GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3452

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 10 OF 1965

Interpretation of AwardParties:

The Railway African Union (Kenya)
and

The East African Railways and Harbours
Administration

1. The East African Railways and Harbours Administration in accordance with section 10 (5) of the Trade Disputes Act, 1965, made application to the Court for interpretation of the Award in Cause No. 10 of 1965. The East African Railways and Harbours Administration were the Respondents in Cause No. 10 of 1965. Section 10 (5) of the Trade Disputes Act, No. 15 of 1965, reads as follows:—

"If any question arises as to the interpretation of an award or as to an award being inconsistent with any written law, the Minister or any party to the award may apply to the Industrial Court which made the award for a determination of the question, and the Court shall determine the matter after hearing the parties concerned, or without such hearing if the parties consent, and any such determination shall be deemed to be an award made under this Act:

Provided that where the question arises out of any clerical mistake, incidental error or omission, the Court may rectify such mistake, error or omission without hearing the parties concerned."

2. Mr. Akiwumi, the Legal Secretary of the East African Common Services Organization, on behalf of the East African Railways and Harbours Administration, made this application, mainly, on two grounds:—

(1) That the East African Railways and Harbours Administration was part of the East African Common Services Organization and, by itself, was not a body corporate, and

(2) that under section 4 of the East African Railways and Harbours Act, the General Manager was made a body corporate for the purposes of that Act as specified in the First Schedule to the Act, but that the trade dispute dealt with by the Court was not one of the purposes specified in the First Schedule aforesaid and, therefore, the General Manager could not be bound by the Award of the Industrial Court.

Mr. Akiwumi submitted that, since the East African Railways and Harbours Administration was not a body corporate, it could not be a party to the hearing of the trade dispute, nor be a party to any suit in any court. The only body that could legally represent the East African Railways and Harbours Administration in any court was the East African Common Services Authority, which was made a body corporate in pursuance of article 5 (a) of the East African Common Services Agreement by section 3 (1) of the Kenya, East African Common Services Organization Act No. 4 of 1961.

3. Mr. Ottenyo, General Secretary of the Railway African Union (Kenya), submitted that the East African Railways and Harbours' application did not lie under section 10 (5) as it was not an application for an interpretation but was one of nullification in that the Respondent was seeking, at that late stage, an order from the Court to declare its own Award to be null and void. Further that if this application was granted it would lead to a tremendous waste of public moneys and would inevitably lead to industrial strife in the Railways Administration. He stated that the very point, on which the application had been made for an interpretation, should have been raised earlier on during the proceedings, and that when the jurisdiction of the Court was being challenged, the objection to the legal status of the East African Railways and Harbours should also have been raised.

4. The Court has considered very carefully the legal arguments put forward by Mr. Akiwumi but cannot accept them. Subsection 5 of section 10 of the Trade Disputes Act, 1965, makes provision specifically for an interpretation of an award or as to an award being inconsistent with any written law. The present application does not fall under the scope of this subsection. The Respondent is seeking a nullification of the Award. Further the Court finds that there is no merit in the Legal Secretary's submission that the East African Railways and Harbours Administration is non-existent. The notification form which the parties submitted to the jurisdiction of the Court is signed by Mr. Earley for the General Manager, East African Railways and Harbours and by the General Secretary, Railway African Union (Kenya). Although the employer is cited as the East African Railways and Harbours Administration, the subsequent preliminary correspondence has been conducted by the General Manager on behalf of the East African Railways and Harbours Administration. The General Manager under section 4 of the East African Railways and Harbours Act is a corporation sole and he can sue and be sued in any court. The Court is satisfied that the Respondent in Cause No. 10 of 1965 is the General Manager of the East African Railways and Harbours Administration.

