The following Ordinance made by His Majesty's Commissioner is published for general information.

(Sd.) J. FRANCIS CUNNINGHAM,

Secretary.

Entebbe, July 14th, 1903.

AN ORDINANCE

Enacted by His Britannic Majesty's Commissioner for the Uganda Protectorate.

(Sd.) J. HAYES SADLER,

His Majesty's Commissioner.

No. 8 of 1903.

Distilled Liquor.

IT is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Uganda Liquor Ordinance (No. 2), 1903."

2.—(1.) The manufacture of distilled liquor at any place within the Protectorate is prohibited.

(2.) Sections 9, 10 (except as hereinafter mentioned), 11, and 12 of "The Uganda Liquor Ordinance, 1903 (No. 3 of 1903)," are hereby repealed.

3. The manufacture of distilled liquor under a licence issued by the Commissioner under section 10 of "The Uganda Liquor Ordinance, 1903 (No. 3 of 1903)," may continue so long as the licence is in force upon the terms and subject to the conditions laid down in the said Ordinance or in any rules thereunder or in the licence, but no such licence shall be renewed.

By Order,

A. E. CRUICKSHANK,

Traffic Manager.

Traffic Manager's Office,

Nairobi, 10th August, 1903.

Reuter's Telegrams.

AUGUST 1ST.—The Colonial Office vote has been passed by 174 against 74.

Mr. Chamberlain in reply to the strong criticisms on his policy in South Africa states that he does not attach the slightest importance to General Buller's letter mentioned in Reuter's of 18th July.

M. Santos Dumont has offered an aerial flotilla to the French Government for War purposes. The Minister of War has accepted the offer expressing his belief that aerial navigation is now a practical achievement.

After attending Mass together the Cardinals entered a Conclave in the evening to elect the new Pope.

AUGUST 3RD.—A series of most imposing ceremonies lasting for five hours marked the inauguration of the Conclave beginning with the solemn entry and anhtaking of the Cardinals, the conclavist functionaries ending in a minute inspection of the precincts with the object of excluding strangers. After a formal locking of the doors, the Cardinals proceeded to their apartments in the Vatican.

The Emperor of Austria issues on Tuesday an Imperial Ordinance abrogating the Sugar Legislation conflicting with the Brussels Convention.

It appears eight Cardinals have received votes. Cardinals Rampolla and Serafino Vannutelli being chiefly supported.

The Ballot taken yesterday morning was without result but there has been a vote by adhesion indicating that the votes are beginning to concentrate.

The second Ballot taken at six in the evening is indecisive.

The First Ballot of the Conclave in the morning was not conclusive.

Their Majesties the King and Queen received an enthusiastic reception at Cork, the Lord Mayor and Corporation participating. The King presented new Colours to two Irish regiments.

In a felicitous address after the ceremony which was witnessed by a tremendous and cheering crowd and in replying to an address wherein references were made to the Land Bill, the King stated that he hoped for an equitable settlement of this longstanding controversy which would powerfully contribute to the contentment and prosperity of his Irish people, but good laws alone were not sufficient. Ireland must have better industrial training for the young and a spirit of co-operation among all classes.

Their Majesties have sailed for Cowes.

It is admitted everywhere in Ireland that the King's sympathy and interest has produced a remarkable change in the current people's thought with regard to England which no Legislation could possibly have effected.

The King and Queen arrived this morning at Cowes.

The King in his address to the Irish people states that he is deeply touched by the kindness and goodwill of the people shown to both the Queen and himself which has far exceeded their expectations, and he would eagerly await the fulfilment of the hope that a brighter day is dawning on Ireland. This hope will depend on the development of selfreliance and co-operation and an increase in mutual toleration. Earnest prayers would be the means of the national well being which would multiply from year to year.

The third Ballot taken this morning is indecisive.

AUGUST 4TH.—Lord Iveagh has given the King £50,000 sterling for distribution among the Dublin Hospitals. The King on Saturday knighted Horace Plunkett in recognition of his services to Ireland.

Replying to an address in Queenstown His Majesty said that he looked forward to renewing in future years the happy experiences of his present visit.

Mr. Brodrick in the House of Commons stated that ammunition possessing greater stopping power than the service ammunition has been sent to Somaliland.

The Conclave is still indecisive.

