EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

NOTICE No. 24.

Notice is hereby given that Rinderpest (Cattle Disease) is prevalent in the Uganda Protectorate and especially so near the Gil-Gil River.

Therefore under the powers conferred upon me under the "Cattle Disease Regulations 1899," I hereby prohibit, until further notice, the importation of any Cattle or other ruminants into the Ukamba Province from Uganda or any locality adjacent thereto.

Any breach of this order will be liable on conviction, to the penalties prescribed by "The East Africa Order-in-Council 1897," for a breach of King's Regulations.

(Signed) JOHN AINSWORTH,
H. M. Sub-Commissioner.

Nairobi, July 17th, 1901.

CIRCULAR.

It is hereby notified that the owner of a house who does not comply with Article 32 of the "Building Regulations 1901" will be liable to prosecution.

(Signed) JAMES B. AINSWORTH,
For J. W. TRITTON,
Acting Sub-Commissioner.

Mombasa, 23rd July, 1901.

Reuter's Telegrams.

JULY 15TH.—Lord Kitchener reports from Pretoria that a post of South African Constabulary situated at Houtkop Northwest of Vereeniging was attacked on the 13th by the Boers, who captured an old seven pounder screw gun. The attack was ultimately repulsed, our losses being 3 killed and 7 wounded.

Seventy Boers made a daring attempt to lift a large herd of cattle close to Pretoria. They were driven off by 50 men of the cattle Rangers Corps. There was fighting at close quarters during which clubbed rifles were used.

A big combined movement is being directed by French in the Graafrinet district against Scheeper's Commando and other Cape invaders.

A young Frenchman named Dumont has successfully experimented in a navigable air-ship leaving St. Cloud rounding the Eiffel Tower and returning safely to St. Cloud.

In the course of the Navy Debate in the House of Lords the Earl of Dudley said that England would have to look for her Naval reserves elsewhere than the Mercantile Marine which were 5,000 fewer British seamen than there were 30 years ago.

Lord Selborne said that the Admiralty had come to the conclusion that a training Squadron could not be resuscitated as it was too costly. The Admiralty however were considering the establishment of a Naval Volunteer Force; also a school of Naval strategy.

There is much comment with regard to the lengthy visit paid to Varna by the Russian Squadron, with the Grand Duke Alexander on board. At a farewell banquet on Saturday last, Prince Ferdinand toasted Russia, as the Creator of Bulgaria; the Grand Duke drank to Russo-Bulgarian Comrade-ship-in-Arms.

A mixed force of 500 British and Indian troops leaves Aden to-day to destroy the Turkish Fort which has been erected in the territory of the Hanshadis who are under British Protection. It is hoped that the demonstration will be bloodless. The Porte have disowned the building of the Fort.

A despatch has been received from Lord Kitchener advising that General Broadwood's Brigade has surprised Reitz, capturing the so called Orange River Government, together with Steyn's brother and papers. Steyn himself escaped in his shirtsleeves.

Featherstone's and Dixon's columns have reached Zeerust. They encountered opposition on the way. One officer was killed and 3 officers and 24 men were wounded.

JULY 16TH.—Broadwood took 29 prisoners at Reitz including Generals Wessels, Clonwe and Dwarl and three Government officials. It is believed that De Wet was among those who escaped.

The "Daily News" understands that Lord Kitchener has proposed to withdraw most of the infantry replacing them by Mounted Infantry; also to abandon a portion of the Railway between Cape Town and Pretoria, concentrating on the Natal Railways.

The Graafrinet movement has resulted in the capture of a laager and 31 prisoners but Scheeper's main body escaped by precipitous paths; nearly all the prisoners are rebels.

Mr. Brodrick read a despatch from Lord Kitchener, in which he stated that he was forwarding to Delarey the sworn depositions regarding the shooting of our wounded at Vlakkfontein.

JULY 17TH.—Lord Raglan stated in the House of Lords that a Committee of Ladies had been formed to visit Refugee Camps in South Africa. Meanwhile the Government had requested written reports on their condition.

Sir John Gordon Sprigg in a speech at Capetown urged in order to hasten a responsible Government that immigration of loyalists from Great Britain and other parts of the Empire to Transvaal and Orange Colonies, be promoted on a large scale.

Mr. Brodrick referring to the newspaper reports regarding the withdrawal of troops from South Africa and the other changes in the plans said, these were wholly unauthorized and inaccurate but that he was not in a position to make a statement on the subject.

JULY 18TH.—Negotiations at Peking have been at a standstill for over a month, owing to radical differences of opinion between the British and the Russians regarding payment of the indemnity. Either Britain or Russia must concede considerably before an agreement is possible.

