KENYA PROCLAMATIONS, RULES AND REGULATIONS
(No 38)

Section 105 of the Principal Act which it is proposed to replace —

Burden of proving that case of accused comes within
exceptions

105 When a person is accused of any offence, the burden of proving the existence of circumstances bringing the case within any of the General Exceptions in the Indian Penal Code, or within any special exception or proviso contained in any other part of the same Code, or in any law defining the offence, is upon him, and the court shall presume the absence of such circumstances

Colony and Protectorate of Kenya

GOVERNMENT NOTICE No 612

His Excellency the Governor in Council has approved of the following Bill being introduced into the Legislative Council

R W BAKER-BEALL,
Acting Clerk of the Legislative Council

A Bill to Amend the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, as Applied to the Colony

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of Kenya, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows —

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the Evidence Act (Amendment) Ordinance, 1936, and shall be read as one with the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, as applied to the Colony, hereinafter referred to as the Principal Act

Short title

2 Section 105 of the Principal Act is hereby repealed and the following is substituted therefor —

Repeal and replacement of section 105 of the Principal Act

“105 (1) When a person is accused of any offence, the burden of proving the existence of circumstances bringing the case within any exception or exemption from, or qualification to, the operation of the law creating the offence with which he is charged and the burden of proving any fact especially within the knowledge of such person is upon him

Extent of burden of proof on accused person in certain cases

Provided that such burden shall be deemed to be discharged if the court is satisfied by evidence given by the prosecution, whether in cross-examination or otherwise, that such circumstances or facts exist, and

Provided further that the person accused shall be entitled to be acquitted of the offence with which he is charged if the court is satisfied that the evidence given by either the prosecution or the defence creates a reasonable doubt as to the guilt of the accused person in respect of that offence

(2) Nothing in this section shall—

(a) prejudice or diminish in any respect the obligation to establish by evidence according to law

Section 106 of the Principal Act which it is proposed to replace —

proving fact especially
knowledge

106 When any fact is especially within the knowledge of any person, the burden of proving that fact is upon him

any acts, omissions, or intentions which are legally necessary to constitute the offence with which the person accused is charged, or

(b) impose on the prosecution the burden of proving that the circumstances or facts described in subsection (1) of this section do not exist, or

(c) affect the burden placed upon an accused person to prove a defence of intoxication or insanity "

3 Section 106 of the Principal Act is hereby repealed and the following is substituted therefor —

"106 In civil proceedings, when any fact is especially within the knowledge of any person, the burden of proving that fact is upon him "

Repeal and replacement of section 106 of the Principal Act
Burden of proving fact especially within knowledge in civil proceedings

OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of the Bill is to make the law of evidence consistent with the recent decision of the House of Lords in the case of Woolmington versus The Director of Public Prosecutions

That decision laid down—

(a) that in a prosecution for murder it was not sufficient for the prosecution to prove a voluntary act of homicide and to rely on a presumption that killing is murder and so put the burden on the defence of proving that the killing was not murder, but that the prosecution must establish a prima facie case of malice,

(b) that no matter what the charge, subject to the defence of insanity and to any statutory exception, the principle that the prosecution must prove the guilt of the prisoner is part of the common law of England and that no attempt to whittle it down can be entertained

With regard to (a), section 190 of the Penal Code establishes the presumption that killing is murder and is therefore inconsistent with this part of the decision The Penal

Code (Amendment) Bill, 1936, repeals this section so as to make the law of murder in this Colony consistent with the decision

With regard to (b), section 105 of the Indian Evidence Act reads as follows —

“105 When a person is accused of any offence, the burden of proving the existence of circumstances bringing the case within any of the General Exceptions in the Indian Penal Code, or within any special exception or proviso contained in any other part of the same Code, or in any law defining the offence, is upon him, and the court shall presume the absence of such circumstances ”

Burden of proving that case of accused comes within exceptions

It is manifest that this section can be interpreted so as to be inconsistent with the decision referred to and also so as to deprive the accused of the benefit of the rule that, if on a review of all the evidence in the case, the court is satisfied that there is a reasonable doubt as to the guilt of the accused he is entitled to be acquitted

The Bill therefore modifies section 105 of the Indian Evidence Act so as to state expressly the extent of the burden of proof on the prosecution and the defence, and the rule as to reasonable doubt as defined in the decision referred to

