UGANDA PROTECTORATE. ORDER IN COUNCIL.

THE UGANDA ORDER IN COUNCIL, 1902.

Buckingham Palace, 11th August, 1902.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of August, 1902.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas the territories of Africa situate within the limits of this Order are under the protection of His Majesty the King, and are known as the Uganda Protectorate :

And whereas by Treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, His Majesty has power and jurisdiction within the said territories :

Now therefore, His Majesty, by virtue, and in exercise of the powers on this behalf by The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise, in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

Preliminary.

1. This Order may be cited as "The Uganda Order in Council, 1902."

The limits of this Order are the territories constituting the Uganda Protectorate, that is to say, (1) the Central Province, comprising the districts of Elgon, Karamoja, Busoga, Bukedi, and Lohor ; (2) the Rudolf Province, comprising the districts of Turkwel, Turkana, and Dabossa ; (3) the Nile Province, comprising the districts of Dodinga, Bari, and Shuli ; (4) the Western Province, comprising the districts of Unyoro, Toro, and Achole ; and (5) the Kingdom of Uganda, with the islands appertaining thereto.

The said territories are in this Order referred to as "Uganda" and "the Protectorate."

If His Majesty is pleased to direct that any other territories, for the time being under the protection of His Majesty, shall form part of the Uganda Protectorate, those territories shall, from and after a date to be fixed by an order of the Secretary of State, be deemed to be within the limits of this Order. In like manner, if His Majesty is pleased to direct that any territories for the time being forming part of the Uganda Protectorate shall cease to form part thereof, those territories shall, from and after a date to be fixed by an Order of the Secretary of State, cease to be within the limits of this Order.

2. In this Order—

"Secretary of State" means one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State ;

"Crown lands" means all public lands in Uganda which are subject to the control of His Majesty by virtue of any Treaty, Convention, or Agreement, or of His Majesty's Protectorate, and all lands which shall have been acquired by His Majesty for the public service or otherwise howsoever ;

Words importing the plural or the singular may be construed as referring to one person or thing, or to more than one person or thing, and words importing the masculine as referring to females (as the case may require).

3.—(1.) Where this Order or any Ordinance confers a power or imposes a duty, then, unless a contrary intention appears, the power may be exercised, and the duty shall be performed from time to time as occasion requires.

(2.) Where this Order or any Ordinance confers a power or imposes a duty on the holder of an office, then, unless a contrary intention appears, the power may be exercised and the duty shall be performed by the holder of the office for the time being, or by a person duly appointed to act for him.

(3.) Where this Order or any Ordinance confers a power to make rules, regulations, or orders, then, unless a contrary intention appears, the power shall be construed as including a power, exercisable in the like manner and subject to the like approval and conditions (if any) to rescind, revoke, amend, or vary the rules, regulations, or orders.

(4.) Expressions defined in this Order shall have the same respective meanings in any Ordinances, rules, or regulations made under this Order, unless a contrary intention appears.

Administration.

4.—(1.) His Majesty may by Commission under His Sign Manual and Signet appoint a fit person to administer the Government of Uganda, under the designation of Commissioner or such other designation as His Majesty thinks fit, and the person so appointed is hereinafter referred to as the Commissioner.

(2.) In the event of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence from Uganda of the Commissioner for the time being, all and every the powers and authorities by this Order granted to him shall until His Majesty's further pleasure is signified through the Secretary of State, be vested in the Deputy Commissioner or other principal officer of the Protectorate Government for the time being in Uganda.

(3.) The Commissioner shall administer the Government of Uganda in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, and shall do and execute in due manner all things that shall belong to his said command and to the trust thereby reposed in him, according to the several powers and authorities granted or appointed to him by virtue of this Order and of his Commission, and according to such instructions as may from time to time be given to him under His Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet or by Order of His Majesty in Council, or by His Majesty through the Secretary of State, and according to such laws as are or shall hereafter be in force in Uganda.

5. The Commissioner shall have an official seal, bearing the style of his office, and such device as a Secretary of State from time to time approves, and such seal shall be deemed the public seal of Uganda, and may be kept and used by the Commissioner for the sealing of all things whatsoever that shall pass the public seal. And, until a public seal shall be provided, the seal of the Commissioner may be used as the public seal.

6.—(1.) The Commissioner may, with the approval of the Secretary of State, by Proclamation, define any boundaries of the territories for the time being within the limits of this Order, and divide those territories into provinces or districts in such manner and with such sub-divisions as may be convenient for purposes of administration, describing the boundaries thereof and assigning names thereto. Under this provision the Commissioner may alter the names and divisions referred to in Article 1 of this Order.

