GAZETTE NOTICE No 3656

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No 51 OF 1975

Parties —

Kenya Quarry and Mine Workers' Union
Concrete Quarry Owners Group of FKE

Issue in dispute — Wages increment

1 The Kenya Quarry and Mine Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Concrete Quarry Owners Group of FKE shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 13th day of October, 1975, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3 The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 23rd July, 1975, was received by the Court on 5th August, along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The parties have entered into a collective agreement whereby the workers have been granted two increases, first 12½ per cent from 1st April, 1974, and a further increase of 12½ per cent with effect from 1st April, 1975. This collective agreement was concluded on 10th August, 1974, and was registered by the Industrial Court on 20th December, 1974 and the relevant entry is RCA 180/74.

This dispute dates from about May, 1975, when the Claimants forwarded demands on behalf of their members for a further wage increase to compensate them for the ever rising cost of living.

The Claimants submitted that prior to the aforesaid collective agreement they had asked for a wage increase of 25 per cent from 1st April, 1974, but had not been successful in getting it and now the Respondents had flatly rejected their demand for another 25 per cent wage increase over and above the ones granted by the Respondents in the aforesaid collective agreement. The Claimants are demanding a 25 per cent wage increase from 1st May, 1975.

The Respondents have very strongly resisted the Claimants' demand and stated that the circumstances of this dispute clearly showed that there was absolutely no reason why the collective agreement entered into between the parties and registered by the Court should be disturbed before its expiry date. They referred the Court to its observation in Cause No 65/1974 which stated —

"The other point is how often are the unions going to be allowed to put forward demands for wage/salary increases in view of the rising cost of living. Are we going to revise agreements every few months when there is an increase in the cost of living index? The answer is surely no as otherwise there will be no end to these disputes for any given period of time and the employers will never know with any certainty where they stand in relation to wage and salary demands. Surely the employers too are entitled to know precisely how and when they are likely to meet demands from the unions for wage and salary increases so that they can plan their finances accordingly."

The Court notes that this dispute involves about 2,000 workers both permanent and casual.

The parties' submissions were forwarded to the Employment Promotion Division by the Court for analysis and the following two paragraphs in the EPD report are very relevant to this dispute —

"The agreement granted two increases, first 12½ per cent with effect from 1st April, 1974, and an additional increase of 12½ per cent after 12 months. The employer gave the two increases but the Claimants later demanded that their members should be further compensated for the cost of living increase since the signing of the agreement. During the same period the cost of living had gone up by 24.8 per cent, i.e. from 1st April, 1974 to 1st April, 1975, while in the meantime the workers had got a 26.6 per cent (compounded) wage increase for the period until 31st March, 1976.

In this way of interpreting the Guidelines which is the one normally applied in such cases then it can be said that the workers have evidently been compensated for the price increases. Another and less common way of interpreting the Guidelines would be to take March, 1975, as the date of the latest pay revision, up to which full compensation has been given. Since that date prices have gone up by 5.3 per cent (i.e. up to August, 1975)."

The Court would further like to emphasize that H.E. the President in his May Day speech emphasized that for the salaries in the private sector the Government had modified wages Guidelines to enable the unions and employers to negotiate freely and His Excellency added the following paragraph —

"Workers must never consider themselves as a privileged group. They are part and parcel of our population, they must therefore help the Government to create more employment so that others who are not as lucky, may be able to get jobs within our economy. The demands made for salary increases must therefore be realistic."

After a careful consideration of all the submissions the Court finds that the Claimants' demand is misconceived as the workers have as recent as 1st April, 1975, received 12½ per cent wage increase. In the circumstances which have been set out herebefore in the award the Court feels that it would not be too much of a hardship on the workers to wait for the expiry of their collective agreement. In any case in order to save time there is nothing to prevent the Claimants from opening negotiations with the Respondents early next year so that workers can be compensated for the loss of money value by wage increases which will become effective from 1st April, 1976.