Lord Rosebery in reply to a request from the City Liberal Club as to his views on the present crisis, writes that he will never voluntarily re-enter Politics; that he believes the Liberal attitude of neutrality during a war which has caused the whole Empire to rally round the Mother Country spells Liberals impotence; that his severance from the Liberals is not merely on the war question, but that he is entirely opposed to their methods of conducting the empire.

The casualty list shows that 7 of the Connaught Rangers were killed and 3 Lieutenants and 17 men wounded, near Aliwal North on the 14th.

JULY 19TH.—The Finance Bill has been read a third time and passed by 291 to 121. Mr. Chamberlain replying to the pessimistic criticisms of Sir William Harcourt expressed sanguine views of the political and financial future and said he believed that when the Boers had been thoroughly beaten they would settle down peacefully.

It is understood that Lord Rosebery's letter has displeased the Imperialists who are disinclined at the present juncture to break with the radicals. The latter consider that the Manifesto will decide the wavering moderates to renounce the Imperialists.

Earl Russell has pleaded guilty to a charge of bigamy and has been sentenced to three months imprisonment as a first class misdemeanant.

JULY 20TH.—The monsoon is irregular and weak and most parts of India still require good rain.

Lord Kitchener wires that among the letters captured in Steyn's laager there was one dated 10th of May from Reitz and the Transvaal leaders informing Steyn that the position is desperate, that the time has come to take the final step and proposing to appeal to Mr. Kruger. Steyn replied most indignantly saying that the Boers were not yet at the last extremity and stating that he was convinced that foreign complications would ensue in a few months.

Lord Kitchener reports that a small column of the Connaught Rangers were unsuccessfully attacked by a superior force of Boers under Fouché near Jamestown throughout the 14th instant. Our casualties were given on Thursday as having occurred near Aliwal North.

JULY 22ND.—The "Ophir" encountered a violent gale and returned to Albany.

In the House of Lords, Lord Salisbury presented the Bill for the modification of the coronation oath.

Lord Kitchener has commuted the death sentence passed on 34 rebels at Middelburg, to Penal Servitude for life at Bermuda.

The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York are to proceed to Perth from Albany overland. The change in the programme has considerably upset the arrangements for the reception at Perth.

In response to representations from the United States Great Britain has declined to release any American captured with the Boers excepting the invalids.

According to German advices the Ministers at Peking are unlikely to agree to a compromise proposal that in the event of the revenues assigned for the payment of the indemnity, the Junk and Salt taxes, and Maritime Customs, to the extent of four per cent. being inadequate the Powers shall hold a conference in order to determine what revenues shall be utilized.

While the "Ophir" was lying at Anchor in Albany the "Britannic" with 600 retraining troops of all the Colonies arrived. Their Royal Highnesses took up positions forward and the Duke took his hat off as the "Britannic," lined with the cheering troops, passed. The "Ophir's" band played "The Soldiers of the Queen," and the "Britannic," "Home Sweet Home." The greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

Mrs. Kruger died at Pretoria on Saturday from pneumonia after three days illness.

Major Pine-Coffin surprised Collier's Commando near Kroonstad and captured 14 including two of Prinsloo's sons.

The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York have arrived at Perth.

JULY 23RD.—Count Lamsdorff is expected in Paris in September to return Delcassé's visit to St. Petersburg.

The Chinese are reassuming a high tone towards Europeans, and it is felt in Tientsin that they are in nowise overawed or repentant.

English Missionaries on visiting Taiyuanfu on the 10th found a magistrate who was sentenced to perpetual exile holding offices. Sir Ernest Satow is protesting.

It is stated officially that since the 15th instant 68 Boers have been killed and wounded 316 prisoners taken or surrendered and 5,600 horses have been captured.

The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York on reaching Perth were received with the heartiest welcome.

Mrs. Kruger was buried on Sunday.

Mr. Kruger appears downcast but retains vigorous health. Numerous condolences have been sent from abroad.

Sir M. Hicks-Beach stated in the House of Commons that the total cost of the Chinese expedition is £4,350,000 exclusive of the naval expenditure.

JULY 24TH.—It is announced at Washington that a plan for the payment of the Chinese indemnity has been definitely adopted. The Amortization of the bonds begins in 1902 and the principal and interest will be entirely repaid by 1940. It is expected that China will be able to raise 23 millions annually.

The new Zealand Government is urging the establishment of a technical University in London open to the Empire, as the Victoria Memorial.

Lord Cromer has been created an Earl.

The Freedom of the City has been presented to Milner at the Guildhall. In replying he said that though they were all anxious to make submission easy and honourable to the enemy few were prepared to purchase peace by treating treasonable rebellion as a venial offence. "We must not alienate friends," he said, "by striving to win over our enemies."

JULY 25TH.—Lord Kitchener reports that Scheepers captured and burned a train with 113 details in the vicinity of Beaufort West. Three were killed and thirteen wounded. Kritzingers attacked Crabbe near Cradock who retired on Mortimer after fighting all day. Casualties were slight.

