Reuter's Telegrams.

MARCH 1ST.—De Wet and Steyn with the bulk of their own and Hertzog's Commandos, are camped on the South Bank of the Orange River, which is swollen just now.

In addition to invitations to the Colonies, India and Ceylon, Barton has cabled to Mr. Chamberlain inviting the nations to send warships to Australia on the occasion of the opening of the Federal Parliament.

Latest reports state that De Wet is still manoeuvring in the country to the Northeast of Philipstown. The Orange River is now falling. One Commando is trekking towards Colesberg. Colonel Parsons dispersed Schuper's Commando on the 27th ultimo, capturing many men and horses. The supplementary army estimates include £2,000,000, for remounts, making the total for the year £95,307,153. Army estimates of £1,250,000 include provision for 600 more men.

Sir Michael Hicks Beach announces that it is not intended to introduce the Budget early.

MARCH 5TH.—Dated London, 3rd instant. The Canadian House of Commons has adopted by 125 to 19 votes a Resolution favouring the removal of the references to Roman Catholic tenets from the Coronation oath. The Premier and Leader of the Opposition supported the resolution.

Prince Radolin the new German Ambassador to Paris has presented his credentials to President Loubet. He stated with emphasis that his mission was to knit yet closer the good relations between France and Germany. President Loubet replied with equally cordial expressions.

The Pope yesterday received the Cardinals and Prelates on the occasion of his 91st birthday. He spoke at some length on the difficulties constantly hampering the activity of the Church which only thought of the good of humanity.

Mons. Waldeck Rousseau has recovered. A great sensation has been created in Paris by a statement made by Mons. Deroulede, showing that everything was prepared to carry out a plot to seize the Government on the day of President Faure's funeral. The refusal of Deroulede at the last moment to support the Orleanist pretensions frustrated the plot. The Government was apprised of this and the Commanders and disposition of the troops were suddenly changed.

MARCH 7TH.—Dated London, 4th instant. Mr. McKinley's inaugural speech says that his fervent prayer is that any future difference between America and other powers may be settled by peaceful arbitrations without the horrors of war.

Mighty problems are confronting the American people. They cannot transfer the Government of Cuba to the inhabitants until guarantees for the permanent order, freedom and weal of the country exist. As regards the Philippines efforts to pacify the islands continue. The most liberal terms of amnesty have been communicated to the insurgents and the way is open to them for an honourable surrender.

Dated London, 5th instant. Queen Wilhelmina and her consort, made their state entry into Amsterdam on the 5th amidst the greatest enthusiasm. The streets were packed.

Count von Buelow in the Reichstag replying to criticisms on the Kaiser's visit to England declared that it was actuated by purely human and not political reasons. If it induced the people of England to desire to cultivate peaceful and friendly relations with Germany, the latter also wish to work together with England for peace on terms of complete equality. Both countries required to live in good neighbourship. He reverted in the course of his speech to Mr. Kruger's avowed attempt to force Germany to intervene in the war in South Africa.

MARCH 8TH.—Dated London 5th inst. At a debate in the House of Lords, Lord Wolseley in a carefully prepared speech, condemned the system of 1895 by which the Commander-in-Chief was robbed of control of the army and while disclaiming personalities laid the responsibility for deficiencies on the secretary of state and the political exigencies of the Government.

Dated London 6 instant. Lord Lansdowne in reply denied that the Commander-in-Chief was deprived of control and accused Lord Wolseley of not exercising his rights of supervision and failing to understand his duties.

Lord Northbrook, Chelmsford and Dunraven condemned Lord Lansdowne's attack on Lord Wolseley. Lord Rosebery deprecated personalities and suggested a secret Parliamentary Committee to enquire into the defences of the Empire.

Lord Salisbury disclaimed all intention of an attack on Lord Wolseley, but pointed out that the army is subject to Parliament and must make the best of the existing system. Lord Wolseley asked the Lords to suspend judgment and intimated his intention of replying later to Lord Lansdowne's strictures.

There was a scene in the House of Commons, owing to Mr. Balfour applying the closure to the debate. The nationalists refused to vote, and the speaker named 9 members who were suspended.

The King recommends that a memorial to Her late Majesty be erected in the neighbourhood of Westminster Abbey, or Buckingham Palace a statue of the Queen being the most prominent feature of it.

A circular issued by the West Indian Committee says that there is reason to believe that the Brussels conference will likely meet in the near future. Meanwhile the Committee have written to Mr. Chamberlain, protesting against, the idea of sugar bounties, which are rendered comparatively unimportant in view of the report of Doctor Morris.

MARCH 9TH.—Dated London, 4th instant evening. 1,500 crossed the Orange River with Steyn and De Wet. They only got 8 carts across, having abandoned five and many horses.

The King reached London.

Austria, Italy and the United States have joined in the protest to China, Russia however has intimated to China that her demands are irrevocable. It is expected that China will yield as no power is promising assistance. Japan has notified China that if any agreement is signed by which territorial and commercial advantages are granted to Russia, Japan will require an equivalent.

