EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

NOTICE.

The land rules dated October 28th, 1902, and published on pages, 352 to 355 of the "Official Gazette" of November 1, 1902 are hereby withdrawn and the following rules substituted for them. Attention is drawn to the fact, which appears to have been misunderstood, that rules made under the Crown Lands Ordinance cannot in any way abrogate that ordinance but merely supplement its provisions. The notice dated July 31, and published in the "Gazette" of August 1st, also remains in force, except in as far as the present rules fix the price of average agricultural land instead of leaving it as a varying amount.

The present rules deal only with agricultural land. Rules respecting grazing areas and building sites will be published later but meanwhile H. M. Commissioner is prepared to entertain any applications for such land which may be addressed to him.

Rules for the Purchase of Land under the Crown Lands Ordinance 1902.

GENERAL.

- (1.) The ordinary terms for the purchase of agricultural land of average quality for settlement shall be at the rate of Rs. 2 (2 shillings and eight pence) per acre.
- (2.) Every holding shall be subject to the approval of the land officer who may refuse to accept any application on shewing reason.
- (3.) The purchaser shall within six months of the date of his agreement to purchase mark out the boundaries of his selection including any preempted land.

(4.) Every land holder shall reside continuously upon his holding or leave a responsible person to represent him in case of absence.

(5.) Ten per cent of the area of every selection shall be kept in perpetuity as forest land. Selections where less than 10 per cent of the area is forest shall be planted with forest by the holder to bring the area under forest upto 10 per cent of the total area.

Provided that if there be no forest on a selection the holder shall not be required to plant more than 2 per cent and that it shall be in the discretion of the Conservator of Forests to dispense with the obligation entirely.

Provided that the said planting shall extend over a period of 16 years from the date of agreement and provided that a reasonable proportion of forest be planted every year and that the forest be maintained to the satisfaction of the forest officer.

For the purposes of this rule any belts of forest of not less than one chain in width shall be accepted as forest.

(6.) No stream or piece of water which extends beyond the limit of one holding may be dammed up, diverted or in any way interfered with either directly or indirectly (for instance by sinking a well so near it as to draw off water).

Provided that the leave of the land officer in writing may be obtained to dam up, divert or use water in any other way for temporary purposes for a period of not more than one year and provided that for periods exceeding one year a Crown lease for water may be granted.

(7.) All lands purchased from the Crown shall be subject to any irrigation rules that may be hereafter made.

(8.) Every settler who keeps live-stock should provide fences to prevent his stock from straying off his own land and until proper fences are provided a settler shall be unable to impound any cattle found trespassing on his land or bring any action in respect of damage caused thereby.

(9.) One hundred feet on either side of the Uganda Railway line and such area round any station as may be marked off by the Railway authorities is absolutely reserved for Railway purposes.

(10.) The fees for survey purposes are upon the following scale:—

acre

For homestead lands	Rs. 15	per 55 or part thereof.
„ Grazing	„ 15	100 or part thereof.
„ Market Garden	„ 2	1 or part thereof.
„ Building	„ 2	unit of 100 feet by 75 feet.

The fees will include the delivery of one copy of the plan to the settler.

(11.) No sewage filth or refuse shall be allowed to enter into or foul in any way any lake, pond, stream or water course.

(12.) Every settler must sign an agreement relating to the terms upon which he is to be allowed to settle before he enters into possession of any holding.

(13.) The land officer shall be such person as may from time to time be appointed to perform the duties of the Land Officer.

Purchases of Homesteads by Instalments.

In the following rules homestead shall be understood to mean a holding purchased or to be purchased by instalments under those rules.

(14.) The maximum area of a homestead selection to be purchased in this manner shall be 160 acres provided, that when entering into an agreement to take up a homestead selection, the settler may reserve a right to take up a further area hereinafter referred to as preempted land not exceeding 480 acres.

(15.) The purchase money for a homestead is payable at the end of three years.

Provided that the settler may spread the payment over a period of 16 years paying at the rate of 2 annas per acre per annum without interest and provided that the settler may pay the whole or part of the outstanding balance at any time in sums of Rs. 100 or a multiple thereof.