(2.) If a question arises whether any place is or is not within the Protectorate, or within any province, and such question does not appear to be determined by any such Proclamation or other evidence, it shall be referred to the Commissioner, and a certificate under his hand and seal shall be conclusive on the question, and judicial notice shall be taken thereof.

7.—(1.) All rights of His Majesty in or in relation to any Crown lands shall vest in and may be exercised by the Commissioner for the time being in trust for His Majesty, or if the Secretary of State at any time with respect to all or any such lands by order under his hand so directs, in such other trustee or trustees for His Majesty as the Secretary of State may appoint.

(2.) The Secretary of State may, when he thinks fit, by a like order remove any trustee so appointed, and may appoint any new or additional trustee or trustees.

(3.) The Commissioner, or such other trustee or trustees, may make grants or leases of any Crown lands, or may permit them to be temporarily occupied, on such terms and conditions as he or they may think fit, subject to the provisions of any Ordinance.

(4.) All mines and minerals being in, under, or upon any lands in the occupation of any native tribe, or any members thereof, or of any person not possessed of the right to work such mines and minerals, shall vest in the Commissioner, or such trustee or trustees, in like manner as the mines and minerals being in, under, or upon any Crown lands.

8. The Commissioner may, as he shall see occasion, in His Majesty's name and on His Majesty's behalf, grant to any offender convicted of any offence in any Court in Uganda, a free and unconditional pardon, or a pardon subject to such conditions as may be lawfully thereunto annexed, or remit or commute any sentence in whole or in part.

9. The Commissioner, on the behalf, remit any sentence on the Majesty.

10.—(1.) A Secretary of State, may, on the behalf of Uganda, under the authority of the Secretary of State, exercise of his office, have effect only in the Commissioner.

(2.) The Commissioner, exercise of his office, have effect only in the Commissioner.

(3.) Subject to the authority of the Secretary of State, authorize Heads of office, be required; and, the respective office.

11. All Ordinances, rules, or regulations made under this Order, shall be published in the Gazette, and shall be direct in the case of the Commissioner.

12.—(1.) The Commissioner, raising of revenue, in the name of Uganda.

(2.) The Commissioner, raising of revenue, in the name of Uganda.

(3.) The Commissioner, raising of revenue, in the name of Uganda.

(4.) The Commissioner, raising of revenue, in the name of Uganda.

(27.) The Commissioner, raising of revenue, in the name of Uganda.

(28.) The Commissioner, raising of revenue, in the name of Uganda.

(29.) The Commissioner, raising of revenue, in the name of Uganda.

9. The Commissioner may, as he shall see occasion, in His Majesty's name and on His behalf, remit any fines, penalties, or forfeitures which may accrue or become payable to His Majesty.

10.—(1.) A Secretary of State, or the Commissioner, subject to the directions of a Secretary of State, may, on behalf of His Majesty, appoint such public officers for the administration of Uganda, under such designations as he may think fit, and may prescribe their duties.

(2.) The Commissioner may, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, suspend from the exercise of his office in Uganda any such public officer, which suspension shall continue and have effect only until His Majesty's pleasure therein shall be made known and signified to the Commissioner.

(3.) Subject to the provisions of any Ordinance, the Commissioner may appoint, or authorize Heads of Departments to appoint, such clerks and other subordinate officers as may be required; and, unless other provision is made, all subordinate officers shall be removable by the respective officers by whom they were appointed.

11. All Ordinances, Proclamations, Regulations, Rules, or other public notifications shall be published in the Gazette, and also in such other manner, if any, as the Commissioner may direct in the case of any particular notification.

Legislation.

12.—(1.) The Commissioner may make Ordinances for the administration of justice, the raising of revenue, and generally for the peace, order, and good government of all persons in Uganda.

(2.) The Commissioner shall observe any general or special instructions of the Secretary of State with respect to the previous submission to the Secretary of State of draft Ordinances, to the making of Ordinances for particular purposes, to the amendment of Ordinances or draft Ordinances, and to other matters in relation thereto; but nothing in this provision shall affect the validity of any Ordinance.

(3.) In making Ordinances, the Commissioner shall respect existing native laws and customs except so far as the same may be opposed to justice or morality.

(4.) The Commissioner shall sign every Ordinance made by him, and shall at the first available opportunity transmit an authenticated copy thereof to the Secretary of State.

