CAUSE No 27 OF 1975

Issue in dispute —

Wages

1 The Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Kenya Cold Storage (1964) Ltd, shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 1st day of July 1975, and relied on their written and verbal submissions

AWARD

3 The Notification of Dispute Form A dated 1st April, 1975, was received by the Court on 29th April, along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner

The Claimants having recruited 75 per cent of the Respondents' employees in 1971 started making representations for recognition. The matter dragged on for almost three years and it was only on 18th July, 1974, that a formal recognition agreement was signed between the parties. It is obvious that the relationship between the parties was not cordial and things since then have not improved with the result that there has been constant industrial unrest at the Respondents undertaking with several strikes by their employees

Prior to the meetings held between the parties under the chairmanship of the Labour Officer in charge of Industrial Area on 27th and 30th July, and 1st August 1974, the Respondents used to pay their employees a consolidated wage which included housing allowance overtime, rest and off days work, etc. The Respondents produced a specimen receipt which the workers have signed every month in full and final settlement. The Claimants did not dispute this.

The present dispute stems from the Claimants' demand which was eventually accepted by the Respondents that there should be a reorganization in the method of wages payment of the Respondents' employees. The Claimants insisted that the consolidated wage should be broken up to clearly show the basic wage, house allowance and meritals and the hours of work per week to be worked by the employees before they could be entitled to overtime payments.

With the assistance of the Ministry of Labour the parties resolved the workers' grievances by agreeing on the following two matters —

Long Service Benefits

The union on this issue suggested that because of the impending reorganization of the company and methods of wages payments all workers should be paid their long service benefits so that with the new reorganization each employee starts as new. The employer accepted the idea.

The parties agreed that—

- (i) each person shall be paid at 10 days per every completed year,
- (ii) the calculations of the benefits shall be based on the new arrived at basic, added the half of the difference between the old consolidated monthly salary and the new consolidated wages (overtime excluded)

Reorganization and Methods of Wages Payment

The employer and the union agreed on the reorganization of the company and the new method of wage payments as shown in the schedule wherein one's new basic salary is shown and his house allowance and subsequent overtime earnings.

There was general consensus that the new basics were favourable to the workers in that if they put the same amount of overtime each worker would be able to earn more than he used to get previously.

The parties too agreed that the new reorganization of the company and methods of wage payment would be effective from 1st August, 1974.

The Labour officer reported that all the issues in dispute after the aforesaid agreement was made were now finalized and both the parties were happy.

From then onwards the whole situation regarding wages is indeed very confused mainly because the Claimants have realized though mistakenly that the workers under the new system are worse off than before when they used to get a consolidated wage every month.

The Claimants have during the hearing asked the Court to disregard the agreement which was made between the parties as stated hereinbefore on the ground that an agreement made in the presence of a labour officer had to be reduced in writing to a formal document to be signed by both the parties before it could become effective. There is no such document in existence. The Claimants are pressing that all the workers should be awarded a 50 per cent wage increase notwithstanding the fact that the parties had agreed in early 1975 on wage increases of 15 per cent on a worker's basic wage with effect from 1st January, 1975, and a similar increase with effect from 1st January, 1976.

The Court is satisfied that the Claimants' Nairobi branch secretary is responsible for this state of affairs and that the national officials have been brought into the picture only when the dispute was about to be forwarded to the Industrial Court.

The Court accepts the Respondents' statement that 30 of their employees are accepting their wages according to the new system, 41 employees are accepting wages under the old system of a consolidated wage and 10 employees are accepting wages without prejudice and consider that the money received by them is by way of a loan to be adjusted on the final outcome of the dispute.

The Respondents have strongly contended that there cannot be any dispute regarding what constitutes the basic wage as this issue was settled and agreed upon in the presence of officials or the Ministry of Labour. They asked the Court to endorse the agreement and offered in view of the Presidential decree on the minimum wages a 15 per cent wage increase for those employees who are earning more than Sh 300 per month. Further, since all the employees wages had been increased to Sh 300 per month from 1st May, 1975, which increase represents 25 per cent rise in basic wage the Respondents are prepared to offer similar rise to any employee earning less than Sh 300 per month. The Respondents offered to pay these increases from 1st May, 1975, and have further offered another 15 per cent increase to all employees from 1st May, 1976.

The Respondents submitted that the agreement leading to the break up of the consolidated wage was arrived at after lengthy discussions and strictly speaking the workers were not at all in a worse condition than before. If the workers' earnings had gone down since the new system was implemented it was simply because the workers had refused to do any overtime work. The Respondents pointed out that if the workers did overtime work as they used to do previously their monthly earnings would in fact be higher than when they used to get the consolidated wage.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court finds that an agreement was reached between the parties after the meetings held between them on 27th, 30th July and 1st August, 1974, which agreement is reproduced hereinabove and it would be an undesirable and retrograde step to allow the parties to back out of an agreement which had been voluntarily concluded between them with the assistance of the Ministry of Labour officials. Moreover a lot of developments have taken place since then in that to a considerable extent the new system has been implemented. One other very important point to be borne in mind is that as a result of the agreement under the heading "Long Service Benefits" the workers have been paid at the rate of ten days' pay for every completed year of service for all their services prior to 1st August, 1974. The Court is aware that the Claimants stated that workers had not been paid the long service benefits but the Court feels that this is a simple matter and if in fact any workers have not been paid their long service benefits then the Court directs the Senior Labour Officer, Nairobi, to ensure that workers are paid their benefits forthwith.

