THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 46 OF 1975

Parties:—

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers
and

Kenya Bankers' (Employers) Association

INTERPRETATION APPLICATION RULING

The Respondents have applied for interpretation of the Court award in the above dispute which was announced on 30th October, 1975, on the issues of wages and acting allowance for Section Heads and Clerks.

In the award on wages the Court after announcing the wage increases added the following paragraph:—

"The Court further awards as already agreed between the parties that the salary/wages clause will be open for negotiation after a period of 12 months from 1st March, 1975."

The Respondents have pointed out that there was no agreement between the parties to the effect that the salary/wages clause will be open for negotiation after a period of 12 months as stated above. They reminded the Court that what they did submit was that they would be prepared to follow the directives announced by the Government on the revision of wage and salary clauses. In view of the fact that at the time of the hearing the Government directive required the parties to negotiate wage and salary increases after a period of one year had prompted them to say that they would abide by it.

The Claimants agreed with the Respondents' submission on this point and said that although the agreement is for two years it had been understood between the parties in view of the Government directive that the wage/salary clause would be revised after one year.

After considering the parties' submissions on this point the Court deletes the aforesaid paragraph in its award under the issue of wages as the parties have indicated their willingness to abide by the Government directives on the revision of wage and salary clauses. The Court would like to add that its award on salary/wage clause was made on this premise that it would be revised after one year.

On the other issue of Acting Allowance for Section Heads and Clerks the Court made the following award:—

"Clause 23 on this item in the existing collective agreement shall be amended as follows:—

23 (A) (i) Sh. 300 p.m. instead of Sh. 175 p.m.

(ii) (a) Sh. 400 p.m.

(iii) (a) 10 days instead of 21 days.

The Court further awards that an employee shall be informed that he is working in an acting capacity within 48 hours of assuming such duties."

The Respondents have submitted that in the aforesaid clause 23 (A) (ii) (a) the parties had during negotiations agreed to 14 days instead of 21 days. They referred the Court to the relevant documents in support of their contention.

The Claimants, however, submitted that the Respondents were grossly misleading the Court by stating that the qualifying period for an acting allowance was not an issue in dispute. They argued that the documents referred to by the Respondents were mere letters and not an agreement of any sort. They referred the Court to their own written submission where they had vigorously asked for this period to be reduced to seven days.

After perusal of all the relevant documents and submissions on this particular point the Court finds that there was indeed an agreement between the parties on the qualifying period as claimed by the Respondents and that the Claimants had in fact laid a lot of stress on an employee being informed in writing that he was to work in an acting capacity on more than anything else. In fact the Claimants' written submission at App. (A), page 9, confirms this.

The Court accordingly directs that the qualifying period under clause 23 (A) (iii) (a) should be 14 days instead of 21 days.

Given in Nairobi this 27th day of February, 1976.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 71 OF 1975

Parties:—

Transport and Allied Workers' Union
and
Express Kenya Ltd./ETCO Ltd.

Issues in dispute:—

1. Minimum wages.
2. General increase.
3. Housing allowance.
4. Effective date.

1. The Transport and Allied Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Express Kenya Ltd./ETCO Ltd. shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 30th day of January, 1976, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 20th August, 1975, was received by the Court on 29th September, along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The parties had entered into a collective agreement which became effective from 1st July, 1973, to run for a period of 24 months. Under this agreement the employees who were paid less than Sh. 1,000 got a general increment of 23.2 per cent whilst the higher paid employees got an increase of 10 per cent.

This agreement was registered by the Court after satisfying itself that it was in conformity with the Guidelines on 5th December, 1973.

The main reasons for accepting this agreement for registration were as follows:—

1. Since the establishment of the company, no job classifications had ever been done. Similarly, no basic minimum wages had ever been set for the simple reason that the company was formerly run on family basis and that it was the first time a collective agreement was entered into with the union. This resulted in proper job classification and the setting of basic minimum wages for each job category.