Section 106 of the Indian Evidence Act reads as follows —

Burden of proving fact especially within knowledge

In its application to criminal cases this section can be interpreted so as to be inconsistent with the decision referred to the provisions as to the burden of proof of facts especially within the knowledge of the defendant in criminal matters have therefore been transferred to the new section 105, and the existing section 106 has been limited, in its application, to civil proceedings

No expenditure of public moneys will be involved if the provisions of this Bill become law

Section 130 of the Principal Ordinance which it is proposed to amend —

Procuration

130 Any person who—

- (1) procures or attempts to procure any girl or woman under the age of twenty-one years, not being a common prostitute or of known immoral character, to have unlawful carnal connexion, either in the Colony or elsewhere, with any person or persons, or
- (2) procures or attempts to procure any woman or girl to become, either in the Colony or elsewhere, a common prostitute, or
- (3) procures or attempts to procure any woman or girl to leave the Colony, with intent that she may become an inmate of or frequent a brothel elsewhere, or
- (4) procures or attempts to procure any woman or girl to leave her usual place of abode in the Colony (such place not being a brothel), with intent that she may

uttering

342 Any person who—

- (1) utters any counterfeit coin knowing it to be counterfeit, and at the time of such uttering has in his possession any other counterfeit coin, or
- (2) utters any counterfeit coin knowing it to be counterfeit, and either on the same day or on any of the ten days next ensuing, utters any other counterfeit coin knowing it to be counterfeit, or
- (3) has in his possession three or more pieces of counterfeit coin, knowing them to be counterfeit and with intent to utter any of them, is guilty of a felony, and is liable to imprisonment for three years

Forfeiture

345 When any person is convicted of an offence under this chapter, or the preceding chapter, the court may order the forfeiture to His Majesty of any forged bank note or currency note or of any counterfeit coin or any stamp, mould, tool, instrument, machine press, or any coin, bullion or metal used or employed in the commission of any such offence

- (c) engraves or in anywise makes upon any plate, wood, stone, or other material, any words, figures, letters marks, lines, or devices, the print whereof resembles in whole or in part any words, figures, letters, marks, lines, or devices peculiar to and used in or on any bank note or currency note,
 - (d) uses or knowingly has in his custody or possession any plate, wood, stone, or other material, upon which any such words figures, letters, marks, lines or devices have been engraved or in anywise made as aforesaid,
 - (e) uses or knowingly has in his custody or possession any paper upon which any such words, figures letters, marks, lines or devices have been printed or in anywise made as aforesaid,
- is guilty of a felony and is liable to imprisonment for seven years ”

7 Section 342 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby amended by deleting therefrom sub-section (3) thereof, and substituting therefor the following—

Amendment of section 342 of the Principal
Ordinance

“(3) receives, obtains, or has in his possession any counterfeit coin, knowing it to be counterfeit, with intent to utter it,”

8 Section 345 of the Principal Ordinance is hereby amended by substituting the word “shall” for the word “may” which occurs in the second line thereof

section 345 of
the Principal

Clause 2—Under sections 32 and 33 of the Penal Code a person (inter alia) convicted of an offence not punishable with death may be ordered to enter into his own recognisance, with or without sureties, in such amount as the Court thinks fit, conditioned as the case may be, that he shall keep the peace and be of good behaviour for a time to be fixed by the Court or that he shall appear to receive judgment at some future sitting of the Court or when called upon

No provision exists enabling a Court—

- (a) to take proceedings in the event of a failure on the part of the offender to observe the conditions of his recognisance,
- (b) to discharge sureties,
- (c) in case of the death of a surety, to require the offender to find a new surety, or
- (d) to forfeit a recognisance

The object of this clause is to provide for such matters

Clause 3 is designed to remedy an obvious typographical omission

Clause 4—Section 190 of the Penal Code establishes the presumption that killing is murder. The repeal of this section, together with an amendment to the Indian Evidence Act, is necessary in order to make the law of murder in this Colony consistent with the decision of the House of Lords in the case of Woolmington versus the Director of Public Prosecutions

The remaining clauses of the Bill are designed to bring the law of the Colony into line with that of the United Kingdom and in conformity with the Rules contained in an International Convention for the Suppression of Counterfeiting Currency signed at Geneva in 1929

His Excellency the Governor in Council has approved of the following Bill being introduced into the Legislative Council

R W BAKER-BEALL,

A Bill to Provide for the Protection in the Colony of Designs Registered in the United Kingdom

BE IT ENACTED by the Governor of the Colony of Kenya, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows —

