3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 9th April, 1980 duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 2nd April, 1982 together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The person concerned in this dispute, Mr. Nzau, was a driver employed by the Respondents. He worked for them from 6th March, 1976 up to 9th November, 1978 when he was dismissed under section 17(a) of the Employment Act for being absent from his proper and appointed place of work without permission.

The Claimants took up the matter on his behalf on the ground that he was forced to be absent owing to circumstances beyond human control to extend his official leave of five days by another three days because his wife delivered a child who unfortunately died soon afterwards on 2nd November, 1978. In these circumstances he could not have possibly come to duty soon after burial.

The matter was investigated by the Ministry of Labour and the Ministry's findings were released to the parties on 10th August, 1979 in the following terms:

"From the submissions and interviewing both Mr. Mutiso and Mr. Kangundo it is found that Mrs. Mutiso delivered on 2nd November, 1978 and that the child died. But the burial took place on 4th November, 1978. Mr. Mutiso had five days off and so he was supposed to resume duty on 6th November, 1978 but he didn't.

Mr. Kangundo has refuted the union's allegation that he met Mr. Mutiso on 6th November, 1978 on his way to Coast General Hospital. He saw Mr. Mutiso on 8th November, 1978 and requested him to go and see Mr. C. D. Shah or Mr. J. D. Shah but he did not do so. Instead Mr. Mutiso was seen by C. D. Shah at 7 p.m. on duty while drunk.

I recommend that his dismissal be reduced to normal termination and that he be paid his terminal benefits as per management/union agreement."

The Court has carefully considered the parties' arguments and their written submissions and finds that in view of the two warnings which had been issued to this driver—on 20th March and 21st August, 1978—especially the last one in which he was found so drunk that he was not capable of driving the bus, the recommendation of the Ministry is proper in this case. The Court accordingly rejects the Claimants' demand for payment of 24 months' salary by way of compensation for the wrongful dismissal and instead awards that the Respondents should pay him one month's salary in lieu of notice, pay for 40 days leave earned and salary for nine days worked in November. The Court directs the Respondents to pay Mr. Nzau this amount without any further delay.

Given in Nairobi the 26th July, 1982.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 2128

THE TRADE MARKS ACT
(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form TM. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him an opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.
