Reuter's Telegrams.

APRIL 16TH.—As King Edward passed Algiers on Tuesday afternoon although the Royal Yacht with its escorts were ten miles from land the French batteries saluted with 101 guns and the Russian Italian and Spanish warships hoisted British flags and saluted with 21 guns.

M. Loubet arrived in Algiers yesterday afternoon. The foreign warships simultaneously saluted with 21 guns. M. Loubet drove to the palace escorted by 30 Arab chiefs through cheering crowds.

The sentence on the murderer of the Russian Consul at Stcherbines has been altered from 15 years to death in consequence of the imperative representations made by Russia.

APRIL 17TH.—Two reconnoissances commanded respectively by Plunkett and Cobbe encountered the Mad Mullah's forces near Walwal on the 3rd and on the 5th instant sharp engagements ensuing. Forty of the enemy were killed and 2,100 camels and 11,000 sheep captured.

M. Loubet has conferred the "Legion of Honour" on the Admiral and on 9 officers of the British Squadron.

His Majesty has arrived in Malta and has met with a brilliant reception. The voyage from Gibraltar was throughout an unprecedented pageant. The Royal Yacht with her escort of six Cruisers was joined west of Malta by 18 Destroyers which added impressiveness to the scene. The weather throughout was beautiful. This is the first time a British Monarch has traversed the Mediterranean.

The French appear determined to omit nothing in order to do fitting honour to King Edward. The programme drawn up includes a race meeting at Longchamps and a great Review at Vincennes. A distinguished Admiral and a General have been appointed to attend on His Majesty during his stay in France.

APRIL 18TH.—Reuter's Agent at Aden telegraphing yesterday states that a despatch has been received to the effect that General Manning's column engaged the enemy to the South West of Galadi on the 11th inst. inflicting on them heavy loss and capturing immense quantities of live stock. The British lost one killed.

His Majesty received an ovation on landing at Malta, he replied in separate speeches to various addresses that were presented to him and attended in state the Opera in the evening.

M. Loubet has gone to Oran.

The evacuation of Obbia has been commenced. Lack of water is delaying the advance from Galadi.

It is officially reported from Constantinople that the Sultan's Mission sent to pacify the Albanians has been surrounded by several hundreds of Albanians at Ipek, and they are practically prisoners. The Albanians absolutely decline to accept the Macedonian Reforms.

APRIL 20TH.—It was announced last Thursday that the American Squadron consisting of 7 warships then at Villefranche had been ordered to proceed to Marseilles to welcome M. Loubet on his return from Algeria.

It is now stated in Washington that Germany has brought to the notice of the American Government her dissatisfaction at the way she has been treated by America, and it is now officially announced that nothing could have been further from the desire of America to offend Germany by extending appropriate courtesy to the head of a friendly nation.

The annoyance shown in Germany by the visit of the United States European Squadron to Marseilles is due to the fact that when the Kaiser heard that the American Squadron intended visiting Lisbon, he invited them to call at Kiel, in reply to which the United States stated that the Transatlantic cruise of the Squadron had been abandoned.

It is now stated in Washington that the American Squadron may visit Germany during the Summer.

Russia and Austria have again warned Bulgaria against encouraging the Macedonian movement.

Marshall Eumer Rushdi Pasha has been appointed in command of the Turkish troops concentrating at Ferizovitch midway between Mitrovitza and Uskub. Nine battalions have already arrived.

The United States have decided to send their European Squadron from Marseilles to Kiel. It is officially announced that the German comments on the visit to Marseilles are based on a misunderstanding, both the President and Mr. Hay are anxious to show the United States friendship for Germany and their appreciation of the kindly references made by the Kaiser to America.

The three thousand troops which had been arranged were to participate in the great review in honour of M. Loubet before his departure from Algeria, have left for the Moorish frontier.

His Majesty has approved of the appointment of a Royal Commission to enquire into the conditions affecting the importation of food in time of war, the amount of the existing reserve at any given period, and to advise what measures should be taken in order that supplies may be better secured.

