THE NATIONAL ENVIRONMENT MANAGEMENT AUTHORITY

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT STUDY REPORT
FOR THE PROPOSED MOMBASA-NAIROBI (330/220/132KV)
TRANSMISSION LINE, FROM RABAI TO ISINYA AND EXTENSION TO EMBAKASI AND DANDORA.

INVITATION OF PUBLIC COMMENTS

PURSUANT to regulation 21 of the Environmental (Impact Assessment and Audit) Regulations, the National Environment Management Authority (NEMA) has received an Environmental Impact Assessment Study Report for the implementation of proposed Mombasa-Nairobi (330/22/132kV) Transmission Line, from Rabai to Isinya and extension to Embakasi and Dandora.

The objective of the project is construction of a transmission line to transport power from the Coast to Nairobi.

The project will be from Rabai to Isinya and extension to Embakasi and Dandora.

The project anticipates the following impacts and mitigation measures.

Possible impacts	Mitigation measures
1. GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 10537

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT OF KENYA AT NAIROBI

CAUSE No. 103 OF 2003

KENYA UNION OF DOMESTIC, HOTELS, EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS HOSPITALS AND ALLIED
WORKERS—(Claimant)

AND

NAIROBI ACADEMY—(Respondent)

AWARD

Issue in dispute:

Refusal by Respondent to Sign a Concluded Collective Agreement

The Parties have an ongoing relationship since 1995 when they signed their first Collective Agreement. Upon expiry of the said Collective Agreement, the parties negotiated a further agreement with effect from 1st January 1997.

The Respondent School, after the said negotiations, refused to sign the said further agreement without giving any reasons therefor. The Claimant Union made several attempts at getting the Respondent to sign the said Agreement. It then reported a Trade Dispute with the Ministry of Labour in March 1998.

Award—Cause No. 103 of 2005

The Minister appointed a conciliator who was also not able to get a response from the Respondent. It seems that the Respondent Employer was determined not to sign the said agreement that it had voluntarily negotiated to completion. It did not declare its disagreement with either the process or any of the contents of the said agreement. The Respondent simply went cold on the relationship with the Claimant Union and refused to further participate in the process of conciliation.

In September 1999, almost two (2) years later, the Claimant Union signed Form 'A' and sought the matter, be referred to this Court. Thereafter, on 1st November 1999, the Chief Industrial Relations Officer in the Ministry of Labour wrote to the Respondent to the effect that it had come to the Ministry's notice that the Respondent had in fact implemented the Collective Agreement before it was been registered by the Industrial Court. This was in contravention of Section 13 (1) of the Trade Disputes Act Cap 234. On 23rd November, 1999, Mr. F. M. Kirugi, a Director of the Respondent School wrote to the Claimant Union in the following terms:

Re: Collective Bargaining Agreement

Further to our letter of 1st September 1999 and in terms of the Collective Agreement, we hereby state our position as follows:

We are not in a position to significantly raise the terms of service except as offered to you namely:

20% increase in housing allowance with effect from 1st January, 1999

10% increase in basic pay with effect from 1st January, 2000

We have previously agreed to explore the feasibility of establishing a medical scheme and a provident retirement fund. With regrets we advise that the financial position of the school will not allow the resultant outlay.

We must now ask you to accept the foregoing as our final position and have the offer incorporated in the Collective Bargaining Agreement or declare a dispute and proceed to reconciliation or industrial Court. The protracted negotiations are creating an unacceptable discontent in our staff body and your early communication will greatly oblige.

Award—Cause No. 103 of 2005

What emerges from the foregoing letter is that the Respondent, having negotiated the collective agreement, now wishes to renege on some of the terms thereof. It is not clear from the record whether the Claimant Union responded to this proposal for changes proposed by the Respondent.

It would seem that the Claimant Union did not accept the proposed changes as on 13th June 2000 it forwarded a second Form 'A' to the Minister, once again seeking that the matter be forwarded to Court.

On 7th May, 2001 the Claimant Union wrote to the Minister that the Respondent has implemented the unsigned collective agreement contrary to the Law and further sought that the Minister invoke Section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act and forward the dispute to this Court for resolution.

We are not aware if the Ministry ever took any action on the serious allegation that a party had flagrantly breached the Law. We would expect that the Ministry would take immediate action in investigating the claim by the Union and prosecuting the employer if there was sufficient evidence. In any event the Ministry did not also forward the matter to Court. The Union again wrote a reminder to the Ministry in June 2002 that the Employer had refused to sign a negotiated collective agreement.

The Dispute had now taken over four (4) years since it was first reported to the Minister. Eventually the Minister referred the dispute to this Court on 31st October 2003.