(16.) At the expiration of three years from the date of agreement to take up a selection if all conditions appertaining to the holding have been fulfilled or when the full price has been paid, in the event of it being paid by instalments spread over more than three years a certificate of ownership, herein referred to as the final certificate, shall be granted to the settler. In regard to preempted land the period of three years will be calculated from the date of leave being given to enter into possession. Separate certificates will be given for the original homestead and for any preempted land.

(17.) In every year for the first three years the settler shall bring 1/10 of his original holding under cultivation and shall keep all cultivated lands in good heart and condition until he acquires a final certificate.

Provided that as soon as he has cultivated 3/10 of the holding he shall not be compelled to cultivate any further portion.

(18.) The right of preemption to preempted land shall subsist for three years, within which time if 3/10 of the original holding have been brought under cultivation and all other conditions respecting the original holding have been fulfilled, the settler may proceed to cultivate the preempted land, but he shall not enter into possession thereof until he obtains permission from the land officer in writing, and such permission shall contain a certificate that all the conditions relating to the original holding have been fulfilled.

The settler shall cultivate $\frac{1}{4}$ of the preempted land in each year after he has entered into possession thereof and shall keep the cultivated land in good heart and condition.

Provided that as soon as he has cultivated $\frac{3}{10}$ of such preempted land he shall not be compelled to cultivate any further portion.

(19.) Every settler must begin to occupy his selection within 6 months from the date of agreement and every settler shall, within 3 years, erect a living house of a reasonable, permanent character upon his original holding.

(20.) Until a final certificate has been granted a settler may not deal with his interest in his holding by sale, lease, mortgage or otherwise except by consent of the land officer. But on a final certificate being granted he shall be free to deal with the property as freehold subject to any condition imposed by the Crown Lands Ordinance (No. 21 of 1902) or by these rules.

All the time limits in the forgoing rules unless otherwise expressed refer to the beginning of a term to be named in the agreement or, if no such term is named, then to the date of execution thereof.

C. ELIOT,

H. M. Commissioner.

Mombasa, December 21st, 1902.

Reuter's Telegrams.

DECEMBER 15TH.—At a dinner of the Union Club, held at the Hotel Cecil Lord Lansdowne deprecated inveterate antipathies between nations and was glad to think that German and British sailors were for the moment fighting side by side. He was sorry to have to deny the imaginative statement that every difficulty between France and England was on the eve of settlement such reports however indicated that Public feeling was pursuing right course.

The rumour with regard to the murder of Mad Mallah has seemingly been disproved owing to the receipt of an arrogant letter from him in which he suggests peace, but on conditions that a port is ceded to him, free importation of arms allowed and similar terms of a like extravagant nature.

The German "Vineta" has captured the Venezuelan Gun boat "Restaurador" off Guanta.

Serious anti-British rioting has occurred at Puertocabello. The mob seized the English steamer named "Topaze" on the 10th she however was subsequently released.

The "Charybdis" and "Vineta" arrived at Puertocabello on the morning of the 13th and having failed to receive satisfaction for the "Topaze" outrage the ships opened fire at 5 p. m. on the Fort and the Custom House. The Fort replied but her guns were soon silenced. Firing ceased at 6 p. m. the town being undamaged.

DECEMBER 16TH.—President Castro has changed his attitude and while still protesting against the action of Great Britain and Germany he has ordered reprisals to cease and has restored the British and German Railways and Telephones. He visited the wife of the German Minister lying ill at the German Legation and offered her the hospitality of his Palace.

Lansdowne stated in the House of Lords that the Government had received through the United States a proposal from the Venezuelan Government that a board of arbitration should be appointed to consider the manner in which British claims should be settled. He added that the Government were considering the proposal.

DECEMBER 17TH.—Mr. Hay has informed Germany that he does not consider that the blockade should apply to American ships and that he disapproves of the stoppage of ships generally, quoting as a precedent the peaceful blockade of Crete in 1896.

Italy participates in the blockade.

The strike at Marseilles has collapsed owing to the other Trades Union deserting.

Lord Lansdowne replying to Lord Spencer in the House of Lords stated that the British and German Governments had decided should further measures of coercion become necessary to blockade all Venezuelan ports.

DECEMBER 18TH.—Lord Lansdowne in reply to Lord Welly stated that Russia had no ground of complaint with regard to the Sugar Convention, and need have no fear of reprisals. Nothing however would deter the Government from ratifying the Convention.

