DEPOSIT PROTECTION FUND BOARD

ANNUAL REPORT AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30TH JUNE, 2007

STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

The Banking Act (Cap. 488) requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Board as at the end of the financial year and of the results for that year. It also requires the directors to ensure the Board maintains proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the Board. The directors are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Board.

The directors accept the responsibility for the financial statements which have been prepared using appropriate accounting policies supported by reasonable and prudent judgements and estimates, consistent with previous years, and in conformity with International Financial Reporting Standards and the requirement of the Banking Act (Cap. 488). The directors are of the opinion that the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the financial affairs of the Board as at 30 June 2007 and of its operating results for the year then ended. The directors further confirm the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records maintained by the Board which have been relied upon in the preparation of the financial statements as well as on the adequacy of the systems of internal financial controls.

Nothing has come to the attention of the directors to indicate that the Board will not remain a going concern for at least the next twelve months from the date of this statement.

REPORT OF THE INDEPENDENT AUDITORS TO THE MINISTER FOR FINANCE ON THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF DEPOSIT PROTECTION FUND BOARD

REPORT ON THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards and the requirements of the Banking Act (Cap. 488). This responsibility includes designing, implementing and maintaining internal controls relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error; selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies; and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITY

Our responsibility is to express an independent opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risk of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal controls relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

OPINION

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of financial affairs of the Deposit Protection Fund Board as at 30th June, 2007 and of its surplus and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards and the requirements of the Banking Act (Cap. 488).

The accounting policies and the notes below form an integral part of these financial statements.

ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

(a) Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and are in compliance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).

(b) Revenue recognition

Assessed income comprises contributions levied to the contributory institutions and is recognized in the period when they are receivable. Such contributions are assessed at a rate of 0.15% of the average of the institutions' total deposit liabilities during the period of 12 months prior to the date of levy notice. Interest income is recognized in the period in which it is earned based on the expired portion of the life of the investments it relates to. Interest is primarily earned on treasury bills and bonds and other interest carrying instruments. Discounts and premiums on acquisition of government securities are amortized over the life of the security.

(c) Provisions for payments to depositors

Provisions for payments to protected depositors are recognized in the financial statements in the period the contributory institutions are placed under liquidation. Any payments that exceed the provisions made are taken into account in determining operating profit. Provisions that relate to unclaimed protected deposits are written back to income on expiry of the statutory notice period.

(d) Taxation

The Board's income is not subject to tax as it has been granted exemption by the Commissioner of Income Tax. Therefore no provision for current tax or deferred tax is made in the financial statements.

(e) Property and equipment

All property and equipment is initially recorded at cost and thereafter stated at historical cost less depreciation.

Depreciation is calculated at rates estimated to write off the cost of the assets concerned over their expected useful lives on the reducing balance basis except for computers which are depreciated on the straight line basis.

The annual rates in use are:	Rate %
Furniture and fittings	12.50
Office and kitchen equipment	20.00
Motor vehicles	25.00
Computers	33.33

Leasehold buildings are written off over the estimated useful life of the building, or the remaining lease term, whichever is less.

The assets useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each balance sheet date.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Gains and losses on disposal of property and equipment are determined by reference to their carrying amount and are taken into account in determining operating profit.

(f) Investment held for sale

Investment held for sale relates to investment in subsidiary which is accounted for under IFRS 5 'Non-current assets held for sale and discontinued operations'. The investment is stated at the lower of its carrying amount and the fair value less costs to sell.

(g) Financial Instruments

The Board's financial instruments which comprise government securities, receivables and payables fall into the following categories:

- Government securities are classified as held to maturity and are accordingly carried at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method.
- Receivables which comprise debtors and prepayments are classified as originated loans and receivables and are accordingly carried at amortised cost.
- Creditors and accruals, provisions for protected deposit claims and amounts due to Central Bank of Kenya are classified as financial liabilities and are carried at amortised cost.

A financial asset is impaired if its carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount. The amount of the impairment losses are taken into account in determining operating profit.

(h) Employee entitlements

Employee entitlements are recognised when they accrue to employees. A provision is made for the estimated liability for such entitlements as a result of services rendered by employees up to the balance sheet date.

The estimated monetary liability for employees' accrued annual leave entitlement at the balance sheet date is recognised as an expense accrual.

(i) Retirement benefit costs

The Board's employees are eligible for retirement benefits under a defined benefit plan provided through a separate fund. The defined benefit plan is funded by the Board and the Central Bank, the main sponsor. The retirement benefit asset is wholly recognised in the financial statements of the Central Bank while the Board recognises contributions to the fund as if it were a defined contribution scheme by charging them to the profit and loss account in the year to which they relate.

The actuarial valuations of the scheme are performed using the Projected Unit Credit Method and resulting assets or liabilities recognised in the financial statements of Central Bank of Kenya. The Board staff are seconded from the Central Bank and as such it is not possible to account for their proportionate share of the defined benefit obligation.

The Board also contributes to a statutory defined contribution Pension Scheme, the National Social Security Fund (NSSF). Contributions are determined by local statute and are currently limited to KShs. 200 per employee. The contributions are charged to income and expenditure account in the year to which they relate.