The Dispute came up for mention in Court on 19th November 2003 and Mr. Oketch of Federation of Kenya Employers sought time to seek instructions. In December 2003 the FKE withdrew from these proceedings on the grounds that the Respondent was not its member. The Court then made several orders for proper service of the Claimant's Memorandum upon the Respondent. This was achieved to the Court's satisfaction by February 2004 and the matter proceeded to hearing in the absence of the Respondent who had been contacted severally by the Court Registry and served process appropriately.

Award—Cause No. 103 of 2005

The Claimant Union seeks orders to compel the Respondent to sign the collective agreement negotiated between themselves in 1997 and further orders for payment of arrears in accordance with the said agreement.

The Court is surprised that the Respondent, a well-known high cost teaching institution in Nairobi would take the irresponsible attitude that it has. Respect for the Law would be one of the fundamental values that a teaching institution is expected to impart and if the management itself breach the Law with impunity then it is difficult to imagine what one can expect from the students. We hope that the parents of the students in such teaching institutions are aware of the irresponsible attitude of the institutions they send their children to.

The Claimant has satisfied the Court that the Respondent did in fact enter into voluntary negotiations with the Claimant Union and thereafter concluded an agreement being a fresh Collective Agreement upon the expiry of the previous one signed between them in 1995. The Respondent has thereafter refused to sign the concluded agreement, thus frustrating the purpose of the Law.

Having so satisfied ourselves, we make the following orders:

That the Labour Commissioner do forthwith cause an investigation on the allegations that the Respondent has implemented an unregistered Collective Agreement instead of having the same signed and forwarded for registration by the Industrial Court.

The Court expects that the Labour Commissioner will further cause appropriate prosecution of the persons responsible for any breach of the provisions of the Trade Disputes Act. The Commissioner shall report to the Court within thirty (30) days of the date of this order.

That the Respondent School do forthwith and in any event not later than fourteen (14) days of the date of this order do sign and execute the Collective Agreement negotiated with the Claimant Union in 1997 and as annexed as Annexure 2 in the Claimant's Memorandum filed herein 16th December 2003.

Award—Cause No. 103 of 2005

The Respondent School do immediately and in any event within fifteen (15) days of signing forward the signed Collective Agreement as aforesaid for registration to this Court in accordance with the law.

Upon failure of the Respondent to execute the Collective Agreement as herein ordered, the Registrar of the Industrial Court do step in execute the same as if it were signed by the Respondent and thereafter in could execute forward the same for registration in accordance with the provisions of the Trade Disputes Act, Cap 234;

The Respondent School do implement all the terms and conditions in the said Collective Bargaining Agreement within thirty (30) days of its registration by this Court.

Immediately upon registration of the Collective Agreement, the parties do forthwith embark upon negotiation for subsequent Collective Agreement(s) in order to bring them up to date as at 31st December 2005.

In the event of any dispute as to quantum of wages and/or arrears or any other terms and conditions of the Collective Agreement duly registered by this Court as aforesaid, both parties have liberty to apply to the Court for final determination.

As the sitting members also agree, it is so ordered.

Dated the 8th March, 2006.

MURTAZA JAFFER,
Judge.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS TO THE "KENYA GAZETTE"

THE following notes are for the guidance of persons submitting "copy" for inclusion in the Kenya Gazette, Supplement, etc.:

- (1) The Kenya Gazette contains notices of a general nature which do not affect legislation. They are, therefore, submitted to the Government Printer directly.
- (2) Legislative Supplement contains Rules and Regulations which are issued by the central Government. Because of this they must be submitted to the Government Printer through the office of the Attorney-General.
- (3) Bill Supplement contains Bills which are for introduction in the National Assembly.
- (4) Act Supplement contains Acts passed by the National Assembly.

All "copy" submitted for publication should be prepared on one side of an A4 sheet no matter how small the notice is, each page being numbered, and should be typewritten with double spacing. Copy should be clear, legible and contain no alterations.

Particular attention should be paid to the following points:

- (i) Signature must be supported by rubber-stamping or typing the name of the signatory in capital letters.
- (ii) Dates must be correct and filled in where necessary.
- (iii) Care should be taken to ensure that all headings to notices and references to legislation are up to date and conform with the Revised Edition of the Laws of Kenya.

EXTRACT FROM THE CODE OF REGULATIONS, SECTION D—Kenya Gazette

"D 34. (1) Communications for the Kenya Gazette should reach the Government Printer not later than 9 a.m. on Friday of the week before publication is desired. The Government Printer will not publish any communication received after that hour until the next subsequent issue of the Gazette.

(2) Ministries will be required to pay for the Kenya Gazette and to meet the cost of advertising in it.

It is emphasized that these notes are for guidance only, but it is requested that persons submitting copy for publication first satisfy themselves that such copy is complete in every respect."