(5.) The Secretary of State may disallow any Ordinance, wholly or in part, and upon such disallowance being publicly notified in the Gazette, the provisions so disallowed shall thereupon cease to have effect, but without prejudice to anything lawfully done or suffered thereunder.

(6.) The Ordinances of each year shall be numbered consecutively, and each may be cited by its number and year, or by its short title, if any.

(7.) Where a date for the commencement of an Ordinance is not fixed in the Ordinance, it shall come into force on the day on which it is promulgated by the Commissioner.

(8.) An Ordinance may apply to Uganda any Act or law of the United Kingdom, or of any legislature of India, or of any Colony, subject to any exceptions and modifications.

(9.) The Commissioner shall, at the first available opportunity after any such rules or regulations are made under the provisions of any Ordinance, transmit an authenticated copy thereof to the Secretary of State.

(10.) An Ordinance shall not be repealable by any rules or regulations made under an Ordinance.

(11.) An Ordinance varying or affecting any Order in Council relating to the Protectorate, which is not repealed by this Order, shall not come into force unless it has been previously approved by the Secretary of State, and such approval shall be recited therein.

Application of Law.

13. The enactments described in the First Schedule to The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1900, shall apply to Uganda as if it were a British Colony or possession, but subject to the provisions of this Order, and to the exceptions, adaptations, and modifications following, that is to say:—

(i.) The Commissioner is hereby substituted for the Governor of a Colony or British possession, and the High Court is hereby substituted for a Superior Court or Supreme Court, and for a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace of a Colony or British possession.

(ii.) For the portions of the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 and 1867, referred to in the First Schedule, shall be substituted Part XIII of The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894.

(iii.) In Section 51 of the Conveyancing (Scotland) Act, 1874, and any enactment for the time being in force amending the same, the High Court is substituted for a Court of Probate in a Colony.

(iv.) With respect to the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881,—

(a.) So much of the 4th and 5th sections of the said Act as relates to sending a report of the issue of a warrant, together with the information, or a copy thereof, or to the sending of a certificate of committal and report of a case, or to the information to be given by a Magistrate of a fugitive, shall be excepted, and in lieu of such information the person acting as the Magistrate shall inform the fugitive that in the British possession or Protectorate to which he may be conveyed he has the right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus or other like process.

(b.) So much of the 6th section of the said Act as requires the expiration of fifteen days before issue of warrant, shall be excepted.

(c.) The Commissioner shall not be bound to return a fugitive offender to a British possession unless satisfied that the proceedings to obtain his return are taken with the consent of the Governor of that possession.

(d.) For the purposes of Part II of the said Act, Uganda, Zanzibar, the East Africa Protectorate, and all British possessions and Protectorates in Africa south of the Equator shall be deemed to be one group of British possessions.

14. Where, under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, or any amending Act, anything is authorized to be done by, to, or before a British Consular officer, such thing may be done in any place in Uganda, at which there is no Consular officer, by such officer of the Protectorate as the Commissioner may appoint.

Courts of Justice.

15.—(1.) There shall be a Court of Record styled "His Majesty's High Court of Uganda" (in this Order referred to as "the High Court"), with full jurisdiction, civil and criminal, over all persons and over all matters in Uganda.

(2.) Such civil and criminal jurisdiction shall, so far as circumstances admit, be exercised in conformity with the Civil Procedure, Criminal Procedure, and Penal Codes of India, except so far as may be otherwise provided by law.

(3.) The High Court shall sit at such place or places as the Commissioner may appoint.

(4.) The High Court shall have a seal bearing the style of the Court and a device approved by the Secretary of State; but until such a seal is provided, a stamp bearing the words "High Court of Uganda" may be used instead thereof.

16.—(1.) The High Court shall be a court of Admiralty, and shall exercise Admiralty jurisdiction in all matters arising upon any lake or other navigable inland waters or otherwise relating to ships and shipping.

(2.) The following enactments of the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890, that is to say, section 2, sub-sections (2) to (4), sections 5 and 6, section 16, sub-section (3), shall apply to the High Court as if in the said sections the said Court were mentioned in lieu of a Colonial Court of Admiralty, and the Protectorate were referred to in lieu of a British possession.

(3.) Admiralty jurisdiction may be conferred by Ordinance on any Court subordinate to the High Court.

(4.) Any Ordinance varying or affecting the Admiralty jurisdiction of any Court or conferring Admiralty jurisdiction on any Court shall not come into force unless it has been previously approved by the Secretary of State, and such approval shall be recited therein.

