GAZETTE NOTICE No. 2014

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE No. 2 OF 1981

Parties:

Kenya Bakers & Confectioners Workers' Union
and
Aurora Baking Co. (1975) Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

1. Wages.
2. Housing allowance.
3. Night transport.
4. Job descriptions.
5. Leave travelling allowance.
6. Severance pay.
7. Effective date and duration.

1. The Kenya Bakers & Confectioners Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Aurora Baking Co. (1975) Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 24th March, 14th and 15th May and 8th and 10th June, 1981 and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The Claimants also called the following witnesses to give evidence on oath:

- A. Okanga.
- K. Kisele.
- F. Ndanya.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 27th October, 1980 duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 7th January, 1981 together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The Respondents who are engaged in bakery business came into being in March, 1976. They bought the bakery business on New Pumwani Road which was previously run under the name of Aurora Baking Co. Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the previous owner). The point to be noted here is that the same employees working for the previous owner are now working with the Respondents. Previously their terms and conditions of employment were regulated through a collective agreement which had been entered into between the previous owner and the Domestic & Hotel Workers' Union. This agreement was to run for a period of three years with effect from 1st January, 1974. It expired on 31st December, 1976.

In this collective agreement there is a clause dealing with the house allowance which reads as follows:

"An employee shall be entitled to housing allowance of K.Sh. 55 in addition to his basic monthly wages."

On 1st March, 1976 the previous owner had written a circular to all their employees telling them that as from that date the bakery will be owned by the Respondents but the management would remain the same. They would cease to be their employees and would become the employees of the Respondents with effect from that date; further they will be employed on their existing terms and conditions of service.

The Domestic Union filed a dispute against the previous owners in respect of severance pay which dispute ended up in the Industrial Court vide Cause No. 30 of 1977. The parties, however, informed the Court that they had resolved the dispute amicably and enclosed a copy of the minutes of their joint meeting which read as follows:

"Issues in dispute: Failure to pay severance pay to 36 employees of Aurora Baking Co. Ltd. by the management.

As a result of amicable discussions on 11th May, 1977 and today 20th May, 1977 the parties agreed that although the ownership of Aurora Baking Co. Ltd. changed to Aurora Baking Co. (1975) Ltd. the previous services of the employees of the former company as at 29th February, 1976 will remain unchanged for the purposes of the terms and conditions of service as contained in the collective agreement signed between Aurora Baking Co. Ltd. and Domestic & Hotel Workers' Union on 5th March, 1974."

The Claimants came on the scene sometime in early 1978 when they sought recognition from the Respondents after a number of workers had withdrawn their membership from the Domestic Union. The Respondents resisted this move in the beginning but later they signed a recognition agreement with the Claimants on 27th September, 1979. The Claimants forwarded their proposals for a collective agreement to the Respondents on 1st November, 1979 and the present dispute has resulted from those proposals. After the parties failed to resolve some issues the Claimants reported a dispute to the Minister for Labour on 5th May, 1980 on the items of wages, housing allowance, night transport, job descriptions, leave travelling allowance, severance pay, effective date and duration. The conciliation proceedings started on the items on which a trade dispute was reported and the same issues are now before the Court.

During the hearing the Claimants also put forward a claim on behalf of their members that since 1st March, 1976 the Respondents had failed to pay them their housing allowance entitlement of K.Sh. 55 p.m. in accordance with the collective agreement between the previous owner and the Domestic Union and claimed a sum of K.Sh. 3,300 per employee making in all approximately a claim of K.Sh. 165,000 in respect of the 50 odd employees of the Respondents. The Court would like to deal with this claim at the outset. The Court is strictly required by law to adjudicate upon the issues as they are listed in the Notification of Dispute Form "A". In the dispute before the Court there is no issue covering the alleged non-payment of housing allowance arrears to workers. In these circumstances it is beyond the Court's jurisdiction in this dispute to make an award on this claim of K.Sh. 165,000. The Court must therefore refrain from making any finding on this issue just now. It is up to the Claimants if they feel so inclined to pursue this claim specifically through the normal channels open to them. The issue before the Court is housing allowance and the Court will in due course make an award on whether or not workers should get a housing allowance and if the Court decides that they should, then the amount of such housing allowance. The Court will tackle this issue under its appropriate heading.

