REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT

PURSUANT to section 8 of the Statutory Instruments Act, 2013, the Cabinet Secretary for Investments, Trade and Industry notifies the general public that a Regulatory Impact Statement on the proposed Standards Levy Order, 2023 has been prepared to assess the impact of the Order on the community and business.

The main objective of the proposed Order is to facilitate the implementation of section 10B of the Standards Act. Specifically, the Order contains—

- (a) provisions as to the evidence by which a person’s liability for the levy or the discharge of that liability must be established;
- (b) the time at which any amount payable by any person by way of the levy shall become due;
- (c) the way the levy shall be recoverable by the Director; and
- (d) classes or description of industry to which the Order may apply.

This is therefore to request all persons likely to be affected by the proposed Order to submit written memorandum on the proposed Order to reach the Director within fourteen (14) days from the date of the publication of this notice.

The draft Regulatory Impact Statement and the proposed Order are available on the Kenya Bureau of Standards website at www.kebs.org.

- shall have access to all reports relevant to its mandate;
- shall, as it considers appropriate, carry out or cause to be carried out such studies or research as may inform the Human Resource Management Process Re-engineering Taskforce on its mandate;
- shall submit reports to the Governor upon request; and
- subject to the foregoing, the Human Resource Management Process Re-engineering Taskforce and the secretariat that may be established by the Taskforce, shall have all the independence necessary for carrying out its function, and for the proper execution of its mandate, including the power to regulate its own procedure without being the subject of control by any other authority.

The taskforce shall remain in office for a period of eight (8) months from the date of the publication of this notice and the Governor may, if necessary, extend the term of the taskforce.

The Human Resource Management Process Re-engineering Taskforce shall—

- within (2) two month (or such longer period that the Governor may authorize) submit to the Governor a report with appropriate recommendations;

(b) submit as appropriate, interim reports to the Governor as the Human Resource Management Process Re-engineering Taskforce may deem fit and necessary or as the need arises; and

(c) in consultation with the Governor, have the power to co-opt other staff in the county government or a professional expert, as it deems fit only for specialized aspects of its terms of reference.

The costs incurred by the taskforce in the performance of its functions shall be defrayed from the voted funds of the County Department for Public Service

These appointments take effect from the date of this notice.

Dated the 31st October, 2023.
