reinstated in employment as a Locational Tax Clerk or else he should be paid all his terminal benefits

The Respondents opted to pay Mr Mugwe all his terminal benefits and paid him half salary for the period he was on suspension and his Provident Fund dues

The Claimants pressed for payment to him of leave travelling allowance on termination, gratuity from 1st May, 1960 to December, 1964, and accumulated leave for the year 1964 to 1970 amounting to 167 days

After the parties' efforts to settle the question of terminal benefits failed the Claimants reported another dispute to the Ministry of Labour on 25th February, 1972, over the issue in dispute in this cause. An investigator was appointed and as a result the Permanent Secretary forwarded to the parties his recommendations as follows —

What is the issue in this dispute is whether Kiambu County Council should pay Mr Mugwe his earned leave as a part of his terminal benefits, the other claims having been accepted and paid. The Council has argued that it is not bound to pay Mr Mugwe the earned leave on two grounds, that firstly leave under section 34 of the Staff Code of Regulations is a privilege and not a right and, secondly, that the claim is time barred because the regulations require that such action be taken within one year from the date upon which the cause of action arose. Mr Mugwe was dismissed on 4th December, 1970, and the Union vide into letter No KLGWU/KBU/15/70/71 of 15th February, 1971, reported the existence of a trade dispute to this Ministry. It is therefore quite clear that the case was taken up within one year therefore the Council's claim that the case is time barred is not valid.

Mr Mugwe had at one stage applied for his leave but the application was turned down due to the exigencies of the service and this obviously led to the large accumulation of leave. In fairness, and out of social justice and, on humanitarian grounds he should not forfeit this leave which he had earned legitimately. Mr Mugwe was faithful employee of the Council all along until the issue of the paying in slip.

Notwithstanding the regulation in this regard, I recommend strongly that Mr Mugwe be paid his earned leave."

The Respondents did not accept the recommendations and the parties decided to refer the dispute to the Industrial Court. The notification of dispute Form "A" with the Labour Commissioner's certificate were forwarded to the Court on 9th February, 1973.

During the hearing the Claimants maintained that leave was not a privilege but a right and that since Mr Mugwe had not been allowed to go on leave due to exigencies of service he was entitled to get full payment in cash for all his accumulated leave of 167 days. They relied on the Terms and Conditions of Service for Employees in the Salaried Grades which came into effect on 1st March, 1970, because Mr Mugwe's services were terminated in accordance with the provisions contained therein and his salary adjustments were also made accordingly.

The Claimants mentioned the case of another employee who was on the same scale as Mr Mugwe and who was paid cash in lieu of accumulated leave of over 200 days and saw no reason why Mr Mugwe should not also be paid for all his accumulated leave. Finally the Claimants maintained that the clause dealing with the accumulation of leave in the Staff Code of Regulations which were in force prior to 1st March, 1970, did not apply to this case.

The Respondents on the other hand, completely rejected the Claimants' demands in their written submissions because they maintained that leave was a privilege and not a right in the Staff Code of Regulations which were in force at the time and applied to this case. Further they submitted that since Mr Mugwe was on suspension for a long period and was paid full salary for that it meant that his leave ran concurrently with his suspension.

During the hearing however the Respondents changed their stand and offered to pay cash in lieu of 96 days of accumulated leave only. The Claimants insisted that they were entitled for payment for 167 days.

The Court finds that in the Terms and Conditions applicable from 1st March, 1970, a clear reference is made to accumulated leave prior to that date.

The relevant clause 19 (f) reads as follows —

(f) The maximum number of working days leave that can be accumulated shall be 90. Any leave accumulated in excess of 90 working days shall be forfeited unless in specific cases the Council shall otherwise resolve. Provided that an officer who at the date this Code comes into force has accumulated more than 90 working days' leave shall be allowed three years from that date to reduce his accumulated working days."

Subsection (h) lays down the formula for working out the pay in lieu of such leave.

The Court has no doubt that the proviso" in 19 (f) deals with accumulated leave prior to 1st March, 1970. Therefore it is necessary to look into the relevant provisions of the Staff Code Regulations to determine how much leave could be accumulated and how much in fact had been accumulated by the various employees at that date. These Regulations then to that extent are applicable to this dispute.

Regulation 34 clearly states that leave is a privilege and not a right and further, and this is most important, it states that persons within the salary scales (i) to (iv) shall be entitled to accumulated leave up to a maximum of three years' entitlement. It is not disputed Mr Mugwe is within these scales.

In view of this the Court has no alternative but to find that Mr Mugwe is entitled to an accumulated leave of 78 days only prior to 1st March, 1970, and since that date up to the time of his dismissal he is entitled to another 18 days making a total of 96 days. The Court finds that the Respondents' offer to pay cash in lieu of 96 days is proper and in line with the regulations and the Court awards that Mr Mugwe should be paid cash in lieu of 96 days for his accumulated leave.

The Court would like to point out that if the Respondents have at their sole discretion given some benefits to certain employees in excess of the permitted limit in the regulations, they are entitled to do so. In case of Mr Mugwe they are not prepared to do so and nothing can be done about it, it would be wrong for the Court to make an award outside the Regulations and the Terms and Conditions of Service.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO 1495

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T M No 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh 50

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi
