GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3221

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 41 OF 1981

Parties:

Kenya Chemical Workers' Union
and
Metaplastics Limited

Issues in dispute:

Minimum rates of pay and general wage increases for all unionisable employees of the company.
Effective date.

1. The Kenya Chemical Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Metaplastics Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 11th September, 1981 and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 19th September, 1980 duly signed by the parties was received by the Court on 2nd March, 1981 together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The relationship between the parties dates back several years with the latest collective agreement having expired on 31st December, 1979 after a period of two years.

It is common ground that the three firms, Panplastics, Uniplastic and the Respondents, had all adopted uniform minimum rates and in fact continued to do so until the end of December, 1979. The two firms—Panplastics and Uniplastics—have agreed to give wage increases of 10 per cent for the first year and 11 per cent for the second year to their employees with effect from 1st March, 1981 and 1st January, 1981. The Respondents however have pleaded their inability to do so on the ground that they cannot afford these increases. The main reasons for their inability to do so are the establishment of four new factories manufacturing polythene products since 1978, increase in the prices of raw materials by about 50 per cent since 1978 while the prices of their finished goods remained stagnant, the loss of markets in Uganda, Tanzania, Rwanda and Burundi and finally that they are now in receivership from October, 1980.

During the hearing the Respondents produced a letter from the Respondents' receiver and manager dated 14th May, 1981 in which he writes among other things as follows:

"As you have no doubt been advised Metaplastics Limited is in receivership. I was appointed receiver and manager of the company by Kenya Commercial Bank Limited in October, 1980 under the terms of a debenture. The company has an overdraft from this bank in excess of Sh. 6 million. You have been supplied with copies of the audited accounts for past years. The accounts for 1980 which are in the course of being audited show a pre-tax profit of £39,200 from a turnover of £1,143,500 i.e. a net profit of less than 3½ per cent on sales.

In common with other industries Metaplastics Limited is having difficulties in obtaining import licences and all the company's raw material is imported. Furthermore the current recession and restrictions are having an adverse effect on the company's customers resulting in a reduced demand for its products. Sales of packaging materials depend on the sales of the company's customers.

As receiver and manager my responsibility is primarily to the company's debenture holders. With their approval the company has continued to operate since my appointment but if losses are incurred the bank may well decide to realize their security, certainly they will not provide further finance to a loss making company."

The Respondents have offered a wage increase of 5 per cent for one year effective from the date the new agreement is signed and a further increase of 5 per cent one year thereafter. The Claimants have rejected this offer on the ground that their members have continued to put in great efforts in the enterprise and were in no way responsible for the financial difficulties which the Respondents were undergoing. The Claimants stated that there is no reason why the workers should suffer as most of the companies operate on bank loans and the other problems which had been put forward by the Respondents were also being faced by the other firms in the plastic industry yet these other firms had granted reasonable wage increases to their employees.

The Claimants also stated that the Government should facilitate the issue of licences to keep the industries going in Kenya which would enable the workers to maintain and improve their standard of living. They asked the Court to suggest to the Government to look into this matter urgently.

The Court notes that the Respondents made a profit for the years 1977 to 1980 as follows:

Year	Sh.
"1977	3,791,398
1978	438,316
1979	1,152,336/40
1980	784,000"

In this dispute the Court is faced with a situation where the workers have continued to discharge their duties satisfactorily and the Respondents have made a profit as stated above. Unfortunately, however, one of the major creditors of the Respondents' has moved in and appointed a receiver manager under the terms of a debenture. The fact, however, remains that this enterprise is still making a profit which the creditor wants to utilize in realizing the overdraft. The Court has been told that the workers' jobs are in danger. In these circumstances the Court has to make an award which would be satisfactory to the interest of all the parties, the workers, the Respondents and the Respondents' major creditor.

The Court cannot overlook the one important fact that the workers have continued to put in their labour in the factory as in the previous years and have produced a profit as well notwithstanding the various difficulties that have been mentioned hereinabove. Would it be fair under these circumstances to impose a wage standstill of almost two years on these workers especially in these days of high inflation?

The Court has very carefully considered this whole matter and has come to the conclusion that the major creditor of the Respondents can afford in the wider interest of social justice to wait a little longer for the repayment of its overdraft and the Court can see no reason why when these workers who are working for paying off this overdraft should not get a reasonable wage increase from the date the previous collective agreement expired. The Court would like to point out that it is not only this particular industry that is going through a difficult period but there are many others in a similar predicament yet they have managed to grant reasonable wage increases to their employees.

