EAST AFRICAN COMMON SERVICES ORGANIZATION

HIGH LEVEL SECRETARIAL COURSE

APPLICATIONS are invited from African single women under the age of 30 and should be submitted to the Africanization Officer, East African Common Services Organization, P.O. Box 30005, Nairobi, Kenya, not later than 14th December, 1963. The course would be held in Nairobi, sponsored jointly by the East African Railways and Harbours, East African Posts and Telecommunications and the General Fund Services Administrations of the East African Common Services Organization and will last for about 12 months from 6th January, 1964.

Applicants not in Government Service should submit their applications, in triplicate, on Form AG.85. Civil servants must submit their applications, in triplicate, through their departmental heads, at least seven days before the closing date, on Form AG.85A. Forms are obtainable in Kenya from the Africanization Officer, P.O. Box 30005, Nairobi, and in Uganda and Tanganyika from the Secretaries to the Public Service Commission at P.O. Box 4080, Kampala, and P.O. Box 9143, Dar es Salaam, respectively; also from all District Commissioners in Uganda and Tanganyika.

This is a high level course intended to produce candidates who on successful completion and after gaining the necessary experience and typing and shorthand speeds, will be appointed to senior secretarial posts in the Organization. Applicants should therefore be of Higher School Certificate standard of education and those sitting for the examination this year are invited to apply. Applications are also invited from those who are not of H.S.C. standard of education but possess a high standard of the English language at Cambridge School Certificate level. Candidates who are sitting for the Cambridge School Certificate this year are requested to submit their applications through their Headmistresses.

Applicants must state in their application forms as to which Administration of the Organization (i.e. East African Railways and Harbours, East African Posts and Telecommunications or General Fund Services) they wish to be employed on completion of training.

Candidates selected for the course and who are not already in the Civil Service, will be appointed to the East African Common Services Organization as clerks during the duration of the course and will be paid salary in accordance with their educational qualifications. The salaries are now under review and applicants must understand that they will be paid salaries which will be applicable when the E.A.C.S.O. has reached a decision on this matter. The salaries applicable at present are:—

Higher School Certificate holders ..	£312 per annum
Higher School Certificate failures ..	£268 per annum
Cambridge School Certificate holders ..	£225 per annum
Cambridge School Certificate failures ..	£201 per annum

In addition fees of the course will be paid by the East African Common Services Organization. Those candidates requiring it will be assisted to find reasonable accommodation at their own expense. Candidates in Government Service or East African Common Services Organization will retain their present terms of service.

Successful candidates will be expected to sign a bond requiring them to undertake to work for the E.A.C.S.O. for a minimum period of three years after the completion of their training. It is emphasized that a high proportion of E.A.C.S.O. services are mainly in Nairobi but opportunities exist in other big centres in East Africa.

The subjects to be studied on the course will include shorthand, typewriting, English, Current Affairs and Office Routine. Candidates will be expected to have acquired 100 words per minute in shorthand and 40 words in typing and will be required to take the R.S.A. or Pitman's examination in these subjects. Salary on appointment after the training will be determined by the speeds obtained and will be in accordance with salary scales to be agreed upon by East African Common Services Organization after review following the Report of the Salaries Commission.

Applicants at present in school should state when submitting their applications whether or not they intend to pursue further education if they are selected for such on passing their Cambridge School or Higher School Certificate examinations.

Opportunities for promotion in the secretarial ranks and above exist in the East African Common Services Organization.