From the above background it is clear that the Respondents took over the business from the previous owner on 1st March, 1976 and all the workers started working for them from that date. The Respondents have put forward a plea that Aldo Calvi, the Respondents' manager and the managing director of the previous owner, had exceeded his mandate at the agreement arrived at the meeting of 20th May, 1977 the minutes of which are reproduced hereinabove. They gave details of the manner and the circumstances under which they acquired the business from the previous owners in order to prove their point that Mr. Calvi had no business to commit the Respondents as he did at this meeting. They maintained that the workers were employed afresh from 1st March, 1976 by them and that no agreement or arrangement was made between the previous owner and themselves to take over any residual responsibilities to the workers after handing over the business.

The Court having ruled that the claim in respect of housing arrears amounting to K.Sh. 165,000 should be the subject matter of a different and fresh dispute, this particular point on which the Respondents have laid so much emphasis and are trying to wriggle out of the agreement of 20th May, 1977 by alleging that Mr. Calvi exceeded his powers is of little consequence in the present dispute. The Court has simply to decide on the issues in dispute in respect of the Respondents' employees to enable them to sign a collective agreement. So whether they were employed afresh or had their services continued is immaterial for the purposes of this dispute. The Court intends to make its award on the workers' remuneration which they should get as from the effective date which also the Court has to decide. The Respondents concede, if nothing else, that for operational convenience the rates of pay paid to the individual workers as at the end of February, 1976 form the basis for the new salaries upon the transfer of business using the muster roll as a record of such rates and maintained that other terms and conditions of employment had primarily been governed by the statutory provisions.

The Court would now like to apply its mind to the economic arguments which had been put forward by the parties before making its award on the various issues. The Claimants' first and foremost submission is that the workers' wages had remained stagnant for the years 1977, 1978, 1979 and up to June, 1980 when they were granted the statutory increase as a result of the Presidential announcement. The Claimants' demand wages is that the basic minimum salary should be revised upwards by 20 per cent so as to compensate workers for 1977, 1978 i.e.:

"Basic salary: K.Sh. 350 x 20 per cent = K.Sh. 420 (from 1st January, 1979 to 31st December, 1979).

Average basic rate: K.Sh. 429 x 20 per cent = K.Sh. 514 (from 1st January, 1979 to 31st December, 1979)."

They stressed that this would be in line with the wages guidelines as the cost of living index had gone up by 46.2 per cent during the years 1977 and 1978 half of which is 23.1 per cent.

The Claimants further demanded another 20 per cent wage increase to cover compensation for the period January, 1979 to December, 1980 payable as follow:

"Basic salary: K.Sh. 420 x 20 per cent = K.Sh. 504 (from 1st January, 1980 to 31st December, 1980).

Average basic rate: K.Sh. 514.80 x 20 per cent = K.Sh. 617.75 (from 1st January, 1980 to 31st December, 1980)".

They added that taking into account the statutory improvements which took effect from 1st June, 1980 the workers should then be paid a differential wage based on a worker's grade from 1st June to 31st December, 1980.

The Respondents on the other hand pointed that they had all along paid their employees consolidated wages which were adjusted in May 1977 and June 1980 in compliance with the Government directive on wages as announced in May, 1977 and 1980. The Respondents offered a wage increase as follows:

"The employees in service of the Respondents as at 31st December, 1979 be awarded wage increase of 6.4 per cent for the first year and another 6.4 per cent for the second year effective from 1st January, 1980."