Dated London 7th evening. Mr. Balfour has given notice that he will move the suspension of the ejected members for the remainder of the Session.

Reuter's Agent at Wellington reports that the Government has decided to submit to a referendum, the question of New Zealand joining the Australian Commonwealth.

The Duke and Duchess of York are due to arrive at Mauritius on the 5th August and leave on the 8th.

Dated London, 8th morning. The House of Commons had an all night sitting and at 5 o'clock in the morning the debate on Mr. Balfour's motion dealing with contumacious members was still continuing.

Fourteen transports with 12,000 troops have sailed within the week.

Mr. Balfour announced that the Government had been in communication with Botha, but he was unable to make any statement at present.

The Bishop of Stepney has been appointed Bishop of London.

MARCH 11TH. The shipping trade of Marseilles is completely disorganised by strike among the dockers and coal heavers, and large steamers are leaving undischarged and unloaded.

A half witted workman at Bremen threw an iron missile at the Kaiser, cutting his cheek to the bone. His Majesty has been in bed several days in consequence.

Broderick has introduced the army estimate. It is proposed to contemplate, the ability to send abroad three army Corps with a Cavalry division altogether 120,000 men simultaneously, and at the same time, have a sufficient force at home for defence. For this purpose the country is to be divided into 6 districts, each representing one Corps Commanded by an officer, who has been in command in the war.

The Militia Reserve for the army is to be abolished and replaced by a reserve of 50,000 for the militia. The reserve is liable only for service at home making the total strength of the militia 150,000.

Two hundred 4.7 field guns have been ordered to be delivered shortly and the Yeomanry are to be made the nucleus of an Imperial Yeomanry 25,000 strong. It is trusted that the Colonies will maintain detachments under the same title. It is proposed that 12 battalions be permanently stationed in South Africa.

Lord Kitchener cables that Delarey determinedly attacked Lichtenberg and was repulsed after prolonged fighting during which the British lost 36. General French reports further enormous captures including two guns, making a total of seven.

Mr. Balfour's motion that the nine members named by the speaker be suspended for the rest of the Session, has been adopted by 265 to 51 votes.

Bruce Hamilton has issued an order thanking the troops for repelling De Wet, and urging them to fresh exertions before the enemy recovers.

France has notified Count Waldersee that she will not participate in further expeditions throughout the country unless compelled.

At Sandown on the 9th a rear guard action took place with the Boer invaders of Cape Colony. The enemy fled when two 15 pounders opened fire.

The German column has stormed the gate in the Great Wall west of Ansuling pass and took four guns.

It is stated in Peking that the Russian Minister has threatened China with coercive measures unless she signs the Manchurian agreement within the stipulated time.

MARCH 12TH. De Wet is believed to be to the West of Kroonstad intending to cross the Railway in an easterly direction.

The only Boers near Cape Colony are Kritzinger's and Scheeper's Commandoes which are pressed between Goringe's and De Lisle's columns in the Murraysburg district.

Britain has definitely rejected the amendment by the United States Senate to the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty.

Reuter's Agent at Pretoria telegraphs on Monday that the result of the negotiations with Botha is hopefully awaited.

The Abyssinians routed the mad Mullah in Haradidjet many Somalis being killed and captured. The Abyssinians also lost considerably.

Mr. Balfour announces that a joint Committee of both Houses of Parliament will be appointed to consider the revision of the King's Oath of Accession, and a Committee of the House of Commons to consider the King's Civil List.

MARCH 13TH.—Plague is developing seriously in Capetown and spreading to the better classes. An European family has been removed to the hospital.

Liverpool refiners are importing thousands of ton of Sugar from continent in anticipation of the imposition of duty on Sugar amounting to £5 per ton.

Baron Wenlock has been appointed a member of the Privy Council.

The Navy Estimates shew an increase of 2 millions which provides for 3,745 more men. Three new Battle-ships, eight Cruisers, fifteen Torpedo boats and five Holland Submarine boats are also provided for.

Balfour states that no further information is to hand regarding Botha.

MARCH 14TH.—The House of Commons have rejected by 262 to 148 votes a motion demanding an inquiry on Colville.

The Canadian Commons rejected by 144 to 3 a motion opposing the despatch of Canadian contingents and enlistment of Canadians for the Cape constabulary.

Sir Wm. H. Tate the sugar refiner in an interview stated that he believed that a tax of a half penny per pound on sugar would be imposed.

There will probably be a special meeting of the Cabinet to-day, and it is understood that important news from South Africa will be considered.

Lord Salisbury at the banquet of the Chamber of Commerce stated that he did not believe in the commercial decadence of England and advocated a more practical education. A feature of the banquet was the cordiality displayed in drinking the toast of the French Chamber of Commerce amid cries "Vive La France." Other speeches dwelt on the cordial relations between England and France.
