OBITUARY.

It is with the greatest regret that His Majesty's Commissioner has received the sad news of the death of Dr. R. Stoney, on the evening of the 19th October, near Nimule, by the attack of an elephant.

Dr. Stoney had served for 6 years in the Uganda Administration and had made himself deservedly popular with both Europeans and Natives alike by his genial manner and the extreme care he bestowed on those entrusted to his charge.

Reuters Telegrams.

NOVEMBER 1ST.—The French Chamber has passed the Amnesty Bill.

A Company of Troops at Lodz have been arrested for firing in the air instead of at the mob. A similar incident has also occurred in Warsaw.

Three hundred were killed and wounded during the disturbances in Odessa on Sunday last.

In view of the mail interruption between St. Petersburg and Berlin the Kaiser has placed two Torpedo Divisions at the Tsar's disposal to convey official correspondence between Peterhof and Memel. The Tsar has gratefully accepted this offer.

The Tsar's Manifesto has been placarded throughout St. Petersburg and telegraphed all over Russia wherever wires are working. It is believed in St. Petersburg that the effect will be instantaneous. Last night in St. Petersburg there was great popular rejoicing, the streets were crowded with a mob cheering liberty.

The jubilation caused in St. Petersburg by the first announcement that the Tsar had granted a constitution was succeeded yesterday by a demonstration in honour of the victory of Proletariat. A huge procession with red flags singing revolutionary songs paraded the Nevsky Prospect, hymns for the dead were sung at various points in memory of the victims of the 22nd January.

NOVEMBER 2ND.—The Governor of German East Africa has asked for 4200 reinforcements to suppress the rising there. The majority he expects to be able to raise locally.

The Storthing has granted the authority mentioned in Reuter's of the 26th ultimo to enter into negotiations with Prince Charles of Denmark with a view to his accepting the Norwegian crown.

Provocative tactics of the Police in Odessa on Tuesday precipitated several encounters with the mob culminating in desperate fighting.

It is reported that there were over 200 casualties.

Eight were killed and many injured in the encounters with the troops and the demonstrators in St. Petersburg on Tuesday.

There is a great movement now on foot in Finland firmly demanding a free constitution.

General Trepoff has placarded St. Petersburg warning the inhabitants to maintain order and stating that the disturbances will be suppressed in the most vigorous manner.

In St. Petersburg yesterday troops closed the University which has hitherto been the rallying point for the Revolutionaries; several conflicts have occurred between the mob and the troops but not of a very serious nature.

The mob have taken possession of Odessa and are plundering and shooting, the Civil and Military Authorities are powerless to interfere.

The following is the result of the Cambridgeshire Stakes :—

- (1) Velocity.
- (2) Santry.
- (3) Dean Swift.

NOVEMBER 3RD.—News has reached Hongkong that an American Missionary and three American Lady Missionaries and child have been murdered at Lieuchan inland from Canton.

At Warsaw 300 Political prisoners were released at the demand of the mob but 12 were retained. The mob thereupon attacked the Town Hall and were charged by the Cavalry, 89 were killed or wounded. In another encounter at the same place 34 were killed or wounded.

The St. Petersburg Strike Committee have decided to end the general Strike to-day.

Russia continues seething with excitement, in some towns the revolutionary excesses have provoked justifiable repression from the Authorities, but in other towns notably Kazan and Poltana the troops and Police have gained universal execration by wanton savagery. In other towns specially Odessa and Kieff the wildest mob law accompanied by ruthless assaults on the Jews prevails.

The Revolution in Finland is proceeding tranquilly and unresisted.

Renewed anti-Jewish disorders have broken out at Rostoff on Volga, and Kherson where the mobs are pillaging and murdering unrestrained. Similar scenes during the last three days have occurred at Kieff.

Odessa is again a prey to lawlessness and panic, many hundreds have been killed or wounded.

NOVEMBER 4TH.—Troops are reassuming control over Odessa and clearing off the mob.

Reports from the large towns in all parts of the Russian Empire give the same monotonous tale, namely rioting, pillaging, and killing of the Jews in which the troops often participate themselves.

An Imperial Ukase proclaiming a general amnesty was signed yesterday at the Peterhof.

The appointment of Deputy Augagneur as Governor General of Madagascar has been signed.

NOVEMBER 6TH.—British warships have left Revel for Helsingfors owing to the continuance of alarming reports and representations of the British Embassy to the Russian Government with regard to the safety of British subjects in Finland.

The latest reports from Russia show that the stories of the horrors perpetrated in Odessa have been in no way exaggerated, hooligans aided by the Police slaughtered whole families of Jews with inconceivable brutality. It is impossible to estimate the total killed but 5500 wounded are at present in hospital.

The Amnesty proclaimed by the Tsar is of the widest description and applies especially to political prisoners.

There are no signs that Russia is quieting down, grave disturbances and bloodshed are reported in fresh places daily.

General Gallieni has been appointed Inspector General of Colonial Troops and has received the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honour.

The French Socialists have decided to contest all seats in the coming elections for the Chamber and for the Senate.

M. Deroulade has announced that he intends to resume the leadership of the "Ligue of Patriots" and to return to France.

The French Chamber have rejected the Nationalist motion for a revision of the Constitution.

The great socialist demonstration which had been organised for yesterday at St. Petersburg has been abandoned owing to the stern threat of General Trepoff to repress disturbances rigorously.

