GAZETTE NOTICE No 882

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM No 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh 50

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No 1 OF 1969

Parties —

Kenya Local Government Workers Union

and

Kiambu County Council

Issues in Dispute —

- (1) Revision of salaries for five chief officers
- (2) Payment of arrears of salaries for period May 1967 to December 1967

1 The Kenya Local Government Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Kiambu County Council shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 21st day of February 1969 and relied on their written and verbal submissions

AWARD

The parties entered into an agreement on 18th December 1967 with the assistance of the Senior Labour Officer Nairobi, who acted as a conciliator, in a dispute that had arisen as a result of the Claimants demand for increased salaries for their members employed by the Respondents. A schedule was attached to this agreement in which were listed all the posts with their respective scales that were subject to this agreement. The posts of Clerk to Council, County Treasurer, Works Officer, Markets and Trade Officer and Deputy Markets and Trade Officer appeared therein.

Apparently the parties in working out this schedule had followed the same procedure regarding negotiations as in 1965 when the Claimants had negotiated new scales in respect of all the officers employed by the Respondents including the chief officers. That agreement was approved by the Ministry of Local Government and was implemented in full. The Claimants had submitted that in fact they negotiated the salary scales of all the chief officers employed by the Local Government Authorities in the whole country.

The December 1967 agreement referred to hereinabove was not implemented by the Respondents for several months. This prompted the Claimants to threaten strike action in the middle of 1968 which resulted in the following agreement between the parties on 15th July 1968, which was signed in addition by representatives of the Ministry of Local Government and the Chief Industrial Relations Officer of Ministry of Labour:

"1 That the new salary scales as agreed between the Council and the Union set out in agreement dated 18th December 1967 shall be implemented at the end of August 1968 with effect from 1st January 1968

2 That the salaries of the five chief officers set out in the forementioned agreement shall be determined by the Minister separately

3 That the arrears of salaries set out in the forementioned agreement for the period 1st May 1967 to 31st December 1967 shall be considered when the Supplementary Estimate covering that period is submitted by the Council and a further meeting will be called if necessary

4 That the Kenya Local Government Workers' Union agrees to call off the strike scheduled for Wednesday 17th July 1968 "

In accordance with the first clause of the above agreement the new scales were implemented at the end of August 1968 with effect from 1st January 1968 in respect of all officers except the following five: Clerk to Council, County Treasurer, Works Officer, Markets and Trade Officer and Deputy Markets and Trade Officer.

None of the officers have however been paid to date the arrears due to them under the December 1967 agreement for the period 1st May 1967 to 31st December 1967, the reason being the financial difficulties through which the Respondents have been going during the last few years. The Respondents claimed that their 1968 expenditure had been overspent by about £32,000 and they had an accumulated deficit of £430,000.

During the hearing the Respondents agreed with the Claimants contention that Markets and Trade Officer and his deputy were not among the chief officers and therefore not subject to regulation 112 of the Local Authorities Regulations 1963 which required that the local authorities 'shall pay to such officers such salaries, emoluments and allowances as it may, subject to the approval of the Minister, determine'. In view of this the Court awards that these two officers should be paid forthwith their new scales with effect from 1st January 1968. As far as their claim for the arrears from 1st May 1967 to 31st December 1967 is concerned it shall be subject to the Court's award on that issue hereinafter.

The Court notes that the whole schedule attached to the December 1967 agreement was adopted by the Respondents at one of their meetings and was forwarded to the Minister for Local Government for approval. Unfortunately the Minister has neither approved nor disapproved the new scales in respect of the three chief officers. The Court fails to understand as to why the Minister has not conveyed to the Parties his reaction to the proposed new scales of these three officers, if in fact the matter has been referred to him as is alleged by the Claimants. This sort of delay is not at all conducive to good industrial relations. The Court accepts that the Minister has the final say in the appointment and terms of service of chief officers employed by county councils but feels that the Minister should give his decision one way or the other within a reasonable time. The Court finds that neither the parties can agree between themselves nor the Court can give an award contrary to regulation 112 (1) of the Local Government Regulations 1963 which reads as follows —

"Subject to the provisions of this Part of these Regulations as to qualifications and disqualifications, every county council may from time to time, and shall if so required by the Minister, appoint as full-time, part-time or consulting officers, fit and proper persons to be respectively, clerk, treasurer, and engineer or works superintendent, and shall pay to such officers such salaries, emoluments and allowances as it may, subject to the approval of the Minister, determine."

