GAZETTE NOTICE No. 919

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 62 OF 1989

Parties:

Kenya Local Government Workers' Union

and

Masaku County Council

Issue in dispute:

Wrongful Termination of service of J. K. Ndambuki.

THE Kenya Local Government Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Masaku County Council shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 9th, 10th and 17th January, 1990, respectively. The parties relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 30th November, 1988, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 15th August, 1989, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

J. M. Ndambuki was employed by the respondents in July 1978, as a committee clerk on the salary scale G6 (762 x 36—978 p.a.). On 22nd June, 1984, he was seconded to the Athi River Urban Council of Machakos District, and was assigned duties of a town superintendent.

Mr. Ndambuki was dismissed on 10th December, 1984, after serving the respondents for nearly 6½ years. He was dismissed on allegations of acts of gross misconduct contrary to the law and his terms of service.

The incident that led to the grievant's dismissal took place on 23rd August, 1984. It is alleged that on the material time he caused 32 shanties (carton structures) at K.M.C. cattle boma to be burnt down instead of demolishing them using a tractor.

The claimants took up the matter on his behalf with the respondents but the parties failed to reach an agreement and the matter was reported to the Minister for Labour as a trade dispute.

The dispute was investigated by the Ministry of Labour and on 24th May, 1988, the findings and recommendations were released to the parties.

The Ministry's findings were that "the respondents never instituted nor pressed for court prosecution to determine the grievant's alleged charges of fraud. As a result, it was apparent that the possibility of the respondents acting under political pressure could not have been ruled out. It was recommended that Mr. Ndambuki be reinstated unconditionally and without loss of service benefits."

This decision was turned down by the respondents and now the matter is before the court for consideration.

The court notes that on the respondents own admission they erred in terminating the grievant's services by giving him one month's notice instead of three to which he was entitled, so the grievant has suffered a wrongful termination, at least technically to begin with.

The court, however, has to go into the facts of this dispute which led to the grievant's termination.

The main allegations against him are the following:

- (a) Lack of respect to councillors of urban council by calling them "Tu-Councillor".
- (b) Burning of kiosks (shanties) at K.M.C. boma instead of destroying them as they had been instructed.
- (c) Absenting himself from duty without permission.
- (d) Reporting late for duty.
- (e) Receiving bribes.
- (f) Receiving money for house rent and deliberately failing to issue receipts.

All the above allegations with the exception of (b) were not really proved in court and in any case they were forgiven if not forgotten. They cannot therefore be held against this grievant under the "warning clause" of the parties' collective agreement.

The burning of shanties was indeed a grave matter because such issues are very sensitive politically and otherwise. The health authorities had asked the respondents' clerk to demolish them vide the following handwritten letter.

Re: Demolition of Insanitary and Illegal Carton Shanties at K.M.C. cattle boma.

About thirty-two (32) shanties have been constructed at the K.M.C. boma and the cattle dealers eat food prepared there.

My purpose of writing this letter is to appeal to you to use all the available facilities and demolish these structures before it is too late.

Your conservancy staff can do the demolition work within a short time and I suggest that all the food preparing implements should be taken away so that this problem is solved once and for all. The tractor can be ideal for this work.

Hoping that a quick response to this matter will be undertaken."

The clerk in turn passed on the letter to the grievant with the words "please deal". The court is surprised that the clerk did not deem it fit to place this letter either before the relevant sub-committee or the council in view of the sensitive nature of the exercise before taking further steps in this matter. The clerk must therefore bear responsibility for the demolition of the shanties. The court cannot accept the respondents' argument that the grievant should have advised the clerk as to the procedure the clerk should have followed.

The court also doubts if the shanties were burnt and the chief's statement on this issue is not conclusive, as he saw only the smoke from his office which was about 200 yards from the boma. The chief's office is fenced. Probably what happened is that after the demolition the cartons and so on were burnt in order to clear the rubbish.

The court has carefully considered the parties' submission and finds that the grievant has suffered a wrongful termination but the court rejects the claimants' demand for his reinstatement. Instead the court awards the grievant six months salary by way of compensation in addition to the two months salary due to him under notice of termination.

Dated the 5th February, 1990.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 63 OF 1989

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers

and

British American Insurance Co. (Kenya) Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

Wrongful termination of services of Maurice Iluba.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the British American Insurance Co. (K) Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 15th January, 1990.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 18th April, 1989, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 15th August, 1989, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

When the parties appeared in court on 15th January, 1990, for the hearing of this dispute, they informed the court that they had narrowed the issue in dispute to the amount of terminal benefits which the respondents should pay the grievant and wanted the court to decide that matter for them. The court after studying the parties' submissions, rules that Maurice Iluba's terminal benefits amount to Sh. 11,396.00 but the respondents should set off a sum of Sh. 8,374.15 that the grievant admitted to have embezzled against it. Mr. Iluba should be paid a sum of Sh. 3,021.85 in full and final settlement of all his claims.