(j) Leases

Leases of assets under which a significant proportion of the risks and rewards of ownership are effectively retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases are charged to the profit and loss account on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

Payments to acquire leasehold interest in land are treated as prepaid operating lease rentals and amortised over the period of the lease.

(k) Comparatives

Where necessary, comparative figures have been adjusted to conform with changes in presentation in the current year.

The investment in Consolidated Bank of Kenya Limited was valued in December, 2004 by external consultants and the value of the shares was considered to be effectively nil. In the opinion of the directors, the additional diminution in value of KSh.100,000 based on this valuation is not material for recognition in the financial statements. The Board owns 50.2% of the ordinary share capital of the Consolidated Bank of Kenya Limited. At the time of acquisition of the investment, the Banking Act allowed the Board to acquire, hold or dispose shares of an institution that would result in a loss to the Board. The Banking Act was later amended and now prevents the Board from holding investments other than in government securities. The Board has signed the agreement transferring the shareholding in Consolidated Bank Limited to Treasury for onward sale to third parties. The Treasury is in the process of finalizing the transfer. Due to the above, the requirement for consolidation on IAS 27 does not apply.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 11024

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT OF KENYA AT NAIROBI.

CAUSE NO. 13 OF 2002

KENYA SHIPPING, CLEARING AND WAREHOUSES WORKERS
UNION—(Claimant)

VERSUS

REMOVAL FREIGHT INTERNATIONAL
LIMITED—(Respondents)Issue in dispute:

Wrongful Dismissal of Mr. Charles Osundwa and Mr. Joseph E. Amayi.

This dispute was referred to the Industrial Court by the Minister for Labour under the provisions of section 8 of Trade Dispute Act, Cap. 234. Both the Minister and the Labour Commissioner have filed forms H and G respectively, and the Court is properly seized of the matter.

The parties have filed their memorandum of claim and Respondents reply. In the Claimants Memorandum, the claimant gives a comprehensive statement detailing how the grievants were employed and the circumstances surrounding their cessation of relationship with the Respondent. Both grievants were not employed at the same time; they were not performing similar tasks. They did not leave at same time and the reasons for their cessation of relationship with the Respondent were not similar.

According to the memorandum of claim, the first grievant Mr. Osundwa was employed as a Customs Bond Clerk on 24th February 1998. He was dismissed on 31st October, 2000 due to what the letter of dismissal of said date claimed that the grievant had "gone to the extent of soliciting bribes from the client" The memorandum of the Claimants stated that Mr. Osundwa told the client that "If there is a problem with the work permit, money would be needed." It has not been stated whether any money was ever demanded or given, but the claim has been made that it was a bribe. The claim, is made by the Respondents, and the memorandum of the Claimant mentions that money would have been required.

When the parties appeared they relied on their written memoranda and made powerful oral submissions. None of the parties called witnesses to have their respective versions subjected to cross-examination. This would have assisted the Court to evaluate the merits of the respective versions.

Mr. Joseph E. Amayi, the second grievant was employed on 11th December, 1995, and confirmed on 1st November, 1998 as a mechanic. It is claimed that he was dismissed on 20th September, 2000, but it is countered for the Respondents that this grievant deserted his job and was not dismissed as alleged. Once more, the Court was not given the opportunity of listening to the grievant and to evaluate his evidence after scrutiny of cross-examination. The Court will have to rely on the written memoranda and the oral submission.

The Court has had the benefit of perusing the recommendations of the Chief Industrial Relations Officer through the letter dated 4th June, 2001. The letter written by Mr. J. M. Kiraguri on behalf of the CIRO considers in detail the investigations carried out, the findings as well as the recommendations of the issue of the dismissals of both grievant. In the absence of witnesses to support the allegations of either the Claimants or of the Respondents, the Court places considerable value on the findings of the Chief Industrial Relations Officer as contained in the said letter.

The Court therefore after careful consideration of the merits of the case for the Claimants and of the reply made on behalf of the Respondents concludes that there was evidence of Mr. Osundwa asking for money from the client of the Respondent. The amount was not named but the asking of money impacted negatively on his credibility – this solicitation of bribes should be discouraged. Since there was no loss to the Employer/Respondents, he should be dismissed to discourage others. The matter of this grievant should be treated as normal termination as recommended by the CIRO. He is entitled to his demand as listed in the letter from Mr. James Tongi, the Assistant General Secretary of the Union/Claimant dated 13th June, 2001 to the Executive Director of the Respondent save and except the item of cooperative money amounting Kshs.4,000.

The Court would uphold the claim of KSh. 22, 800 and would accordingly award him this amount. The Court would also order the Respondents to issue him with a certificate of employment.

The Court finds that the case of Mr. Joseph E. Amayi as lacking merit. The Claimants have failed to establish that this grievant was dismissed and to refute the allegations of the Respondent that this grievant deserted his employment. In the absence of any letter of dismissal, the grievant should have been ready to testify so as to make out a case. His claim is therefore rejected and dismissed. The Employer should however issue him with a Certificate of Employment as well as pay him for days worked and leave due.

Award given by the Court at Nairobi on this 17th day of December, 2003.