The American, Spanish, Belgian Ministers have presented a note to the Venezuelan Government demanding that they should be treated under the "most favoured nation clause" in the event of British and German claims being settled.

The Italian Minister was to leave Caracas on the 17th having presented an Ultimatum on the 15th demanding the payment of claims to the extent of 60,000 Dollars.

Mr. Balfour speaking in the House of Commons stated that he saw no reason whatever for deferring the ratification of the Sugar Convention, that Government would ratify same on the distinct understanding that the question of penalising Colonies rests entirely with Great Britain. He added that, though he would regret to see the Colonies granting bounties, he would not advocate their being penalised.

From a series of questions addressed to Mr. Balfour and his replies to them, it would appear that the Government consider that a state of war exists with Venezuela.

DECEMBER 19TH.—A duel took place at Nies between the two famous Italian fencers Messrs. Vega and Passina and two Frenchmen Messrs. Kuchhoffer and Merignane, ultimately both the Italians were wounded.

His Holiness the Pope has received Bishop Hanlon of Uganda.

It is reported from Washington that President Castro has invested Mr. Bowen with full Powers to effect a settlement with Great Britain and Germany.

DECEMBER 20TH.—France has notified the Powers that any provision for a settlement in Venezuela must recognise the pre-eminence of French claims.

It is announced from Washington that the United States will not resist the blockade of Venezuelan Ports provided that the Powers enforcing the blockade recognise that there is a state of war.

Great Britain has replied to America re her suggestion for arbitration in a manner rendering a satisfactory settlement probable, but she stipulates that she will deal alone with America and ignore President Castro entirely.

Lord Currie has resigned the Embassy in Rome owing to ill health.

Germany and Italy have replied to America in similar terms to those employed by Great Britain. An exchange of views is going on with regard to the form and conditions of the arbitration preparatory to a joint reply being sent.

DECEMBER 22ND.—The Chamberlains reached within 60 miles of the Victoria Nyanza, and on their return journey Mr. Chamberlain opened the highest Viaduct on the line.

The 1st 3rd and 5th Battalions of the King's African Rifles together with the Punjab mounted Infantry now at Berbera are under orders to be prepared to proceed to Obbia immediately. Major Kama will be in command and the troops will take rations for six months with them.

The whole of the Humbert family concerned in the notorious Crawford fraud in France have been arrested in Madrid.

Great Britain and Germany have proclaimed a blockade over the Venezuelan Ports, and have declared that the blockade will not be relaxed until Venezuela gives some sort of guarantee of good faith and readiness to satisfy the claims that both countries have against her.

Mr. Roosevelt has proposed to Germany and Great Britain that their dispute with Venezuela should be submitted to the Hague Tribunal. Both the Powers have replied to America suggesting that Mr. Roosevelt himself should arbitrate.

The Princess of Wales has been safely delivered of a son. Her Royal Highness and the infant are both doing well.

France has asked the Venezuelan Government for the most favoured nation treatment with regard to the settlement of her claims.

Three Venezuelan Schooners have already been seized by the British under the blockade. The proposal that Mr. Roosevelt should arbitrate has been transmitted to President Castro who accepts the proposition.

The Second Sikhs sections mountain battery and native field force hospital have been ordered to Obbia. The seventh Bombay Pioneers go to Berbera and 200 of the Bikaner Camel Corps are also to proceed, but to what port is as yet uncertain.

DECEMBER 23RD.—Marconi has established wireless communication between Cape Breton and Cornwall and a number of inaugural messages have been transmitted including one from Lord Minto to His Majesty. This is the first time messages as distinguished from single letters have been transmitted.

The Royal Engineers at Aldershot have been ordered to prepare a telegraph section for service in Somaliland.

The Italian man of War "Giovanni-Berra" has captured a Venezuelan schooner.

Great sensation has been caused at Dresden owing to the official announcement that the Crown Princess of Saxony secretly fled abroad on the night of the 11th instant, the reason given is a morbid state of mental excitement. All Christmas and New Year Court functions are cancelled.

Great Britain and Germany yesterday transmitted to the United States a communication detailing their reservations regarding the arbitration.

DECEMBER 24TH.—The Trinidad Gazette contains an official declaration that War has been declared against Venezuela. This formality is intended to legalise the blockade.

The Archbishop of Canterbury is dead.
