PRACTICE DIRECTIONS RELATING TO THE FILING OF SUITS, APPLICATIONS AND REFERENCES IN PROPER COURTS

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred by section 65 (3) of the Constitution and in pursuance of sections 11 to 18 of the Civil Procedure Act, Chapter 21 of the Laws of Kenya which make provisions for the place of suing according to (a) the pecuniary jurisdiction of the court; (b) the place where the subject matter or property is situate; (c) the place where the cause of action arose; and (d) where the defendants or any of them resides or works for gain, the Chief Justice makes the following practice directions:

1. The place of suing is to be determined in accordance with the provisions of sections 11 to 18 of the Civil Procedure Act and not according to the preference or convenience of the plaintiff. The Courts and the filing registries must strictly observe the provisions as to the place of suing by allowing only those that comply with the law and rejecting those that do not.
2. Where suits have already been filed in the wrong Court, the Court should exercise its authority under Order VII rule 9 of the Civil Procedure Rules to return the plaint to be presented to the court in which the suit should have been instituted, without prejudice to any other powers that it may possess under the law to strike out the pleadings as an abuse of the process of the Court.
3. The filing of appeals, bail applications and references from the subordinate courts should be made at the High Court with corresponding Supervisory Jurisdiction according to the established judicial administrative districts as set out in the Schedule.
4. All Judicial Review proceedings under Order LIII of the Civil Procedure Rules and Constitutional applications and references shall be serially registered in a Special register(s) for Judicial Review and Constitutional Application and Reference matters in the appropriate Registry, and be heard by the High Court for the respective area on priority basis and without delay.
