GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 2002

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 19 OF 1966

Parties:—

Kenya Chemical Workers' Union
and
Colas, East Africa Limited

Issues in dispute:—

- (1) Wages.
- (2) Working Hours
- (3) Annual Paid Leave.
- (4) Termination of Employment.
- (5) Gratuity Payment.
- (6) Leave Allowance.
- (7) Effective Date.

1. The Kenya Chemical Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Colas, East Africa Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The Parties were heard in Nairobi on the 13th of May 1966, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

3. The Parties signed an agreement on 8th June 1965, with effect from 1st January 1964, governing the terms and conditions of employment of the Respondents' employees. This agreement in clause 15 provides as follows:—

"Period of Operation

This Agreement shall be effective from 1st January 1964, and shall remain in force for a period of 12 months, thereafter until it is amended by mutual agreement between the Company and the Union provided that it shall be terminated automatically should the agreement relative to recognition and negotiating procedure be terminated. A party wishing to amend the provisions of this Agreement shall give one month's prior notice of its proposals."

On 17th June 1965, the Claimants submitted to the Respondents demands on 22 items. A meeting took place on 7th December 1965, at which all these items were discussed and agreement was reached on 12 of these items. The Claimants reported the dispute to the Ministry of Labour on 7th February 1966, and a conciliator was appointed. A meeting took place on 4th March 1966, under the Chairmanship of the conciliator and agreement was reached on another three items. Throughout the negotiations the Respondents had maintained that wages could not be discussed until after 1st March 1966, due to the wage standstill benefit granted to them under the Tripartite Agreement. Therefore, on 4th March 1966, a further conciliation meeting took place between the Parties during which the Respondents made an offer of Sh. 20 increase per month to all employees in various grades. This offer was rejected by the Claimants and the matter was referred by the Parties along with six other issues to the Industrial Court in accordance with the Trade Disputes Act, 1965. The Parties signed the notification of dispute form on 9th April 1966.

The Claimants stated that as against these rates they had demanded the following new rates:—

Grade 1	..	Sh. 380 per month.
Grade 2	..	Sh. 450 per month.
Grade 3	..	Sh. 685 per month.
Grade 4	..	Sh. 850 per month.

The Claimants submitted that they were still a long way from their declared target of a minimum wage of Sh. 350 per month for the lowest paid worker. They pointed out that before Kenya achieved her independence African workers had lived on starvation wages and had been exploited for nearly 70 years. It was only natural that these workers since independence should try to raise their standard of living. The Claimants stated that the three East African Governments had laid emphasis on the need for a high-wage economy, social security and old age pension schemes. School fees, taxes and the cost of living had risen in the last three years. The Claimants submitted that a single worker needed, for his bare necessities, a sum of Sh. 250/45 per month and a worker with a family required Sh. 500/90 per month. The Claimants urged the following points for the Court's consideration and suggested that these should be taken into account when wages were assessed:—

- (a) Food—to enable the employee and his family to get enough food every day to replace the energy used in living and working;
- (b) Clothing—enough clothes for an employee and his family to appear decently dressed with proper protection from the weather;

(c) Housing—housing of a standard under which the employee and his family could live under healthy and hygienic conditions;

(d) Security.

(e) Education—an employee, his wife and children should be afforded the opportunity to develop talents and ability to the fullest extent.

In order to achieve the above, workers should be paid higher wages. The Claimants stated that the Respondents had not pleaded at any stage their inability to meet the cost of their demands. The Claimants laid great emphasis on the fact that the cost of living had gone up considerably in this country during the last few years and it was, therefore, considered illogical for employers to expect the workers to meet their basic human requirements unless wages were increased. The Claimants were committed to encourage workers to work hard and to improve the productivity of the industry in which they were engaged, but they felt that increase in production must lead to increase in workers' remuneration also. The Claimants would continue to struggle and fight for the improvement of workers' wages and terms and conditions of employment as they were against any form of exploitation by the employers. The Claimants argued that exploitation of workers was a colonial practice and should have ceased with independence.

The Claimants gave details of the various agreements which they had negotiated with employers in the chemical industry and stressed that all the wage rates in these agreements were far superior to the ones offered by the Respondents.

(2) Working Hours.—The Claimants submitted that at present 43 hours per week were worked exclusive of meal break hours but they wanted this to be reduced to 41 hours per week as the workers were grossly underpaid for the amount of work they were required to do. The Claimants stated that workers working 42 hours per week were receiving remuneration between Sh. 250 to Sh. 315 per month and, therefore, they were justified in asking the Court to reduce the working hours to 41 hours per week.