The East African Railways and Harbours Administration is a self-contained service of the East African Common Services Organization, and a separate Public Service Commission has been created for it under section 5 of the Public Service Commission Act, No. 6 of 1962, which provides for the establishment of a Railways and Harbours Service Commission as required by article 40 of the Constitution of the East African Common Services Organization. The letter of appointment for the employees of the Administration is headed by the words "East African Railways and Harbours Administration" and is signed by the head of department for and on behalf of the General Manager, East African Railways and Harbours Administration. Further, the Industrial Relations Machinery Agreement on 1962 is made between the General Manager, East African Railways and Harbours of the first part and the various other staff unions including the Railway African Union (Kenya) of the other parts. In this agreement recognition is granted to the union in all matters appertaining to wages, salaries and terms and conditions of service and in this agreement "Management" means, "the General Manager of the East African Railways and Harbours Administration or an officer or officers of the East African Railways and Harbours Administration authorized by the General Manager in that behalf." The Union had embarked on negotiations with the General Manager, East African Railways and Harbours Administration on the strength of this agreement and eventually found its way to the Industrial Court on the issues in dispute. It should also be noted that in the First Schedule to the Trade Disputes Act, No. 15, dealing with essential services, the following wording appears: "Public transport services provided by the East African Railways and Harbours Administration." No reference is made to Common Services Organization.

All these facts leave the Court in no doubt that the East African Railways and Harbours Administration represented by the General Manager is the proper party in this dispute. The Court must accept that the parties when they sign the form of notification to the Court whereby they submit themselves voluntarily to its jurisdiction, do so in good faith and are the proper parties that should be appearing and be represented in any dispute. The Respondent's application under this item is accordingly rejected.

The Legal Secretary has raised another point, that the implementation of the Award as to minimum wages would depend upon the enactment of an Appropriation Act or a Supplementary Appropriation Act by the Central Legislative Assembly. Failure to achieve such an enactment he submitted, would preclude the Administration from implementing the Award on this matter. Section 22 (i) (b) of the Railways and Harbours Act reads:

"There shall be charged upon and paid out of the Funds all the expenditure of the Administration, all sums payable by the General Manager in respect of operations of the Administration under any order of any court and any sums payable out of the Fund under the provisions of this Act."

The Court is not concerned with the administrative procedure which is laid down before the withdrawal of funds from the Railways and Harbours Fund, this is an entirely domestic matter and should not be allowed to prejudice the position of the parties under the Award.

With respect to Mr. Akiwumi, the difficulties which he has outlined are entirely procedural and are, therefore, no concern of the Court.

The Court finds that, in any case, its award is not repugnant to or inconsistent with any other legislation in the country.

The Legal Secretary's application for amendment of the Award to include the words "subject to the confirmation of the Authority" is accordingly rejected.

Having found that the application made under the above headings do not fall within section 10, subsection (5), the Court rules that an application regarding the transfer of certain railway employees is properly made under this subsection. The Court does not wish the Award under this heading to mean that the General Manager's powers of transfer are tampered with. The Court found that these transfers were not normal transfers and, therefore, ordered them to be revoked. Once the Court's Award has been fulfilled there is nothing to prevent the General Manager from exercising his inherent right of effecting transfers in the interests of the service provided the proper procedure laid down and agreed with the Union on the transfer of Union officials is followed. In other words the transfers should be, in the true sense of the word, normal and should not give the appearance of being a sort of victimization.

The Legal Secretary's submission that, "the Court did not find against the submission made on the part of the Respondent that it could not afford to pay the minimum wages claimed on behalf of the Claimant and by implication the submission aforesaid must be deemed to have been accepted by the Court", is without any merit and, in any case, does not lie within the scope of subsection 5 of section 10 of the Trade Disputes Act.

Given in Nairobi this 14th day of September 1965.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3453

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 21 OF 1965

Ruling

Parties:

Common Services African Civil Servants' Union
(Kenya)—Claimant
and

East African Common Services Organization
—Respondent

In this dispute Mr. Mathu on behalf of the Respondent has raised certain preliminary points and has argued that on account of these the present Cause should be dismissed without a hearing. His submissions in brief are:—

- (a) That if the award of the Kenya Industrial Court involves additional expenditure then this money cannot be found as all three heads of States of the territories, which are a party to the East African Common Services Organization, have to assent to the appropriation Bill which, in turn, has to pass through the Central Legislative Assembly. This would be extremely difficult as the award would be from one territory's Industrial Court and would not be acceptable to the other two Sovereign States. Therefore, it is not proper for the Kenya Industrial Court to entertain this dispute.
- (b) Without prejudice to the above the Respondent argues that the following issues are not proper to be inquired into by the Industrial Court and should, therefore, be struck out:—
 - (i) Africanization.—An investigation under this issue would impinge upon the Public Service Commission Act, No. 6 of 1962, and be contrary to section 16 which precludes any court from inquiring into the work of the Public Service Commission.
 - (ii) Termination of Service of Messrs. Opiche and Kasasu.—On the same grounds as in (i) above.
 - (iii) Items discussed between the E.A.C.S.O. Secretary-General and the Union on 26th February and 2nd March 1965.—This is very vague and cannot be a proper issue on which the Court can adjudicate.
 - (iv) Training within the E.A.C.S.O.—This is the Management's prerogative and is not negotiable. The training schemes are entirely the Management's responsibility.
 - (v) The Union's 8th Annual Presidential Address.—This again is vague and cannot be an issue in dispute.
 - (vi) Negotiating Machinery.—This cannot be termed a dispute under the Trade Disputes Act, No. 15 of 1965.
- (c) The Respondent finally submits that, as the provisions of section 9, subsection (6) of the Trade Disputes Act, No. 15 of 1965, have not been complied with in that these items have at no time been negotiated, the Court cannot entertain them.