An attempt has been discovered to communicate between the Conclave and a neighbouring house by means of flashes from a mirror.

Cardinal Herrera who fell ill on entering the Conclave is reported to be dying.

AUGUST 5TH.—A large party of members of the House of Commons will return the visit of the French Deputies on the 25th of November next. Seventy members have already accepted the invitation.

In the House of Lords the Irish Land Bill has passed the second reading.

Cardinal Sarto has been elected Pope.

Lord Curzon has announced his acceptance of the extended term of Viceroyalty.

His Holiness the Pope has assumed the name of Pius X and blessed his people from the balcony of St. Peter's where there was the greatest enthusiasm.

The scene on the announcement of the election was most impressive the Pontifical Guards in full uniform and many Italian troops gathered in the Piazza which was rapidly filled by crowds who cheered when the Pope appeared in his pontifical robes in the interior of the loggia.

Cardinal Sarto was known for his broadmindedness and friendliness to the Quirinal. King Victor Emmanuel has telegraphed his satisfaction at the election.

AUGUST 6TH.—While the late Pope belonged to the ancient nobility, the present Pope is of humble birth. He has had no university education, his brother and near relations are small shopkeepers and one of his sisters married an innkeeper in his native village.

It is stated that at the commencement of the Conclave Austria vetoed the election of Cardinal Rampolla who protested strongly against any outsider meddling in a pontifical election. The other Cardinals though indignantly sympathising with Cardinal Rampolla apparently gave some weight to the veto as he received fewer votes at the next ballot. Cardinal Sarto received in all fifty votes.

Disquieting news has been received from Macedonia. There were two dynamite outrages on the 3rd at Sorovitch on the Salonika-Monastir Railway.

The Report from Hilmi Pasha that the Bulgarian Insurgents have attacked and burned three Mussulman villages in the District of Monastir has greatly impressed official circles in Constantinople where the view is held that a general insurrection is about to commence.

The House of Commons has passed the Sugar Convention Bill through Committee.

The Coronation of the New Pope has been fixed to take place on Sunday next at St. Peter's. His Holiness Pius X not having communicated his election to the Italian Government, M. Luardelli has instructed the State Officials to take no part in the celebration at St. Peter's.

AUGUST 7TH.—The Porte in a Note to the Powers declares that it is impossible for her to withdraw her troops from the Macedonian Frontier as she considers the situation there most serious.

His Holiness the Pope surrounded by his court received yesterday the Diplomatic body. All were favourably impressed by the urbanity and tactfulness of His Holiness's reply to the speech offering him their congratulations.

AUGUST 8TH.—The Sugar Convention Bill has passed the House of Commons for the third time.

A party of Bulgarians destroyed by dynamite a Konak at Crusheve killing fifty Turks.

The Russian and British Ambassadors at Constantinople have made serious representations to the Porte regarding the Armenian situation. Consequently the Porte has instructed their Valis to vigorously repress all excesses made by Kurds.

The following Somaliland honours are announced :—

General Manning, C.B.

Captain Wilfred Lionel Foster, D.S.O.

Captains G. W. Walker and G. M. Rolland, V.C. for assisting Captain Bruce during Col. Gough's action on the 22nd April.

Lord Northcote has been appointed Governor-General of Australia. He will take up the post in December next.

AUGUST 10TH.—Three of the Boers belonging to the Somaliland Contingent have received the D.S.O.

Four Battalions of Turks supported by Artillery routed 1,600 Bulgarians near Sorovitch on Thursday last.

The Bulgarian revolt is provoking counter insurrection among the Albanians. A number of Turkish troops have been called out and Seeshdi Pasha is hastening from Albania to Monastir with 30,000 regulars.

The strike amongst the workmen at Lorient is now at an end, the men having received an increase of wages.

The trial of the Humberts has been opened in Paris.

The Russian Consul Rostkowsky at Monastir when returning to the town from the plains was shot dead by a Turkish gendarme with whom it is stated he had an altercation owing to the gendarme's omission to salute. It is popularly believed in Monastir that Rostkowsky was encouraging the Bulgarian Movement.

A report is current in Salonica that ten thousand Bulgarians are operating near Monastir and a further ten thousand near Kastoria against the Turks.

Sixty wounded Turks from Sorovitch mentioned in to-day's Reuter's have arrived at Salonica.