In addition to this the Respondents offered that the current Wages Order which came into effect from 1st June, 1980 could be made effective for them with effect from 1st January, 1980.

Having summarized the parties' demands and offers the Court would like to record that both the parties bitterly contested the financial viability of the Respondents undertaking with the Claimants vigorously maintaining that the Respondents enriched themselves at the expense of the poor workers and the Respondents retorting by saying that their business was running at a loss. The parties tried to prove their respective contentions through various documentary exhibits which the Court does not intend to divulge or go into details thereof because of their sensitive nature. The Court, however, has carefully considered all that was said and produced by both parties on this rather crucial aspect of the dispute.

The Court notes that the current wage bill of the Respondents is K.Sh. 56,295.45 and that if the Claimants' demands were accepted by the Court it would raise this wage bill by at least another K.Sh. 30,096.60 per month making a total of at least K.Sh. 80,392.05 p.m. or K.Sh. 1,036,704.60 per year. The Respondents gave breakdown as follows:

	K.Sh. p.m.
"(a) Basic wages (20 per cent of K.Sh. 56,295.45)	11,259.10
(b) House allowance (K.Sh. 150 x 47 workers)	7,050.00
(c) Transportation (vehicle K.Sh. 10,000 plus salaries of two drivers @ K.Sh. 600 excluding running costs and taxi fares for two drivers) .. .. .	11,200.00
(d) Leave travelling allowance K.Sh. 150 x 47 workers per year .. .. .	587.50
Total .. .. .	30,096.60"

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court has come to the conclusion that irrespective of the historical background of the dispute the workers should get a separate house allowance from wages and the Court has therefore decided to award a wage increase and a house allowance separately. The Court awards are follows:

Wages

The Court awards that all the Respondents' employees affected by this dispute should get a wage increase of K.Sh. 35 p.m. with effect from 1st July, 1979.

The Court further awards that with effect from 1st July, 1980 the workers should get another wage increase of K.Sh. 40.

Housing allowance

The Court awards that the workers should be paid housing allowance of K.Sh. 55 p.m. with effect from 1st July, 1979 and that this housing allowance should be increased to K.Sh. 75 p.m. with effect from 1st July, 1980.

Night transport

The Court has very carefully examined the evidence tendered by the Claimants in support of this demand by their several witnesses but taking into consideration all aspects that are involved in such a facility being provided the Court has come to the conclusion that this demand should be rejected and the Court accordingly makes a nil award.

Job descriptions

In view of the fact that this is the very first agreement between these parties the Court is not inclined to accept the job descriptions put forward by the Claimants or the Respondents. Instead the Court has decided that both the parties should jointly examine the various jobs that are being performed in the Respondents' undertaking and then to give each one a job description and a rate. They should do this before the next revision of the collective agreement. In view of the effective date and duration of the first collective agreement this will be pretty soon. Having done that if there are still any differences then they can be referred to the Court by way of a fresh dispute.

Leave travelling allowance

The Court awards that the workers shall be paid a leave travelling allowance of K.Sh. 65 for the first year of the agreement and K.Sh. 85 for the second year of the agreement. This amount is to be paid to workers when they proceed on annual leave.

Severance pay

The parties having agreed on this item the Court awards that the workers will be entitled to 12 days' pay for each completed year of service in the event of redundancy. This is to be based on the employee's basic wage at the time his services are to be terminated.

Effective date and duration

The Court awards that the parties should abide by their agreement which they made at a meeting of 24th March, 1980 when after considerable discussion they agreed that the effective date should be 1st July, 1979. The Court is aware that the Respondents have tried to back out of this agreement which they had made but the Court feels that the fairest effective date considering all the circumstances of this dispute would be 1st July, 1979 and the Court awards accordingly.

The Court further rules as agreed by the parties that the duration of the collective agreement should be two years from 1st July, 1979.

Given in Nairobi the 26th June, 1981.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 2015

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under Rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Offices, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Application for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