After careful consideration of all the circumstances the Court awards that the minimum rates as laid down in the previous collective agreement should continue as before but those who were in the Respondents' employment on 1st January, 1980 should get a wage increase on their salaries as at 31st December, 1979 of 10 per cent and with effect from 1st January, 1981 they should get another wage increase of 11 per cent on their wages as at 31st December, 1980.

The Court would like to put it on record that the workers' entitlement under the Guidelines for a period of two years under review is 25.8 per cent and that in arriving at its award the Court has taken into consideration that there are 68 unionisable employees only in the service of the Respondents and their gross salary bill for all employees is as follows:

Month	Employees	Gross salary Sh.
January 1977	83	79,091/10
December 1977	85	82,713/80
January 1978	88	86,143/60
December 1978	93	94,128/45
January 1979	91	95,383/65
December 1979	93	111,367/80
January 1980	89	110,731/-
December 1980	93	119,541/40
January 1981	91	118,175/90
August 1981	94	129,326/15."

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3222

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 35 OF 1981

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers
and
Distributive and Allied Trades Association

Issues in dispute:

Job classification.
Salaries and wages.
Housing allowance.

1. The Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Distributive and Allied Trades Association shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 8th and 9th September, 1981 and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 23rd April, 1981 duly signed by the parties as received by the Court on 2nd June together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The previous collective agreement between the parties was effective from 1st December, 1978 for a period of two years. This agreement was negotiated by the parties themselves. This time, however, the parties are in deadlock over the three issues that are before the Court.

The Claimants demand that the existing job classifications that were created in 1965 are completely out of date with the result that hundreds of their members are being frustrated and do not seem to have any opportunity for advancement. They pointed out that the Respondent group was formed in 1962 and when the job classification exercise was carried out in 1965 it was based mainly on the Respondents' proposals. This time the Claimants had formulated their own proposals for revising the existing job classification. The Claimants have also demanded new basic rates for each one of the jobs classified. During the hearing the Claimants modified their demand on this issue and asked the Court to award that:

"(a) The parties with the assistance of the Division of Manpower Planning and Development should work out an acceptable job classification and a wage structure.

(b) That the agreement reached should be read in conjunction with the Court award in this cause effective from 1st December, 1980."

The Respondents on the other hand submitted that at a conciliation meeting held on 30th March, 1981 under the Ministry of Labour conciliator the parties had agreed to undertake to review the current job classification during the lifetime of the agreement for implementation in the subsequent agreement subject to their annual general meeting endorsing this proposal. The Respondents accepted this proposal on 11th April, 1981 but the Claimants changed their position and the matter is therefore now before the Court. The Respondents asked the Court to make an award in terms of the agreement which they had made before the conciliator.

The job classification exercise involving thousands of workers in 45 firms spread over the country engaged in diverse activities is by no means an easy task and the Court must say that the parties are on the right track when they do not expect the Court to embark on such an exercise on their behalf. It is just not possible for the Court to undertake this sort of exercise. The Court also is not inclined to make an award on this issue which would disturb the award that the Court intends to make on the other two issues before the Court in this dispute.

The Court, however, accepts that after about 16 years there is indeed a need for carrying out a fresh job classification exercise and the Court accordingly directs the parties that they should embark upon it jointly with the assistance of an outside expert and if need be also to enlist the help of the Division of Manpower Planning and Development (hereinafter referred to as DMPD), Ministry of Labour, for the purpose of defining the various jobs at stake. The Court directs that this exercise should be completed before the next collective agreement commences which would be 1st December, 1982. The parties can then negotiate the wage increases on the new job classifications that may be established.

2. and 3. salaries and wages, housing allowance

The Court had referred the parties' submissions to DMPD for an analysis of the demands and offers vis a vis the Guidelines. The Court and the parties had a report from the DMPD before it during the hearing.

The Court would first of all like to state that it has accepted the Claimants' demand for making a separate award on housing allowance because the circumstances are now so different from those prevailing in or about 1965 when Sh. 35 p.m. house allowance for Nairobi and Mombasa was consolidated into the wages that if the Court does not accept the Claimants' demand the workers would indeed be exposed to a very great hardship. The Court in making its award on the issue of house allowance has borne in mind the Sh. 35 p.m. house allowance which was consolidated in 1964.