17.—(1.) There shall be as many judges of the High Court as may from time to time be required.

(2.) Every judge shall be appointed by His Majesty and shall hold office during pleasure.

(3.) When there are more judges than one, the principal judge shall have such distinguishing title as the Secretary of State may approve.

(4.) In any case of death, illness, or absence, or in any other emergency, the Commissioner may appoint an acting judge.

18.—(1.) Courts subordinate to the High Court and Courts of special jurisdiction may be constituted by or under the provisions of any Ordinance as occasion requires.

(2.) Provision may be made by Ordinance for the hearing and determining of appeals from any such Court by the High Court or otherwise.

19. Article 10 of this Order shall apply to the appointment of all judges and magistrates (other than judges of the High Court), and to registrars, and other principal officers of the High Court, in like manner as it applies to public officers; and the provisions of that Article relating to clerks and subordinate officers shall apply to all Courts.

20. In all cases, civil and criminal, to which natives are parties, every Court (a) shall be guided by native law so far as it is applicable and is not repugnant to justice and morality or inconsistent with any Order in Council or Ordinance, or any regulation or rule made under any Order in Council or Ordinance; and (b) shall decide all such cases according to substantial justice without undue regard to technicalities of procedure and without undue delay.

21. If any sentence of death is pronounced by the High Court, a copy of the evidence shall be transmitted to the Commissioner, and the sentence shall not be carried into effect until confirmed by him.

22.—(1.) Subject to the provisions of any Ordinance, the High Court may, with the approval of the Commissioner, make rules for regulating the practice and procedure of the High Court and of all other Courts which may be established in Uganda.

(2.) The power to make rules under this Article shall include (a) a power to fix fees and scales of remuneration, and (b) a power to regulate the conditions on which persons may be admitted to practice as advocates or solicitors in the Courts of Uganda.

(3.) At the first available opportunity after any such rules are made, the Commissioner shall transmit an authenticated copy thereof to the Secretary of State.

(2.) This Article shall not operate in bar of any proceeding against the Commissioner in his official capacity, where it is sought to establish any liability of the Government of the Protectorate.

Removal and Deportation.

24. Where an offender convicted before any Court is sentenced to imprisonment, and the Commissioner, proceeding under section 7 of The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, authority in that behalf being hereby given to him, considers it expedient that the sentence should be carried into effect outside of the Protectorate, the place shall be a place in some part of His Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, the Government whereof consents that offenders may be sent thither under this Article.

25.—(1.) Where it is shown by evidence on oath to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, that any person is conducting himself so as to be dangerous to peace and good order in Uganda, is endeavouring to excite enmity between the people of the Protectorate and His Majesty, is intriguing against His Majesty's power and authority in the Protectorate, the Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, by order under his hand and official seal, order that person to be deported from the Protectorate to such place as the Commissioner may direct.

(2.) The place shall be a place in some part (if any) of His Majesty's dominions to which the person belongs, or the Government of which consents to the reception of persons deported under this Order, or to some place under the protection of His Majesty.

(3.) An appeal shall not lie against an order of deportation made under this Order.

(4.) If any person deported under this Order returns to the Protectorate without the permission in writing of the Secretary of State (which permission the Secretary of State may give), he shall be deemed guilty of an offence, and liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for any period not exceeding three months, with or without a fine, not exceeding 500 rupees; and he shall also be liable to be forthwith again deported.

(5.) The Commissioner, by order under his hand and official seal, may vary or rescind any order of deportation under this Article.

(6.) The Commissioner shall forthwith report to the Secretary of State every order made by him under this Article, and the grounds thereof, and the proceedings thereunder.

26.—(1.) Where, under this Order, a person is to be removed, or deported from the Protectorate, he shall, by warrant of the Commissioner under his hand and seal, be detained, if necessary, in custody or in prison, until a fit opportunity for his removal or deportation occurs, and then, if he is to be deported beyond sea, be conveyed through the East Africa Protectorate and put on board one of His Majesty's vessels of war, or, if none is available, then on board some other British or other fit vessel.

(2.) The warrant of the Commissioner shall be sufficient authority to the person to whom it is directed or delivered for execution and to the Commander or master of the vessel to receive and detain the person therein named, in the manner therein prescribed, and to remove and carry him to the place therein named, according to the warrant.