(3) Annual Paid Leave.—The Claimants submitted that they wanted four weeks' paid leave for those employees who had completed three years of service or more after every 12 months. They gave details to the Court of other favourable agreements they had negotiated with employers on this issue. The Claimants were happy with three weeks' paid leave for those employees who had less than three years' service.

(4) Termination of Employment.—The Claimants submitted that the present provisions under this head were not satisfactory and requested the Court to award the following new provisions regulating the termination of employment:—

"Except where an employee is summarily dismissed for gross misconduct or other lawful cause as prescribed in the Employment Act and provided the probationary period has been completed, the Company will be required to give the following notices to its employees:—

- (i) After completion of a probationary period as specified under clause 14 and over but, less than three years' service—one month's notice or one month's pay in lieu of such notice;
- (ii) on completion of three years' service and over with the Company—two months' notice or two months' pay in lieu of such notice;
- (iii) an employee who is guilty of an offence other than of gross misconduct or other lawful cause for dismissal may be given a warning in writing which shall be recorded in his/her history record card and which he/she shall be required to sign. The signature or initial of an employee in the history record card shall not mean that the employee is pleading guilty to the offence recorded against such employee, but simply will confirm that it has been recorded during an employee's presence or with his/her full knowledge, the employee shall be free to make an appeal against such warning in accordance with the procedure laid down by the Recognition Agreement between the Company and the Union. An employee who receives three such warnings may be liable to summary dismissal if the offence or other lawful cause of which he/she is deemed to be guilty is repeated, provided that all such warnings shall be after a period of 12 months from the date of the last such warning. The Union shall be advised of a second warning being given to an employee."

Note.—The above is an extract from the Claimants' memorandum.

(5) Gratuity Payment.—The Claimants demanded that:—

- (a) On completion of 1 year up to 5 years' service, an employee should be paid gratuity of 1 month's pay for each completed year of service;
- (b) on completion of 5 years' service but less than 11 years, an employee should be paid a gratuity of 1½ months' pay for each completed year of service;
- (c) on completion of 11 years' service and over, an employee should be paid a gratuity of 2 months' pay for each completed year of service.

The Claimants submitted that their demands were reasonable because employees should receive gratuity according to the length of their service and that the present arrangement was not satisfactory. At present all employees who left the Respondents' service for reasons other than misconduct were entitled to a sum equal to two weeks' pay in respect of each completed year of service. This was an interim measure until such time as the Government introduced the Kenya National Provident Fund.

(6) Leave Allowance.—The Claimants demanded a leave allowance of Sh. 70 for employees in Grades 1 and 2 and Sh. 90 in respect of Grades 3 and 4. The Claimants submitted that even if their wage demands were met the wages would still be low and the Respondents should give additional benefits such as this to their employees.

(7) Effective Date.—The Claimants submitted that the Respondents were not entitled to the benefit of wage standstill under the Tripartite Agreement because the agreement dated 8th June 1965, clearly fixed its life for a period of 12 months only from 1st January 1964. This agreement had been witnessed by Mr. Dodds of the Federation of Kenya Employers on 3rd March 1965. In these circumstances the Parties expressly contracted themselves out of the Tripartite Agreement.

The Claimants denied that they were going against the undertaking which they gave in their letter dated 8th June 1964, addressed to the Assistant Executive Officer of the Federation of Kenya Employers. They stated that that undertaking had not been accepted by the Federation of Kenya Employers as on 7th December 1964, the Assistant Executive Officer was still seeking the Claimants' signature to an agreement which contained the 12 months' wage standstill. This, the Claimants had refused to sign and eventually the Parties had signed the agreement mentioned hereinabove. The Claimants, therefore, requested the Court to make its award effective from 1st June 1965, as delay in negotiations had been entirely due to the evasive and negative attitude of the Respondents.

MAIN SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE RESPONDENTS

5. (1) Wages.—The Respondents submitted that they were a small organization and had only 13 employees. They were engaged in manufacturing and selling bitumen emulsion for road surfacing purposes. Their product was marketed in keen competition with oil companies in Kenya who also sold bitumen for the same purpose. The Respondents submitted that during the course of negotiations the Claimants had reduced their demands as follows:—

Grade 1	Sh. 280 per month.
Grade 2	Sh. 320 per month.
Grade 3	Sh. 400 per month.
Grade 4	Sh. 640 per month.