This is the law and the Industrial Court award cannot be contrary to any existing legal provisions. In fact the parties have acknowledged this fact in their 15th July 1968 agreement when they said that the salaries of the five chief officers set out in the "forementioned agreement" shall be determined by the Minister separately. In view of this the Court cannot make an award as demanded by the Claimants and the only thing the Court is prepared to do is to request the Minister concerned to give urgent consideration to this matter and convey his decision to the parties one way or the other. The Claimants have made a strong plea that after all what they are seeking is the conversion of the salary scales of these officers from Flemming to Pratt. The Minister will no doubt take all the relevant points into consideration before making his decision.

As far as the question of the payment of arrears to other officers from 1st May to 31st December 1967 is concerned, the position is somewhat different. The Minister has, by approving the implementation of new scales with effect from 1st January 1968, approved and accepted them. The Respondents have asked the Court to make an award that they should pay these arrears when their financial position warrants it. The Court finds that this offer is too vague and will only create, if accepted, unnecessary trouble between the parties in future. The Court was informed that the arrears amount to £7,362 and that the Ministry of Local Government had not yet approved the supplementary estimate because of the Respondents' financial difficulties. The Court is not at all happy at this state of affairs where part of the agreement has already been approved and implemented, and part of it concerning arrears remains to be fulfilled.

The Court has very carefully considered the submission made by the Respondents regarding their finances and has also given careful thought to the Claimants contention that the Respondents should find this money, if necessary, by realizing their securities with Kenya and Tanzania Governments. The Court is not prepared to encourage such a step as it would not be prudent. At the same time the Court feels that there is no reason why the workers should not be paid arrears that are due to them. After a careful consideration of all the relevant factors involved the Court awards that these arrears should be paid to workers in three six-monthly instalments, the first instalment to be paid on 1st September 1969.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

Parties —

Kenya Chemical Workers' Union
and

Elephant Soap Factory Limited

Issues in Dispute —

- (1) Wages
- (2) Job gradings
- (3) Normal working hours
- (4) Leave allowance
- (5) Shift differential
- (6) Termination of employment
- (7) Maternity leave
- (8) Gratuity scheme
- (9) Effective date and duration of agreement

1 The Kenya Chemical Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Elephant Soap Factory Ltd, shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 24th day of February 1969 and relied on their written and verbal submissions

AWARD

The parties in dispute have appeared before the Industrial Court three times since 1964 and the Court has made awards on most of the issues which are in dispute now

The issues of job gradings and normal working hours have been consistently rejected by the Court and in the present dispute the Claimants have failed to satisfy the Court that any special circumstances had arisen to justify the reversal of the Court's earlier decisions. The other issues were either settled by the Court or the parties reached an agreement on them

The Court awarded a leave travelling allowance of Sh 75 for employees in Grades 1 and 2 and Sh 50 for employees in Grades 3 and 4. On shift differential the Court made an award that a worker on a 24 or less shift cycle should be paid a shift differential of 5 per cent of his basic wage per month

In view of this and in the absence of any strong and exceptional circumstances having arisen since the previous Court award, the Court has no alternative but to reject them

The agreement in existence between the parties provides for maternity benefits which the Court is not inclined to vary

The Court has very carefully considered the submissions made by the parties and finds that the Respondents cannot be compared with other large soap manufacturers in the country. Further in view of the fact that the Claimants did not produce any arguments in support of their demands on the issues of termination of employment and gratuity scheme, the Court is not prepared to make any award on these two items. They are accordingly rejected

The Court has decided to award a wage increase as follows —

	Present Rates Per Month Consolidated	First 18 Months	Second 18 Months
	Sh	Sh	Sh
Grade I	270	30	30
Grade II	250	30	30
Grade III	230	30	30
Grade IV	215	30	30

This award shall be with effect from 1st August 1968 and shall remain in force for a period of three years

In arriving at the above effective date the Court notes that the Claimants forwarded their demands to the Respondents only a month before the expiry date of the existing agreement. This is rather a short period in view of the fact that several meetings would have to be held and in the event of deadlock the matter would have to go to the Ministry of Labour. Further the Court cannot blame either party for any delay after the matter has been referred to the Ministry of Labour

CAUSE No 3 OF 1969

Parties

Kenya Motor Engineering and Allied Workers' Union
and

Dante Burba Diesel Workshops Ltd

Issues in dispute

- (1) Wages
- (2) Severance pay on redundancy
- (3) Effective date and duration of agreement

1 The Kenya Motor Engineering and Allied Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Dante Burba Diesel Workshops Ltd shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 26th day of February 1969 and relied on their written and verbal submissions

AWARD

The Claimants approached the Respondents on 18th June 1968 and in their first letter to them they demanded recognition and stated that they would also like to negotiate a wage increase and terms and conditions of employment of their members who were employed by the Respondents. The Respondents replied by stating that their Director who dealt with this matter was away on holidays and that on his arrival they would get in touch with the Claimants

