GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1596

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 22 OF 1981

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers and Nambale Farmers Co-operative Union Ltd.

Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of:

- Emoto-Ebu
- David O. Ongelech

1. The Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Nambale Farmers' Co-operative Union Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 30th September, 1982, 20th January, 23rd March and 13 and 14 May 1982 and in addition to relying on their written and verbal submissions called the following witnesses to give evidence on oath:

Claimants: G. A. Emoto-Ebu
D. Ongelech

Respondents: B. Rono

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 7th December, 1979 duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 6th April 1981 together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The two persons involved in this dispute—Mr. Emoto-Ebu and Mr. David O. Ongelech—were the Respondents' manager and cashier at the time their services were terminated in January, 1979 and 17th February 1979 respectively.

The reasons which led to their termination of employment were their activities which the Respondents considered not to be in their, the Respondents', best interest. These were:

- "1. Misappropriation of Sh. 10,604.80 in 1978 by both of them.
2. Diversion of the Respondents' cement from Malaba Railway Station (this concerned Mr. Emoto-Ebu alone).
3. Manipulation of pilot buying of cotton in 1977/78."

The Claimants took up the matter on their behalf and reported a trade dispute to the Minister for Labour. The Ministry's findings and recommendation were conveyed to the parties on 18th October, 1979, and read as follows:

"It was found that Mr. Emoto authorized the cashier to purchase maize from another union which was bought at Sh. 9,810 leaving a balance of Sh. 794.80 which was not accounted for in the books. Mr. Emoto accepted the liability of the money. Mr. Emoto seems to have used the company name to purchase cement for his own use.

It was also found that Mr. Emoto conspired with his cashier to trade with the union's money which amounts to fraud. The dismissal was therefore justified."

The Claimants did not accept these and the matter was referred to the Industrial Court and as stated above it was heard for several days. The Court has mentioned the days which were taken up in the hearing of this dispute advisedly because at the end of the evidence and the parties' submissions the Court came to the conclusion that the Claimants had no grounds whatsoever for pursuing this case so far. All the allegations that were levelled against these two persons were thoroughly investigated by the Respondents in their various management committee meetings before a decision was taken to dismiss these two senior employees. The Court can see no breach of any principles of natural justice. Moreover, the evidence of B. Rono who was the Assistant Co-operative Officer at Nambale during the material time has completely satisfied the Court that both Mr. Ebu and Mr. Ongelech had indeed misappropriated a sum of Sh. 10,604.80 with which they had bought maize without the Respondents' knowledge and sold it at Adungosi market. This money came into the possession of Ongelech when he had already handed over his responsibilities prior to proceeding on leave. This was the refund of an overpayment from Adungosi Society and Ongelech failed to record it in the Respondents' books of account and the Court is satisfied that he and Mr. Emoto-Ebu made a substantial profit from the misuse of this money belonging to the Respondents.

The Court finds that the letter written by Mr. Emoto-Ebu on this issue clearly shows that he had indulged in a dishonest practice and was prepared to repay the amount although he tried to word the letter rather craftily which reads:

"Having realized that repayment by the debtors of the amount owing will be slow and probably problematic it would appear that the best thing to be done under the circumstances is for me to accept the implicit liability. In this regard I undertake to repay the outstanding amount by monthly instalment of Sh. 500 commencing after the clearance of an outstanding salary advance balance while at the same time urging the debtors to repay. Whatever recoveries I shall make I will also pay in. Already I have paid Sh. 180 which I recovered from Mr. Pamba in this respect. In view of this I hope my offer will be acceptable to you. I should therefore be obliged if you could signify so."

The Court has carefully considered the explanations which both these persons tried to give in Court but finds them to be extremely flimsy and the Court rejects them outright. The Respondents to all intents and purposes have lost this amount of Sh. 10,604.80 due to the machinations of these two fairly senior employees.

The Court is satisfied that Mr. Emoto-Ebu diverted the 800 bags of cement at the Malaba Railway Station which were purchased by the Respondents for Sh. 22,585 which he did in collaboration with representative of Salama Ltd. The reason he put forward for doing so was that the chairman had refused to sign the L.P.O. Here again the Court finds that Mr. Emoto-Ebu made a big profit at the expense of the Respondents although later on Salama Ltd. supplied another load of cement which the Respondents had paid for. It should be noted that at one of the meetings of the management committee the chairman had explained that he did not sign the cement order because Mr. Emoto-Ebu had a dirty game. In the same minute it was reported that Mr. Ebu had made a profit of Sh. 35 per bag and there was some discussion that he should be asked to refund this money to the Respondents.

The Court finds that Mr. Emoto-Ebu's conduct in this affair again was dishonest.

As far as the allegation of manipulation of pilot buying of cotton in 1977/78 is concerned, the Court is satisfied that both Mr. Ongelech and Mr. Ebu embarked on buying cotton in that area at a price lower than the Government gazetted price. One Mr. Achito who is a farmer and works as a recorder at Akites Store testified that both these gentlemen had requested him to buy cotton on their behalf and they gave him Sh. 10,000 one night at his father's house. He told the Court that he had to buy cotton and store it at various houses from where it would be collected by these two persons. He was instructed to buy cotton for Sh. 2.50 per kilo while the price at the time was

Sh. 3.20 but because of the great risk involved he bought it at Sh. 3 per kilo.

This, to say the least, was also a very shady deal and it is distressing to note that person placed in authority in the co-operatives manipulate official funds in such a manner as to make personal gains out of it. People who indulge in such practices do not deserve any sympathy from the Court.

After considering all the submissions and the evidence the Court finds that the dismissal of the manager, Mr. Emoto-Ebu and the cashier, Mr. Ongelech, was fully justified. The Court notes that Mr. Emoto-Ebu owes the Respondents Sh. 38,134.20. In view of this the Court rejects his demand of Sh. 12,463 which he had put forward in respect of earned leave and salary for January 1979. Similarly the Court also rejects Mr. Ongelech's demand.

The Court is inclined to comment in this dispute that if the parties were required to incur Court costs and to pay the costs to the opposing side in the event of losing the case the Claimants and the persons involved would have carefully thought about bringing this dispute to the Industrial Court which was so obviously against them all the way and which they should have known they had no chance of winning.

AWARD

3. The Minister for Labour signed the reference of this dispute to the Industrial Court on 2nd April, 1982, in accordance with section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act. The Court received the notification of dispute from the Minister on 16th April.

After the parties had made their opening submissions the Court suggested to the parties that they should try to see if the matter could be settled at their own level without going into a full hearing. The parties realizing that the gap between them had narrowed accepted the Court's suggestion and in the afternoon reported that they had settled the dispute and wanted the Court to make an award by consent.

The Court accordingly awards by consent of the parties that the Respondents shall pay Mrs. F. W.
