GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 3685

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 18 OF 1981

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food & Allied Workers
and Kimbo Farmers Co-operative Society Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of Mr. Daniel Mungatia.

1. The Kenya Union of Commercial Food & Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Kimbo Farmers Co-operative Society Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 4th June, 9th and 10th July, 6th and 7th October and 2nd November, 1981 and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses to give evidence on oath:

Claimants:

D. Mungatia,
J. Mugambi,
J. Kirera.

Respondents:

P. Mbutura,
I. Ntimi,
G. Ringera,
P. L. Mburu.

AWARD

3. The notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 14th December, 1979 duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 31st March, 1981 together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

Mr. D. Mungatia was the secretary manager of the Respondents for almost fourteen years and four months during which period he worked under three different chairmen of the Respondents including Mr. Paul Mbutura who was the chairman from 1977 up to 1981. It is during this period that Mr. Mungatia's services were terminated on 27th April, 1978 at which time he was earning Sh. 1,063 p.m.

The Claimants having reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour concerning his dismissal the Ministry caused an investigation to be carried out on this matter and released its findings to the parties on 29th October, 1979 in the following terms:

"It was found out that Mr. Mungatia had served the society for more than 14 years with a clean record. It is surprising then how he deserved three letters of warning in less than three months period.

In a meeting held between the committee and the District Co-operative Officer both parties agreed on Mr. Mungatia's reinstatement but he was later issued with a letter of dismissal. This proves that the committee had some differences with Mr. Mungatia other than the reasons submitted to this report that led to the dismissal."

The Ministry found the dismissal to be wrongful and recommended that he be paid 12 months salary as compensation.

The Respondents rejected the findings and recommendation and the dispute is now before the Court.

After having conducted a very long hearing in this dispute during which the parties made lengthy submissions and called several witnesses in support of their case the Court finds that there are a few unusual features in this dispute. The first and foremost of these is the undisputed fact that during 14 years of Mr. Mungatia's service as secretary manager with the Respondents their longest serving chairman Mr. Jason Kirera (who was chairman for 16 years) stated that Mr. Mungatia was found to be a good worker. Only once he was suspended but was recalled later as allegations against him were not true. This fact was confirmed on oath by Mr. Kirera.

The other unusual aspect of this dispute is that the three government officers namely the provincial co-operative officer, the district co-operative officer and his assistant have had contradictory views on this dispute with the provincial co-operative officer maintaining that Mr. Mungatia deserved a dismissal and the assistant district co-operative officer, Mr. Mugambi who had dealings with the Respondents most of the time maintaining that Mr. Mungatia was a good worker and was wrongfully dismissed with the district co-operative officer being present at the meeting when certain decisions were taken which led to Mr. Mungatia's dismissal.

The third aspect on which the Court is rather disturbed is that sometime in March, 1978 the Respondents' chairman served a dismissal notice on Mr. Mungatia in which he stated that it was felt by the Respondents' management committee that he was no longer their employee with effect from 14th March, 1978. As it turned out there were two subsequent meetings of the Respondents' management committee on 14th March and 11th April, 1978 during which this dismissal was treated as suspension and with certain decisions being taken against Mr. Mungatia on 11th April which was attended by the provincial co-operative officer and the district co-operative officer Mr. Mungatia was asked to leave the meeting and certain allegations against him were discussed in his absence after which a decision was made and he was subsequently called in and was informed of this decision. The Court would now like to go into the details of these allegations.

The reasons for which Mr. Mungatia was dismissed as recorded in the minutes are the following eight:

"1. He has refused to work out the surplus of the society for the years 1973/74-75.

2. He has abused the committee members and he doesn't respect them. He has been given a reason i.e. he has put the co-operative department in his favour regardless of his misconduct so committee can't do him anything.

3. Coming on duty late on the date committee had made an appointment to visit their premises in Nanyuki.

4. Abusing the committee on 22nd December, 1977.

5. Destroying the committee allowance cheque so that they may not be paid.

6. Absenting himself from duty for six days without permission or a good reason.

7. Abusing the Hon. Secretary when doing his duty—simply presenting him with a letter of warning.

8. Employing two watchmen to keep the wheat store without committee permission."

In addition to these there was another dispute with him on the return back of the Respondents' property i.e. a pump and a telly lamp which it was alleged Mr. Mungatia had taken.

The Court has carefully evaluated and weighed all the evidence given by the witnesses and finds that the aforesaid allegations from 2 to 7 were not proved by the Respondents. Mr. Mbutura, the Respondents' witness, turned out to be a poor witness particularly in cross-examination when he either evaded or gave irrelevant answers or simply pretended that he did not understand the questions. The Court even after giving him due allowance for the fact that there may have been some interpretation difficulties is of the view that he was deliberately trying not to answer the questions during cross-examination. This sort of evidence taken with Mr. Mugambi's report and the absence of the attendance register for the Respondents' employees which register incidentally was lost while in custody of the Respondents, forces the Court in finding that none of these allegations have been proved against Mr. Mungatia.