2. Previously employees were considerably underpaid with the result that the company lost an advantage over its competitors. And in order to redress this unfortunate tendency the company found it inevitable to grant wage increases of the magnitude now stipulated in the current agreement with the aim of levelling the differentials with other transport companies. Even though comparisons with KENATCO (one of the largest transport companies in the country) showed that while the Respondents have a minimum wage of Sh. 285 for the unskilled workers, KENATCO has a minimum of Sh. 324 p.m.

3. Businesswise the company has since enjoyed high annual returns which had been usually guaranteed by extensively diversified activities of the company. Hence future expansion of activities could be foreseen by way of new sister companies. It therefore appeared that the wage increases would not lead to reduced employment in the company.

Since July, 1974, when the employees got the latest increment the cost of living has risen by 24.4 per cent up to November, 1975.

Those workers who are not housed by the Respondents are paid a monthly house allowance of Sh. 70.

On 21st May, 1975, the Claimants forwarded their proposals to the Respondents for revising this collective agreement and in these proposals they asked for a minimum wage for an unskilled labourer to be Sh. 520 p.m. and also considerably increased all the other minimum rates of pay for the other job groupings. In addition they asked for a 59 per cent general wage increase for those earning less than Sh. 1,000 p.m. and 45 per cent for those earning more than Sh. 1,000 p.m. They asked for similar increases for the following year.

The parties then had meetings during which there were certain changes for better on items of leave and safari allowance. The Respondents also made an offer on the minimum wages plus general increment as follows:—

"(i) For those employees earning Sh. 1,000 p.m. basic and less, a 10 per cent increment at 1-7-1975 on their present salaries and a similar increment on 1st July, 1976.

(ii) For those earning over Sh. 1,000 p.m. basic a 5 per cent increment at 1-7-1975 on their present salaries and a similar increment on 1st July, 1976.

Provided that the housing allowance remained Sh. 70 p.m."

The matter was before a Conciliator and the parties reached a deadlock with the following positions:—

"Union's demand:

	Sh.	cts.
	per day
(i) Unskilled labour	520	00
(ii) Semi-skilled labour	600	00
(iii) Skilled labour	700	00
(iv) Casual labour	17	00

The Union demanded a general increase of 15 per cent for the first year and 10 per cent for the second year for those employees earning up to Sh. 1,000 and those above a thousand upwards 10 per cent for the first year and 5 per cent for the second year and finally the Union demanded Sh. 140 as housing allowance.

Management's offer:

	Sh.	cts.
	per day
(i) Unskilled labour	260	00
(ii) Semi-skilled labour	280	00
(iii) Skilled labour	390	00
(iv) Casual labour	11	80

They also offered a general increase of 10 per cent for those earning up to Sh. 1,000 and those above a thousand shillings 5 per cent. With housing allowance they offered Sh. 70 p.m."

The Respondents have vigorously pleaded that the economics of the four lines of their business did not warrant anything over and above what they had offered without seriously jeopardizing their business and the number in employment. The Respondents gave details of how their business had suffered and added that the trading conditions in their industry had constantly deteriorated and as at 31st August, 1975, they had made an accumulative loss of £1,078 as against a profit of £9,974 during the same period last year.

The Court finds that the Claimants' demands as originally forwarded to the Respondents were clearly very much outside the scope permitted under the Guidelines issued by the Minister for Finance to the Industrial Court. The employment situation in the Respondents' undertaking from 1973 to 30th September, 1975, is as follows:—

	1973	1974	As at 30-9-1975
Permanent	643	621	599
Casual	268	350	295
Total	911	971	894"

The Court is satisfied that the labour cost increases of the size proposed by the Claimants could in the short run not avoid having further negative repercussions on employment opportunities particularly in the rather volatile situation of the economy as a whole. At the same time, however, the Court feels that the workers are entitled to reasonable compensation to offset the increase in the cost of living.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court awards the following basic minimum wages:—

- (ii) For those earning over Sh. 1,000 p.m. basic, a 7½ per cent increment with effect from 1st July, 1975, on their salaries as at that date and an increment of 5 per cent on 1st July, 1976.

3. Housing allowance.—The Court awards a housing allowance of Sh. 85 p.m. to those employees who are not housed by the Respondents.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 684

THE TRADE MARKS ACT (Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
