Officer-in-Charge.

Reuter's Telegrams.

JULY 15TH.—In the French Chamber M. Lasies (Nationalist) denounced the Amnesty Bill owing to the inclusion of such low reptiles as M. André who he said were employed to spy on their comrades. An uproar followed and M. Berteaux the Minister for War showing great excitement stated that he refused after such an insult to support the Bill any further and that the Bill was mainly for the benefit of the Nationalists. In the uproar the sitting was suspended and on resumption M. Rouvier read a decree closing the session, thus wrecking the Amnesty Bill. The French Cabinet subsequently recommended M. Loubet to pardon all persons who would have benefited by the Bill, but it is thought that M. Deroulede and others will not accept this.

Admiral May and other British Officers were prominent amongst the spectators at the grand Review at Longchamps yesterday and Sir Francis Bertie the British Ambassador presented Admiral May to M. Loubet. Many others of the British Force at Brest also attended the review including marines and naval seamen and much international enthusiasm was shown.

M. Deroulede has refused his pardon and declines to return to France unless he receives justice.

The following is the result of the election for Carlisle in succession to Mr. Speaker Gully resigned.

The Duke of Connaught announced at Bisley yesterday that he will shortly proceed on tours of inspection to South Africa and Canada.

JULY 17TH.—The Japanese are gratified at the appointment of M. de Witte as Russian Plenipotentiary. He leaves St Petersburg on Wednesday and proceeds to America via Cherbourg.

The Eton and Harrow match resulted in a draw.

Marshall Oyama reports brisk fighting at Sakhalin the Japanese drove out the Russians from Vladimirooka and Blijineke on the 10th; they retired northwards to fortified positions at Dalineye, these were stormed and carried by the Japanese on the 11th, the Russians were completely routed on the 12th.

M. Berteaux gave a luncheon to Admiral May and the senior officers of the British Squadron to whom afterwards a reception was held at the Hotel de Ville. Extreme cordiality was shown throughout and complimentary speeches exchanged. The festivities and good feeling shown at Brest have induced the French newspapers to discuss the possibility of developing the Entente into an Alliance, they point out that the Naval combination would be irresistible.

Delursaluces and Deroulede's coexiles have returned to Paris.

It is officially announced at Tokio that 80 prisoners and 5 guns were captured at Dalineye. 70 Japanese were killed or wounded and 160 Russians. The Japanese victory ensures the complete occupation of Southern Sakhalin.

The Mikado has pardoned M. Bougonin and Maki but it is understood that Bougonin returns permanently to France.

JULY 18TH.—England and Spain have agreed to join the Morocco Conference provided its programme is communicated to them in advance.

Reuter's Agent at Odessa telegraphs that the Russian Authorities there are acting with great severity in the repression of peasant disturbances in Khe son, 030 have been arrested, the prisoners have been terribly beaten by Cossacks and two subsequently died. The drastic measures are proving effective.

Mr. Balfour has withdrawn the redistribution resolutions mentioned in Reuter's of the 12th inst., and will proceed with the Bill next Session.

The Royal Commission on the Stores Scandal has opened. Mr. Badrick was the first witness. He dwelt on the enormous amount of work the War Office had to cope with during the war, and the difficulty of obtaining adequate financial advice.

General Linievitch telegraphs that Japanese Torpedo Destroyers have entered Olga Bay on the mainland north of Vladivostok.

Admiral May has been made a Grand Officer of the Legion of Honour, Capt Bridgman a Commander and all Captains of British ships are Officers of the same order.

JULY 19TH.—The British Fleet has left Brest.

General Linievitch telegraphs that the Japanese on the 14th inst., were bombarding Naibuchi on the Southwest coast of Sakhalin.

Captain Guerin the defendant of Fort Chabrol has returned to Paris.

M. de Witte being interviewed prior to his departure stated that the Tsar desired peace, but that he himself feared that the Japanese terms would be such as to prevent an agreement in which case Russia would be prepared to fight on for years.

The British Fleet's visit to Brest is universally recognised as having produced the best feeling between the two nations and their two Navies.

JULY 20TH.—It is reported from Tokio that a Japanese Army has actually landed north of Vladivostok.

The large majority of Russian men-of-war which were sunk at Port Arthur are found to be far less damaged than was anticipated and it is now certain that they will be perfectly serviceable.

