A relief steamer brought to Fort De France 450 individuals rescued from St. Pierre and its outskirts; she is returning to search for further survivors. Eye-witnesses state that the volcano above St. Pierre suddenly exploded; a tempest of steam and mud poured immediately down on the town. This was immediately followed by a whirlwind of fire and a shower of rocks, lasting a quarter of an hour; the whole town was instantly ablaze.

After an alarming flow of lava on the 5th instant the Governor of St. Pierre appointed a Commissioner to inquire into the matter; on the 7th they presented a report which was of a reassuring character; the disaster occurred with appalling suddenness; the sea receded 30 yards; the 450 individuals rescued had taken refuge on a high point of land; they were surrounded by torrents of lava.

The American Senate have passed a bill appropriating 100,000 Dollars for the relief of the sufferers at Martinique. The Warships Cincinnati and Dixie have been ordered there.

In the second ballots in France the Socialist Minister Millerand has been elected.

There is no further news from St. Vincent; 3,000 refugees are gathered in the hills around St. Pierre and are gradually being removed.

MAY 13TH.—The "Severos," Airship made an ascent in Paris yesterday morning and exploded in the air; both aeronauts were killed. The returns in France for the second ballot show that the Ministerialists have been successful in the Provinces and have held their ground fairly well in Paris.
