GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 358

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 44 OF 1967

Parties:—

The Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers and

Pearl Assurance Company Limited

Issues in dispute:—

- (1) Wages.
- (2) Leave.
- (3) Leave Travelling Allowance.
- (4) Sick Benefits.
- (5) Redundancy and Severance Pay.
- (6) Termination of Services.
- (7) Warning and Dismissal.
- (8) Duration and Effective Date of the Agreement.

1. The Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and the Pearl Assurance Company Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The Parties were heard in Nairobi on the 3rd day of January 1968, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

In this dispute the Claimants' main argument is that there is no reason why the Respondents should not pay the same salaries and other benefits as those paid by the South British Insurance Company Limited whose business activities are the same as the Respondents. In the current agreement existing between the Claimants and the South British Insurance Company Limited the clerical grades II and I start from Sh. 460 per month and Sh. 825 per month going up to Sh. 1,023 per month and Sh. 1,672 respectively. The Special Clerical Grade commences at Sh. 1,680 and ends at Sh. 2,100. As against this the Respondents' offer on clerical grades is as follows:—

Clerical Grade II: From Sh. 400 p.m. going up to Sh. 960 p.m. in 15 years.

Clerical Grade I: From Sh. 750 p.m. going up to Sh. 1,520 p.m. in 15 years.

Special Grade: From Sh. 1,600 p.m. going up to Sh. 2,320 p.m. in 10 years.

The Respondents have further offered that employees with School Certificate shall enter at Sh. 480 per month and those with K.P.E. shall enter at Sh. 400 per month.

It is obvious that the Respondents' offer is not much different from the rates of salaries which the Claimants have negotiated with the South British Insurance Company Limited.

In view of this and after a careful consideration of all the submissions made by the Parties the Court makes the following award:—

(1) Wages:

Clerical Grade II.—This scale shall apply to employees including junior clerks, intermediate clerks, copy typists, and telephonists. Monthly consolidated salary progressing by Sh. 40 per month.

Provided that employees entering this Grade with K.P.E. shall commence at the first point but employees with School Certificate shall enter at the 5th increment, namely Sh. 560.

Years of Service	Wages Sh.
1	400
2	440
3	480
4	520
5	560
6	600
7	640
8	680
9	720
10	760
11	800
12	840
13	880
14	920
15	960

Provided that the existing employees shall be put at the point in the scale which is immediately above their present salary on the effective date of this award and will then progress from that point every year.

(2) Leave.—The Court awards that an employee shall be entitled to 21 days' consecutive leave on completion of 12 months' continuous service:

Provided that if a gazetted public holiday falls during the leave period the employee shall be entitled to an extra day.

(3) Leave Travelling Allowance.—The Court awards that an employee in clerical grades shall be paid a sum of Sh. 150 as leave travelling allowance when he proceeds on his annual paid leave.

The Court further endorses the current practice of the payment of Sh. 75 to members of subordinate staff by way of leave travelling allowance.

(4) Sick Benefits.—The Court awards that after three months' continuous service with the Respondents an employee shall be entitled to sick leave up to a maximum of 30 days with full pay, and thereafter to sick leave up to a maximum of 30 days with half-pay, in each period of 12 months' continuous service, subject to the employee producing a certificate of incapacity covering such period of sick leave claimed, signed by a medical practitioner or person acting on his behalf:

Provided that an employee shall not be eligible for such leave in respect of any incapacity due to gross neglect on his own part.

(5) Redundancy and Severance Pay.—The principle of "first in last out" shall apply to the selection of employees to be declared redundant, except in cases where the ability of a less senior employee is declared by the Respondents to be greater than that of an employee with longer service.

Any employee whose service is terminated on the grounds of redundancy shall receive:—

(i) In respect of continuous service from one to five years inclusive—

One-third of a month's salary for each completed year of service.

(ii) In respect of each completed year of continuous service thereafter—

Two-thirds of a month's salary plus (i) above.

The basis for calculation shall be the salary earned at the time of termination of service and where the continuous employment exceeds a full year, or a number of full years, by more than six months, the additional months shall be counted as a year.

If a benefit granted out of any other fund or scheme, after deducting any contributions made thereto by the employee, equals or exceeds the redundancy pay, then no redundancy pay shall be paid.

If a benefit granted out of any other fund or scheme, after deducting any contributions made thereto by the employee, is less than the redundancy pay, the redundancy pay shall be reduced by the amount so granted.

(6) Termination of Service (7) Warning and Dismissal.—The Court awards as follows on this issue:—

(a) During the probationary period an employee's services may be terminated subject to one week's notice or one week's pay in lieu by either side.

(b) On completion of the probationary period, an employee shall be regarded as being on the establishment of the Respondents and shall be entitled to one month's notice or one month's pay in lieu of such notice on termination of his services. This condition will apply to an employee whose services are terminated other than for gross misconduct or other lawful cause, provided that such employee may be given warnings in writing, up to three in number, being registered on his employment card, which the employee has signed.

(c) An employee who receives three such warnings shall be liable to summary dismissal, provided that all such warnings shall be erased from the history card of an employee after a period of 12 months from the date of the last warning.

(d) An employee may be summarily dismissed for gross misconduct.

(8) Duration and Effective Date of the Agreement.—This award shall remain in force for a period of three years with effect from 1st July 1967, subject to the aforesaid incremental scales.
