NOTICE.

With reference to the "Regulations for the employment of Officers in the British Protectorates in Uganda and the East Coast of Africa dated 10th March 1900," attention is invited to the final paragraph with regard to the bonuses sanctioned for passing an examination in either Arabic or Hindustani.

It is there stated that "Officers already serving in either Protectorate will be allowed two years from the date of such arrival, or one year from the date of the issue of this Regulation in which to qualify for the bonus."

H. M. Commissioner states that "the period of a year within which an Officer may claim a bonus should commence to run from the day following the receipt of the despatch from the Foreign Office enclosing the Regulations."

It is hereby notified that the date on which the despatch in question was received in Mombasa was the 23rd April 1900.

Reuter's Telegrams.

FEBRUARY 1ST.—Memorial services have been arranged to take place throughout the country simultaneously with the funeral.

3,075 troops including bluejackets and representatives of all branches of the service 125 Colonials and 20 from the Indian Army, will take part in the procession in London and 32,385 will be employed to line the route.

It is understood that the King will open Parliament in person.

The Egyptian Princes and the Crown Princes of Sweden, Denmark and Roumania, the French and Ottoman missions, the Duke of Aosta and numerous German Princes have arrived in England.

General Knox engaged DeWet to the Southward of Welcome on the 29th. Fighting was continuous for some hours but the result is not stated. Lord Kitchener merely says that Colonel Pilcher buried 5 bodies and captured 3 prisoners. The casualties are Lieut. Way of the Durham Light Infantry and 1 man killed, 1 Officer and 12 men wounded. DeWet on Wednesday evening crossed the Bloemfontein-Ladybrand line at Israelspoort. General Bruce Hamilton's men stationed at the Waterworks were unable to get in touch with him.

FEBRUARY 2ND.—Besides the Dragoons, a detachment of the German regiment of Hussars of which the Prince of Wales was colonel-in-Chief prior to his accession, will attend the funeral of her late Majesty.

The whole of Thursday and late into that night the work of erecting countless stands and draping the houses on the route is proceeding.

FEBRUARY 4TH.—The Coffin of the late Queen was taken from Osborne at 1-45 on the 1st instant. It was covered with coronation robes, surmounted by the Crown orb and sceptre, the gems of which glittered in the brilliant sunshine, and conveyed on a Khaki painted gun carriage drawn by 8 horses and driven by artillery men. Immediately behind walked the King and Kaiser, both in admiral's uniforms; the Duke of Connaught in the uniform of a General; and 6 other Princes. Then came 9 Royal Ladies, headed by the Queen in deep black and thickly veiled. The party walked in threes.

The coffin was carried by sailors on board the Royal Yacht Alberta, and laid in a catafalque under a Ruby coloured velvet pavilion. This was opened at the sides, thus allowing the coffin to be visible from afar. Eight Destroyers piloted the Royal Yachts across between lines of stately war vessels.

The morning of the 2nd broke dry but threatening rain and snow. Forces of constabulary assembled at midnight on the 1st to control the crowds who were already gathering. The morning trains arrived crammed with passengers, who all made towards Hyde Park, while troops kept arriving throughout the night.

After the procession through London, along the streets of which millions of absolutely orderly people had gathered and a superb, impressive service at St. George's Windsor, the coffin was conveyed to the Albert Memorial Chapel where it rests till Monday. The Pageant in London is described as the most superb and solemn imaginable.

It is officially announced that the Duke of York is progressing satisfactorily. DeWet has passed Thabanchu on his way southward with 3,000 men and many Cape carts.

Troops have been sent to intercept him. Two thousand Boers under an Irishman named Blake, have entered Portuguese territory presumably for the purpose of releasing the Boer prisoners there.

A great combined movement has been started to clear the country between Pretoria and Natal of the Boers supplies.

The interment in a sarcophagus beside Prince Albert takes place at 3 p.m. today. The coffin will be conveyed on a gun carriage through the Park, the route being lined with troops.

The Kaiser leaves Windsor on Tuesday morning and will drive escorted by Life Guards from Paddington to Marlborough House, where he will have luncheon. From thence he goes to Charing Cross. It is expected that he will receive an immense ovation.

FEBRUARY 5TH.—The mourners including the Queen and the Ladies of the Royal family walked in the procession yesterday to Frogmore.

It is officially announced that a combined movement is being made by several commandos in the Orange Colony. A fresh invasion is anticipated and the garrisons to the South of the Orange River have been warned to be on their guard.

FEBRUARY 6TH.—The King in a letter addressed "My People, my people beyond seas, and Princes and people of India," conveys his deep gratitude for the affectionate tributes to the late Queen, and promises to strive to fulfil the sacred responsibilities of Kingship.

Lord Kitchener reports that DeWet has been signalled from Southward of DeWetsdorp.

After the service in the Albert Chapel yesterday the body was conveyed through Windsor Park between ranks of troops, behind which reverent crowds had assembled.

The final funeral rites at Frogmore will be conducted in domestic privacy.

The Press has renewed its tributes to the Kaiser. The "Times" says that all ranks and classes are profoundly touched by his devotion; the more so because they are aware that no political signification was attached to it.

The Kaiser met with a splendid reception while driving with the King to Charing Cross. An immense crowd had gathered despite the slush and half melted snow, which was 6 inches deep. The King bade him farewell at Charing Cross, and the Kaiser proceeded to Port Victoria where he embarked on board the Hohenzollern yesterday evening.

FEBRUARY 7TH.—The German Emperor has conferred on Lord Roberts the Order of the Black Eagle, the highest German decoration.

The German Emperor sailed from Port Victoria yesterday morning two British cruisers escorting him to Flushing.

The first meeting between the European Ministers and the Chinese envoys took place at Peking yesterday. They discussed the question of punishment but with no satisfactory result.