The Coronation of His Holiness the Pope was a most brilliant ceremony. At least fifty thousand people were present in St. Peter's including many dignitaries who enthusiastically acclaimed the Pontiff. After the preliminary ceremonies including the homage of obedience and High Mass, His Holiness the Pope was borne in the Sedia Gestatoria to the Podium before the Altar of Confession where the Tiara was placed on his head by Cardinal Macchi. The Pope after being proclaimed Pius X blessed the people, and retired to the Vatican being much fatigued by the heat and long ceremony which had lasted five hours and a half.

M. Combes arrived at Marseilles on Saturday and received an enthusiastic reception. Yesterday he was present at a banquet, and on his return to the Prefecture a tomato was thrown at his carriage which struck the servant on the Box. A companion of the man who threw the tomato fired two revolver shots at a Policeman and was immediately arrested. The incident has caused much excitement. The assailants are reported to be Italians.

The murderer of Consul Rostkowsky has been arrested. The Grand Vizier, and the Foreign Minister called last night on the Russian Embassy at Constantinople to express their regret for the incident.

AUGUST 11TH.—The Sultan has personally sent a telegram to the Tzar deploring Consul Rostkowsky's death. The Tzar in replying has ordered the Russian Ambassador at Constantinople to demand immediate and exemplary punishment of the murderer and also of all military and civil officials who are in any way responsible for the audacious crime.

An advance of the Somaliland force making Buras as its base is expected to commence in September. The Mullah is now in the Hais District endeavouring to obtain Hais as his port. Considerable alarm is felt in Hais.

The Sugar Convention Bill has been read in the House of Lords for the third time.

The Vali of Monastir has been recalled. Hilmi Pasha the Inspector General for Macedonia will replace him temporarily.

Turkey has assured Russia that the murderer of Consul Rostkowsky will receive the most severe punishment. A Court Martial has been summoned at Monastir to try the murderer.

Further fighting to-day has taken place at Kaillar near Sorovitch. Twenty-four battalions of Turkish troops have been ordered there from Anatolia.

Mr. Balfour in the House of Commons stated that he regretted his inability to say anything reassuring with regard to the situation in Macedonia, that it was the duty of Europe to support Austria and Russia as long as they were striving without personal interest to ameliorate the condition of the population. He added that the Revolutionaries themselves were the chief obstacle to the success of the Reform Scheme.

AUGUST 12TH.—Serious riots occurred at Kieff on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday last in which 60 persons were killed and one hundred severely wounded.

A crowded passenger train on the Paris underground caught fire on Monday night. Only 48 passengers succeeded in reaching the station. Owing to the Tunnel being choked with smoke four hours elapsed before the train was approachable. Eleven bodies have been recovered up to yesterday morning. The firemen report that the train was absolutely full.

The accident reported above occurred about 8 p.m. on the Electric Railway near Monilmontant. Directly the carriage caught fire lights were extinguished. Other trains approached and blocked the line, four trains being unapproachable until midnight. By 3 A.M. the fire was extinguished, ninety persons perished all asphyxiated.

AUGUST 13TH.—The Irish Land Bill has been read in the House of Lords for the third time.

Eighty four persons lost their lives by the Railway disaster in Paris.

King Edward has started for Marienbad.

Insurrection has broken out in the Vilayet of Adrianople. Four thousand Turks with artillery have surrounded Krushevo and are preparing to recapture the place from the Insurgents.

It is rumoured that the Insurgents at Krushevo after repulsing two assaults made by the Turks offered to surrender on certain conditions. The Turkish Commander however consulted Constantinople and was ordered to grant no quarter.

AUGUST 14TH.—The American fishing boat Silver Spray was found on the Canadian side of Lake Erie. In trying to escape from a Canadian Revenue Cutter she was fired at and struck twenty times. Though badly damaged none of her crew were touched.

It is officially announced in the Gazette that the importation of Danish Russian and Argentine Sugar is prohibited from the 1st of September. The Tsar has issued an Ukase appointing Admiral Alexeieff Viceroy of the Far East with supreme power being responsible only to the Special Council in St. Petersburg.

Lord Salisbury is unwell and his condition shows signs of great exhaustion.

Latest advices from the Balkans point to the fact that a revolution of the most serious nature is spreading eastward. There has been a big fight near Monastir and the Consuls there are in danger.