NOVEMBER 7TH.—Mr. Delomede arrived in Paris yesterday.

Reports of serious antisemitic and antiliberal rioting continue to be received from all directions.

From Archangel to Tiflis and from Poland to Tomsk these riots generally follow so called patriotic otherwise conservative demonstrations organised by the Police, the mobs being headed by the Imperial banner with a portrait of the Tsar.

A hundred were killed or wounded at Rostoff on Sunday and many were killed or wounded on the same date at Kremenchug.

A manifesto from the Tsar was published at Helsingfors yesterday restoring all the ancient liberties to Finland. The Constitutionals are satisfied, but the Revolutionaries demand further concessions.

Mr. Balfour replying to a deputation of 4,000 unemployed from the East End who marched to Downing Street admitted that the evil was serious and that the Government was aware of the sufferings, but he said it was impossible for the State to alleviate such troubles and that the problem was a local one.

NOVEMBER 8TH.—The Chief Rabbi in London has received a telegram from a leading Russian Jew to the effect that many Jewish Communities have been entirely destroyed in Russia and asking for help.

British Imports for the last ten months ending October show an increase of eleven millions sterling, Exports thirty millions.

Numbers of shops and Banks are reopening in St. Petersburg, Moscow, Helsingfors and elsewhere and the ordinary routine of life is being resumed.

NOVEMBER 10TH.—Earl Warwick and his brothers start from London on the 26th inst., on a shooting expedition to Nairobi.

The London Firm of Messrs. Rothschild and a New York Banker Mr. Schiff have each contributed £10,000 to the London Fund for Russian Jews. The money will be remitted to British Consuls in Russia who have been instructed by Lord Lansdowne to distribute among the destitute.

The Grand Duke Vladimir has resigned the Military Command of the St. Petersburg District. His resignation has been accepted.

The Prince and Princess of Wales arrived in Bombay yesterday and were accorded a splendid reception.

Mr. Justice Schooles of Gibraltar has been knighted.

Yielding to the popular demand General Trepoff, Perfect of St Petersburg, has resigned.

Soldiers and Sailors in Cronstadt have joined the workmen in sacking, pillaging and burning, desperate fighting is proceeding between the Loyalists and the Revolutionaries.

Mr. Balfour speaking yesterday at the Guildhall referred to Japan our new Ally as a great Power that has arisen in the Far East and said that it was a happy time in the present moment to survey Foreign politics when our Allies were commencing their great mission of civilisation. He stated that Russia was absorbing the public interest of the world by the great movement now going on there in the direction of Self-government, that all that Great Britain wished for the Tsar and his advisers was success, and he hoped that the future would be unsullied by the horrible scenes that had marred the initial progress.

NOVEMBER 11TH.—The mutinous soldiers and Sailors at Kronstadt number about 5,000; ten unpopular Officers were massacred on Wednesday.

Reuters Correspondent has just reached Kronstadt but found the mutiny quelled and loyal troops vigorously controlling the Town.

The attitude of the French Government towards the Trade Unions amongst civil servants led to a crisis in the Chamber yesterday. M. Berteaux resigned because the Government received the support of the Nationalists on the question. After stormy scenes a vote of confidence in M. Rouvier was adopted by 310 to 147 votes.

NOVEMBER 13TH.—The visit of Prince Luiz of Battenburg with the Cruiser Squadron to New York is affording an occasion for every kind of international courtesy and the Prince himself is producing a most excellent impression.

M. Etienne has succeeded M. Berteaux as Minister for war.

The last remnant of the Kronstadt mutineers surrendered on Saturday.

With regard to the coming naval demonstration against Turkey, it is semiofficially explained in Rome that Italy's co-operation with the other Powers in a naval demonstration is inspired by no illfeeling towards Turkey but by the belief in the necessity for financial control with regard to Macedonia. The various Squadrons will probably meet in the Piraeus.

The Holy Synod have issued an address to the Russian people begging them to cease attacking and murdering the landed proprietors, and Jews and to avoid civil war.

In a letter M. Berteaux explains that he has resigned because he is unable to ignore Tuesday's vote in the Chamber which although approving Rouvier's attitude regarding the Trade Unions showed that 226 Republicans of the left deserted Government.

There is a great agitation amongst the workmen in the French Arsenal and a general strike is threatened.

M. de Witte has received telegrams from various parts of Poland including one from the Diet of Warsaw demanding full autonomy and election by universal suffrage. He has replied that while being in favour of an autonomous administration he is opposed to political autonomy.

The Council of workers and Delegates in St. Petersburg are preparing to defend the Jews.

NOVEMBER 14TH.—A Russian Official communiqué declares that the Government will no longer tolerate the agitation in Poland which it stigmatizes as an impudent movement aiming at independence, and therefore as long as the people are influenced by agitators Poland will receive none of the benefits contained in the manifestos of the 18th August and 30th October.

Martial law was proclaimed in Poland on Sunday evening.

A patrol of troops at Warsaw fired a volley without provocation on a group of Jews severely wounding eight.

The correspondent of the "Daily Telegraph" at Tokio wires that it has been definitely decided that Admiral Togo and his Squadron should visit England probably next March.

The Prince and Princess of Wales are daily participating in functions of every description in Bombay and winning golden opinions from all classes, races, and religions.

The Martial law proclaimed in Poland is exasperating the Poles.