(3.) In case of removal for any purpose other than deportation, the warrant of the Commissioner shall be issued in duplicate, and the person executing it shall, as soon as practicable after his arrival at the place therein named, deliver, according to the warrant, with one of the duplicates of the warrant, to a constable, or proper officer of police or keeper of a prison, or other proper authority or person there, the person named in the warrant, to be produced on the order of the proper Court or authority there, or to be otherwise dealt with according to law.

27. Subject to the other provisions of this Order, all expenses of removal of prisoners and officers, and the expenses of deportation, and of the sending of any person to any part of His Majesty's dominions or Protectorates, including expenses of maintenance, shall be defrayed in such manner as the Secretary of State directs.

Supplementary.

28. On the commencement of this Order, the following Orders in Council, in this Order referred to as the Africa Orders, shall cease to apply to Uganda, that is to say:—

The Africa Order in Council, 1889.

The Africa Order in Council, 1892.

The Africa Order in Council, 1893.

The Africa (Acquisition of Lands) Order in Council, 1898, and

The Africa Protectorates (Capital Sentences) Order in Council, 1898.

Provided as follows:—

(1.) Where other provision is not made by Ordinance, any law practice or procedure established by or under the Africa Orders, and not superseded by this Order, shall remain in force until such other provision is made.

(2.) Every appointment of a Judge or other officer and court established and existing at the commencement of this Order shall, until other provision is made, continue to be as if the Order had not been passed.

(3.) All legal proceedings begun under the Africa Orders and pending at the commencement of this Order shall be continued as if this Order had not been passed.

(4.) All regulations and rules made under the Africa Orders shall remain in force unless otherwise provided by Ordinance.

29. This Order shall commence and have effect as follows:—

(1.) As to the making of any warrant or appointment, the framing of Ordinances and Rules of Procedure, the issue of instructions, and as to any other provisions necessary for bringing this Order into effect, immediately from and after the date of this Order.

(2.) As to all other matters and provisions comprised and contained in this Order, immediately after this Order is first published in the Gazette, and the time of such publication shall be deemed to be the time of the commencement of this Order.

And the Most Honourable the Marquess of Lansdowne, K.G., one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

A. W. FitzRoy.

(Extract from the London Gazette of Friday, August 15, 1902.)

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby drawn to Section 6 of the Wakf Commissioner's Regulations, published in the "Official Gazette" of September 15th 1900, which reads as follows:—

"The Commissioners shall keep a register of all Wakf property, and every trustee of Wakf is hereby required to register the same with the Commissioners within two months from the application of these regulations to any portion of the East Africa Protectorate in which Wakf is to take effect, for which registration a fee of one rupee will be charged, and he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 1,000 rupees for failure to comply with this requirement."

Trustees and others holding Wakf documents are hereby informed that they must produce same at the Offices of the Wakf Commission, Vasco da Gama Street, for registration within 30 days from date.

After the expiry of this notice, a penalty will be exacted in the case of all Wakfs not submitted for registration.

OCTOBER 3RD.—At the annual meeting of the Canadian Pacific Railway Shareholders the Directors have been empowered to arrange for a Transatlantic steam-ship service irrespective of whether the Company will obtain from Government a subsidy to carry mails.
The display of Turkish force is likely to overawe the rebels in Macedonia. The Governor of Monastir reports he has dispersed three bands.
The sentences passed on Mr. Reddy M.P. and Mr. Haerland Burke M.P. mentioned in Reuters 27th ult. have been revised on appeal. The former has to undergo 2 months imprisonment without hard labour and an additional month should he fail to obtain sureties for his good behaviour. The sentence on the latter has been reduced to 1 month. Military posts are being established in the disturbed districts of Ireland.

OCTOBER 4TH.—The Cape Assembly have adopted a motion to appoint a select Committee to enquire into action of the Bond in connection with the war.

There is a general stir in political circles in view of the approaching session. The Non-Conformist opposition to the Educational Bill is growing and is extending even to sections of the Unionist Party. Mr. Chamberlain preside at a private conference at Birmingham of the Unionists on Thursday to discuss the subject.

OCTOBER 6TH.—At a meeting held on Friday of the Macedonian Committee in Sofia, it was announced that both Monastir and Kastorio were in revolt.

Mr. Brodrick speaking at Farnham defended the War Office against recent criticisms and stated that the War Office has not met with the tremendous strain during the war with ill success, and challenged Sir Michael Hicks Beach to prove his assertion that the War Office was subject to outside influence.

Yielding to Madame Zola's entreaties M. Dreyfus will not attend the funeral of the late M. Zola in order to avoid a disturbance.