The Respondents argued that these rates were quite unreasonable and bore no relationship to the factual situation. They had been submitted without basis to give the Claimants maximum opportunity in bargaining. Such policy could make no contribution to good industrial relations. The Respondents had made a realistic approach to the wage structure in line with their present economic position and in line with what was the current practice in the country. The Respondents stated that their offer of Sh. 20 increase per month to all employees was extremely reasonable.

The Respondents quoted a few passages from the recent revised Development Plan announced by the Government. One passage stated that increases in wage rates had exceeded increase in production and this had resulted in capital increase over labour. The Respondents stated that wage structure should be one which would result in increased employment.

(2) Working Hours.—The Respondents submitted that their Employees currently enjoyed a working week which was much less than the working week of most other employees in Kenya today. This fact coupled with its effects on the value of the wage packet left the Respondents with no reasonable grounds for making changes. The Respondents stated that they had consistently rejected the demand for reduction in working hours and requested the Court to do the same.

(3) Annual Paid Leave.—The Respondents submitted that during the course of conciliation, negotiation and the Court hearing they had heard nothing which justified a change in the present entitlement.

(4) Termination of Employment.—The Respondents stated that currently the provision was that in the first month of probation the employment could be terminated by the giving of 24 hours' notice; employees with more than one month and less than three months' service—7 days' notice, and on completion of the probationary period, one month's notice. They argued that this provided adequate security and it was in line with current provision. The Respondents requested the Court to make a nil award as the Claimants had put forward no sound reasons in support of their demands.

(5) Gratuity Payment.—The Respondents stated that the Claimants had sought to enhance the current benefit by 100 per cent in the first part of their demand, 200 per cent in the second part of their demand and 300 per cent in the latter clause. The Respondents submitted that the present provision was equitable as it was at the proper contemporary level and that the Parties had agreed to this being an interim measure

(6) Leave Allowance.—The Respondents stated that this was a demand for a new benefit and as the policy these days was to pursue a wage as clean as could be possibly achieved, the Respondents were not prepared to proliferate fringe benefits. The Respondents were aware of the existence of such allowances and the levels which were awarded and negotiated but submitted that these were no justification for deviating from the logical and beneficial pursuit of the clean wage.

(7) Effective Date.—The Respondents submitted that they had sought a documentary guarantee from the Claimants which had been given in unequivocal terms by the Claimants to the effect that they would grant the employer the entitlement under the Tripartite Agreement. The Respondents gave the Court a letter from the Claimants' General Secretary addressed to the Assistant Executive Officer of the Federation of Kenya Employers dated 8th June 1964, in support of this contention. The Respondents stated that the Claimants had agreed in this letter that the Tripartite Agreement obligations would be honoured by them. In these circumstances the Respondents had agreed to accept the Claimants' views on the wording of clause 15 of the current agreement. The Respondents, therefore, pleaded that the Tripartite Agreement extended the agreement as far as wages were concerned for a further period of 14 months to 1st March 1966. The Respondents requested the Court to award this as the effective date of its award and to fix the duration of the agreement for 12 months from that date.

AWARD

6. The Court has very carefully examined the various submissions made by the Parties in making its findings.

(1) Wages.—The Court awards the following new rates for the four grades agreed between the Parties:—

Grade 1	..	Sh. 245 per month (consolidated).
Grade 2	..	Sh. 280 per month (consolidated).
Grade 3	..	Sh. 325 per month (consolidated).
Grade 4	..	Sh. 370 per month (consolidated).

(2) Working Hours.—Nil award.

(3) Annual Paid Leave.—The present entitlement remains unvaried but the Court awards that if a gazetted public holiday falls within the leave period then the employees shall be entitled to an extra day or days as the case may be.

(4) Termination of Employment.—The Court awards that the existing agreement as far as employees on probation are concerned is not varied but thereafter the following provisions shall apply:—

- (i) On completion of the probationary period as specified in the negotiated agreement between the Parties after three months and over but less than five years' service, one month's notice or one month's pay in lieu of such notice;
- (ii) on completion of five years' service and over with the Company—two months' notice or two months' pay in lieu of such notice;
- (iii) an employee who is guilty of an offence other than gross misconduct or other lawful cause of dismissal may be given a written warning which shall be entered in the employee's employment record card and shall remain valid for a period of 12 months from the date of issue. If, within the 12 months' period, the employee commits a similar or any other offence which does not warrant dismissal, he will be further warned in writing in his employment record card, and the two warnings shall remain valid for a period of 12 months from the date of the second warning. If, within this 12 months' period the employee commits a further offence which does not warrant dismissal, he will be issued with a final letter of warning which will make him liable to summary dismissal for any other offence which he may commit thereafter. A final letter of warning will remain valid for a period of one year from the date of issue. A copy of the final warning shall be sent to the General Secretary of the Union.