1 This Ordinance may be cited as the United Kingdom Designs (Protection) Ordinance, 1936 Short title

2 Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, the registered proprietor of any design registered in the United Kingdom under the Patents and Designs Acts 1907 to 1932 or any Act amending or substituted for those Acts shall enjoy in the Colony the like privileges and rights as though the Certificate of Registration in the United Kingdom had been issued with an extension to the Colony Rights in the Colony of proprietor of design registered in United Kingdom

3 The registered proprietor of a design shall not be entitled to recover any damages in respect of any infringement of copyright in a design from any defendant who proves that at the date of the infringement he was not aware nor had any reasonable means of making himself aware of the existence of the registration of the design Innocent infringer not liable for damages

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect any proceedings for an injunction Injunction

4 The court shall have power, upon the application of any person who alleges that his interests have been prejudicially affected, to declare upon any of the grounds upon which the United Kingdom registration might be cancelled under the law for the time being in force in the United Kingdom that exclusive privileges and rights in a design have not been acquired in the Colony under the provisions of this Ordinance Grounds upon which court may declare that rights have not been acquired in the Colony

Such grounds shall be deemed to include the publication of the design in the Colony prior to the date of registration of the design in the United Kingdom

Repeal
No 57 of 1933

5 The Registration of Designs Ordinance, 1933, is hereby repealed

This Bill is based on a model submitted by the Secretary of State and is intended to replace the present system of registration of designs which is dealt with in the Registration of Designs Ordinance, 1933, under which registration in the Colony is dependent upon registration in England and which prescribes by Rule that certain fees are payable for local registration

During the last few years the privacy of United Kingdom designs of textile piece-goods has increased to such an extent that more adequate protection has become imperative, and the Secretary of State points out that even the reduction to the absolute minimum of the fees for local registration would not enable the trades concerned to register more than a fraction of their designs. Representations were consequently made by the Board of Trade for the extension of registration facilities at the lowest possible cost and it became evident that no system under which protection of United Kingdom designs were dependent upon local deposit would be effective. The present Bill is designed to achieve the desired end by providing that any manufacturer registering a design in the United Kingdom automatically obtains protection for the design in the Colony without the payment of further fees. The elimination of local registration would involve a little loss in revenue and the Secretary of State considers that the beneficial results which the enactment of this Bill would afford to the whole of the English textile trade fully justifies its introduction.

ELECTRIC POWER ORDINANCE

PUBLIC NOTICE OF AN APPLICATION WHICH WILL BE MADE FOR AUTHORITY TO SUPPLY ELECTRICAL ENERGY OUTSIDE THE AREA OF SUPPLY COMPRISED IN DISTRIBUTING LICENCE No 9 HELD BY THE EAST AFRICAN POWER AND LIGHTING COMPANY, LIMITED, IN RESPECT OF THE MUNICIPALITY OF ELDORET

NOTICE is hereby given to all whom it may concern that on the 9th day of November, 1936, Messrs The East African Power and Lighting Company, Limited, of Nairobi, a limited liability company incorporated in the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya will make application to His Excellency the Governor in Council pursuant to section 3 of the Electric Power (Amendment) Ordinance, 1930, for authority to supply electrical energy outside the area comprised in Distributing Licence No 9 for the distribution and supply of electrical energy in the Municipality of Eldoret

The application is being made with a view to enabling the applicant to supply electrical energy for power and lighting purposes to the Kenya Co-operative Creamery, Limited, and the Loreto Convent in respect of their several premises situate outside but near to the Municipality of Eldoret

The authority is required in respect of Plot No L R 735/3 situate to the south-east of and adjoining the said Municipality and Plot No 6685 situate to the south of the said Municipality on the Kisumu-

Eldoret main road. A plan showing the positions and areas of such respective plots and the intended lines of supply can be inspected at the offices of Messrs Hamilton, Harrison and Mathews, Solicitors, Nairobi House, Nairobi, or at the offices of Messrs The East African Power and Lighting Company, Limited, situate at Eldoret

The Uasin Gishu District Council is a local authority which may be affected by the grant of the application, if and in so far as it may contemplate an application for a distributing licence for any area comprising either or both of the said plots at some future date, but not otherwise

With the exception of the said Uasin Gishu District Council there is no public or local authority, company, person, or body of persons who could or might be affected by the grant of the application, so far as the applicant is aware

Any authority, company, person or body of persons desirous of making any representation on or objection to the application must do so by letter addressed to the Governor in Council and marked on the outside of the cover enclosing it "Electric Power Ordinance" on or before the expiration of thirty days from the date of the application as stated in this notice and must forward to the applicant a copy of such representation or objection
