GAZETTE NOTICE No. 287

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 61 OF 1975

Parties:—

Domestic and Hotel Workers' Union
and Panafric Hotel

Issue in dispute.—Dismissal of Kim Korgoren.

1. The Domestic and Hotel Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and Panafric Hotel shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 17th November, 1975, and 9th January, 1976, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 30th June, 1975, was received by the Court on 4th September, along with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

Mr. Korgoren was employed by the Respondents as a Reception Cashier on 22nd July, 1970, and at the time of his dismissal on 18th December, 1973, his salary was as follows:—

	Sh.	cts.
"Basic salary . . . . .	575	00
Housing allowance . . . . .	52	50
Service charge (average) . . . . .	150	00
	777	50."

On 29th November, 1973, he was advised that he was suspended from duty with immediate effect and on 18th December, 1973, he was told that his services had been summarily terminated.

Mr. Korgoren had applied for a tenant purchase scheme house to the Nairobi City Council (hereinafter referred to as the Council) and was required by the Council to produce an introduction letter from his employer stating, among other things, his earnings. He approached the Respondents' Personnel Manager in October, 1973, asking him for a letter addressed to the Council certifying that his income was up to the minimum required by prospective buyers in respect of tenant purchase housing scheme at Harambee Estate Phase 2, this amount being £1,200 p.a. Since Mr. Korgoren was not in this salary bracket the Personnel Manager refused to issue him the necessary certificate addressed to the Council.

In November, 1973, an official from the Council approached the Respondents inquiring whether a letter dated 16th October, 1973, purported to have been written by the Respondents' Senior Assistant Manager, Mr. O. K. Mbunyi, had actually been issued by the Respondents. The Respondents denied the existence of any such letter.

The Council official brought to the Respondents a letter written on their letterhead dated 16th October, 1973, addressed to the Town Clerk with the following contents:—

"PAN/H/KIM/24/73

KIM A. KORGOREN

APPLICATION FOR HARAMBEE PHASE II HOUSES

This is to certify that Mr. Kim A. Korgoren who is an employee of this hotel draws salary and house allowance plus other emoluments as follows:—

Salary . . . . .	860
Housing allowance . . . . .	240
Other allowance . . . . .	100
	1,200

His GPT Taxpayer's number is 102/0871776.

Yours faithfully,

O. K. MBUNYI,

Senior Assistant Manager, Pan Africa Hotel."

During the hearing the Claimants admitted that the information given above was false but argued that the said false information had been forwarded to the Council by Mr. Mbunyi who had wanted to help Mr. Korgoren to get a house under the tenant purchase scheme. They maintained that Mr. Korgoren had not forged Mr. Mbunyi's signature.

The Respondents produced a letter which had been written by Mr. Korgoren to their General Manager on 20th February, 1974, in which in the third paragraph he wrote as follows:—

"The truth of the matter is that I never wrote the letter referred to by the Personnel. It was written by the Councilor himself. I do not, therefore, know why I was dismissed arbitrarily and the purpose of this letter is to appeal to you to reconsider your decision and to reinstate me in my job as I have never committed an offence whatever."

The matter was the subject matter of an investigation by the Ministry of Labour and the Investigator found that the letter in question had been signed by a member of the Respondents' management and the allegation that it was forged and signed by Mr. Korgoren was far fetched and unnecessarily incriminating as the letter bore the seal of the office and initials of a senior member of the hotel staff. In view of the aforesaid findings the Chief Industrial Relations Officer recommended as follows:—

"From the evidence available it is clear that the dismissal of Mr. Korgoren was unjustified. It is, however, considered that reinstatement will not be in the interest of both parties in view of the strained relations. It is therefore recommended that Mr. Korgoren's dismissal be reduced to normal termination of his services and he be paid any terminal benefits as laid down in the parties' collective agreement."

The Court has no doubt that the Investigator seriously misled herself in this dispute. The central issue really is not whether the letter to the Council was forged by Mr. Korgoren. The crucial point is that the letter in question contained false information regarding Mr. Korgoren and such information was intended to mislead the Council in order to allocate a house under their tenant purchase scheme to Mr. Korgoren. It is obvious that it was Mr. Korgoren who was to benefit as a result of the false information conveyed to the Council. Not only that but it was submitted by the Respondents and not denied by the Claimants that Mr. Korgoren took considerable trouble in falsifying the G.P.T. Card by buying stamps worth Sh. 220 for his card in order to convince the Council that he was within the salary bracket required.