APRIL 21ST.—It is reported from Madrid that the Pretender has threatened to attack Melilla unless refugees from the Sultan's forces are expelled from that place.

The Turkish troops have completed concentrating at Ferigovitch and the first duty of Rushdi Pasha will be to liberate the Sultan's Peace Commission the members of which are detained by the Albanians as hostages.

The Austrian and Russian Ambassadors have warned the Sultan that unless the Albanians are repressed the consequences to Turkey will be serious.

The question of King Edward visiting His Holiness the Pope is being generally discussed; official statements are being carefully withheld, but there is a growing belief that the visit will be arranged.

APRIL 22ND.—All the Powers interested have appointed representatives to the Brussels Sugar Board which will probably meet on the 2nd May next.

Count Osini Prinetti the Italian Minister has resigned.

A band of 500 partly in Bulgarian uniform crossed the frontier near Radovitch and surrounded a detachment of 30 Turkish soldiers. Fighting continued the whole day when the troops after receiving reinforcements ultimately drove off the Bulgarians. Nine Turks and 30 Bulgarians were killed.

APRIL 23RD.—M. Loubet at Kreider reviewed 6,500 European troops and 10,000 horsemen belonging to the nomad tribes of Southern Algeria. The Arabs held a fantasia and afterwards a great festival. The whole scene was a most brilliant spectacle.

In a letter M. Deroulede strongly condemns the articles in the "Patrie" which have been urging the Parisians to give His Majesty an unfavourable reception.

It is reported from Madrid that a telegram has been received from Sidi-Bel-Abbas to the effect that the tribes in the Sahara have proclaimed a Holy War and that the troops from Kreider have been ordered to Sahara.

The period granted to the Religious Congregations in Paris to close their Establishments expired on Tuesday, a large force of detectives watched and followed all members leaving their buildings.

APRIL 24TH.—The French Press is animatedly discussing the Pros and Cons of M. Deroulede's letter of the 21st instant. His denunciation is universally approved and is considered likely to evoke a great manifestation of sympathy for King Edward. M. Deroulede in another letter addressed to the "Patriotic League" declares that any disturbance or hostile cry will be a greater outrage to Frenchmen than to the King himself, and would only further the secret designs of the Kaiser for universal domination.

A few capitalists in London have subscribed £150,000 for the purpose of recruiting 100,000 Natives in the interior for the Rand Mines.

Reuter's Agent at Aden states that there is an unconfirmed rumour to the effect that the British lost 200 men and 10 officers killed in a skirmish in Somaliland, the Somali losses are unknown.

Reuter's Agent at Aden states that the R. I. M. "Hardinge" has arrived from Berbera and confirms the report that 10 officers and 180 men were killed out of a total of 220 men.

King Edward is at Naples.

Mr. Balfour announced that the Government would not participate in the Bagdad Railway Scheme.

A disaster occurred on the 17th inst to Plunkett's column consisting of 160 2nd King's African Rifles 48 Second Sikhs and 2 maxims near Gumburn. They were attacked at close quarters by a great force of horse and footmen. They kept the enemy back until their ammunition was finished, then formed a square and charged with bayonets in the direction of Col. Cobbe's Zariha, ultimately the whole force was annihilated with the exception of 37.

In the Budget, the estimated Expenditure is put down at £148,954,000 and the Revenue at £154,770,000. The Income Tax is reduced by four pence involving a loss of £8,500,000. The Corn Duty is remitted involving a loss of two millions. Sugar, Coal and Tea are untouched.

APRIL 25TH.—The Budget is generally being well received though the opposition style it. "An Electioneering or dissolution Budget". The repeal of the Corn tax is regarded as a final blow to protectionism.

King Edward is spending a few days on board his Yacht at Naples semiprivatey visiting the environs.

APRIL 27TH.—The War Office have received numerous requests from officers offering their services in Somaliland.

The Correspondent of the Daily "Telegraph" at Aden reports that the Warships there have been ordered to hold Maxim parties in readiness with a view if necessary to landing a Brigade at Berbera.

General Manning has relieved Col. Cobbe after defeating the Mullah, who lost some 2,000 men.

