GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3470

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 32 OF 1967

Parties:—

Kenya Petroleum Oil Workers' Union

and

Kenya Shell Limited

Issue in dispute:—

Confirmation of Mr. John Ojall in a clerical position in which he acted for eight months.

1. The Kenya Petroleum Oil Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Kenya Shell Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The Parties were heard in Nairobi on the 4th day of September 1967, and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The Parties also called a witness each.

AWARD

The Court has very carefully considered the rather peculiar circumstances under which this dispute has arisen. The facts which came to light during the hearing clearly show that a change in duties of the employee involved in this dispute that is, Mr. Ojall, which started on humanitarian grounds developed into a grave irregularity vis-à-vis the terms and conditions of agreement of the Respondents' employees. Ordinarily in accordance with the said agreement no operative is allowed to act in an acting capacity in a clerical grade or vice versa. In the present dispute had it not been for the fact that Mr. Ojall had a tendency based on his initiative and his ambitious nature to take the opportunity of doing work which he was strictly not required to do, the matters would not have become so complicated.

The Court accepts the Respondents' Depot Manager's evidence that on humanitarian grounds he had asked Mr. Ojall to work in the office as a cleaner, tea maker and a messenger and that he had not discouraged Mr. Ojall when he started helping out in work which was not his. This state of affairs ultimately resulted in Mr. Ojall finding himself doing regular clerical work in recording incoming and outgoing cylinders. The Depot Manager and the Acting Depot Manager must have been aware of this, yet they took no steps to inform their Head Office about it. The Court feels that the Management must be criticized for having allowed this situation to develop which is most irregular especially when the employees are being represented by a Trade Union and there is a comprehensive agreement regulating terms and conditions of service. The Court finds that this clearly exhibits a lack of co-ordination between the Respondents' Personnel Department and their various Depots. However, apart from this criticism of the Respondents, the Court is not prepared to make an exception in the case of Mr. Ojall and confirm him in a clerical position without his passing the clerical staff test. It is indeed most unfortunate that a person who had failed this test in 1965 was allowed to work as a clerk for a period of eight months which work incidentally he did most satisfactorily.

Having considered all the facts of this case most carefully the Court finds that the Respondents' offer is the best way out of this unfortunate position. The Court, therefore, awards that Mr. Ojall should be paid a sum of Sh. 155 per month for a period of eight months during which he acted as a clerk and further that the Respondents should allow Mr. Ojall to immediately take the appropriate clerical staff test and if he succeeds, then he should be taken into a clerical position. With this award the Court must reject the Claimants' demand that Mr. Ojall should immediately be confirmed in the clerical position in which he acted for eight months.

Given in Nairobi this 26th day of September 1967.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3471

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 30 OF 1967

Parties:

Tailors and Textile Workers' Union
and Kisumu Cotton Mills Limited

Issues in Dispute:

(a) Wages.

(b) Date of Implementation and Duration of Agreement.

1. The Tailors and Textile Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Kisumu Cotton Mills Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Kisumu on the 28th day of August 1967 and relied on their written and verbal submissions. The members of the Court visited the Respondents' mills and saw the workers performing the various jobs in different sections.

AWARD

The Court has been deeply impressed at the manner in which the Respondents have established their business. The way they have trained their operatives without encroaching on the trained manpower available elsewhere is indeed praiseworthy. Whereas a couple of years ago Kisumu did not have such a large industry now there is a fully integrated cotton mill employing 388 workers. The Court was informed that, due to appropriate action having been taken by the Kenya Government there was now no threat of any large scale redundancy and, in fact, the Respondents planned to start the second shift soon. Despite this temporary relief the Court is satisfied as to the genuineness of the Respondents' difficulties and their burdensome market conditions and the problems of the huge stocks in hand.

The Court cannot overlook the serious financial position of the Respondents, the serious economic position caused by the restrictions and over-production in East Africa of grey cloth. The Court has also to bear in mind the fact that the Respondents are in an early stage of development and that many workers are still under training and that construction work is still taking place. Further that the Respondents intend in order to meet the changing conditions caused by the higher standard of living and the urbanization of many workers to establish a dyeing and bleaching department so that they can produce the higher quality and varied colours required by the market. The Respondents informed the Court that they intended to embark on this work sometime in March next year.

The Court has very carefully considered the Claimants' arguments put forward for a wage increase and the Respondents' proposals and has come to the conclusion that the Respondents' proposals should be accepted as the rates offered by them appear to have been carefully prepared and examined bearing in mind the situation of the works, the youth of the workers and the fact that they are only completing training. Furthermore the Court has no doubt that a workman who is ambitious enough, hard working and efficient will be able to derive benefit under the scheme of incentive bonus. Considering all these factors and the fact that the statutory minimum wage in Kisumu has gone up by Sh. 25, the Court is constrained to make an award based on the Respondents' offer in the following terms:—

The Court finds that there is some merit in the Claimants' submission on this point and, therefore, has decided to rule that the effective date of this award should be 1st April 1967 and that it should remain in force up to 31st December 1968.
