GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3183

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 141 of 1985

Parties:

Amalgamated Union of Kenya Metal Workers and Fiat (Kenya) Limited

Issue in dispute:

Termination of Wycliffe Sabatia.

THE Amalgamated Union of Kenya Metal Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Fiat (Kenya) Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 30th July, 1986 and in addition to relying on the written and verbal submissions, the claimants called the grievant Wycliffe Sabatia to give evidence.

AWARD

3. The Minister for Labour referred this dispute to the court in accordance with section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act, and it was received by the court on 2nd December, 1985.

In this dispute, it is alleged that the grievant, Wycliffe Sabatia, who was employed as a sales clerk in the new vehicles section of the respondents' undertaking, accepted a used vehicle for sale from a client without authority from the management and put it in the showroom without proper documentation which amounted to gross misconduct.

The claimants told the court that their member, Mr. Sabatia, had worked for the respondents for three years as a clerk in the new vehicles section without a single warning. The claimants stated that on 30th December, 1982, the day Mr. Sabatia resumed duties from leave, there was a used Mercedes car, KMx 255 in the showroom. At about 3 p.m., the commercial manager enquired from Mr. Sabatia on how that car came there. Mr. Sabatia denied having any knowledge about it. The claimants stated that the commercial manager ordered for the removal of that car. Mr. Sabatia who does not drive called a driver to take this car out of the showroom but the car could not start. The manager then ordered Mr. Sabatia and the driver to push that car to the workshop. The two pushed the car to the workshop where it was started by using another battery. The mechanic got into the car with the intention of reversing it out of the workshop. As he was trying to engage to gear, the gear lever broke. This annoyed the commercial manager even more and he ordered Mr. Sabatia and the driver to push the car to the owner. Since the owner's business premises were just across the road, the two pushed the car there. The claimants stated that Mr. Sabatia and the driver did not find the owner of the vehicle, Mr. Sultan Lalji, there so they left the car with his brother who refused to accept the car keys. Mr. Sabatia then returned the keys to the manager.

On 3rd January, 1983, the manager gave the keys to Mr. Sabatia to take to the owner and he did so. The claimants stated that Mr. Sultan Lalji wrote a complaint letter to the respondents complaining about the damage to the car and loss of tools. This prompted investigations into who had accepted that car in the showroom and the respondents mistakenly pinned the blame on Mr. Sabatia and as a result the respondents terminated the services of the grievant instantly.

Giving evidence in court, the grievant, Mr. Sabatia, stated that his duties in the new vehicles section included documentation of the vehicles and registration. He had nothing to do with used cars. He stated that used cars fell under another department. Mr. Sabatia stated that he was on leave upto 29th December, 1982, so he reported for duty on 30th December, 1982. At about 3 p.m., the commercial manager called him from his office and took him to the showroom where he was shown used Mercedes car KMX 255 and asked whether he knew who brought it there. Mr. Sabatia denied having any knowledge of it. The manager demanded documents of the car but Mr. Sabatia could not produce any since he did not receive the car. The manager then ordered that the car be returned to the owner. Mr. Sabatia stated that he called a driver by name Mamboleo to drive the car. The car did not start so they pushed it to the workshop where it was started by Mr. Mbugua, the foreman, using another battery. Mr. Sabatia said that a Mr. Mbogua tried to engage reverse gear, the gear lever broke. The damage was reported to the manager. Mr. Mbogua accepted that he was responsible for the damage and agreed to replace the lever. Mr. Sabatia told the court that the manager ordered him and Mr. Mamboleo to push the car to the owner across the road and they did so. On arrival, they did not find Mr. Sultan Lalji, the owner. They showed the car to Mr. Lalji's brother, who refused to accept the keys, so Mr. Sabatia took the keys to the manager who kept them until 3rd January, 1983 when Mr. Sabatia was given the keys to take to the owner which he did. Mr. Sabatia stated that he did not make arrangements for the car to be brought there for sale, moreover, he knew nothing about that deal. Mr. Sabatia stated that he received his termination letter on 5th January, 1983. By then he had known that the arrangements for the sale of that car had been made by the financial controller, Mr. Shaukat.

The claimants prayed the court to reinstate the grievant and order the respondents to pay him salary for all the time he was out of employment through no fault of his own.

The respondents told the court that their investigations showed that Mr. Sabatia accepted the car in question in the showroom without the authority of the management and that he failed to carry out the necessary documentation as per laid down procedures which amounted to gross misconduct. The respondents further told the court that Mr. Sabatia's action caused the respondents unwarranted exchange of letters and trouble with the owner of the car.

The respondents stated that Mr. Sabatia was not a member of the claimants' union and that at the first stage he was represented by the former Kenya Management Staff Association. The respondents further told the court that when the claimants took over this dispute, they, the respondents at the parties' own level, agreed to treat this dispute with leniency and offered to reduce it to a normal termination and pay the grievant one month's salary in addition. The respondents prayed the court to uphold their action and find that Mr. Sabatia was terminated on grounds of gross misconduct.

In determining this dispute, the court finds that the car in question had been in the respondents premises previously because when the manager notice it at about 2.45 p.m., it bore KG number plate which is a garage registration number plate. Going through correspondence between the respondents and Mr. Sultan Lalji, the owner of the car, the court finds it proved that the person who negotiated on behalf of the respondents was the respondents' financial controller, Mr. Shaukat. For this reason, the court does not agree with the respondents that Mr. Sabatia was responsible for the presence of this car in the respondents' showroom. The court wonders why the respondents did not call Mr. Shaukat or Mr. Sultan Lalji to give evidence in support of their claim. Mr. Sabatia, however, made a mistake when he did not refer the owner of this vehicle to the salesmen who were responsible for used cars department. Taking all the circumstances into consideration, the court find that Mr. Sabatia did not deserve a dismissal as at the most a warning letter would have sufficed. He has, therefore, suffered a wrongful dismissal. The court awards that his dismissal should be reduced to normal termination and he should, in addition, be paid four months' salary by way of compensation.

Given on the 11th August, 1986.

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within sixty (60) days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of KSh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

PRICING OF THE ISSUES

The pricing of the issues and the effective interest rate will be determined through tender. To guide the applicants, yield tables are attached to the application forms, but investors are free to quote prices within two (2) decimal points, using the following examples:

A two-year Treasury Bond Due in 1988 with a coupon of 12 per cent per annum, and a price of 98.33 will give a yield of 12.97 per cent per annum. For a price of 99.90 the yield will be 12.06 per cent per annum paid semi-annually which means the annual payment equivalent is 12.12 per cent per annum.

The five-year Treasury Bond Due in 1991, with a coupon of 13 per cent per annum at a price of 98.20 would give a yield of 13.51 per cent per annum, and for a price of 96.49

the yield will be 14 per cent per annum. (This 14 per cent translates into 14.49 per cent paid annually.)

These Treasury Bonds are an investment authorized in the Republic of Kenya, by the Internal Loans Act (Cap. 420).

Interest payments will be subject to the deduction of income tax in accordance with laws of the Republic of Kenya.