Given in Nairobi this 10th day of November, 1975

1 The Amalgamated Union of Kenya Metal Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Firestone E.A. (1969) Ltd shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 14th day of October, 1975, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. Following witnesses were called to give evidence during the hearing —

Claimants — J. Khasie and S. Githui

Respondents — John Otieno

AWARD

3 The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 2nd July, 1975, was received by the Court on 8th August, along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

Issue No 1 — It is common ground that the Respondents had suffered a drastic decline in business towards the end of last year continuing into the early part of this year as a result of which some 88 employees suffered a lay-off. The matter of this lay-off has already been before the Court and an award has already been made thereon.

At the time of the intended lay-off the Respondents felt that some of their employees were too experienced to be lost and decided to keep them in employment but to transfer them to other departments where there was work for them to do.

The employees so affected are nine in all, four of whom are tyre builders and one man each from the following departments —

Curing, Final Inspection, Green Tyre Inspection, Receiving and Tube Room Finishing

The Claimants have brought this dispute alleging that the aforesaid employees' rates of pay were reduced when they were transferred to other departments and they maintained that no employer has a right to vary unilaterally workers' rates which had been negotiated with the Union.

The Respondents submitted that they did not reduce the rates of these workers to which they were entitled in their substantive posts and had given all of them the guaranteed minimum rate of their original jobs. They alleged that the Claimants did not understand the position properly and had brought the dispute due to some confusion in their minds on this issue.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court rules that a worker is entitled to be paid at a rate not less favourable than the guaranteed minimum of his substantive job when he is transferred to another section under special circumstances.

The Court having made the above ruling further directs the Chief Industrial Relations Officer to investigate and confirm that all the workers involved in this issue are paid for the period in question in accordance with the Court's ruling.

Issue No 2 — The parties have in their collective agreement which they have freely and voluntarily negotiated a rather unusual clause for this country on the subject matter of the lay-off. This clause reads as follows —

"If an employee is guilty of an offence which Management feels is not severe enough to warrant summary dismissal, but is severe enough to warrant stronger action than just a written warning, Management may exercise an intermediate step of lay-off without pay. A lay-off without pay shall be limited to and not exceed three days to 14 days depending upon the severity of the act. In any case a lay-off without pay shall not be less than three days and not more than 14 days."

Cases of lay-off without pay will be subject to Union review"

During February, 1975, instructions were given by the Respondents that all small rolls of stabilizer ply should be used and during the period 13th to 17th February, 140 tyres produced by the Respondents were condemned and 200 had to be re built

The Respondents held Messrs Githui and Khasie responsible for this and alleged that they had been careless in their work. As a result both of them suffered a lay off for five days without pay in accordance with the aforesaid clause in the collective agreement

The Respondents conceded that both Messrs Githui and Khasie are two of the most skilled operators in the tyre building department of the factory. These two men operate a machine which enables them to apply to a partly built radial tyre stabilizer ply

The Court was told by Mr Githui on oath that the stabilizer ply material which he was asked to use on the material dates was defective and he on several occasions told his supervisor, one Mr Moses Nyaoke, about it but every time he was told to use it as it was within the tolerance limit. He denied that he was careless

The other person involved, Mr Khasie, when he was called to give evidence stated that he had forgotten everything and did not remember anything

The Respondents called Mr John Otiao a supervisor, to give evidence and Mr Otiao confirmed that Mr Githui had complained a couple of times to Mr Nyaoke but he had been told to carry on working normally and to tear out the defective parts from the material

This witness suggested that a reason for deliberate careless work on the part of the two workers involved could be their desire to get either him or Mr Nyaoke dismissed from their jobs

The Court was not given the official report on these defective tyres and after a careful consideration of all the submissions made by the parties and the evidence given by the witnesses the Court has decided to give the benefit of doubt to Mr Githui and to find that his lay-off was not justified. The Court accordingly awards that he should be paid by the Respondents guaranteed minimum rate for his job for the five days during which he suffered a lay off

In the case of Mr Khasie the Court finds that he was of no help either to himself or to the Court. In these circumstances the Court is not prepared to assist a worker who when called to give evidence on oath simply says that he has forgotten everything and does not remember anything. The Court rules that lay-off imposed on him should stay