The Claimants, however, did not wait and reported a trade dispute to the Ministry of Labour on 2nd July 1968 and the dispute was accepted on 16th July 1968 by the Permanent Secretary, who appointed Mr G Kabuki to act as conciliator. On or about that time the Respondents joined the Federation of Kenya Employers who then took over negotiations on their behalf. There was some delay before the negotiations commenced but ultimately a recognition agreement was signed by the parties on 10th October 1968. Thereafter the Claimants were asked to submit their demands afresh. They protested strongly at this but eventually agreed to do so. Several meetings were held between the parties and agreement has been reached on all the items except the three in dispute

During the hearing neither party informed the Court of the actual wages that were being paid to the workers involved in this dispute and were content to leave the matter by stating that the Respondents were complying with the Regulation of Wages (Motor Engineering Trades) Order 1967. The Court notes that this is the first agreement between the parties and that from now on the Respondents will have to deal with industrial relations in their firm on an official basis with the Claimants

The Court has very carefully considered the submissions made by the parties and has decided to award a wage increase of Sh 25 per month to each employee on his present wage. This increase will be with effect from 1st November 1968

On the issue of severance pay on redundancy the Court awards that a worker should be paid 15 days basic pay for every completed year of service in the event of his being declared redundant

The Court further rules that the effective date of the agreement shall be 1st November 1968 and it shall remain in force for a period of 14 months

INTERPRETATION

1 The Claimants made an application for interpretation of the Court's award in this Cause on the following issues —

- 1 Wages of Security Staff
- 2 Sick Leave
- 3 Retirement Benefits

2 The Claimants maintained that their interpretation of the aforesaid three items was as follows —

RULING

4 The Court rules that the wage increases that had been granted to the security staff were subject to the various provisos which the Court had imposed in its award. On the issue of sick leave, the award is very clear and it is not intended that the other conditions that existed prior to the Court hearing should be deemed to have been deleted as a result of the Court's award. The Court awarded an amendment to the existing provisions only as far as the period during which the payment for sick leave should be obligatory. Accordingly, it appears that the Respondents' interpretation of these two issues is the correct one.

On the question of retirement benefits, the historical background of this matter is as follows. In Industrial Court Cause No 17 of 1964 the Court made the following award under the heading "Gratuity on Retirement or Resignation",—

'When employees are retired they shall get payment as follows —

- (a) Under 6 years of service—10 days basic wage per completed year of service
- (b) Over 6 years of service—15 days basic wage per completed year of service

(On completion of 1 year's service a part of any subsequent year in excess of 6 months will count as a completed year of service for the purposes of the above payment)

Employees who resign shall not be entitled to any gratuity under this head."

Subsequently the parties had appeared before the Court in Cause No 58 of 1966 but this issue was not in dispute. The Court's award was incorporated in an agreement between the parties as follows —

"1 When employees are retired on reaching the retirement age fixed by the company concerned or on the grounds of ill health, the following payment will be made —

- (a) Under 6 years' service—10 days basic wage per completed year of service
- (b) Six years' service or more—15 days basic wage per completed year of service

2 On completion of 1 year's service a part of any subsequent year in excess of 6 months will count as a completed year of service for the purpose of calculating the above payment

3 Where an employee is covered by an existing provident fund he should get the benefits most advantageous to him, either from the existing provident fund or under this Agreement, but not both

4 Retirement benefits payable under this Agreement will be in respect only of the years of service of an employee prior to the introduction of the National Social Security Fund and will be calculated on the employee's salary as at that date and will be entered on his record of service

5 In the case of the death of an employee while in the service of the employer, the employer will pay to the dependent relatives of the deceased the sum of money calculated in accordance with the above clauses and entered on his record of service. The words 'dependent relatives' shall have the meaning provided in section 21 of the National Social Security Fund Act 1965"

The parties again appeared before the Industrial Court in Cause No 17 of 1968 and the Court made the following award —

"The Court awards that the present clause should be amended so that those employees who lose their job other than for disciplinary reasons or who die (their estates) should not forfeit this benefit"

It is quite obvious that the Court never intended that those workers who resigned should benefit under this item. Accordingly the Court rules that the workers who resign will not get this benefit

The position of those non citizens who would be losing or who have lost their jobs as a result of Government policy of Kenyanization is different. These people would be losing their jobs for reasons other than disciplinary and as the Court's award stands at present they are clearly eligible to their retirement benefits. The Court would like to point out that although the parties were aware, when they argued this issue before the Court during proceedings in Cause No 17 of 1968, that such a contingency was likely to arise in the near future, they made no submissions on this point. Finally the letter which was referred to by the Respondents stating that Ministry of Labour had rejected to accept a dispute on the issue of 'Severance Pay for employees who have become unemployed as a result of the introduction of the work permit' in March 1968, is hardly relevant to this matter
