Reuter's Telegrams.

DECEMBER 15TH.—Parliament will reassemble on the 12th February.

Mr Brodrick speaking in the House of Commons said that the Government has no desire to minimise or conceal any reverses. As regards the disaster to the Yeomanry near Lindley, two officers have been dismissed and steps are pending against a third. Colonel Spragge was exonerated.

Louis Botha with 1,500 Boers is 20 miles from Standerton. He has called a meeting of Burghers for the 15th December.

Lord Kitchener reports from Pretoria on the 13th that, General Clements was attacked at Novitgedacht at day break that day by Commandos under Delarey and Beyers numbering 2500. The first attack was repulsed but the Boers managed to get to the top of the Magaliesberg held by 3 companies of the Northumberland Fusiliers. The Boers thus commanded the camp of General Clements, who retired to Heckpoort and occupied a position in the centre of the valley. The fighting was very severe.

DECEMBER 17TH.—General Clement's fight is as Nooitgedacht near Krugersdorp (about 20 miles to the Westward of Johannesburg): the fight was still continuing on Saturday and the casualties on both sides are heavy. It is officially announced that General Clements has retired to Commando Nek unopposed. Five officers and 9 men were killed and 18 officers and 555 men missing including four companies of the Northumberland Fusiliers.

The Boers suffered severely.

General Broadwood's force was not engaged.

General Knox drove De Wet on to the Thabanchu Ladybrand line held by our troops. De Wet with a force of 3,000 made repeated attempts to break through on the 14th. A later despatch states that De Wet lost considerably passing our Thabanchu lines, one fifteen pounder gun, some pompoms, several waggons of ammunition and 22 prisoners being captured.

General Clements reports that the Northumberlands held the hill while their ammunition lasted.

Lord Hopetown landed at Sydney yesterday and met with a great ovation from enormous crowds. His health is much improved.

Reuter's Agent at Tientsin is informed from Chinese sources that the Emperor has agreed to ten demands of the Powers including an indemnity, the abolition of the Tsungli Yamen and the posting of Foreign guards between Taku and Peking.

Parliament has passed the War loan and has been prorogued.

Lord Kitchener reports on Sunday that 5 officers and 310 of the prisoners taken at Magaliesberg have been released.

The Boers surrounded and captured 120 of Brabant's horse in a defile in the Lastron district.

Bloemfield moving on Vryheid defeated the Boers with heavy loss at Scheepers Nek.

DECEMBER 18TH.—The German training frigate "Greisenan" has sank off Malaga and forty of the crew drowned.

Lord Kitchener states that the Boer force at Magaliesberg is now divided, one portion having gone to the South, and the other to the West.

The victims in the disaster to the "Greisenan" number 100.

It has been decided to recruit in the United Kingdom a maximum of 5,000 men for the South African constabulary.

The country round Peking is in a state of anarchy, necessitating frequent pacifying expeditions. For this reason Count von Waldersee has assigned spheres to the various nationalities which have unanimously been accepted.

De Wet in breaking through the British lines thrice assaulted a position near Thabanchu, leading in person, and got through. His commandos simultaneously attacking other points on the Thabanchu line were repulsed, one losing 40 men.

Lord Roberts has reached St. Helena. He did not land there. He still carries his arm in a sling.

DECEMBER 19TH.—The Cape Government is informed that 700 Boers have entered the Colony near Aliwal North and have reached Knapdual to the North of Albert Junction (by Burghersdorp).

A number of Cape Dutch have been tried for treason at Colesberg and received sentences varying from 6 to 30 months imprisonment, and fines of £ 500.

The Boers entered Cape Colony on Saturday after crossing the Orange River; they encountered the Cape rifles and Brabant's horse who retired with loss.

It is believed that Hertzog is in Command of the Boers forces raiding in Cape Colony, but nothing more has been heard there anent.

France will restore to China every thing taken by French soldiers, excepting war materials.

DECEMBER 20TH.—It is stated that the invaders of Cape Colony are in two columns, on advancing on Philipstown and the other under Hertzog believed to be advancing on Cradock.

It is rumoured that General MacDonald is engaged 20 miles to the West of Burghersdorp and that the invaders with no guns are being slowly repelled towards the Orange River.

DECEMBER 21ST.—Lord Kitchener maintains silence as to the invasion of Cape Colony.

A portion of General Knox's force has abandoned the pursuit of De Wet for the purpose of dealing with the new situation created by the invasion.

Delarey's force is near General Clement's camp and fighting is believed to be imminent.

The revised list of casualties at Nootgedacht shews ten non-commission officers and men killed, 68 wounded and 44 missing.

The "Catalonia" has sailed from Durban for Colombo with 642 prisoners.

Lord Hopetown has asked Mr. Lyne, the Premier of the New South Wales Government, to form a Federal Ministry. Mr. Lyne is considering the offer.

The Times correspondent at Melbourne reports that Lord Hopetown's selection of Mr. Lyne has surprised and disappointed the Federalist party as Mr. Lyne was an opponent of Federation.

The Ministers in Peking have agreed upon a joint note including the modifications suggested by the British Minister.

A mixed force of 1,000 men left Cape Town, northwards on the evening of the 19th.

Lord Kitchener reports from Pretoria dated 19th instant that 500 to 800 Boers crossed the Orange River at Rhenosterbeek, an a second band near Sand Drift. The latter has been followed up.

Lord Kitchener has despatched a considerable mounted force which is getting round them.

The Boers from Rhenostershek are being closely followed.

DECEMBER 22ND.—Owing to the Boer invasion, martial law has been proclaimed in twelve additional districts of Cape Colony.