Regarding the question of employment of two watchmen to guard the wheat store without the committee's permission the Court feels that this sort of exercise when circumstances warrant it can legitimately be carried out by the Secretary/Manager because after all it is one of his duties to protect the Respondents' property and he explained that he had employed these two watchmen during the harvest time. So the Court must reject this allegation as a misconduct against him.

The Respondents during the hearing laid great emphasis on the pump and telly lamp which Mr. Mungatia had taken and not returned. In the letter of dismissal addressed to him on 27th April, 1978 it is stated that the pump was not in good order when Mr. Mungatia brought it and he had failed to bring the telly lamp. Mr. Mugambi's report to the provincial co-operative officer dated 9th May, 1978 however states as follows on this issue:

"The Acting Secretary/Manager confirmed that the spray pump was returned on 12th April, 1978 and the telly lamp was returned on 29th April, 1978. The Committee especially the chairman and the treasurer could not agree that they were returned on the mentioned dates and they were even suspecting that they had not been returned till such time that they were even brought to them to see."

Mr. Mugambi confirmed this during his evidence also.

Coupled with the evidence on this point is the fact that Mr. Mungatia is also a member of the Respondents and therefore entitled to use their property as other members which includes the use of the pump as well for spraying crops. The Court is not inclined to find that even on this point Mr. Mungatia deserved to be dismissed.

The Court feels that by far the most important allegation against him was that he had refused to work out the surplus of the society for 1973, 1974 and 1975. At the meeting of 11th April, 1978 it was decided that if Mr. Mungatia "is found spoiling society's work he should be dismissed without more discussion about him any more". On this particular point Mr. Mugambi's report has this to say:

"It is true that the assignment is not complete but the Acting Secretary/Manager reported that there was a lot of work especially in finding and recording members produce for 1973/1974 and 1974/1975 and calculate the surplus distribution for every member. Though this is the case work is almost completed and by Friday the Assistant Secretary/Manager was comparing his figures to enable him give final results."

It is obvious that work was being done and was nearly complete as far as working out the surplus was concerned.

The Court found Mr. Mugambi to be a good witness who gave his evidence in a frank and forthright manner. The Respondents totally failed either to substantiate or prove the following allegation against Mr. Mugambi in their written submission to the Court:

"The report by Co-operative Officer Mr. J. Mugambi appendix 12. It is submitted is a fabrication and design to protect and cover up the employee who was a close friend and from who he had material benefit. The said report was not official investigation and that explains why it was never copied to the Respondents and not received by the Provincial Co-operative Officer and that explains why there is no reply from the Provincial Co-operative Office."

Mr. Mburu, the Provincial Co-operative Officer admitted that he had received Mr. Mugambi's report but explained that when he received it he had also received a complaint against Mr. Mungatia from the Pyrethrum Board of Kenya saying that the members were not being paid their dues in time. This particular allegation was not mentioned anywhere as a reason for Mr. Mungatia's dismissal by the Respondents but it certainly influenced Mr. Mburu considerably in not paying any attention to Mr. Mugambi's report.

After careful consideration of all the evidence and the submissions the Court finds that the Respondents failed to prove all the allegations which they had put forward as reasons for dismissing Mr. Mungatia. Furthermore Mr. Mungatia was denied the opportunity of giving his explanations to these various allegations at the meeting of 11th April, 1978 when he was asked to go out and was called in only to be given the decision of the committee which was that he had been demoted and that if he spoiled the society work then he should be dismissed without any further discussion. The Court finds that Mr. Mungatia has suffered a wrongful dismissal.

The Claimants have made a very strong plea for his reinstatement but the Court is not inclined to award that as keeping in mind the nature of the co-operative societies the Court feels that Mr. Mungatia's return there in any capacity would neither help the society nor Mr. Mungatia. The farmers who constitute the society deserve a management committee and the management who work harmoniously. To do anything that might hinder it would be a disservice to the farmers and the Court would not like to do that. Even on the question of giving a compensation to Mr. Mungatia for the wrongful dismissal that he has suffered the Court again has been influenced by the plight of the farmers who have to foot all the expenses and the Court accordingly awards that Mr. Mungatia should be paid a compensation of six months' salary for the wrongful dismissal that he has suffered. On the question of expenses which were incurred by the Claimants during the first hearing which was aborted by the Respondents' failure to present a written memorandum the Court feels that an award in respect of expenses would really be an award on costs and the Trade Disputes Act does not allow the Industrial Court to make any award on costs in disputes of this nature. So the Claimants' request for expenses is turned down.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.
