EMBU DISTRICT

PURSUANT to the publication of Graduated Personal Tax Enactment (Eastern Region), the Embu County Council is to ask all employers in the Embu District to deduct Graduated Personal Tax from all their employees for the year 1964.

Graduated Personal Tax Assessment Forms are now available and can be obtained from the County Treasurer, Embu, free of charge. Prior to commencement of any deductions of this Tax, employers are asked to obtain these Tax Assessments Forms for each of their employees, with the exception of those who either prefer to clear the Tax in full or who are liable for the maximum in the Tax Scale which is Sh. 600, in which case completion of these forms would not be necessary.

When employees complete these forms, the employers shall base and determine the Tax deductible on the basis of the total declared income, and shall deduct appropriate amounts in accordance with the Tax Table from the emoluments of their employees.

Tax Deduction Cards will be issued from the County Tax Office, Embu, free of charge, and the employers shall collect these for each of their employees. The employers shall purchase Tax Stamps equivalent to the deductions made and shall affix on the Deduction Cards regularly each month, cancelling them either in ink or shall affix date-stamp on them. If ink is preferred, these stamps will be marked with the date in ink.

The employers shall be responsible for the safe custody of the Tax Deduction Cards, until such time that the employees leave their place of employment before the end of the year 1964, and in such an event, the employers shall hand over these cards to the employees.

The attention of all tax payers is drawn to the fact that although the employers shall deduct the tax in relation to the total declared income, it shall be subject to ratification by the Tax Assessment Committees, and in the event of any recommended adjustments, the Council shall notify any revisions in Tax, whereby the employers shall make necessary adjustments in the month following the receipt of such notifications.

In the event of employers being in any doubt and not precisely clear on matters relating to the above Tax, are advised to contact the County Tax Office, Embu.
