THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 17 OF 1985

Parties:

Kenya Local Government Workers' Union
and
Eldoret Municipal Council

Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of Francis Omweri.

THE Kenya Local Government Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Eldoret Municipal Council shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 16th July, 2nd December, 1986, and 18th November, 1987, and relied on their verbal and written submissions. In addition, the respondents called the following witnesses to testify:

Martin Abwao.

Joshua Adao.

Naphas Mwenesi Lubanga.

The claimants did not call any witness. The dispute was also fixed for hearing previously on 22nd April, and 15th September, 1986, and again on 24th June, 1987, but the hearing did not take place on these dates at the parties' request.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 15th August, 1984, duly signed by the parties, was received by the court on 21st January, 1985, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

After careful consideration of submissions by the parties and the evidence before it, the court finds it established that, three drums and 499 litres of diesel valued at KSh. 1,749.98 got lost mysteriously from the respondents' yard. It was Mr. Omweri's duty and responsibility to ensure that goods in the respondents' store were safe and the incident on 3rd August, 1980, shows he did not discharge his duties properly. The court further notes that Mr. Omweri, through the claimants, has denied ever handling the drums and diesel but he was not called to come and testify on oath why he claims not to know anything about this matter and why he had failed to report the disappearance of the drums and diesel to the authorities.

The claimants have made a further submission that the proper procedure for termination of employment and suspension were not followed by the respondents. This argument really hinges on a technicality at best and the court has to determine if there has been a miscarriage of justice in this case. Considering all the circumstances of this dispute, the court finds that there has been no miscarriage of justice. The respondents were entitled to lose confidence in the grievant. The court notes that the grievant was paid terminal benefits amounting to KSh. 7,405.10 which included one (1) month's salary in lieu of notice. Under these circumstances, the court rejects all the demands made by the claimants on behalf of the grievant.

Given in Nairobi on the 15th December, 1987.

Judge.

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 18 OF 1985

Parties:

Kenya Local Government Workers' Union
and
Eldoret Municipal Council

Issue in dispute:

Dismissal of Japhet K. Atisa.

THE Kenya Local Government Workers' Union shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Eldoret Municipal Council shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 17th July, 1985, and 19th November, 1987, and relied on their verbal and written submissions. In addition, the following witnesses were called to testify on oath:

Respondents:

Ezekiel S. Mukoyani.

John Mulinya.

The claimants did not call any witness. The hearing was previously fixed for 19th December, 1986, and 16th February, 1987, but at the parties' request the hearing was adjourned.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 15th August, 1984, duly signed by the parties, was received by the court on 21st January, 1985, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The court has, carefully, analyzed all aspects of this dispute and the evidence before it and finds that ten (10) bags of aluminium sulphate were delivered to Highland Paper Mills Limited, on 27th November, 1980, by Mr. Atisa. It is not disputed that the respondents' vehicle registration No. KSC 159 was used in the delivery.

The court will concern itself with the issue of the alleged commission of gross misconduct by Mr. Atisa. The respondents called two witnesses who confirmed their version of the incident. The claimants did not call the grievant as a witness or any other witness to come and give evidence as to why there was no official record of the transaction kept in regard to the ten (10) bags delivered to Highlands Paper Mills Limited.

There is also the fact that Mr. Atisa was found innocent and acquitted by the criminal court.

The court has to determine under these circumstances if Mr. Atisa's termination was wrongful.

The court finds that in this dispute the respondents would have been well advised to await the outcome of the criminal case against Mr. Atisa and should have used clause 27 (suspension) of the terms and conditions of service. The respondents acted hastily in terminating his services. After suspending Mr. Atisa, the respondents should have carried out full investigations surrounding this incident. As it turned out, the criminal court found as a fact as follows:

- The manager of Highlands Paper Mills borrowed the aluminium sulphate from Mr. Atisa.
- There was an established practice of borrowing by that company and the council from each other.
- The manager intended to refund the aluminium when he got his.
- The evidence in the court against Mr. Atisa had been concocted.

It is the court's considered view that by not following the relevant rules as incorporated in the terms and conditions of service, the respondents have caused a miscarriage of justice against the grievant. There is no evidence to show that Mr. Atisa admitted having committed any act of gross misconduct or negligence at all. The respondents were wrong in assuming that they could proceed under rule 25 (d) in the absence of a clear admission of gross misconduct by Mr. Atisa.