The Court cannot see how the Claimants can put forward the plea that Mr. Korgoren is blameless in this dishonest act. Admittedly this dishonest act does not relate to his own specific job but it certainly is serious enough to show Mr. Korgoren's character as being untrustworthy and most unbecoming of an employee especially one placed in a position of trust. Mr. Korgoren's conduct throughout this affair has been most inconsistent in that at one stage he alleged that a Nairobi City Councilor had typed the aforesaid letter giving the false information to the Council in order to help him get a house. If this is true then how did the Councilor get the Respondents' letterhead?

The Claimants however pleaded that a member of the Management had given the false information in order to help Mr. Korgoren obtain a house. In that event two wrongs don't make one right.

The Court is satisfied that whether or not Mr. Korgoren forged the signature appearing on the letter to the Council, the fact remains that he conceived, executed and delivered that letter to the Council whether in collaboration with the Nairobi City Councilor or with some other person.

From whatever angle this dispute is viewed the fact remains that Mr. Korgoren was the central character in this dishonest act.

The Court expects employees to be diligent and honest not only in their work performance but also in dealings with third parties involving their employers. In this dispute Mr. Korgoren had attempted to implicate the Respondents in his dishonest approach to the Council.

After careful consideration of all the submissions the Court finds that the Respondents were justified in imposing a summary dismissal on Mr. Korgoren and the Claimants' demand must therefore fail.

Given in Nairobi this 27th day of January, 1976.

Judge.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 68 OF 1975

Parties:—

Transport and Allied Workers' Union
and

KLM Royal Dutch Airlines

Issue in dispute.—Terminal benefits.

1. The Transport and Allied Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the Claimants and KLM Royal Dutch Airlines shall hereinafter be referred to as the Respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on the 5th day of January, 1976, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 29th August, 1975, was received by the Court on 19th September along with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

Surprisingly it is not specified in the Notification of Dispute Form "A" in respect of whom the terminal benefits are claimed. During the hearing, however, the Claimants informed the Court that the claim was in respect of Ibrahim Mohammed Doka who had worked for the Respondents as a Counter Sales Clerk since 1st August, 1970. This is not disputed by the Respondents and it is also agreed that Mr. Doka had worked for the East African Airways Corporation previously for 5½ years.

His services were terminated on 9th June, 1975, and the letter of termination reads as follows:—

"Further to your conversation with the undersigned on 9th June this is to confirm that your services are to be terminated with effect from today's date. Please regard this as formal notice to terminate your services."

The Claimants in their written submission had made the following claim on behalf of their member who was also their shopsteward:—

"One month's pay in lieu of notice.

Days worked for the month of June, 1975.

Annual leave due.

Pro rata leave due.

Salary for the months he has been out of employment up to the date this Court gives its ruling as compensation for loss of employment in recognition to his years of service without committing an offence to his employer."

Mr. Doka's monthly salary at the time his services were terminated was Sh. 2,765.

During the hearing the Claimants dropped their demand on Item 5 above and in view of the Respondents' admission that they were prepared to pay Mr. Doka under Items 2, 3 and 4 as stated above the Claimants pressed the claim on his behalf for one month's pay in lieu of notice only on the ground that Mr. Doka's services had not been terminated summarily and he was therefore entitled either to a month's notice or pay in lieu thereof.

The Respondents have admitted their liability in the sum of Sh. 3,481/50 made up as follows:—

	Sh.	cts.
Salary from 1st to 9th June, 1975 inclusive .. ..	829	50
Unused 1974 leave 22 days } 34 days at Shs. 2,765	3,134	00
Proportionate 1975 leave 12 days } p.m.
	3,963	50
Less: P.A.Y.E. Sh. 422
Less: H.I.F. Sh. .. 20
Less: N.S.S.F. Sh. 40
	Sh. 482	00
	3,481	50

A cheque for this amount in favour of Mr. Doka dated 10th June, 1975, awaits collection.

The Respondents have strenuously pleaded that Mr. Doka's termination was summary and it was fully justified.

The facts leading to Mr. Doka's termination are that as a result of an airline tickets racket started in Uganda in March, 1975, the British Caledonian Airways Ltd. (B.C.A.) informed all the travel agents and airlines that a number of their tickets had been fraudulently obtained and validated between 4th and 17th March, 1975, from their offices in Kampala. They specified the numbers of the tickets with all the other relevant details.

The Respondents circulated the aforesaid notification from the B.C.A. to their staff which they were required to sign. Mr. Doka's signature appears thereon and in Court he admitted his signature. He signed this circular on 19th March.