Colonel Lukin surprised Lategans Laager at Tweefontein on Sunday. Ten men and many horses were captured, together with quantity of ammunition.

The Education Bill has passed through Committee unamended.

Several rebels have been executed in Cape Colony.

JULY 26TH.—Terrible heat and draught continue unabated throughout the Central and Western United States and it is estimated that the loss of crops in Iowa Missouri, Nebraska and Kansas will be 312 million Bushels, being about half of last years production,

From various reports the Boers are again preparing an invasion of Cape Colony on a large scale.

A Brussels paper states that negotiations with Great Britain have ended in an agreement whereby part of the Bahr-el-Gazel, besides the Fads enclave have been assigned to the Congo State during the life time of King Leopold after his death reverting to Egypt.

Lord Cranborne stated that he has no reason to believe that Foreign Governments desire to retain troops permanently in Shanghai

JULY 27TH.—Bands of Boxers, China and Foreign deserters are terrorising Northern China.

There are numerous reports of conflicts between the Imperial troops and rebels near Peking.

Lord Salisbury introduced a Bill permitting a change if the King's title, which will probably be:—

“King of the United Kingdom of Britain and Ireland, and all British Dominions beyond the Seas Defender of the Faith Emperor of India, and all the Colonies.”

His Majesty on being consulted agreed that the change was desirable.

The new German tariff has been published but is still subject to Parliamentary amendment.

The Chief feature is the increased duties on all Cereals Agricultural produce and cattle, The duties on Tea will be 100 marks; on Raw Coffee forty, on Spices fifty and on Sugar of all kinds forty marks per 100 kilogrammes.

The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York have sailed for Mauritius.

JULY 29TH.—Reuter's Correspondent at Peking states that the deadlock between the Powers has ended, and the Ministers have agreed to a financial scheme. It is expected that negotiations will be finished and the protocol signed in a fortnight.

It is universally recognised that the visit of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York has been an unqualified success. The Duke in his farewell message to Lord Hopetown expressed the warmest feelings of gratitude for the loyal affection shown during the past happy and eventful months.

It is officially reported that a detachment of Steinackers Horse, occupying Bremersdorp were forced to evacuate that post on the 24th by a superior force of the enemy. They fought their way to Lambobo 16 miles distant losing ten.

Conferences with the leaders of workmen's Associations with Morgan and the heads of the Steel Trust, are proceeding secretly, in New York and a general settlement is expected soon.

Shamrock II sailed for America on Saturday, the steam Yacht, “Erin” escorting her.

It is believed that the Reichstag will largely amend the tariff which surprises even the Agrarians.

The Mad Mullah was routed on the 17th losing 70 killed. The British force lost 13 killed and 20 wounded.

The termination of the deadlock at Peking is due mainly to the Russians waving their demand for an increase in the Maritime Customs beyond 5 per cent and the acceptance of the British proposal that in the event of the revenue ultimately proving inadequate for the indemnity, the Powers will reassemble and consider the necessary charges.

The War Office publishes statements of Lieut. Hern, 3 men of the Derbyshires and 3 of the Yeomanry, describing the shooting of the wounded by the Boers at Vlaktefontein.

M. Paul Daumer has started to resume the Governorship of Indo-China.

JULY 30TH.—It is stated that the settlement arrived at by the Conference with the Workmen's Associations and the heads of the Steel Trust is a victory for the Steel Trust which maintains its position declining to extend the Union to labour in all mills.

Mr. Barton has introduced a bill in the Australian Parliament containing drastic restrictions to immigration, including an educational list.

JULY 31st.—A scene occurred in the House of Commons during the debate on the Rating Bill William Redmond and Patrick O'Brien have been suspended from sitting in consequence of their disregarding the authority of the speaker.

According to a special telegram to the "Morning Post" from Tangier the Moorish envoy to London and Berlin has been arrested at Mazagan for granting unauthorised concessions to England and spending two millions sterling.

An official despatch from Colonel Swayne states that on leaving Burne he was attacked by the Mad Mullah's force who were driven with heavy loss into the Mijertain country. After severe fighting on the 17th many huts were burned and a lot of cattle captured. Several relatives of the Mullah have been killed and among our casualties are Captain Friedrichs killed and Lieutenant Dickinson wounded.

The King distributed 500 medals to the Militiamen at Marlborough House on 29th.

A message of the King has been presented to Parliament in which he states that considering the eminent services rendered by Lord Roberts to the country it is desirable that some signal mark of favour be conferred upon him and recommends granting him £100,000.

Mr. O'Shee M.P. has been suspended for applying the expression "Judicial Black Guardism" with reference to the Chief Justice of Ireland.

General French's assumption of Commando in Cape Colony has had a marked effect on the larger offensive operations, and a system of block-houses has been organised along the Railways.
