GAZETTE NOTICE No. 3787

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 22 OF 1990

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial, Food and Allied Workers
and

B.A.T. Kenya Limited

Issues in dispute:

- Salaries and Wages.
- House Allowance.
- Temporary/Casual Workers.
- Shift Allowance.
- Lunch Allowance.
- Cigarette Allowance.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial, Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the B.A.T. Kenya Limited as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 3rd and 7th May, 1990, respectively and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 20th December, 1989, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 8th February, 1990, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

This dispute arose when the parties were negotiating for the renewal of their collective agreement which expired on 31st March, 1989. During the negotiations the parties disagreed on eleven issues and on 23rd August, 1989, the parties reported the existence of a dispute to the Minister for Labour. Thereafter a conciliator was appointed to assist the parties reach an agreement. At the conciliation level the parties were able to agree on further five items leaving the six issues now before the court.

The respondents are an agro-based industry engaged in the buying, collection, warehousing and processing of the tobacco leaf for preservation. This intermediate product is further processed into cigarettes. The raw material for making cigarettes is tobacco and is locally procured.

Some of the cigarette brands manufactured by the respondents include the following:

Sportsman	Ten Cent
Embassy	Score
Sweet Mentol	Crown Bird
555 State Express	Nyota
Rooster

The main tobacco growing areas are Nyanza and Western provinces as well as Meru and Machakos districts of Eastern Province. There are currently about 11,000 tobacco farmers in the country and tobacco buying season ranges between 3rd and 5th months with the peak season being in July of each year. The respondents started exporting tobacco leaf in 1985 and since then the value has been increasing. The tobacco leaf export stood at 1,000 tons in 1989 and earned Kenya U.S. $ 4.8 million.

The respondents employ a workforce of about 1,380. The majority of the respondents' employees are stationed in the Nairobi and Thika plants. However, there are a few employees about 252 or 22 per cent of the labour force who are stationed in the countryside. All in all this dispute covers 1,139 unionizable employees.

The court has given careful consideration to the various submissions put forward by the parties and notes that the collective agreement which is the subject of this dispute is due to expire on 31st March, 1991. The court further notes that the respondents have a total labour force of about 1,380 employees and this dispute covers about 1,141. However, the court notes that the respondents total labour force has fallen from 1,505 in 1985 to 1,380; a reduction of 125 job opportunities which is not in line with the government objectives and of the wages guidelines. The wage guidelines require that employers grant their employees compensation of three quarters in the rise in the cost of living indices, so that the remaining quarter could be re-invested and by so doing create new job opportunities and also keep inflation in check. The respondents have failed to create new jobs.

The court, keeping all this in mind and considering the wages guidelines in conjunction with the comprehensive reports by the Ministry's Planning and Research Division awards as follows on each item:

(a) Elongation of Notches:

The court notes that prior to 1981, the sliding scales (notches) had stretched from a minimum of 7 notches for job group R to a maximum of 21 notches for job group G1. However, at the demand and insistence of the claimants, the notches were condensed to 7 and 11 notches for job groups R and G1 respectively. The court further notes that the claimants have turned around and are now demanding that the notches be elongated to the level they were prior to 1981. This is certainly not playing the game fairly and the claimants' demand under the circumstances is not justified.

The court accordingly rejects the elongation of the notches as demanded by the claimants.

(b) Salaries:

The court awards a general wage increase of 12 per cent for the first year and a further wage increase of 12 per cent for the second year across the board based on individual existing salaries.

House Allowance

The court has carefully considered the two proposals put forward by the parties and awards the following rates of housing allowance:

Grade	Old House Allowance Entitlement KSh.	New House Allowance Entitlement KSh.
1	660	800
2	610	750
3	580	720
4	475	615
5	450	590
6	400	540
7	390	530
8	380	520
9	175	250

Temporary/Casual Workers

The court has decided that the current provision in the collective agreement should remain as it is but the rates to be paid to these employees should be increased as follows:

Casual (skilled) KSh. 110 per day.

Casual (unskilled) KSh. 70 per day.

Rural areas KSh. 50 per day.

This part of the award shall be effective from 1st April, 1990.

Shift Allowance

The court awards that the present rate of 10 per cent of the basic wage be increased to 12 per cent of the basic wage by way of subsistence allowances and this part of the award will also take effect from 1st April, 1990.

Lunch Allowance

The court awards that the present rates be increased as indicated below:

Grading

1-4 KSh. 24 to KSh. 30,

5-6 KSh. 19 to KSh. 25,

7-R KSh. 14 to KSh. 20.

Cigarette Allowance

The claimants' demand on this item is rejected.

Dated the 13th July, 1990.

SAEED R. COCKAR,
Judge.

C. K. LUBEMBE,
M. MUNYAO,
Members.