It is officially announced that the Government have decided to send Kitchener 30,000 Mounted reinforcements. It is expected that 10,000 Yeomanry will be available and the South African constabulary will contribute 8,000 the Colonies 5,000 and the remainder recruited from home.

The Delagoa Bay Railway has been cut 53 Kilometres within Portuguese Territory.

Lord Kitchener reports from Pretoria that De Wet is still North of Thabanchu, Smith Dorrein has occupied Lake Chressie and French is driving the enemy back to Amsterdam.

FEBRUARY 8TH.—The King and Queen take up their residence in Marlborough House this afternoon.

The Ministers report from Peking on the 5th that they have decided to insist on the death penalty of 12 officials who have been named though they will accept banishment in the case of Prince Tuan to Lanin Turkestan. It is stated in Berlin that a Sugar Bounties Conference is not likely to take place. Certain States especially America and Russia are negotiating for a separate understanding.

Renter's Agent at Capetown reports that it is understood that troops are sweeping the enemy towards Cape Colony. An extensive frontage is covered with Cavalry at each end and everything in advance is being cleared.

It is stated that Lord Kitchener in person is acting independently of the above movement.

The troops in the Southern districts acting in concert are working Northwards.

Queen Wilhelmina was married yesterday at the Hague amidst the utmost popular enthusiasm.

FEBRUARY 9TH.—The "Times" states that it is definitely settled that the Duke and Duchess of York will start for Australia at the end of March or beginning of April.

Small parties of Boers continue to enter the Cape at various points. Two hundred passed to the North of Middleburg moving West to join Hertzog at Calvinia.

It is officially announced that the Duke of York will not be created Prince of Wales till after his return from Australia.

A new issue eleven millions of Exchequer Bonds at 3% repayable in 1905 is announced.

Lord Kitchener reports that De Wet is still North of Smithfield. Thabanchu as formerly stated being a telegraphic error. The Boers who attacked Pompey are now moving to Philippoles. General Methuen has scattered the enemy Eastwards; the Vryburg column has destroyed the enemy's supplies at Petrusburg and captured 3,500 horses and cattle.

Two cases of Bubonic Plague have occurred at Cape Town. The rats there are infected with it and a wholesale slaughter of them is proceeding.

After the opening of the Parliament the King visits the Empress Frederick and probably also the Kaiser.

FEBRUARY 11TH.—The German press comments unfavourably on the compliments paid by the Kaiser to England, more especially with regard to the decoration of Lord Roberts with the order of the Black Eagle. They declare that the compliments are opposed to the sentiments of the people.

It is officially announced that after the present issue, the Government will, if it requires to borrow more money for the purposes of the war, have resort to more permanent securities than Exchequer bonds.

It is understood in Washington, that England has not accepted the Senate's amendments to the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty, but has made some counter proposals.

General French occupied Ermelo, on Saturday, 6,000 Boers retiring on Amsterdam.

The Boers violently attacked General Smith-Dorien's outpost at Bothwell, which suffered severely. The enemy were repulsed with very heavy loss.

The Boer invaders are stated to be within nine miles of Graaffrinet, and also in the neighbourhood of Rosmead.

Lord Kitchener reports that Louis Botha, with 2,000 men attacked Smith-Dorien at Bothwell, but was repulsed after some severe fighting. The Boer General Spruit, and two field-cornets were killed, twenty dead and many wounded were left in our hands. Our casualties were 24 killed and 53 wounded.

De Wet is apparently crossing the railway to the South of Jagersfontein, having failed to cross the drifts eastward of Bethulie.

Portugal has agreed to permit the return of Mr. Pott, the Dutch Consul to Lourenço Marques.

Rettler's Agent at East London reports that 2,500 men under De Wet, retiring before Colonel Pilcher, encountered and outflanked 700 Colonials at Tabaksberg on the 30th January. The Colonials lost heavily and abandoned a pompong, but succeeded in rejoining General Knox.

FEBRUARY 12TH.—The Duke of York is better and has returned to London.

The French loot from China is to be reshipped at Toulon to-day and restored to the Chinese Government.

The British in Tientsin have been warned to be ready to take over control of the Northern Railway from the Germans at a day's notice. The staff is all ready.

The embarkation of the Yeomanry reinforcements for South Africa has begun and is proceeding rapidly.

FEBRUARY 13TH.—The Cape Government notifies the Powers that Cape Town is plague infected. Three fresh cases occurred yesterday, and it is proposed to locate the Kaffir population in a compound, destroy the Military stores, Camps and docks which are infested with rats.

Antidetical disorders are taking place in Madrid, and in the provinces; affairs are becoming serious and crowds assembled daily to stone and shoot the Gendarmerie.

Reuter's correspondent at Colesberg reports that the hills at Donkerspoort north of Norvalspont are full of the enemy and shots are being exchanged. Another report states that De Wet has already crossed the Orange River and is making for Philippstown. Five columns are in pursuit. Great military activity prevails along the border.

Lord Kitchener reports that French has captured a convoy of 75 vehicles and 45 prisoners.

It is announced at St. Petersburg that present political complications in the Far East, necessitate an increase in the Russian squadron.

FEBRUARY 14TH.—The "Times" announces that the Duke and Duchess of York will in March start on a tour for six months. The tour will include Colombo, Singapore, Mauritius and probably the Cape and Canada.

The Military Store at Capetown will be removed only not destroyed.

It is unofficially announced that General French, attacking the Boer laager at Ermelo last week, killed 40 and captured 200 of the enemy together with a quantity of cattle.

Another plague epidemic is raging in Bombay over 2,000 people died last week and of this number 922 are attributed to the plague. The authorities now aim merely at succouring the sick instead of checking the spread of the epidemic.
