NOTICE.

(1) The following notice is published for general information. The large gulf or north-easternmost extension of Lake Victoria Nyanza which has hitherto been known as Ugowe Bay will henceforth be called Kavirondo Bay. It has since been rediscovered by Commander Whitehouse of the Uganda Railway Survey who found that it was known to the natives as Ugowe Bay.

(2) The small inlet at the north-easternmost corner of Kavirondo Bay towards which the Uganda Railway Line is directed will henceforth be known as Railway inlet. The station at the head of this inlet where the Railway Terminus will probably be situated will be known as Port Florence. The present Government station on the northern side of the inlet will be known as Kisumu.