On these three submissions the Respondent asks for the dismissal of the Claimant's case.

Mr. Ooko on behalf of the Claimant states that, as in the past, many issues with the Respondent have been settled with the help of the Kenya Ministry of Labour and Social Services and that as his Union is Kenya Union the only competent authority to hear and determine this dispute is the Kenya Industrial Court.

On the other submissions the Claimant states that it wants to discuss the general principle of Africanization and this would not be contrary to the Public Service Commission Act, No. 6 of 1962. The other issues were proper issues and should be inquired into by the Court.

Finally, the Claimant submits that all the existing machinery was exhausted and the dispute was reported to the Ministry of Labour and Social Services which, having failed to resolve the dispute, advised the parties to go to the Industrial Court.

Ruling

Section 9 of the Recognition Agreement between the parties hereto provides as follows:—

"It is hereby recognized and declared that all matters provided for in this Agreement shall be subject to the provisions of any law from time to time in force in Kenya and that agreement reached may, where necessary, require ratification by the appropriate Ministerial Committee on behalf of the East African Common Services Authority or the Central Legislative Assembly."

This makes it quite clear that in Kenya negotiations, between the Common Services African Civil Servants' Union (Kenya) and the East African Common Services Organization, are subject to the Trade Disputes Act, No. 15 of 1965; this dispute is, therefore, properly before this Court.

Further, the Kenya Ministry of Labour and Social Services apprehended and dealt with this dispute before advising the parties to come to the Industrial Court. If this were not to be so then the parties would be left without any remedy as, at present, no forum exists where the present parties can resolve their disputes. This being so it is ruled that it is competent for the Kenya Industrial Court to hear and adjudicate on this dispute.

Mr. Mathu has some merit in his second submission. Inquiring into Africanization would inevitably lead to questioning the functions of the Public Service Commission which this Court cannot do. The detailed reasons for this ruling appear in Cause No. 10 of 1965 and need not be repeated here. For the same reasons the issue of termination of services of Messrs. Opiche and Kasasu cannot be gone into. The issues of training within E.A.C.S.O. and the Union's 8th Annual Presidential Address are not proper issues for this Court to deal with as one is the Management's prerogative and the other one is far too vague.

The Court rules that the following issues be struck out from this dispute:—

- (1) Africanization.
- (2) Termination of services of Messrs. Opiche and Kasasu.
- (3) Training Schemes.
- (4) Union's 8th Annual Presidential Address.

Finally the Court cannot accept Mr. Mathu's submission that section 9 (6) had not been complied with. The form of notification of dispute to the Industrial Court clearly states that:

"and in accordance with the procedure laid down in our Agreement on recognition and negotiating procedure we have discussed these issues and have failed to reach a settlement".

Both parties have signed this form. This was done after the Ministry of Labour and Social Service's intervention in this dispute and its failure to settle it. It is obvious that the issues had reached a stage well beyond the machinery laid down between the parties for settling disputes. The Respondent's submission is, therefore, rejected and the hearing will proceed on the remaining issues.

Mr. Ooko also made a submission that as the memorandum submitted by the Respondent contains the words in brackets (General Fund Services) therefore, it is not the Respondent's memorandum but of a party which is not involved in this dispute. This was a novel submission the exact purpose of which was not clear. In any case there is no substance in this. The memorandum submitted by the Respondent appears to be in order and the Respondent will be bound by the Court's award.

Mr. Ooko's fear that the Respondent by varying its designation might escape the Court's award are unfounded and his submission, therefore, is also rejected.