Sir Henry Fowler called attention to Lord Curzon's severe if not offensive criticism before the Indian Council of Mr. Brodrick's Despatch, and asked what Government proposed to do with reference to this extraordinary Speech. Mr. Brodrick in reply stated that he had cabled for the text and hoped to be able to make some statement on the subject early next week.

The Great Zemstvo Congress has been opened at Moscow and so far the Police have in no way interfered.

Reuter's Agent at Tokio states that after a series of defeats of the Russians roundabout Sakhalin they are now making a stand at Monk. The nature of the ground makes further retreat north impossible, and as they are known to be short of supplies they will probably soon have to surrender.

The Aliens Exclusion Bill has been read for the third time in the House of Commons.

JULY 21ST.—The steamer "Minnesota" with the Japanese Plenipotentiaries on board was sighted yesterday off the American coast.

The Deputy Governor General of Finland was wounded by a bomb yesterday when leaving the Senate, the thrower escaped.

In Committee of Supply Mr. Redmond protested against the manner in which the Land Act was being administered and moved a reduction in the Vote for the Land Commission which was carried by 199 votes to 196. There was prolonged excitement in the House, the Opposition shouting exultingly. In reply to Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman Mr. Balfour declined to then state the Government's intentions in view of the defeat but said he would do so on Monday after consulting his colleagues.

JULY 22ND.—A Cabinet Council was held yesterday and another will be to-day.

In the House of Commons yesterday morning the Scotch Churches Bill was rushed through, the sitting then adjourned. The lobbies swarmed with excited members and there is a marked disposition to regard the Government defeat as serious.

It is believed that the Cabinet will come to no decision before Monday.

M. de Witte has arrived in Paris.

JULY 24TH.—Mr. Balfour had a brief audience with His Majesty on Friday night when it is stated he informed the King that he himself and his colleagues were agreed that the present position did not make it incumbent on them to resign.

Most of the leading papers now believe that Mr. Balfour will propose a rescission of Thursday's vote, wind up the Session and dissolve in the autumn.

A terrible boiler explosion occurred on board the small Cruiser "Benington" in San Diego, California. The bulk of her deck was blown in the air, 27 men were killed and 70 injured.

It is reported officially from Constantinople that as the Sultan was leaving the Mosque after the Salamlik a bomb exploded in the courtyard killing and wounding several of those present, the Sultan himself was uninjured.

It is stated from Tokio that the "Poltava" has been refloated.

39 were killed, 80 injured and 21 missing of the crew of the "Benington."

The Zemstvo Congress in Moscow is displaying remarkable independence and unanimity. Prince Dolgorakof, Prince Trubetskvi and other nobles have been most outspoken in denouncing the existing regime.

Sergeant Conber of the East Surreys has won the King's prize at Bisley.

24 were killed and 57 injured together with 55 horses in the bomb explosion at Constantinople.

M. de Witte had an interview of an hour's duration with M. Rouvier.

His Majesty has telegraphed M. Rouvier thanking him for the reception given at Brest to the Fleet. The fact that the message has been sent to M. Rouvier and not to M. Loubet is interpreted in Paris as denoting the King's desire to intimate that M. Delcasse's resignation in no way signifies that the "Entente Cordiale" has been impaired.

Besides the question of peace it is understood that M. de Witte discussed with M. Rouvier both the Morocco Dispute and the Franco-Russian alliance.

Reuter telegraphs from St. Petersburg that the Tsar left Peterhof on Sunday morning on board his Yacht "Standart" for Borgo in Finland to meet the Kaiser at dinner on board the "Hohenzollern."

Last night M. de Witte had an interview with M. Loubet.

JULY 25TH.—The Tsar when leaving for Finland was only accompanied by his brother and the Court Minister. The Russian Foreign Office was not represented possibly out of consideration to French feelings.

A terrible outbreak of mob violence against all well dressed persons has occurred at Nijni Novgorod. The mob pursued individuals into their houses and many were killed or wounded.

The German papers suggest that the initiative for an interview between the Tsar and Kaiser emanated from Russia. The motives and objects of the meeting are being anxiously discussed throughout Europe especially in France.

Mr. Balfour has announced in the House of Commons that the Government did not intend to resign.