Col. Plunkett's column was surrounded in the open country by 2,000 horse and 10,000 spearmen. The column after heavy firing was overwhelmed, the force being charged en masse on all sides. The few survivors are mostly wounded.

The Sultan of Zanzibar on his return from the pilgrimage to Mecca has arrived in Yembo in perfect health and sails for Zanzibar on the 3rd proximo.

Mr. Carnegie has given a million and a half of Dollars for the erection and maintenance of a Court-house and Library at the Hague to be used as a permanent Arbitration Court.

News has reached Vienna that the situation in the Balkans is becoming more and more grave, hundreds of peasants are daily arming and joining the insurgents, and there are constant fierce fights.

Reuter's Agent at Bohotle states that Gonch's mobile column was engaged with the enemy near Danop and has lost 13 killed including two officers also 4 officers wounded. The enemy's losses amount to 200 killed.

His Majesty King Edward last night in the full dress of an Admiral attended a gala performance of the Opera at Naples receiving a great ovation. The gathering was most brilliant and included many British and Italian Naval and Military Officers.

APRIL 28TH.—A despatch has been received from General Manning dated Galadi 20th inst. in which he states that Col. Cobbe's retirement was practically unopposed. He makes no mention of having fought himself with the Mullah, but estimates that the enemy's loss when annihilating Col. Plunkett's column amounted to 2,000.

His Majesty King Edward arrived at Rome yesterday afternoon, was welcomed at the Station by their Italian Majesties and drove to the Quirinal. His reception was most enthusiastic, the populace in the Quirinal square cheered repeatedly until their Majesties appeared on the balcony.

Lord Stanley in the House of Commons stated that the Somaliland Expedition up to the 31st March had cost quarter million sterling that a further quarter million had been provided for in the estimates for 1903/1904 which were framed on the assumption that the operations would conclude by 30th June.

APRIL 29TH.—M. Loubet made a triumphal entry on Monday into Tanis. Speaking afterwards at a luncheon he dwelt on its progress and prosperity during the last twenty years.

Mr. Hanbury M.P. President of the Board of Agriculture is dead from pneumonia.

Although no official announcement has been made, it is understood that it has been arranged for King Edward to visit His Holiness the Pope to-day.

Lord Cranborne replying to Mr. Weir in the House of Commons regarding a protest from the Central African Chamber of Commerce against natives going to the Transvaal mines, stated that the Government had decided to take no steps pending the result of the present recruiting experiment.

King Edward yesterday visited the Pantheon and laid wreaths on the tombs of King Victor Emmanuel and King Humbert. His Majesty also conferred on the Italian Premier Signor Lanardelli the highest grade of the Victorian Order.

The St. James Gazette understands that the War Office have arranged to send reinforcements to Somaliland from India. Also that it is possible that the pursuit of the Mullah may be temporarily abandoned owing to the rains.

His Majesty King Edward has conferred the Grand Cross of the Victorian Order on Admiral Morin and four other officers.

APRIL 30TH.—At a banquet on Tuesday night King Victor Emmanuel in toasting King Edward hoped that the friendship between the two crowns and the two people would be permanently maintained and would become ever more and more solid. King Edward replying stated that he had full confidence that the long standing friendship between the two countries would never cease.

The following is the result of the Two Thousand Guineas:—

Rock Sand.
Flotsam.
Rabelais.

Yesterday morning in brilliant weather a review of 20,000 Troops was held in Rome; the military display was magnificent and King Edward was everywhere ovated.

The Monks of the Grand Chartreuse have been evicted from the famous Monastery for defying the "Congregations Law." Col. Canbertin commanding the Fourth Dragoons has resigned his commission because his regiment was ordered to support the Civil power.

His Majesty King Edward's visit to His Holiness the Pope yesterday was marked with all the ancient splendour of the Vatican. Papal Guard lined the corridors, Papal Dignitaries received and conducted His Majesty with the greatest ceremony to the secret antechamber where he was met by His Holiness the Pope and invited to enter the private cabinet. After an interview of twenty minute alone with His Holiness, King Edward presented his suite. The whole visit lasted half an hour.
