CONSTITUTION OF KENYA

THE JUDICATURE ACT

(Cap. 8)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 10 of the Judicature Act and pursuant to recommendations by the Expeditious Disposal of Cases Committee of the Judiciary, the Chief Justice makes the following Practice Directions:

1. All courts are encouraged to permit the filing and exchange by the parties of written submissions to supplement or replace oral arguments.
2. All courts are encouraged to require that lists of authorities sought to be relied upon by a party be filed and served three clear days before the hearing and that the same be paginated and highlighted as necessary.
3. All courts are encouraged to mention cases at least once before the hearing date for purposes of an order for directions as to any steps to be taken before the hearing of the case.

4. All courts are encouraged to hold a mini call-over of the cases on the Daily Cause-list for purposes of ascertaining their respective readiness for hearing and allocating time for the hearing.
5. All courts are encouraged to hold prison visits for the following purposes:
 - (a) Mention of pending cases, as necessary;
 - (b) Establishing cases requiring orders of revision;
 - (c) Identification of cases of non-production of accused persons in court;
 - (d) Harmonization of backlog statistics;
 - (e) Ascertain the welfare of the remandees and prisoners;
 - (f) Perform all other relevant duties required of Prison Visiting Justices.
6. The High Court is encouraged to set aside a Revision Day at least once a month for purposes of examination of cases concluded by the subordinate courts which would warrant orders of revision under section 362 of the Criminal Procedure Code chapter 75 of the Laws of Kenya.
7. All courts are encouraged—
 - (a) to observe timely delivery of judgments by setting definite dates for delivery;
 - (b) to avoid, as far as possible, judgment on notice and indefinite adjournment of cases;
 - (c) to require daily synchronization of the Court diaries to enable individual court to give dates in court.
8. All courts are encouraged to list for hearing only such number of cases that the Court can reasonably hear and determine that day, and as much as possible those whose witnesses for the parties are certified ready and available.
9. All courts are encouraged to undertake preliminary inquiry into the period of detention in police custody of an accused before plea in criminal cases to determine the legality of pre-trial detention.
10. All courts are encouraged to require that a statement of agreed issues for determination in a suit be framed and filed before fixing the case for hearing in accordance with Order 14 of the Civil Procedure Rules.
11. All courts are encouraged to facilitate continuous typing of proceedings after every court session instead of waiting for conclusion of the trial, to enable easy take-over between Judicial Officers.
12. All courts are encouraged to permit the parties in suits to exchange summaries of the case, and evidence to be adduced by each and written opening statement.
13. All courts are encouraged to cap the time allowed for the hearing of cases in accordance with Order 17 Rule 2 (4) of the Civil Procedure Rules. For example, the Court may set time for the hearing of ex-parte applications at 10 minutes; inter-partes applications at 20 minutes and full hearing of suits at an hour per case, depending on the complexity of the issues for determination.
14. The High court is encouraged to fast-track all deserving cases including:
 - (a) All cases that have been pending for over three years;
 - (b) All criminal cases;
 - (c) All cases where the parties are unrepresented by counsel; and
 - (d) All cases involving children rights.
15. All courts are encouraged to ensure strict compliance with Order 48 Rule 5 of the Civil Procedure Rules which provides for the hearing of certain matters by the Registrar of the High Court.
16. All courts are required to generally exercise discretion in favour of expeditious disposal of cases pending before them.

Made on the 1st Day of September, 2008.

J. E. GICHERU,
Chief Justice.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE KENYA GAZETTE

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplement, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are, therefore, submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the Central Government. Because of this, they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice is, each page being numbered and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain no alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signature must be supported by rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signatory in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—

Kenya Gazette

"D 34. (1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 9 a.m. on Friday of the week before publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish communications received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

(2) Ministries will be required to pay for the Kenya Gazette and to meet the cost of advertising in it.

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect.