M. Morton M.P. for Devonport is dead.

20,000 coal miners have struck work at Pas-de-Calais. The strike is spreading troops being despatched and the gendarmes are being reinforced.

Russian detectives have gone to Copenhagen in order to protect the Dowager Tsaritsa owing to the reports of a conspiracy by Italian Anarchists against her.

Subject to certain restrictions Martial Law has been repealed in Natal.

The Morgan Trust have arranged to purchase in England 50,000 tons of best domestic coal for immediate shipment to the United States in vessels flying the American Colours. This purchase is made to relieve the suffering in America owing to the strike.

The Dominion Company of Canada are also sending to the States 100,000 tons.

The funeral of the late M. Zola took place yesterday afternoon at Montmartre and was witnessed by an enormous and orderly crowd. The Minister of Education represented the French Government and delivered an oration at the grave. M. Dreyfus was present but passed unnoticed.

OCTOBER 7TH.—Forty one Boers chiefly Cape Colonists have been arrested at Durban on a charge of high treason. They had just returned from Ceylon.

A meeting of 2,000 individuals was held at Johannesburg and adopted a resolution to form a Political Association to represent the views of the population.

The Duke of Connaught presented medals to the Scotch Guards at Windsor yesterday. In a speech he said that his heart filled with pride when he reflected on the splendid record of the Battalions.

The third battalions of the Grenadiers arrived at Southampton yesterday morning and received a special message of welcome from His Majesty.

The American Admiral Casey has refused to allow Colombian troops and war material to be transported across the Isthmus by rail without the special permission of the President. Colombia has strongly protested against this act as violating all principles of morality and rights of sovereignty.

OCTOBER 8TH.—Reuters Agent at Yokohama states that it is reported the Minister of Marine has decided on a scheme for Naval expansion embracing the construction of 130,000 tons of shipping extending over a period of five years and involving an annual expenditure of twenty million yen. It is proposed to build 4 Battleships, 6 Cruiser class Cruisers, and various smaller craft. The Battleships are to be built in England and the Cruisers in England, France, and Germany, and the remainder in Japan.

The new Pacific Cable has been laid. Its total length is 3,455 miles.

A treaty between France and Siam has been signed in Paris by which the latter cedes the provinces of Melou and Barsao also the territory on the great lake between the Rivers Rolnas and Piek Kompong. France in return evacuates Chantaboon.

OCTOBER 9TH.—Brig-General W. H. Manning proceeded to Marseilles yesterday for a tour of inspection of garrisons in Somaliland, Central Africa, East Africa and Uganda. He returns to England via the Nile in June.

President Roosevelt has offered to appoint a commission to investigate the dispute between the Miners and Mine Owners provided the President of the Union secures the immediate resumption of work.

36,000 Miners are now on strike at Pas-de-Calais.

It is semi-officially announced in the "Norddeutsche" that the Kaiser on the 18th September intimated to Boer Generals that he was prepared to receive them provided they refrained from attempting any anti-British action in Germany, also that the introduction must be arranged through the British Embassy. At first the Generals agreed to this, but on the 6th October they intimated to the German Government that they had changed their minds, that they objected to asking an audience with the Kaiser but desired to be summoned to his presence. On this the Kaiser at once decided not to receive them.

The National Committee of French Miners have declared a general strike through France to commence tomorrow.

Manchuria south of the Liao River was restored to China yesterday.

OCTOBER 10TH.—The Commission appointed at Melbourne to enquire into the case of the transport "Dun Grange" has found that the vessel was unduly over-crowded and that the Medical stores were quite inadequate. The Commission declares that the authorities at Durban are chiefly responsible in the matter.

The British Newspapers approve of the decision come to by the Kaiser regarding the Boer Generals which in their opinion prevents the Anglophobes in Germany from venting their disappointment and throwing the odium on British policy.

Mr. Mitchell has rejected Mr. Roosevelt's offer mentioned in Reuters of the 9th instant.

70,000 out of 120,000 French Miners have already obeyed the strike order.

The Berlin Press is extremely disgusted with the Boer Generals with regard to their action in connection with the wished for audience with the Kaiser.

OCTOBER 11TH.—At an Unionist Conference with regard to the Educational Bill at Birmingham, Mr. Chamberlain, who presided stated, that the Government would not withdraw the Bill, as if they did their credit would suffer so much that they would no longer be worthy to represent the nation. Should the Bill be defeated which he did not think likely, Government would at once resign.