Subsequently, and this fact is not disputed, Mr. Doka reissued the Respondents' tickets in lieu of blacklisted B.C.A. tickets which had been issued in Uganda and in respect of which he had signed the aforesaid circular.

The Claimants pleaded that Mr. Doka had reissued the Respondents' tickets as alleged above through an oversight because Mr. Doka had forgotten about the circular and the ticket numbers which he had signed on 19th March.

Mr. Doka applied for a job with Air Canada on 31st July, 1975, and in his application he wrote as follows:—

"In the event that you are now wondering why I left the KLM, I would frankly advise that my services were terminated for having reissued blacklisted tickets. I am not inclined to exonerate myself from the blame but I wish to assure you that the error was purely due to oversight on my part. I am equally disinclined to hold this action against the KLM Management for I believe, in the manager's position, I have no doubt that I would have taken a similar course of action, although rather harsh. Sir, I assure you, and this can be confirmed from the KLM, that this is the first mistake I have made and I have paid for it quite dearly. Indeed my future career in the airline is now in jeopardy. This error has, however, taught me a lesson and it is my belief that if offered a post in your firm, I will endeavour to work to the best of my ability, with maximum care."

The Court is satisfied that the airline tickets racket that started in Uganda had also reached Kenya following the discovery of which the Respondents had reported the matter to the Exchange Control Inspectorate of the Central Bank of Kenya. The Court notes that the investigations of the Central Bank are continuing.

The Claimants stated that Mr. Doka had been interviewed once about this matter and after that no action has been taken against him. But that is besides the point; the Court has to decide whether or not Mr. Doka had committed a gross misconduct which merited summary termination or whether his offence was not so serious and he should have suffered only a normal termination.

Keeping in view the background information put forward by the Respondents in their written submission and the Claimants' admission on behalf of Mr. Doka that he had reissued blacklisted tickets the Court cannot accept that this action on the part of Mr. Doka was an oversight.

The Court is satisfied completely that Mr. Doka richly deserved a summary termination and the Court can only say that the Claimants have attempted to exploit the rather ambiguous wording of the letter of termination addressed to Mr. Doka on 9th June, 1975.

The Court finds that there is no merit in the Claimants' demand that Mr. Doka's termination should be considered to be normal and the Court rejects their demand. Since the Respondents have offered to pay Mr. Doka Sh. 3,481/50 the Court awards that that is the only amount due to him and the Claimants should arrange to collect the cheque from the Respondents.

The Court would like to record that Mr. Doka's services were dispensed with under clause 8 of the collective agreement subparagraph (i) which gives the employer the right to summarily dismiss any employee who commits an act or omission prejudicial to the good name, efficiency or interests of the employer which shall be deemed inter alia to include negligence or neglect of work on duty.

Given in Nairobi this 23rd day of January, 1976.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 290

THE TRADE MARKS ACT

(Cap. 506)

NOTICE is hereby given that any person who has grounds of opposition to the registration of any of the trade marks advertised herein according to the classes may, within 60 days from the date of this Gazette, lodge notice of opposition on Form T.M. No. 6 (in duplicate) together with a fee of Sh. 50.

Notice is also hereby given that official objection will be taken under rule 21 (3) to all applications in which the specification claims all the goods included in any class unless the Registrar is satisfied that the claim is justified by the use of the mark which the applicant has made, or intends to make if and when it is registered. Where an applicant considers that a claim in respect of all the goods included in a class can be justified it will save unnecessary delay in examining applications if a claim is filed simultaneously with the application, accompanied in appropriate cases by supporting documents.

The period for lodging notice of opposition may be extended by the Registrar as he thinks fit and upon such terms as he may direct. Any request for such extension should be made to the Registrar so as to reach him before the expiry of the period allowed.

Formal opposition should not be lodged until after reasonable notice has been given by letter to the applicant for registration so as to afford him any opportunity of withdrawing his application before the expense of preparing the notice of opposition is incurred. Failure to give such notice will be taken into account in considering any application by an opponent for an order for costs if the opposition is uncontested by the applicant.

Where it is stated in the advertisement of the applicant that the mark, upon its registration, is to be limited to certain colours, the colours are, as far as possible, indicated in the accompanying representations of the mark in the usual heraldic manner.

Representations of the marks advertised herein can be seen at the Trade Marks Registry, State Law Office, Nairobi.

Applications for registration in Part A of the Register are shown with the official number unaccompanied by any letter. Applications for Part B are distinguished by the letter B prefixed to the official number.
