THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO 40 OF 1974

Parties —

Kenya Petroleum Oil Workers' Union
and
Esso Standard (Kenya) Ltd

Issue in dispute —

Redundancy—

Londiani Depot

Akhondo Miyenga (General Hand)
N W Ongonge (General Hand)
Fanuel Oware (Pump Tank Hand)

Nanyuki Depot

H O Owawa (General Clerk)
Wambugu Mwilu (Pump Tank Hand)
Stephen B Muriu (General Hand)

1 The Kenya Petroleum Oil Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Esso Standard (Kenya) Ltd, shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents

2 The parties were heard in Nairobi on 27th November, 1974, and relied on their written and verbal submissions

AWARD

3 The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 14th June, 1974 was received by the Court on 24th July along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner

This dispute is before the Court because the Claimants allege that the aforesaid six employees at the Respondents' Londiani and Nanyuki depots were wrongfully declared redundant, i.e. their services were terminated on grounds of redundancy without prior approval of the Industrial Court

During the hearing it became evident that the Claimants were mistaken in their claim on behalf of the aforesaid six employees because one of them, N W Ongonge, is still in the Respondents' employment as he was found an alternative position. The dispute therefore concerns only five employees, two from the Londiani depot and three from the Nanyuki depot

These five employees were paid the following amounts which include the redundancy benefits payable to them under the appropriate clause of the collective agreement between the parties plus an additional one month's salary being notice pay—

A Miyenga

Period of service as at 30th November, 1973—20 years 3 months

Wages as at 11th November, 1973—Sh 401/80 per month

Employee paid—Sh 7,634/20

F Oware

Period of service as at 30th November, 1973—15 years 11 months

Wages as at 30th November, 1973—Sh 593/88 per month

Employee paid—Sh 10,046/50

W Mwilu

Period of service as at 31st December, 1973—18 years 8 months

Wages as at 30th November, 1973—Sh 593/88 per month

Employee paid—Sh 11,283/75

H O Owawa

Period of service as at 31st December, 1973—2 years 1 month

Salary as at 31st December, 1973—Sh 980 per month

Employee paid—Sh 2,940

S B Muriu

Period of service as at 31st December, 1973—3 years 5 months

Wages as at 31st December, 1973—Sh 370/44 per month

Employee paid—Sh 1,636/15

In each of these cases since the Respondents operate contributory pension fund the aforesaid employees would have been entitled to lesser payment but the Respondents informed the Court that all of them received redundancy benefits covering their entire period of service and received much higher benefits than they were entitled to receive

The Respondents closed their Londiani depot at the end of August, 1973, and the Nanyuki depot at the end of December, 1973

The Respondents, however, informed the Claimants' General Secretary on 29th June and 2nd October of the intended moves and the names of the employees who would be declared redundant effective from 1st September, 1973, and 1st January, 1974. This was in accordance with clause 1-18 (a) of the collective agreement

The parties endeavoured to hold a meeting of the Joint Industrial Council Grievance Committee but unfortunately no meeting could be held. Each party blamed the other for failure to hold the meeting. The Respondents accused the Claimants of avoiding the meeting on flimsy grounds, with the Claimants attacking the Respondents for violating the procedure laid down in the collective agreement

Eventually the Respondents approached senior officials of the Ministry of Labour and an Assistant Minister for Labour where they put forward the difficulties which they were encountering at the hands of the Claimants. The meeting between the Respondents' representative and the said gentlemen took place on 2nd October, 1973, and on 14th December, 1973, the Minister for Labour was informed by the Respondents in paragraph 4 of that letter as follows—

"In line with your advice, given to us when we called on you on 2nd October, 1973, we have now notified the three employees concerned of the forthcoming redundancies. They will physically be off our payroll with effect from 31st December, 1973, although they will receive an additional one month's salary in lieu of notice. They are also receiving redundancy payments in accordance with the terms of our Collective Bargaining Agreement with the Kenya Petroleum Oil Workers' Union."

The Respondents did take the action as indicated in the aforesaid paragraph and the services of all the employees were terminated and the dispute is now before the Court

The Claimants' submissions in brief are that the Respondents had blatantly violated their collective agreement in that they refused to rescind their action to allow the agreed machinery to be exhausted. Furthermore, they accused the Respondents of having violated the provisions of the Trade Disputes Act as amended and the directive issued by the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Labour. The Claimants also made a point that these employees had been dismissed by the Respondents without their making an effort to absorb them in other sections of their undertaking. They had also disregarded the principle of "last in first out" in contravention of the collective agreement and the Industrial Relations Charter

The Claimants vigorously denied the allegations made against them that they had resorted to delaying tactics

The Respondents bitterly attacked the Claimants for having played for time by avoiding to meet them to discuss these redundancies as they were requested to do so on several occasions. This had forced them to seek the advice and assistance of the senior officials of the Ministry of Labour and an Assistant Minister

The Respondents submitted that since their Londiani and Nanyuki depots had closed down the Court should reject the Claimants' submission and a demand for their reinstatement because the jobs that the five employees used to perform did not now exist

The Respondents also pleaded that since these employees had already received their redundancy benefits based on the month's salary/wages for every year of completed service it would be most unfair and inequitable if they were granted a further compensation or awarded reinstatement

The Court has carefully considered the submissions made by the parties and the facts leading to the redundancy of the five employees concerned. As is clear from the earlier part of the award two of them remained on the payroll of the Respondents up to 30th November, 1973, and the other three up to 31st December, 1973, notwithstanding the fact that in the case of three of them at Londiani depot there was absolutely no work for them to do

Even if the Court was to find that the Claimants had deliberately on some excuse thwarted the meetings with the Respondents where it was intended to discuss these redundancies, the fact still remains that there was no agreement between the parties on these redundancies in compliance with the directive in force at that time by the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Labour, on the subject of redundancies. Furthermore, the Respondents had not sought the approval of the Industrial Court in declaring these five employees redundant. The Court must therefore find that the Respondents have committed a breach of the statutory provisions on the subject

However, the Court is satisfied that this breach of the statutory provisions in this dispute is only a technical breach. Consequently the Court having duly considered all the facts of the case and the evidence produced awards that all the aforesaid five workers should be paid one month's additional wage by way of compensation for their having suffered wrongful redundancies. These payments are to be in addition to the amounts they have already received as stated hereinabove.

THE TRADE MARKS ACT (Cap 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM No 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.