The Claimants' demand on the issue of wage increase is that the lowest paid at the moment which is Sh. 829 p.m. should go up to Sh. 1050 p.m. and the current highest rate of Sh. 2095 p.m. should go up to Sh. 2350 p.m. This they contended would represent 25 per cent increase for the lowest paid and 12 per cent for the highest with an average of 18½ per cent. The DMPD analysis, however, shows that the Claimants' demand taken in its entirety would mean a wage increase of 155.4 per cent. The Claimants, however, stated that their demands had not been properly understood by the DMPD.

The Claimants argued that their demands of 18½ per cent wage increase and 15 per cent of the salary by way of house allowance was far below the requirements of the Guidelines on the following grounds:

"1. One of the main purpose of the guidelines was to give relief to employers to generate employment in the country. So far the number of employees with the Respondents has been reduced instead of being increased. This is to say that the Respondents were bent on maximization of profits thereby ignoring employment creation. For this reason it is only just that employees in the Respondents industries should get the full compensation for the cost of living rise. The workers in these industries have been unfairly denied their one third of the total cost of living rise.

2. The Claimant wish to refer the Court to pages 6 and 7 from paragraph 4 of Cause 41/78. The Claimant wish to submit that the Respondent up to date did not fully compensate the workers by 5 per cent. The Claimant applied for an interpretation of this award, but since the Respondent indicated that this would be considered during the next negotiations the Claimant withdrew their intention to file a fresh dispute on this award.

3. The application of percentage increase spread over two years does not give full benefits to the work in that the worker loses ¼ of the total percentage than if the total percentage was applied to his salary."

The Respondents highlighted the economic recession in the country which had affected the activities of their members and stated that the distributive industry was very sensitive. They accepted that their industry had not expanded because of economic depression and warned of the real threat to the jobs of those in employment.

The Respondents offered a wage increase of 8 per cent per year on the current consolidated wages/salaries provided that the Claimants dropped their demand of a separate house allowance. The Respondents added that they had done this despite the fact that the Guidelines permitted only a 6 per cent wage increase per year.

The Respondents gave the example of the Kenya National Trading Corporation who are involved in distributing commodities which are price controlled and were making only Sh. 9 per bag as they were a service industry to help in the distribution of the various items. The Respondents also stated that big firms like Kenya Farmers Association, Gailey and Roberts and Food Specialities had left the Group, and that the 7000 odd jobs which the Respondents' members provided had remained static over the years for these reasons.

The Court has very carefully considered the parties' submissions and the points made by the DMPD in their report before making its award. The Court has also taken into account the Guidelines:

(i) The Court awards that all those employees who were earning up to Sh. 1,000 p.m. as at 30th November, 1980 should get a wage increase of Sh. 100 p.m. with effect from 1st December, 1980.

(ii) The Court further awards that all those employees earning over Sh. 1,001 p.m. as at 30th November, 1980 should get a wage increase of Sh. 150 p.m. with effect from 1st December, 1980.

Housing allowance

(i) The Court awards a house allowance of Sh. 100 p.m. with effect from 1st December, 1981 to all those employees earning up to Sh. 1,000 as at 30th November, 1981.

(ii) The Court awards a house allowance of Sh. 150 p.m. with effect from 1st December, 1981 to all those employees who would be earning over Sh. 1,001 p.m. as at 30th November, 1981.

Given in Nairobi on the 20th October, 1981.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 3224

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Notice to Ratepayers

THE 1981 Draft Valuation Roll for Mombasa was laid before the Mombasa Municipal Council on 1st September, 1981.

Any rateable owner who has not yet received a "Notice of Assessment" for his plot is advised to call on the chief valuer at the Town Hall to obtain such notice.

Meanwhile, this advertisement notifies all rateable owners within Mombasa Municipality that "notices of assessment" have been prepared for every rateable property, informing the owners of the new unimproved site values of their plots.

It is further notified that written objections under section 10 of the Valuation for Rating Act, will be accepted up to 31st October, 1981.

No person shall be entitled to urge any objection before the Valuation Court unless he shall first have lodged such notice of objection as aforesaid.