JUSTICE I. E. K. MUKUNYA,
Judge.

ALBERT B. ONGARO,
JAMES ODAGA,
Members.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT OF KENYA AT NAIROBI

CAUSE NO. 63 OF 2001

KENYA SHIPPING, CLEARING AND WAREHOUSES
WORKERS UNION—(Claimant)

AND

REMOVAL FREIGHT INTERNATIONAL LTD—(Respondent)

AWARD

Issue in Dispute:Recognition

The Claimant Union has been conducting a membership recruitment exercise within the Respondent Company since 1999. Sometime in March 2000 the Claimant states that it submitted a statutory check-off list of 54 names to the Respondent to begin deductions of union membership dues of the Respondent's employees who had voluntarily joined the Claimant union. The Respondent was allegedly uncooperative and refused to negotiate a recognition agreement with the Claimant. As a result, a trade dispute was reported to the Minister by the Claimant. The Minister followed the usual procedure in such matters, appointed an investigator who recommended that the Claimant not having a simple majority of unionisable staff of the Respondent, was not eligible for formal recognition under the Trade Disputes Act. The Claimant disagrees and has pursued the matter to this court. From time the dispute was first reported to the Minister in January 2001 to date, more than three (3) years have elapsed and issue of employee's right to voluntary association has not been determined.

Several issues were canvassed during the hearing by the parties, mainly a round concerns regarding harassment of grievants and actual and potential union members as alleged by the Claimant and the lack of proper membership of the union and a difficult and arrogant towards the Respondent by the union.

There is only one issue to be determined in this dispute: Whether or not the Claimant Union did at any one time during the pendency of this dispute have a simple majority of unionisable employees in the Respondent company as its members? Other issues with regard to the Union's right to be recognized are not in dispute. The Claimant is the correct union that the Respondent's employees may join and there is no rival union seeking recognition from the Respondent.

The proceedings and record reveal an unhappy relationship between the parties. The Respondent seems to be reluctant to recognize the union and there were allegations of dismissals and victimization. The Respondent in turn also alleged that the Claimant has not submitted to it the statutory check-off list for it to confirm membership of the union. The Respondent further avers that the Claimant does not have a simple majority of its employees as members of the union due to resignation, dismissal, forthcoming retirement, desertion from duty, death of staff, inclusion of management staff as union members and other similar reasons. This was supposed to have happened between 1998 and 2001.

The Claimant simply avers that at one point in time it did have a majority of unionisable employees as its members before the Respondent employer began to whittle down those numbers through dismissal and other forms of victimization.

It is unfortunate that both parties did not take sufficient care to establish their position properly. Evidence was treated haphazardly and inconclusively. What emerges from an assessment of the totality of evidence before the Court is that the union has no rival and at one point a large number of the employees of the Respondent did, during the pendency of this dispute, join the Claimant union. Without going into the reasons for a subsequent reduction of union members, we find that the Claimant union was entitled to recognition. It seems that the Claimant union has also badly managed its approach and profile and has made the Respondent reluctant to deal with a union that, even before signing a recognition agreement, has begun to behave badly. It is clear to us that if the Claimant union is to take an aggressive approach to representation than this will not make for sound industrial relations leading to several disputes. We remind the claimant union that it is there not for itself but solely in the organized interest of its members.

We also note that the industrial relations system in Kenya, as contained in the Industrial Relations Charter and the Trade Unions Act Cap 233 and Trade Disputes Act Cap 234 imposes restrictions on the otherwise unfettered right to association in order to ensure discipline, organized management of labour relations between employers and employees and the promotion of a partnership between the social stakeholders in commerce and industry for the benefit of the parties and the development of the nation at large. These restrictions however, must be construed broadly to allow latitude to employees, who are otherwise constrained in the choice of their associative body, to be able to join the union that has been approved as the proper and correct one for the industry. Conversely this imposes an obligation on employers to allow unhindered access to its employees to voluntarily associate with such a union and to organize the employees' collective agenda for terms and conditions of service in the context of the law. The employer does not have a right to either select a union for its employees or otherwise restrict employees from joining the union of their choice when such union meets the conditions and requirements of the law.

We also note that the issues raised by both parties vis-à-vis the behaviour of the other would be more peacefully resolved were they to be in a formal relationship as provided by law.

Having found that the Claimant Union did at one time during the pendency of this dispute have a simple majority of members from amongst the unionisable employees of the Respondent company, we order that the Respondent in principle recognize the Claimant union. However, given the fact that there have been substantial changes and movement of staff in the Respondent, we order that the recognition agreement between the parties be suspended for three (3) months allowing the Claimant to first get its house in order, re-prepare its check-off list of members, submit the same to the employer and the Registrar of Trade Unions, submit a draft of the proposed recognition agreement to the respondent and thereafter proceed to have the said recognition agreement negotiated and signed.

As the sitting members Mr. Ongaro and Mr. Odaga also agree, it is so ordered.

Dated and Delivered in Court in the presence of both parties at Nairobi this 4th day of March 2004.

MURTAZA JAFFER,
Judge.

J. C. ODAGA,
A. B. ONGARO,
Members.