The court finds that Mr. Atisa who had put in 19 years of satisfactory service with the respondents has suffered a wrongful dismissal.

The court, accordingly, awards that the respondents should pay Mr. Atisa five (5) months' salary by way of compensation for the wrongful termination he has suffered in addition to what they have paid him. The respondents should also arrange for him to be paid his dues under the superannuation fund in addition to refunding his own contributions in accordance with the rules of the fund dealing with the case of an employee who has been wrongfully dismissed by the respondents.

Given in Nairobi on the 15th December, 1987.

Judge.

Issue in dispute :

Underpayment of piece workers by Sh. 85 per month from 1st December, 1975 to 31st July, 1980, and by Sh. 360 per month from 1st August, 1980 to 26th October, 1982.

Claimants.—Okinyo Apindi.

Inyasi Odhiambo.

The respondents did not call any witness. Previous to this the hearing was fixed for 21st April, 1986, but as the parties did not submit their memos in time the hearing could not take place.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" dated 30th April, 1985, duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 3rd September, 1985, together with the statutory certificate signed by the Labour Commissioner.

The court notes that the claimants' demands date back to 1st December, 1975. However, on scrutinizing the list of the 25 employees who are subject to this dispute the court finds that only two, namely Mr. Okinyo Apindi and Bakari Saulo, were in employment of the respondents. The rest (about 23) of them were employed in the subsequent years and the court fails to understand how the claimants can raise a claim for these people for the years when they were not in employment.

This to say the least shows that the claimants did not give much thought to this claim—neither did they prepare their case properly despite every opportunity having been given to them by the court.

The list of the employees is as follows :

Name	Date of appointment
O. Apindi	1st December, 1975.
B. Saulo	1st December, 1975.
J. Mwendwa	1st November, 1976.

The court has also examined the supplementary agreements signed by the parties and finds that each and every agreement gave the option to the employer to either pay basic minimum wages or the rates fixed therein whichever was greater provided that the total amount earned by the piece-workers did not fall below the minimum laid down in the collective agreement. The court notes that, the Division of Manpower Planning and Development report revealed that the affected employees have no further claim to make as they were paid in accordance with the volume of work done and in line with the agreed piece rate.

The court has carefully considered the various points put forward by the parties and can find no evidence to prove that the 25 workers were underpaid. The court must say that this case was misconceived, and the court has no alternative but to reject the claimants' demand of Sh. 284,079 in total.

GAZETTE NOTICE No. 6102

THE INDUSTRIAL COURT

CAUSE No. 14 OF 1987

Parties :

Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers
and

Unga Maize Millers Limited

Issue in dispute :

Dismissal of Zadock Analo and Kefa Amara.

THE Kenya Union of Commercial Food and Allied Workers shall hereinafter be referred to as the claimants and the Unga Maize Millers Limited shall hereinafter be referred to as the respondents.

2. The parties were heard in Nairobi on 23rd November, 1987, and relied on their verbal and written submissions. In addition, the following witnesses were called to give evidence on oath.

Claimants.—Zadock Analo and Kefa Amara.

Respondents.—G. M. Kubai.

AWARD

3. The Notification of Dispute Form "A" duly signed by the parties was received by the court on 18th September, 1986, together with the statutory certificates signed by the Minister for Labour and the Labour Commissioner.

The court has carefully considered all aspects of this dispute and agrees with the Ministry's finding that, the respondents had already lost confidence and trust in the grievants bearing in mind the circumstances which led to this sad state of affairs. It had also been revealed that the grievants had worked for 9 and 13 years respectively and they both had clean records without any warning.

The evidence produced during the hearing shows that Kefa Amara was found in possession of an 80 kg. bag of maize which he claimed he had bought from a hawker in the market during the 15 minute morning tea break. The court is not prepared to believe this and on balance of probability the court finds that Kefa Amara committed a gross misconduct and deserved summary dismissal but since the respondents offered to substitute it with normal termination the court so awards—but he deserves no compensation.

As far as Mr. Analo is concerned the court has some doubt about his involvement in this transaction and has therefore decided in addition to reducing his dismissal to normal termination to award him three months salary by way of compensation and the court so awards. The claimants' demand for his reinstatement is rejected.

Given on 16th December, 1987.
