6. County Assembly (Gender) Party List—47 Lists, each representing a county and separately consisting of a number of nominees equal to the number of wards in the respective county [Art. 177(1) (b) of the Constitution]. E.g. for Nairobi County, the Gender List to the County Assembly shall have 85 nominees, for Lamu County – 10 nominees, etc.

General Requirements for Party Lists

The Party Lists must generally comply with the Constitution 2010, the Elections Act, 2011 as amended by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Amendment) Act, 2012, the Elections (Amendment) Act, 2012, the Elections (Amendment) (No. 2), the Political Parties Act, 2011 and any other relevant law as well as the party constitution and the party nomination rules.

Article 90 of the Constitution, sections 34-37 of the Elections Act, 2011 as amended by the Elections (Amendment) (No. 2) Act, 2012, the Election Laws (Amendment) Act, 2016 and the Election Laws (Amendment) Act, 2017. The Regulations 54–56 of the Election (General) Regulations, 2012 as amended by the Election (General) (Amendment) Regulations 2017 and the Elections (Party Primaries and Party Lists) Regulations, 2017 prescribe minimum stipulations for submission of Party Lists.

The following requirements apply to all Party Lists—

- (a) A political party participating in a general election nominates and submits a list of all the persons who would stand elected if party were to be entitled to all the seats on the Party Lists.
- (b) Each Party List comprises of the appropriate number of qualified candidates and alternates between male and female candidates in the priority in which they are listed. However, this criterion does not apply to the Senate (Women) Party List [Article 98(1) (b) of the Constitution], as all 16 nominees are women.
- (c) A political party may, at least two weeks before the party nomination of Party Lists, announce the fees to be levied by the party on every aspiring candidate. The fee shall be made known to the party members, may be graduated or waived to take into account special interest groups and may be different from the fees levied on aspiring candidates in the party primaries.

- (d) An aspiring candidate shall submit to an Election Board of their party, a duly filled application form together with a signed commitment to the party's constitution, policies and principles, a self-declaration form, copies of the person's national identity card or valid passport (the document used by the nominee to register as a voter), copies of the candidate's academic qualifications (when applicable) from the relevant institutions, an evidence of registration as a member of the party and a receipt or evidence of payment of nomination fee (when applicable).
- (e) An aspiring candidate seeking nomination on the ground that the aspiring candidate is a person with disability shall submit a certification from the National Council for Persons with Disabilities.
- (f) An aspiring candidate seeking nomination on the ground that the aspiring candidate is a youth the person must have attended the age of eighteen years but has not attained the age of thirty-five years and such person shall provide documentary proof of his or her age.
- (g) Where the political party is required to issue a notice to its members regarding any exercise in the party nomination of Party Lists, the party shall notify its members at least seven days before the date of the exercise, the date and the venue of the exercise, the persons eligible to participate in the exercise, the party officials who shall be responsible for the exercise, the duration of the exercise, where any aggrieved may file any grievances regarding the exercise, the party officials who shall hear and determine any appeal and the fee, if any, that should be paid.
- (h) The party nomination of Party Lists must be in compliance with the party nomination rules and procedures.
- (i) The names in the Party List shall be in the order of priority.
- (j) The Party List shall be a closed list, that is, the list may not be amended after it has been submitted to the Commission.
- (k) Each Party List reflects the regional and ethnic diversity of the people of Kenya. This criterion is not applicable in the case of Party Lists for county assembly seats.
- (l) The nominees on the lists must be members of the party.
- (m) The nominees on the list must be registered voters.
- (n) The Party List shall not contain a name of a candidate nominated for an election in any of the single majority electoral constituencies.
- (o) The Party List must be signed by the authorized officials of the political party submitting the Party List.
- (p) The Party List must be submitted in hard copy and such other form that the Commission may specify.
- (q) A political party submitting a Party List shall submit a declaration to that effect that the party has complied with its party nomination rules for nomination of Party Lists.
- (r) Each political Party List nominee shall, after nomination, submit to the Commission a letter stating his or her intention to serve if nominated.
- (s) Each party shall submit the Party List to the Commission on the day designated by the Commission.
- (t) The Commission may reject a nominee submitted by a political party for any elective post if that nominee is not qualified. The rejection of a nominee shall not invalidate the entire list submitted. After rejecting a nominee, the Commission shall inform the party and request the party to submit another name within such time as the Commission shall determine.
- (u) The Commission shall within fourteen days of receipt reject any Party List that does not comply. The political party whose list has been rejected shall resubmit the Party List within seven days.
- (v) Where a political party fails to amend the Party List or resubmit the Party List as directed by the Commission, the Commission shall reject the Party List.

- (w) In the event a Party List has been rejected by the Commission, and the period for submitting revised Party Lists has lapsed, the party shall not be considered in the allocation of seats.