An official memorandum from Cape Town says that the invaders are divided into two forces; one, diverted from Burghersdorp is moving on Steynsburg; the other occupied Philipstown on the 19th, cut the line at Hont Kraal on 20th and captured the garrison of 20 at Ventersdorp. It was repulsed with loss at Hameefontein near Colesburg.

The British are holding in force strategic positions on the Orange River in rear of the invaders.

The Government has arranged for the immediate despatch of reinforcements of mounted men, and horses. 800 Mounted Infantry sail next week and two Cavalry Regiments will sail as soon as a transport is ready.

The recruiting of the Colonial Police to make up 10,000 men is being expedited.

DECEMBER 24TH.—General French on Wednesday routed a body of 2,500 Boers with 4 guns, presumed to be the assailants of General Clements at Thorudals, 16 miles from Krugersdorp. The Boers lost 50 killed and retreated in disorder. The British had 14 wounded.

It was stated that there is a fresh hitch concerning the note to the Chinese Government which is still unsigned but later news corrects this and states that the note has been finally signed.

The Boers occupied Britstown on the 20th. Besides the Commandoes already reported another crossed the Orange River at Zoutpansdrift to reinforce that occupying Philipstown.

The evening standard announces that Kemberley is seriously threatened.

It has transpired that the Boers know where to find the guns, ammunition and stores, which they buried before retreating across the Orange River. General Sir Frederick Carrington is going home. Heavy washouts have damaged every line leading into the invaded Zones.

Hertzog, Philip Botha, and Haatbroek command the Boer invaders.

Li Hung Chang is ill and abed and the joint note will be presented when he has recovered sufficiently.

Lord Kitchener telegraphing from Pretoria on the 22nd says he thinks the movements of the Boer forces in the Cape has been checked, our troops getting round both bodies. A column is being organised and will be despatched immediately. He is informed that the Boers have not received much assistance in Cape Colony. De Wet is in the neighbourhood of Sinetal.

DECEMBER 26TH.—The French senate has adopted the Dreyfus amnesty Bill.

The correspondent of the "Standard" at Pretoria reports that General Clements began the battle on 22nd Dec. and defeated the Boer 3,000 strong with 5 guns under Delarey, who were entrenched on a range of kopjes. The Inniskillings and the Borderers stormed the hills. General French arrived later and routed the fleeing.

The total casualties at Nootgedacht, were 56 killed and 153 wounded.

Lord Kitchener is at De Aar taking measures to crush the invasion.

Li Hung Chang hopes to accept the note to-day. It will be presented by the Spanish Minister, who will express the hope that he will urge on the Emperor the necessity for immediate compliance. An answer is expected on Thursday.

President MacKinley has forwarded the Hay-Pauncefote treaty to London, but refrains from comments. The London papers are calm but say that the treaty cannot be accepted in its amended form.

The premier of Victoria and other politicians are refusing to join the Federal Ministry except under the Premiership of Barton the leader of the opposition in the New South Wales Parliament who headed the Federation movement throughout. Mr. Lyne has declined the task of forming a Ministry and has advised Lord Hopetown to send for Barton.

A despatch from Lord Kitchener at Naanpoort states that Thornycroft's Mounted Infantry occupied Britstown unopposed yesterday. The Boers retired north in the direction of Priesca. They will be followed up.

Barton anticipates no difficulty in forming a Cabinet.

The joint note has been handed to Ching who has promised to forward same forthwith to the Emperor. He will communicate the reply as soon as received.

The Boers have done but little damage to the Railway, the interruption of traffic is due to floods. The service from Cape Town to De Aar is now resumed.

DECEMBER 27TH.—Large numbers of troops are being sent to the Cape from the North. A force with seven guns expelled the Boers from the kopjes, 11 miles North West of Steynsburg on the 18th. Four British were wounded and the Boers left several dead. They retreated to the Zuurburg mountains where it is believed they were still entrenched on the 24th. There is no prospect of their breaking through the British force.

The British occupied Steynsburg on the 19th.

Lord Kitchener has left Naanpoort northwards. By his personal energy he has to a large extent allayed the uneasiness of the loyalists and the despatch of British reinforcements has also had a good effect. The Dutch are keeping quiet and the pro-Boer papers are becoming more moderate.

It is rumoured in Cape Town that a squadron of Yeomanry pursuing some Boers outside Britstown fell into an ambuscade, and were captured.

A French column has defeated 2,500 Chinese regulars near Pao Ting Fu capturing 4 guns.

DECEMBER 28TH.—A small party of Boers attacked Burghersdorp on the 24th and were repulsed after heavy fighting. The enemy are active just now and skirmishes in several places in Cape Colony have occurred.

Lord Kitchener has issued a proclamation which notifies that Burghers surrendering voluntarily will be allowed to live in the Government Laagers with their families until the subsidence of the guerilla warfare, admits of their return to their homes.

Lord Kitchener reports from Pretoria on 27th that General Knox was engaged with De Wet who is holding a position at Leeuwkop in hopes of breaking through to the Southward again.

The eastern force of Boer invaders was headed off yesterday and driven in the direction of Venterstad and the western force is being driven to the Northward, part of it towards Priesca.

DECEMBER 29TH.—In the past few days the Boers have attacked every garrison on the communications between Standerton and Ingogo. They have been repulsed everywhere.

Large bodies of Boers with numerous waggons have crossed the border north and south of Vryburg trekking westward. It is believed they are en route to Damerelund though they deny this.

The Boers yesterday damaged the new Kleinfontein Chimes mine machinery outside Johannesburg. No details have come to hand.

Lord Roberts is at Gibraltar.