The Court further directs the Senior Labour Officer, Nairobi, to ensure that all the necessary adjustments have been made in respect of each of the Respondents' employees as a result of the agreement made between the parties and which is effective from 1st August, 1974.

The Court having found that there is a valid agreement between the parties in which the workers basic wage has been established the Court awards a wage increase of 35 per cent to all those employees who were earning Sh 300 or less as at 1st January, 1975. This 35 per cent increase includes the increase announced by H.E. the President on 1st May, 1975. These increases are to be granted on the new basic wage as shown in Appendix M to the Claimants' written submission.

The Court further awards a wage increase of 25 per cent on the new basic wage to all those employees who were earning more than Sh 300 per month on 1st January, 1975. Both these increases are to be effective from 1st January, 1975, and the Court further awards another wage increase of 15 per cent to all employees with effect from 1st January, 1976.

AWARD

3 The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 21st February 1975, was received by the Court on 16th May, along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner

In this dispute the Claimants have enrolled some sixteen drivers who they allege are employees of the Respondents and are asking for an award against the Respondents to recognize them so that they can negotiate terms and conditions of service on behalf of their members

The dispute has been processed through all the required stages and many letters were exchanged between the parties on the subject matter of the dispute. The parties' position during the conciliation was as follows —

The union submitted that they had recruited twenty-one members and had written to the employer to effect the check off system. Since the union had members with the firm they demanded recognition.

The management argued that they do not employ drivers, they only own the vehicles which are hired by some other tour operator. The tour operator that hires the vehicles is the one employing the drivers.

During the hearing the Respondents explained in detail the establishment of their firm, the number of shareholders and the names of their directors. They stated that the formation of their undertaking was prompted by the desire of the management of African Tours & Hotels Ltd, to encourage their drivers to participate actively in the country's tourism industry by actively investing in it. The Court notes that the Respondents are a limited company registered on 28th August, 1973, and started operating on 1st January, 1974. Out of the five directors, two—Mr J. K. Momo and Mr A. K. Kikwau—are Kenyans and are drivers.

Four of the five directors hold 120 shares of Sh 20 each and the balance of their 2,000 shares are held by African Tours & Hotels Ltd, and her tour drivers are as follows —

African Tours & Hotels Ltd	940 shares
14 African Tours & Hotel drivers	420 shares

Four of the sixteen drivers own 30 shares each and are represented on the Board of Directors by Messrs Julius Gitonga Momo and Andrew K. Kikwau, both of whom hold 120 shares each.

During the hearing the Respondents produced a letter duly signed by the Financial Director of the African Tours & Hotels Ltd certifying that the drivers mentioned therein have been and are still employees of African Tours & Hotels Ltd.

It is also of interest that in April, 1975, all drivers employed by African Tours & Hotels Ltd, and who hold shares in the Respondents undertaking passed a resolution that Mr Momo should ask the Board of Directors that all of them should be taken over by the Respondents as employees. The Board considered this suggestion but rejected it after very careful consideration of all aspects of the issue, especially the security of employment aspect of the question of transfer of services to a young company.

The position then is that the Respondents just now have only two employees who are managerial. Apart from them, the Respondents employ no other persons. The drivers in respect of whom the Claimants are seeking recognition from the Respondents are employees of African Tours & Hotels Ltd, which firm has recognized through the Hotelkeepers' Association, the Domestic & Hotel Workers' Union as the sole negotiating body representing all unionizable employees.

Unfortunately the Claimants, apart from stating that the Respondents were hiding the true position from the Court, did not produce any evidence, documentary or otherwise, to support their claim that the employees on whose behalf they were seeking recognition were in fact employees of the Respondents. The Claimants further submitted that shareholding in an undertaking by its employees is in itself no bar to being represented by a union. This may be so but the indisputable fact remains in the present dispute that the Respondents have no employees except two members of the management who in any case cannot be represented by the Claimants.

The Claimants cited rather vaguely a few other tour operating firms in respect of their submissions but in the absence of any conclusive evidence by them the Court is not inclined to attach any great importance to those examples.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court finds that the Claimants have put forward their demands prematurely and since none of the employees who they claim are their members are employed by the Respondents the Court has no alternative but to reject their demand for recognition by the Respondents.

GAZETTE NOTICE No 2448

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM No 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh 50

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.