(5) Leave Allowance.—Nil award.

(6) Gratuity Payment.—The Court awards that the present arrangement shall continue until the implementation of the National Social Security Scheme in so far as this benefit shall then be provided by the National Scheme. Employees shall, however, continue to benefit under this award for services rendered up to the date of the implementation of the National Scheme. For example, if an employee retires after eight years of service having rendered five of them after the commencement of the National Scheme then he shall be provided for the first three years on the basis of the present arrangement and the remaining five years shall be subject to the National Scheme.

(7) Effective Date.—This award shall be with effect from 1st January 1966, and shall remain in force for a period of 12 months from that date.

Given in Nairobi this 24th day of May 1966.

During this period the grantee will be required to—

- (a) develop and thereafter maintain for the balance of the term, a minimum of 60,000 acres for the purpose of cattle ranching and to maintain in the area by the end of the period a minimum of 2,500 head of cattle and/or such other livestock as may be agreed with the Department of Agriculture;

- (b) spend a minimum of £25,000 on water development, stock rearing and for general purposes related thereto;

- (d) appoint a manager within three months of the commencement of the term of the lease who shall reside on the site;
- (e) construct a meat factory and refrigeration plant, a causeway at Lugard Falls, administrative buildings, a dispensary, a school, hunters' lodges and such roads as may be necessary to provide sufficient access for the effective development of the entire area.

2. The grantee shall, within six months of the commencement of the term of the lease, promote a company with total issued capital either by loan or by equity of not less than £100,000 and it shall be open to the Kenya Government to subscribe to the issued capital in such sum as it may decide.

3. The grantee shall on accepting a letter of allotment for the area now advertised enter into a formal agreement to lease from the Kilifi County Council the area of Trust Land approximately 238,000 acres in extent situated to the south of the Galana River as illustrated by L.D. Plan No. 65678/II/48b and thereon edged blue. A copy of this plan may be seen or obtained in the same manner as previously specified in this notice. The Kilifi County Council will on its part undertake to lease to the grantee of the Government land now advertised the said portion of Trust Land on terms and conditions essentially the same in all respects as those now specified. The lease of the portion of Trust Land will be issued under the Trust Land Act (Cap. 288) when the land has been set apart in terms of that Act and will be registered under the Registered Land Act, 1963.

4. The Constitution of the Company referred to in Special Condition No. 2 shall provide for the right of the President of Kenya and the Chairman of the Kilifi County Council at all times each to appoint one member to the Board of Directors of the Company to represent the interests of the Government and the County Council.

5. The grantee shall between the 5th and 20th years of the term of the lease carry out the following development, over and above the development of the area of 60,000 acres which is to be carried out during the initial five-year period. Between the 5th and the 10th years of the term, an area of not less than 210,000 acres shall be developed for cattle ranching purposes and a minimum of 8,000 head of cattle shall be introduced in the area. By the 15th year of the term, a total area of not less than 420,000 acres shall have been developed for cattle ranching purposes and a minimum of 17,000 head of cattle shall be introduced in the area. By the 20th year of the term, a minimum area of 640,000 acres shall have been developed for cattle ranching purposes and a minimum of 26,000 head of cattle shall have been introduced in the area. The grantee will be required to carry out all forms of ancillary development, including bush clearance, pasture improvement, development of water resources, provision of means of access, construction of requisite paddocks and all other arrangements necessary for the proper pasture and control of cattle in the numbers stated.

6. The Company shall so manage the natural animal population of the game and tourist development area that at no time, due to the Company's operations, would the area become denuded of such animal population and would in fact ensure that the overall animal population is encouraged to increase within the capacity of the area to accept such increase.

7. The Company shall throughout the term maintain the improvements made on the land in good and substantial repair and condition.

8. The Company shall submit to the Commissioner of Lands in each year for the first 20 years of the term a detailed report of the improvements effected on the land within the preceding year, including details of all wild animals killed or captured and trophies found and the steps being taken for the eradication shall be payable in respect of severance of part of the livestock into the area.

9. The Company shall pay such rates, taxes, charges, duties, assessments or outgoings of whatever description as may be imposed, charged or assessed by the Government or Local Authority upon the land or the buildings erected thereon.

10. The Company shall not subdivide, transfer, charge, sublet or otherwise part with the possession of the land or any part thereof without the prior written consent of the President. Providing that no such consent shall be required in respect of the subletting of residential accommodation in lodges or hotels.
