PUBLIC GARDENS.

A lease for 99 years of the ground for the Public Gardens at Mombasa has been granted by the Government at a nominal rent to the public on behalf of whom the Liwali and Messrs. Smith Mackenzie and Co. have consented to act as trustees.

The gardens were commenced in November 1900 and subscription asked for from the public; the total amount subscribed to date in cash (apart from presents of trees and labour etc.) is Rs. 9743-6½

With this money the ground has been cleared and fenced, plans made, and the greater part of the gardens laid out with paths and flower beds, and a large number of trees shrubs and flowers have been planted. In addition to this two temporary sheds have been built, and two wells sunk to a dept of 70 feet.

The balance of money now remaining on hand is Rs. 1322 and the monthly bill for labour apart from incidental expenses is Rs. 189/. Hereafter it is hoped that when the gardens are completely laid out the monthly bill will not exceed Rs. 150.

A handsome top for the well in front of the National Bank has been designed, and this when completed with water-lifter and tanks will materially decrease both the labour and time required now for watering.

The Committee have called for tenders and will proceed with the construction as soon as funds permit. It is expected to cost some Rs. 1500.

The second well remains to be dealt with and also the laying out of the remaining portion of the gardens, and the building of a permanent fernery and potting shed. It is also hoped that a band-stand may in time be erected.

It will therefore be seen that a considerable sum is still needed to complete the capital expenditure, and it is hoped that the public of every class will respond in such a way that the work may be well and efficiently completed. All subscriptions will be acknowledged in the "Official Gazette," and any subscriber of Rs. 50 or over may during the year be supplied free of charge with cut flowers from time to time as may be arranged with the head gardener.

All subscriptions should be paid to Mr. Powter Honorary Treasurer.

It is reported from Berlin, that Germany recently informed Russia, that she did not participate in any representations made by the British Government to the Porte, in connection with Dardenelles question, as the matter in no way concerned her. It is rumoured that this action of Germany, followed an inquiry addressed to her by Great Britain.