Mr. Balfour in a speech cited a mass of precedents for not resigning upon a vote like that of last Thursday and made no mention with regard to dissolution. A heated discussion followed and eventually Sir Alexander F. Acland Hood formally moved the adjournment of the House. This is tantamount to a motion of confidence in the Government and a division is expected at midnight.

General Sir Frederick Forestier Walker has been appointed Governor of Gibraltar. Lord Chelmsford Governor of Queensland.

Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman replying in the House condemned Mr. Balfour's attitude as utterly unconstitutional, and Mr. Redmond stated that the Liberals and the Irish would unite to make the Government's position unendurable by contesting every point. Mr. Churchill accused Mr. Balfour of flouting the traditions of Parliament and dishonouring the service of the Crown. Several heated scenes and speeches followed but the Opposition for tactical reasons decided to abstain from the division, the debate therefore unexpectedly terminated and the Government motion for adjournment was carried without a division.

JULY 26TH.—The Tsar has returned to Peterhof.

The Unionist organs approve of Mr. Balfour's decisions to remain in Office deeming it right that his personal feelings should give way before national considerations. The Radical Journals denounce the Government for clinging to office.

Endless theories are being propounded regarding the motives which led to the meeting of the Tsar and the Kaiser ranging from the natural desire of the Sovereigns to discuss the political problems now confronting Europe, to a design of the Kaiser to combine Germany, Russia, and France against Japan in view of the Peace negotiations.

JULY 27TH.—England has won the Fourth Test Match against Australia by an innings and 80 Runs.

There is a growing belief in Constantinople that the Salamlik bomb outrage was due to the Young Turkish party.

Brailsford and McCulloch have been convicted by the High Court in connection with the Russian Passport incident but sentence has been postponed.

M. de Witte has sailed for New York.

The greater portion of Russia is threatened with famine. Good to medium crops are reported only in Poland the Ural Provinces, the Caucasus and Siberia. The majority of the peasants everywhere are without means of subsistence.

JULY 28TH.—General Linievitch telegraphs that the Japanese on the 24th instant landed a battalion at Castries Bay south of the mouth of the river Amur.

It is reported that the Kaiser is proposing a Prince of the Hohenzollern Family for the Crown of Norway.

The electric train running from Liverpool to Southport yesterday while going at full speed dashed into a stationary train, 22 passengers were killed and 4 injured.

An interview has been transmitted by wireless telegraphy from the Atlantic Liner on which M. de Witte is a passenger to the effect that M. de Witte has declared that nothing which has recently occurred in Europe can remotely or indirectly affect the problem with which he has to deal.

JULY 29TH.—A version of Japanese terms has already been published in Washington with some show of authority. They comprise an indemnity of two hundred millions sterling and the neutralization of Vladivostok. Japan on her side agrees not to fortify Port Arthur.

The Franco-German negotiations with regard to Morocco are progressing slowly.

The last Russian force in Sakhalien is isolated south east of Alexandrovsk and its submission is imminent. This surrender will make the Japanese the virtual masters of the whole island which news is causing rejoicing in Tokio.

JULY 31st.—A strong Japanese Squadron is now blockading Vladivostok.

The forthcoming cruise of the British Channel Squadron in the Baltic is causing a great outcry in Berlin.

The whole programme for the entertainment of the French Fleet in August is now published and is a full one, comprising a Royal luncheon at Cowes and again at Windsor also a luncheon at the Guild Hall and culminating with an entertainment in Westminster Hall. This last entertainment is regarded as quite an exceptional compliment.

The Tsar in replying to a petition urging him not to conclude a shameful peace stated that the Russian people may rely on him never to accept either a dishonourable or an unworthy peace.

The French Commission on Foreign Affairs recommends the French Government to establish the Anglo-French Entente with a view to maintaining the territorial status quo of the two Powers in Chinese waters. It also urges the establishment of closer economic relations with Japan.

Madame Bartel of the Comedie Francaise has been decorated with the Order of the Legion of Honour.

The French Presidential Election will be held probably on the 26th January next year.

After a stormy discussion the Zionist Congress at Basel rejected the offer of territory in Uganda, but resolved to ask the British Government to use its influence to promote the Zionist aims in Palestine.

The Japanese are steadily overrunning the island of Sakhalien and dislodging the Russians from successive positions.

The Kaiser left Danzig yesterday for Copenhagen to visit the Danish Court.
