GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1319

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE NO. 45 OF 1987

Parties:

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers
and
Kenya Breweries Limited

Issue in dispute:

Rates of pay for eight farm workers at Mau Narok.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Kenya Breweries Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 24th and 25th February, 1988, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 21st May, 1987, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 30th June, 1987, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The court has examined and evaluated the submissions by the parties and finds that this dispute has two aspects for consideration. The first aspect is the rates of pay for the eight (8) serving farm workers at the respondents' Mau-Narok farm. The second aspect revolves around the establishment of entry-points (minimum wages) for newly employed farm workers as required by the parties collective agreement clause 31 (c).

The court has carefully scrutinized the actual individual salaries of the eight (8) farm workers and the wage scales for the mainstream workers on which the farm workers want to be placed.

The court must point out that this is not a simple case of slotting the eight farm workers into the mainstream grades which are really the industrial/commercial grades. The court has to concern itself with the wider and serious implications of placing agricultural workers on the industrial/commercial wage scales.

Under the circumstances of this dispute the court has decided that the best way to resolve it is to grant the eight farm workers a special wage increase and to improve the entry point for them.

The court accordingly awards that the entry point for the farm workers be increased by 20 per cent and that the wages of the eight farm workers should be increased by the same percentage with effect from 1st March, 1987. This increase will be in addition to all the other increases they have received.

Given in Nairobi on 11th March, 1988.

GAZETTE NOTICE NO. 1320

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT
CAUSE NO. 59 OF 1987

Parties:

Kenya Engineering Workers Union
and
Associated Steel Limited

Issues in dispute:

Parties collective agreement.

Failure to pay redundancy benefits to 24 employees namely: Jacob Okuku, Peter Wambua, James Njoroge, Edwin Wainaina, Wilfred Gitagia, James Kinuthia, Joseph Omondi, Jashon Oginga, Solomon Sande, Julius Muli, Julius Macharia, Grace Wambui, William Ominde, Sammy Njoroge, Alfred Okuruu, James Oyoo, Stephen Kimani, Samuel Kang'ethe, Joseph Ochieng', Dishon Rafimbi, Isaac Juma, Henry Airo, Simon Owino and Nicholas Kimenyi.

Wrongful and unauthorized declaration of redundancy of the 24 employees.

Wrongful termination of the services of—Julius Muli, Henry Airo, Julius Macharia, Simon Owino, Grace Wambui and Nicholas Kimenyi.

THE Kenya Engineering Workers Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and Messrs. Associated Steel Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 17th February, 1988, and relied on their written and verbal submissions.

AWARD

3. The dispute was referred to the court by the Minister for Labour in accordance with section 8 of the Trade Disputes Act, on 29th May, 1987. The court received the reference on 10th August, 1987.

The court notes that the parties' collective agreement applicable at the material time had two clauses which are relevant to this dispute namely: Redundancy and Retirement (Gratuity) Benefits respectively. The court finds that in case of retirement the gratuity clause is applicable and provides workers with only long-service payment. While in case of the redundancy the workers would be entitled to the following benefits:

- (i) One months notice or pay in lieu of notice.
- (ii) Any outstanding dues.
- (iii) Pro rata leave.
- (iv) Four (4) weeks pay for every completed year of service.
- (v) Employer is given an option to pay either any one of: redundancy; provident fund or gratuity scheme which is more advantageous to the worker".

The court finds that the old management under gratuity clause which provided workers with only long-service payment paid each one of the 24 workers in this dispute the following benefits:

- (a) Gratuity for the number of years served (eligible days).
- (b) Three months pay in lieu of notice (instead of one month).
- (c) Leave days.

After going through the redundancy clause and what the 24 workers were paid under the gratuity clause the court is satisfied that the parties' collective agreement was not violated and the workers were not financially disadvantaged in respect of the services they had rendered to the old owners as the workers continued with their existing salaries to work for the new owners. The claimants claim for redundancy benefits is accordingly rejected as the facts of the dispute do not really show any redundancy to have been declared.

However, the court finds that three (3) and not six (6) employees were unlawfully declared redundant by the new owners. The court accordingly awards that Henry Airo, Simon Owino and Nicholas Kimenyi in addition to what has already been paid to them should be paid three months salary each by way of compensation for loss of employment they have suffered.

Given in Nairobi on 7th March, 1988.
